Two years have passed since that sad day,
God called our darling Elsie away;
Forgo her life, we never will,
As years roll on we love her still;
We think of our dear Elsie,
And our hearts are sad with pain;
Oh earth wouldst thou be heaven,
Could we hear her voice again.

ACTON HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

A Successful Year with 174 Members Enrolled

The annual meeting of Acton Horticultural Society was held on Friday evening of last week in the Council Chamber.

Mr. E. M. McLaughlin, Secretary-treasurer, presented a very satisfactory report of the year's operations.

The society had 174 paid-up members, and a small balance of cash in the treasury.

During the season of 1920 each member received the Canadian Horticulturist, a supply of sweet peas and nasturtium seed early in the spring, six boxes of bedding plants in early summer and eight bulbs in the fall.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—E. J. Gargle.
First Vice—Mrs. H. P. Moore.
Second Vice—Mrs. Archie McGeorge.
Directors—W. V. Collier, Frank Kennedy, G. H. Brown, H. Maslow, N. F. Moore, Miss L. Gray, H. Hinchburn, Mrs. Frank Kenney, Henry Bauer.

Secretary-treasurer—E. M. McLaughlin.
Asst. Secretary—E. T. Theford.

The prospects are good for generous distributions during the season of 1921. No other influence is doing more to beautify the homes and home surroundings of Acton than this society.

MIGHT GET A MOUTHFUL

Since her husband had become a Government contractor, Mrs. Newton has put on an air of style. Recently she gave an "at home" and thought to impress her guests by having the gardeners in to hand round the food.

Her managed fairly well, except for the fact that the cook on the doorman's lady and treading on the victrola's set corn.

But he got tired of offering the thin bread and thinner butter to the old lady who seemed like making a meal of it to play two chess games together, man, though you'd get a mouthful.

LIFE AND DEATH

A minister, who guarded his morning study hour very carefully, told the news that in no circumstance were callers to be admitted—except of course, he added, in a case of life and death.

Half an hour later the maid knocked at his door.
"A gentleman to see you, sir."
"Why, I thought I told you—"
"Yes, I told him," she replied, "but he says it's a question of life and death."
So he went downstairs—and found an insurance agent.

HOPELESS CASE

The keeper of the insane asylum had taken his patients out for a walk when they ran across a pedestrian leaning perplexedly at the railroad tracks.

"Can you tell me where this railroad goes?" he asked.

"You'd better come along quietly back inside with us," answered one of the doctors, "because that fellow does not go anywhere. They just keep it there to run trains on."

Grand Carnival

The Management of the Acton rink is pleased to announce that there will be a Grand Fancy Dress Masked Carnival

Saturday, January 29

In the New Rink, in connection with which there is one of the finest club houses and cafe/terrazas in western Ontario.

The Rink has lately been completed and those in charge are anxious to extend a cordial welcome not only to the people of Acton, but to all their friends in the surrounding towns and country, in order to give all an opportunity to enjoy themselves. They are holding this carnival with this view in mind and hope to make it the mammoth event of the season.

Keep that date open, therefore, and get busy now making your costumes, as the prizes will make your efforts worth while.

Those who do not skate are invited to come in a fancy dress and may win a prize in the mammoth dance (rubbers may be worn).

It is essential that every person wear a small mask, with the exception of spectators who are not skating.

The chances are that some may be invited to what to wear. The following are a few suggestions for the ladies: A Red Cross Nurse; a Hospital Nurse; any National costume; a Winter Sport costume; etc.

For the Gentlemen: A Chef, Charles Chaplin, Haywood, Soldier, Mailer, dressed as a woman, tramp, clown, negro, American, basketball, etc.

The Carnival cannot be successful without your help, so show your appreciation by coming.

BELOW YOU WILL FIND A LIST OF EVENTS.

1. Grand Parade (starting individually) last Friday evening. The lady's costume, 1st and 2nd prizes. Most Gent's costume, 1st and 2nd prizes.
