THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1921

Brief Local Items

—Yesterday was Ash Wednesday.
—The Lenten season opened yesterday.
—Very few days of sleighing so far this season.
—The ground is well covered with snow again.
—Quite a lot of wood is being teamed into town.
—February has already given some very mild weather.
—These are the days of the seed catalogue. Received yours yet?
—Better get in your stock of ice now; an early spring is prophesied.
—The new express schedule, with the increased rates, went into effect yesterday.
—Tuesday of this week was the first Tuesday with moderate weather since New Year.

—The last outdoor party in St. Joseph's hall for the season was held on Tuesday evening.
—Hogar makers are getting utensils in shape for the spring run of maple sap and the syrup season.
—There was quite a parade of teams delivering turkeys to the shippers at the G. T. L. station on Monday.
—The G. W. V. A. Auxiliary will hold a St. Valentine's Day party in the town hall next Monday evening.
—Quite a few of the lannery workers are cutting fire wood on the neighboring farms while the tanneries are shut down.

—Those new cutters and sleighs have not seen much service this winter. The owners would like a week or two sleighing at least.
—The tanneries have closed for a week or so. This is the first time for years. It is expected they will reopen very shortly.
—Applied for your new motor license and numbers yet? Remember new license are necessary too, if you've had only the plain glass ones.
—Now that the big steel tank at the reservoir has been put into permanent commission the waterworks pressure is all that could be desired.

—Dr. Banks Nelson, of Knox Church, Hamilton, will give his lecture on "Tread and Inheritance" on Monday evening, February 21 in Knox Church, Acton.
—Mrs. John A. Carson, Salem, Oregon, has the thanks of the Pass Pass for copies of the Welcome and Anniversary Edition of the Oregon Statesman.

—If you have a bit of news, send it in, or a joke that will amuse, send it in; a story that is true, an incident that's new or interesting, send it in; you'll find it in.

—In addition to the contributions to the Chinese Pansia Fund in Acton previously reported, the following sums have been forwarded: H. H. Brown, $15.00; James Leslie, $5.00; T. A. Swackhamer, $2.00.

—The Guelph Mercury has sold its job printing department to Messrs. Feltner & Robinson and will hereafter devote its entire attention to the production of the daily and weekly editions of the Mercury.

—At the police court Monday morning, Mrs. Morris was arraigned before Magistrate Watt on a charge of drunkenness. He pleaded guilty, and as it was his second offence, a fine of $10 and costs was imposed—Guelph Mercury.

—Dr. James L. Hughes' lecture on Robert Burns next Wednesday evening. Every person with a drop of Scottish blood will be there and the audience will also have the English and the Irish and the Canadian and American too.

—Dancehall Women's Institute will hold a social evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. Lindsay on Friday, February 12, at 8 o'clock. The program will address the meeting. All are invited.

OAKVILLE
Four citizens applied for the assessment of three at remunerations of $800, $500 and $475, and the fourth said pay me what you like but give me the job. The Freeholder Church had an income last year including building fund and forward movement of $14,141.41. Miss Eunice Deane left town last week for Savannah, Ga., to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Deane. The Village of Brents has a live community club, which provides delightful and profitable weekly entertainment for the young people.
Postmaster Code has had several improvements made to the interior of the post office that make for the greater convenience of the staff and, likewise the public.
We were beginning to think that the weather man had given the municipal skating rink a black eye, but he has been handing out some fairly good weather during the last few days.—Star.

DURHAM
Messrs. Will Featherston and Wilfred Featherston went to Toronto on a special business trip on Friday of last week.
There has been very good skating on the Sixteen Creek here during the past two weeks.
Our local blacksmith, Mr. Drysdale, is an extra busy man these days, shoeing horses for the farmers and others, and repairing farm implements for the coming spring season.
The quarterly sacramental service was held in the Bethel Methodist Church, Durham, on Sunday last at 3 o'clock. Rev. E. W. Dracooly, of Hornby, the pastor, conducted the service, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, and had a pleasant evening.

NASSAGAWAYA
Mr. Augustus Folkard, of Durham, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Allan Mahon, of Campbellville, on Sunday last from a stroke of paralysis.
Mr. Folkard was for many years a resident of this township and served as Post Clerk and Deputy Returning Officer for the electoral district of Nassagawaya for a number of years. He was a painstaking official and was well liked in the community. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at the Ebenezer Cemetery, after a memorial service in the Bethel Methodist Church. His widow is mourned by a loving wife and daughter.
Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, of Eden Church, are leaving for their home on Tuesday, February 1, at the old homestead in Nassagawaya, now owned by their son, H. M. Taylor. The family were all home but two sons, Melvin and John. Their friends many were present at the address and a well-filled supper. We wish them many more years of happiness together.
The quarterly official board of the Nassagawaya circuit gave a very hearty invitation to their pastor, Rev. G. H. Cassmore, B. A., to remain for another year at the meeting on Monday.

BURLINGTON
The Council has reconsidered the resolution authorizing $40,000 to be spent for a new High School building.

Mr. A. D. Coleman received word from his two daughters, Mary and Margaret, attending in that place, was recently buried and that the girls barely escaped with their lives in their night clothes.
On Wednesday afternoon the funeral was held at the residence of Mr. J. C. Smith, Water Street, where a fire had started in the room from an overturned furnace. The blaze was extinguished without causing much damage.
Friday evening, last, a unique affair in the form of a school children's party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pease, when a most enjoyable time was spent. All the guests were dressed in boys' and girls' clothes. Refreshments were served.
Last Thursday evening the Young People's Forum of the Methodist Church were the guests of the Young People's Society of Knox Church. The church was well filled with members of both societies, and the evening's entertainment was provided by the Young People's Forum. Rev. G. W. Barker acted as chairman. Refreshments were served by Knox Church members. The evening was a most delightful one to a close.

LIMEHOUSE

The Community Hall, to which the old Methodist Church has been converted, is filling a long-felt want here. Every week it is made the meeting place for community gatherings, Church or Sunday School entertainments and boys' meetings. Mr. Gowdy did a wise thing when he secured it and put it in repair. The community are showing hearty appreciation of his enterprise and will no doubt join him in making the place a hall for a helpful community centre, whenever the opportunity offers. Mr. Douglas Gowdy, of Toronto, retains strong affinities for the old home and home associations here. He has organized the boys for the Truxie course and is meeting them every two weeks. Studies along the line of efficiency are laid out in the C. H. K. T., are being undertaken, and there is also a period for instructive entertainment. Last Friday evening beautiful limelight views were shown which all enjoyed. A week from Friday night views giving the history of the mill will be given.
The supply of wood being delivered at the kilns at Dolly Varden is larger than for years and the quality is better than usual. The teamsters and drivers there is also a period for instructive entertainment. Last Friday evening beautiful limelight views were shown which all enjoyed. A week from Friday night views giving the history of the mill will be given.
