

LIFE'S IMPERATIVES

I ought that is duty.
God's voice in the soul,
To feel his heavy hand...

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the issue of the Free Press of Thursday, February 21, 1901

The mild weather this week was very generally enjoyed after the long and cold spell.

MRS. PRINGLE'S ALBUM

"Supper will be ready in ten minutes. Maybe you'd like to look at an album while you're waiting."

"Thank you, I would like to look at that good woman retreated to the kitchen. Susanna looked at Frances with eyes that danced with amused anticipation.

"Frances, you Jewell!" she cried. "To think that I've ever lived to be asked to entertain myself with a photograph album!"

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 20

BY H. W. THORNTON

THE WISE AND FOOLISH VIRGIN—Matt 25: 1-13

Historical Setting—Time—April A. D. 30. Place—Mount of Olives.

Lesson Objective—Verse 1—In most of the kingdom parables the present tense is used because describing earthly features.

Verse 2—That which made the difference between the two was the foresight on the part of the wise and the lack of preparation on the part of the foolish.

Verse 3—The foolish had all in their lamps when they started, but their oil ran out and they were left in the dark.

Verse 4—The wise seemed to have considered the possibility of the bridegroom's coming and so they had extra oil.

Verse 5—The main point was to be ready for all possible contingencies. We know not when the Lord may come, but it makes little difference if we are prepared for his coming.

Verse 6—The foolish and foolish, they all "lumbered and slept." This indicates our ignorance as to the time of the coming of Christ.

Verse 7—Figuratively midnight represents the time of the second coming and the resurrection of the dead.

Verse 8—Of course, the lamps had been burning all the time the virgin was asleep waiting in order that they might be ready at the interesting moment.

Verse 9—In the parable of the fig tree and the fig tree, the fig tree is the church and the fig tree is the church.

Verse 10—It is probably that the fig tree is the church and the fig tree is the church.

Verse 11—Christ knows those who are worthy to be known.

Verse 12—In every important sense the Son of man is coming to us every hour of the day.

Verse 13—The final coming nobody knows. Every true Christian lives so as to be ready at any time.

Illustrated Truth—The most valuable things in the world are the intangible ones which cannot be borrowed or loaned.

Illustration—At the beginning of the college year, young Singleton attached himself to one of the best students in his class and claimed him for a roommate.

TEACHING FUTURE FARMERS

Lamb Competition

With agriculture the first industry of Canada and likely to remain so, the farmer is a factor of paramount importance in the Dominion's national life.

It is the duty of the farmer to see that his children are properly educated and that they are able to take up the work of the farm when they start.

Persuasion Failed, They Took to Force!

SHE was so proud of her first cake. It was so light so tempting!

But her young brother had an eye on it, too, and—

You've simply got to hide the cakes and bread when they're made from Cream of the West Flour.

Belgium recently presented Britain with a beautiful statue which had been erected on the Thames Embankment in gratitude for the hospitality extended to Belgium refugees.

Just as the world has seen each other prosper, so occasionally do nations. The Lincoln statue, which has lately been erected in London, is a beautiful gift of the American nation to the old Mother Country.
