WHAT THEY SAY

"A great many people refer all the decisions of their lives to this question, 'What will they say?' They are held back from attempting ambitious things because of the conviction that their acquaintances will pronounce them foolish to try. They refuse to ally themselves with the conduct in which they believe because they are afraid someone will call them foolish."

DRUG ADDICTION DECLINES UNDER PROHIBITION

Drug addiction has been on the increase on this continent, especially for the last five years. In 1914, the United States passed drastic laws against the trade in these drugs with the result that nearly the whole trade was diverted to Canada.

AFRAID OF OVERWORK

The people who are all the time troubled by fear of overworking may claim that anxiety from their minds. If they take the right kind of sleep which they have a right, if they take time to get three meals a day in a leisurely fashion, and time for outdoor exercise, they will find it hard to overwork in the hours remaining.

BOTH CURIOUS

"How did Blank lose the fingers of his right hand?"
"Put them in the horse's mouth to see how many teeth he had."
"And then what happened?"
"The horse closed his mouth to see how many fingers Blank had."—Tit-Bits.
