The Western wheat crop is estimated at Winnipog as follows: Crop, 225,000,000 bushels; shipped, 130, 000,000 bushels; for seed and food, 35,000,000 bushels; country mills, 35,000,000 bushels; remaining to market, 35,000,000 bushels; of which only 20,000,000 Bushels can go for export.

At the ripe old age of ninety-four Mrs. Corson, widow of the late H. R. Corson, who published the Markham Economist for many years, passed away on Saturday. Her husband, purchased the Economist from her brother, Hon. David Reesor, when he entered the Legislative Council of Canada, about 1860. Her only surviving son, R. J. Corson, still published the paper.

With the waterworks plant so near to Fairview Cemetery it is very desirable that water connection be made with this benutiful place. Many owning plots have always beautified them with plants and flowers. The lack of water has, however, been seriously felt. If water is made freely accessable many more people will be induced to plant flowers and the cemetery will be further enhanced.

West Peterboro bye-election will surely have some snap in it with five candidates running. The five who express their determination to have their names go before the convention are: Jas. C. Campbell, U. F. O. candidate; R. Denne, the Meighen-Government's candidate; Thos. 'McMurray,' Labor's choice; J H Burnham, Independent Conservative, and likely...Mr G. N Gordon, Liberal choice. The nominations are on January 25 and polling two weeks later.
