TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the issue of the Free Press of Thursday, March 14, 1901

About two hundred of snow fall last Friday afternoon and evening. Mr. Henry Denny has sold to Edward Butler his dwelling on Young Street.

Mr. Samuel Laird, who has been a familiar figure at the C. T. R. station for over thirty years has been retired.

Special devotional services were commenced in the Methodist Church on Monday evening. The pastor, Rev. Mr. McLeod, is being assisted by a minister, T. R. Dickinson, of Hamilton.

Messrs. Humphries & Hawks have discontinued to operate Acton Flour Mills. Owing to the unprecedented lack of rainfall last year the water-power was very inadequate and the expense for coal in firing was so heavy.

Acton has been visited by two men to South Africa. Both Wm. Parnell and Joseph Lynch passed the military examinations at Stanley Barracks last week for positions on Col. Haden-Powell's Constabulary Force.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FOR SUNDAY, MARCH 13

BY W. W. THORNTON

THE LAMB'S SUPPER—Matt. 26: 17-30. Golden Text—"As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come" (1 Cor. 11: 26).

Historical Setting. Time—Commonly reckoned, April 6, A. D. 30. Place—Jerusalem.

Lesson Comments. Verse 20—Jesus started from Bethany, through the olive trees in the upper room, and reached the upper room about sunset, which would be at that season a little after six o'clock.

Verse 21—The paschal supper regularly consisted of the lamb, which represented the offering, whose blood sprinkled upon the doorpost had saved Israel in Egypt.

Verse 22—This saying of Jesus regarding the cup in which the guilty was to be found and pointed out the extreme treachery of one so close to Him.

Verse 23—This statement indicates that the betrayal of Jesus, while a matter of prophecy did not remove responsibility from the guilty.

Verse 24—The betrayal was predestined, but betrayal by Judas was justly punished because he voluntarily took the evil upon himself.

Verse 25—The meal had been interrupted by the announcement of treason from the betrayer, the Lord's Supper at the close of this paschal meal, and not as a part of it (Luke 22: 20; 1 Cor. 11: 26). Jesus probably designated bread, and not a lamb, to be used at the Lord's Supper, because the types and shadows were to cease when the real sacrifice must come.

Verse 26—"This is my body," must have been figurative because the living Christ was not to be broken.

Verse 27—Nowhere in the accounts of the Lord's Supper is the word "wine" used, but "cup" and "chalice" were used with water.

Verse 28—Christ's blood sealed the new covenant between God and all mankind.

Verse 29—Reference is here made to the spiritual feast, in the glorified and higher existence (Luke 22: 30). There may also be a comparison between the Christian dispensation and the Jewish.

Illustrated Truth. We need to be reminded of the sacrifice of Christ for us (Golden Text). During the World War a lady often visited in a home from which the young ladies were about to go into service.

Copies for Research and Discussion. I. The Betrayal Predicted (vs. 20-22). 1.—Where and when did Jesus meet His disciples as recorded in the lesson? 2.—What did the articles of food symbolize in this paschal supper? 3.—Describe the effect that the betrayal of Jesus had upon the disciples.

HAPPINESS. I had a little shadow, and I was happy there, with a wife and nice and auntie, and grandpa in her chair, I was all day and back for she was tired of sticking in such a tawdry shack.

KEEP ON TRYING. "Perseverance is a great virtue. A little way of their task. A little girl with a small shovel was trying to walk in the ton of coal from the side-walk to the car, a shovel at a time."

FIXING THE BLAME. A glass factory stands near a certain railway. Its chimneys are not for the nose, and therefore, a lady often carried with her a bottle of lavender salts.

WORM POWDERS. Mittler's Worm Powders seldom fail. They immediately attack the worms and expel them from the system.

SMILES

"How much are these puppies, little boy?" "All a quarter, 'cept that one, and he's thirty-five cents. He swallowed a dime yesterday."

"This is one thing I can always guess right the second time. If it isn't a boy, then it's a girl."

"Mr. Tonty bids fair to become the most-soldierly-known man in Canada. His name is in everybody's mouth."

"It's a good plan for a young man to begin at the bottom," advised the business man. "But suppose he is learning to swim."

Examiner—"How is Central America divided?" "I'm not sure, but I know one who was mistaken for a deer and captured."

A GYPSY'S CUPIDITY. Fortune Teller—"You wish to know about your future husband?"

Customer—"No; I wish to know about the cost of my present husband for future use."

This reminds me of a story. A short time since two young ladies were asked by a gypsy woman who told them that for a quarter each she would show them their husbands' faces in a ball of water, which being brought they exclaimed, "We only see our own faces." "Well," said the old woman, "these faces will be your husbands when you are married."

THE GAUDY GREEN NECK TIE

The ordinary, commonplace tie has often been called the "conventional one," and the word has almost a flavor of distaste.

Let us see. The story regarding a salesman who could not succeed in selling goods, has some value here. This young fellow had worked for his company, which manufactured hats, for three months.

When he had told brightly what his trouble was, the manager sat very still. "That's a 'conventional' tie," he said, "but I don't like it."

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA. Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind, Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
