THRIFT HAS A DOUBLE-EDGED PURPOSE—IT BUILDS UP CHARACTER WHILE CUTTING DOWN EXPENSES.

Re-adjustment Message

"WE took the bull by the horns in September, and started a genuine Price Reduction Sale and continued it right through the month of March 1921, which meant an enormous loss to us, but we accomplished our purpose by clearing our racks and shelves of all higher priced merchandise.

"THE result to-day is our racks and shelves are full of fresh, new merchandise at the NEW LOWER PRICES and we are now prepared to do business on the new basis of purchases made in the 'desert valley' of the price drop.

NOW do your share. You have made—fill them! Use your friends to do the same. It won't be long before we drive away the boggy-boo of unemployment. BUY NOW!

DOLLY VARDEN
There had been more wood delivered at the time this was written, notwithstanding the absence of blizzards in any direction since the 1st of March 1921, which meant an enormous loss to us, but we accomplished our purpose by clearing our racks and shelves of all higher priced merchandise.

The Toronto Tribune is quite a boon to residents of this section. Having our faith to stop here to take on or let off passengers.

Some of the fall wheat about here looks rather promising for the most part. It has wintered well.

CHURCHILL
Mr. Fred Byler has been moving to his new farm at Arkell during the last week of the month.

Mr. Harry Gibbons intends selling his farm on the 13th and moving to his home in Acton.

A clearing sale will be held by Mr. Harold Dunhill on the 17th inst. He has a large stock of goods for sale.

Mr. Charles Hinchman's big dispersion sale took place yesterday. He had a splendid herd of registered Shorthorns.

Prospective buyers have been looking at Mrs. Thomas Byler's farm this week. Now that Harry Gibbons' farm is for sale he would have a fine property if purchased by one buyer and joined together.

LIMEHOUSE
Limehouse Trail Hangers will meet on Saturday, March 19, at 7 p. m. sharp. A good programme for the boys is cordially invited at these sittings at 8 p. m. 100 beautifully colored views, "Across Canada via C. P. R.," also 25 hand-colored cartoons. Every body is cordially invited to these sittings which are very interesting.

Mr. John Newton spent the week-end with friends in Toronto. Mr. James Heintz, of Toronto, visited friends at the old home on Sunday.

NABSAQAWA
The Literary Society recently organized at Nelson, British Columbia, has been a very popular institution. Eighty members are now enrolled. The weekly meetings are full of interest and have sufficient variety in the programme presented to make them always attractive.

Two weeks ago a debate "Resolved that city life has greater advantages for our young people than the country," was debated with fervor. The negative naturally won out.

At last week's meeting a very laughable drama, entitled "A perplexing situation," was presented by thirteen local actors and actresses.

This week Mr. Fleming, agricultural representative of Milton, gave a very enjoyable and interesting lecture on the "Evangelical Trail." All the boys hope Mr. McCully will come again.

Another debate is in preparation on the subject, "Resolved that recreation is much more largely indulged in than is conducive to the best interests of the community."

Mrs. Thos. Wilson, of Milton, who represented an opponent in the General Hospital, Guelph, a week ago, is progressing favorably and is on a fair way to recovery.

The old Elm Tree on the Guelph Road, Naasagaweya, has been taken down and is now only about 3 feet of stump left. This landmark has stood there in the centre of the Guelph Road ever since the road was surveyed.

Mr. H. M. Taylor, of Naasagaweya, had the misfortune to have one of his horses break its leg a short time ago. It had to be shot.

Mr. Clarence E. Wilson, of Kintola, sent a note of condolence to Mrs. G. S. Wilson, left for Hamilton, Manitoba, a short time ago.

The ground hogs and chipmunks have made their appearance again, which is an indication that spring is not far away.
