Brief Local Items

—Armistice Day.—
—Honor roll at 140 in Toronto yesterday.

—Get your storm doors and windows up now.

—Did you celebrate "Guy" Fawkes Day last Friday?

—November so far has given a fair portion of sunshine.

—The soldiers' monument here is to be unveiled Saturday.

—Pumpkins in full bloom were picked in Acton gardens during the week.

—The Guelph News-Record subscription price is now $2.00 per year.

—Yes, some of the weather during the week would pass for Indian summer.

—Now clean up the leaves. "Twill be easier doing it now than next spring."

—Sunshine and rain; frost and snow, have been as frequent this month as in April.

—Acton has several very worthy claimants to the "Mother" pension.

—Now that the price of sugar is coming down the price of candy and cakes are following suit.

—Burlington doesn't like it because it is the only town in the county not mentioned in the Mother's Pension Allowance Board.

—The annual school concert will be given in the town hall on Wednesday December 1. Particulars of the event will be published later.

—Guelph's former mayors have been invited from the city hall square to positions on each side of the entrance to the armories.

—The Reformer wants Dr. Anderson, M.A., to get after the increased traffic taxes and the Board of Commerce's sugar ban.

—Shelburne is to have a hospital. A company has been formed. The capital is placed at $40,000, divided into one thousand shares.

—Miss Anna Day, daughter of the late T. J. Day, of Guelph, Division Court Clerk for many years, has been appointed to succeed her father.

—Mr. T. E. Gibbons has purchased out the latest model of repairing machine and now has his new installed to drive it in a few days.

—Your centre per week for a local newspaper, devoted exclusively to the community and people for whom it is established, is very readable.

—The annual report of the Children's Aid Society at Milton last Thursday was received too late for this issue. It will appear next week.

—Adam Algeo had the misfortune of getting his left arm in the belt of a horse overreaching in harness. The arm was fractured at the wrist.

—There are still numerous empty coal bins in the Glen. Why is it you can't get any out at Acton, Naval or Brampton and none at Georgetown? Herald.

—Rev. Wm. Burt, rector of St. George's Church, Georgetown, has been appointed to Niagara Falls South. He departed from Georgetown will be regretted.

—Mr. Fred Denay's big 16 pound turnip has been excelled by one grown by Mr. Wm. Frank, Nassagaweya, formerly of Acton, which weighs over twenty pounds.

—Two farmers were prosecuted at Wingham for selling wood short weight. One of the offenders had to pay back 100 dollars to a widow whom he had cheated.

—"Come little leaves," said the wind one day, "come o'er the gardens with me and play, put on your dresses of red and gold, summer is gone and the days are cold."

—Owing to the possibility of the official programmes of the unveiling being exhausted we give on our first page this order of service as arranged for the ceremony.

—Times do change. Last week permission was given for the first time for students to smoke within the sacred precincts of Knox College—Guelph.

—A small committee was constituted last week. Their dress bears the name of Gladys Linhan should have appeared instead of that of Vera Massey, in the Senior First department.

LADIES, THESE ARE RARE BARGAINS AND WELL WORTH YOUR CONSIDERATION

Nellie M. Stockford
ACTON GUELPH ELORA

WITH US
WHY WE'RE the ones that offered price reductions in Guelph and now we consider lower prices an established fact.
WE'VE sellers lead the trade till at the rear of the procession, even if we are accused of "rampant originality." We decided to stop berating that the public were sick of high prices and without consulting anyone, decided to do away with them.
BIG PRICE-LOWERING SALE and sell our heavy stock of the HIGH-GRADE CLOTHING for less than we ever did before. We make any difference we could hold our stock at the regular prices, they were always below those figures. But people expect less and we're seeing to it that you're getting them. We want you to feel that we're with you in our campaign for lower prices.

THE CLOTHING business is getting to the BOOM! WOW! A good house-cleaning is going to make business better and conditions better for all of us... Every merchant has a right to do what he wants to. The public won't rise to an artificial "ny." They haven't seen prices so low as reduced prices or values by 50% for long, that they are simply swallowing hook, line and sinker.

THE greatest CLOTHING VALUES ever offered to the public.

SPRING

The members of the Women's Institute have arranged a splendid concert and entertainment, which will be held in the Guelph school house, and the following splendid talent will provide the programme: Mrs. Stouts' soloist, of Guelph; Misses, Alice, Ethel, and Marion, of Nassagaweya; Mr. McElroy, humorist; a good orchestra, and local talent. Many attractive boxes of refreshments may be expected from the ladies. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. French, President, and Miss Bertha McCutcheon, Secretary, have the event in hand and this fact is an assurance that it will be successful.

GLENWILLIAMS
Rev. Mr. Burt preached his farewell sermon at St. Albans last Sunday. After his removal, as his health did not improve, he again, with his family, went to Niagara Falls. His wife, Mrs. Burt, accompanied him.

A memorial service and unveiling of a tablet will be held in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening, November 22. Returning soldiers are invited to attend.

Drunks continue to parade the streets here. The supply of booze was exhausted in the last week and the following fracas on the street when the Orange ball was in progress. Someone is working for an expensive fall-out, I suppose.
