Brief Local Items

The fire-lighting days have come.—September, frosts may now be expected.

—Huy Acton waterworks debentures and keep all money at home.

—Fall Fair weather is now certainly hoped for in many quarters.

—Better than ever was the general verdict as to the excellence of the fair.

—Mr. D. A. Henderson is shipping produce to Niagara Falls by car-load.

—An impressive baptismal service was held in the Melville Church last Sunday morning.

—Thus far the farmers have had almost ideal weather for fall ploughing and threshing.

—Saturday night's cold dip frosted the tender vines and many of the flowers and plants.

—One of the greatest blessings of the present season is the abundant crop of good potatoes.

—Pretty soon the pretty girls will be putting away their furs and getting out their winter clothes.

—Oakville's memorial to fallen soldiers has been ordered from the "Memorial" Co., Toronto, to cost $3,500.

—Mr. J. H. Hale, of Erin, stated the largest potet yet received in the Free Press collection on Saturday. It weighed 3 lbs. 14 oz.

—The turnip buyers have commenced the season's operations. The prices are too low yet to induce many to deliver their ruta-bages.

—A branch of a Cuthbert raspberry bush bearing a dozen ripe berries was a novelty. Mrs. Peter Hills found in her garden the other day.

—Mr. Barker, of Toronto, preached in the Baptist Church on Sunday. Steve McJohn had not yet fully recovered from his recent illness.

—The Action Farmers' Club shipped a car of wheat to the Goldie Milling Co., Guelph, for which the farmers received $3.42 per bushel yesterday.

—The elevator and about 2,000 bushels of grain at Cheltenham were destroyed by fire on Sunday. A railway engine is supposed to have started the fire.

The body of the man killed on the Toronto-Hamilton railway last summer was interred in Elgin Cemetery last week. He had not been identified.

The price being paid for turnips at the opening of the season this year is lower than last year. The ruling price is 20¢. The crop and quality are both excellent.
