Brief Local Items

- Gardening is now progressing in real earnest.
- Sunday will usher in the month of May—it will be May Day.
- Work will commence in the new shoe factory in a few days.
- Sugar is selling retail in Vancouver, B. C., at $11.50 per 100.
- Roads are drying up nicely again after last week's frequent rains.
- April showers have come a plenty. May flowers should be plentiful.
- The merchants' Wednesday half-holiday will commence next week.
- The sale of trout-rods and poles is commencing, "tomorrow's the day."
- The brick work is now well advanced on the improved Barkman building.
- Two Quip motorcycles were fined $10 and costs each on Friday for speeding.
- In the campaign for new members, the Trafalgar Agricultural Society has secured 249 names.
- The price of gasoline has dropped in Detroit to 23 cents per gallon, the lowest since for years.
- The uptown hills are green again; the river runs serene again, all down the miles of orchard land.
- And this is real spring time! There is rain occasionally, but think of the sunshine and the blossoms.
- The Farmers' Union says the Provincial Government issued a mandate last week to enforce prohibition.
- The Junior I. O. O. F. had quite a successful tea and sale of baking on Saturday in Moray's new store.
- The grading of the streets which were disturbed by the water from the installation is now going forward nicely.
- A Hamilton motorist was fined $5.00 and costs the other day for driving with one hand, the other encircling his girl's waist.
- While cutting meat one day last week, Wm. Landsborough, butcher, had the misfortune to almost sever the end of his left thumb.
- Income tax returns must be sent in not later than the 30th inst. Don't forget this nor the fact that heavy fines are imposed for neglect.

THE SEASON'S OUTDOOR SPORTS

Among the other interesting stories and articles of outdoor life in Canada that appear in Yod and Gun in Canada for May, in one entitled "A Wonderful Boston Expedition." This describes an expedition after the "big fellows" in Newfoundland. For the fishermen there are two other stories, "Fishing on the Coast" and "The Heart Cure," in this issue of Yod and Gun magazine. Great interest is being shown in the big game hunting articles written by A. Bryan Williams; one installment of the series is being shown in the department up to their usual high standard. Yod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

COST OF LIVING DOWN IN FRANCE

Steady decline in the cost of living in France is shown in figures made public here to-day. They were based on an average struck for 45 articles, and were prepared by the French General Statistical Bureau.

GEORGE Says:

Our Spring Suits are not carrying their "hearts" around on their sleeves. They are made of the finest materials and are being made to order. We want you to try on the coats without asking the cost—but on the vests without investigating the values—slip into the game and you'll be both about the price.

We'll tell you why!

If you haven't purchased a suit, let me show you the lowest of our prices are going to surprise you. You are going to wonder how we do it—and we would simply like to prove before you start wondering.

DON'T LET THESE LOW PRICES ALARM YOU!—THE ONLY WAY TO AS CERTAIN AS TAXES

PROHIBITION HAS ITS HEROES

The following letter appeared in the Mail and Empire one day this week:

The school of the battle of prohibition are now recording through the pages of the Mail and Empire a warning of the bad effect which prohibition will have on immigration from the United States. A little history may not be out of place at this time. Two families left Glasgow, Scotland, sixteen years ago. The parents were total abstemious and now are prohibitionists. There were two children in each family, one boy and one girl. The great war broke out. The fathers were both medically unfit, but the two boys, total abstemious, each seventeen years old volunteered. One boy, 19 years and 1 month old, the only son, paid the supreme sacrifice, while fighting under the banner of the Princess Patricia, at Cambrai, in 1918. The other boy has returned, still a total abstemious. We are often assured that it was the beer drinking sons of Irishmen who fought in the Great War. One of these fathers served 20 years with the volunteer force in the Old Land, having enlisted in 1885. The members of the army, as a whole, are temperate and a large percentage absolutely total abstemious. It is a gross libel to call them beer-soaked. Prohibition has no terrors for the people of the Old Land. Those who have lived in the large cities and are thinking, have many misgivings of the ultimate value of the race if the continuation of the liquor trade is permitted. We see the argument put forward that it is temperance they are fighting for, not immorality. Where is the line to be drawn between moderation and drunkenness? Every man claims the right to draw his own line. If many of the moderates were to ask their wives where to draw the line, the husband's wife would seldom answer. Many people, and a good and desirable class, too, in the Old Land, are looking at Ontario, and will be delighted to see the step forward which has been taken at this time, I remain,

Yourself, etc.
JOHN A. MACARTHUR,
Hallsbury, April 25, 1921.

FOUR HUNDRED YEARS AGO

A Revolution Which Changed the History of the World

Your hundred years ago, in April, 1521, Martin Luther, the German monk, faced the German Diet at Worms (a German village) and, refusing to recant his principles of religious freedom, brought about a mighty revolution.

As Prof. Fritz, Dean of Concordia Seminary, says: "The eighteenth of April in the year 1521 marks the end of the Middle Ages and the beginning of the Modern Era in the history of the world. On that day the emancipation of man from a long period of spiritual, intellectual and political serfdom took place, and there was given to the world that liberty of conscience, that freedom of thought, and that modern civilization which we now enjoy and which, we trust shall remain in our inheritance until the end of days."

"On the eighteenth day of April, 1521, Luther was on trial before the Diet of Worms; the man and his work were put to a crucial test. Shall the Bible be an open book for all, or must man submit to that authority of the Church as it has been exercised by popes and councils? Shall the right of private judgment be granted or denied? Shall the yoke laid upon the intellect by the medieval system remain unbroken, or shall the intellect be freed and enter upon an era of new development; shall nations and peoples be tyrannized by religious and civil rulers, or shall the right of civil and religious liberty be granted?"

"These were the great issues which Luther's answer to the question whether or not he would recant what he had spoken and written, should decide."

"All historians agree that Luther's firm stand at Worms in 1521 brought about a mighty revolution and a tremendous change in the history of the world."

THE HOME AND THE SCHOOL

Aim to Bind Them in Closer Relationships

A large number of parents and teachers who are interested in closer co-operation between home and school met in the Presbyterian school room at Milton last Friday evening to hear Mr. A. C. Courtois, of Toronto, Secretary of the Provincial Home and School Federation, who delivered an instructive address.

The meeting re-affirmed a previous decision to organize a local club and the following officers were elected: Honorary President, Mrs. H. A. McColl; President, Mrs. E. E. Gowan; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. J. M. Dehoye, Miss Alexander and Principal Michener; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Fred Dewar; Executive Committee, Miss I. Elliott, Mrs. H. London, Mrs. C. W. Martin, and Mrs. W. E. Stewart.

The Secretary was requested to invite the Public School Board to appoint two representatives to the Executive Committee.

NOW, ENFORCE IT

The Farmers' Gun Says: The Government has Received Orders

The Government received an emphatic pronouncement from the people in regard to the liquor question and there must be no hesitancy on their part in enforcing the law from this time. The defiance of the liquor people or the Liberty Longears should be met with force.—Star.

When you get to worrying, stop and think of the unnecessary things you worried about yesterday.
