DAD 'N' ME A youngeter's mighty lucky If he's got a malita' dad; The-fun I-used-to have with mine Was the bout I over had, When the sundown called the must From the builtrog's husky throat And we were trollin' pick'rel

In an old, flatbottom'd bout, We glosgys used a hand line With a whirlin' silver spoon, And we both took turns at rowin' Till the right summer moon Her warnin' of the nightfall With hor allver penall wrote, And we'd guit trollin' pick'rel. In the old, flat-bottomed boat,

In the dusk of early ev'nin' Figh'll strike u shinin' buit. Dropping softly down slow water We would ture 'em to their fate, I'llin' up a folut for breakfast Worth a twenty-dollar note By just a-trollin' plok'rel In an old, flat-bottom'd boat.

Ho I'm golp' back this summer.
'To the flin I can't forget;
And when the shadows longthen
'Cross the old mill bond, you bet Wo'll be droppin' down the river, Past the lily fronds wo'll float-Dad 'n' me a-trollin' pick'rel In an old ,flat-bottomed boat. -Stuart N. Lako.

new china dresser in the old fair to beat it out.

the sun-baked roof.

"Dont' ory, mute," Joe quissically er. prosperous shop. One journeyman had pointment to cross his features when generally has a wholesome and de-waiting for the general wind-up.

Wager came down from the roof leave you with a big hole in your roof again after a while and joined Joe in the dining-room. The heat was still to borrow a handful of nails.

lowing a hammer."

bad wit restrained him from throwing home, he sighed.

their firm and their own future. 'But after a rollshed meal Joe, for one, felt he had hearly finished learning his the chief and his men.

out of business." Joe muttered, with Mr. Proet and towards the big house partnership papers that morning, A by our present law; that these agita- war." final operation of the firm.

to note progress. The sun had almost had darkened fast. But there was Joe had worked for him off and on over since entering the shop. A rumble of thunder drowned Pruel's approving comment as he glanced at the drouser, 'That's our firm 'breaking 'up husiness," whimsically commented when Praci's face turned involuntarily towith lightning flame. "Or else it is Wager hummering with both hands to get through patching the roof before the ruln comes."

But Mr Prael that him that Wager had not yet come buck from his dinmer. The surprised Joe stopped anndpapering a moment at the news, and considered. Evidently the dependable Wager was quite ill. Meanwhile there was a big hole in the roof, A storm such as was threatening would do hundreds of dollars' worth of damage to the wells of the house, the pictures, and the carpets. in consideration of his mate: but the the British war bhief, to held off a couple of hours," the big business generally paid tribute to "Tis time to swing our axes," pain and produce a sensation of case young fellow laughtingly drawed his em- Mr. Hohwab for his war services by Then came the feecht tug to prevent and rest. A trial of it will establish player? "and please hunt up, some their presence at the luncheon." "Importation." Though the issue was faith in it.

cunvas, in case they are too cranky to accommodate us. Wo'll make a fight

The canvus would have sufficed for an ordinary rain, but the coming storm promised to be unique in its unvageness. Joe back on the roof ngain, sottled flereely to work. Adhe declared afterwards he must have gawed with one hand, got the nalls with his teeth, and pushed them in with his fast, wifile his remaining hand mountred and not the next shingle.

The perspiration poured from his face. The increasing humbilty made the best even more oppressive.

Yet he did not mind the heat we much. The one thing that did trouble him, upart from his nuxlety to finish before the storm came, was the prospost of losing a situation by the delay. Thompson, the journeyman who had already found another place, had asked him to come down town about noon and take jup with an opening that offered.

A rumbling burst of thunder grashed into his meditations and a flushing where of lightning warned him to put nalds all personal considerations and hasten, "All right; I'll hurry; don't woold," he abjured, with a glance at the sky to measure chances.

The storm with the perversity of its kind seemed ominously imminent, and yet held off. The minutes and quarter hours flow by one after another while the phingles fell in place and were halled fast with musical speed. Jos was a good mochanio, and lie made every ounce of energy tell.

The thunder roared intermittently. and the great light of the heavens played constantly over the one actor on the stage. Anxious Mr. Pract. down below, called up once to mak it there was any way in which he could help. Joe shook his head. "Not unless you can get a policeman to arrest the storm," he chuckled The raindrops began to patter on the been so fair forgetful of their sacred shingles, and Joe redoubled his efforts. shingles, and Joe redoubled his efforts. calling, as to identify themselves. fast he stayed on, sulpping with his Joe Pearson, at work on a that rivaled the lightning and bid life, "they tell not, neither do they length of white pine shelving through | cap. He was as thoroughly drenched | burs of their congregations." -as if he had been plunged into w tub Then we were given 33 quotations Between the rungs of a ladder that of water. But finally his triumphal from the Heriptures, in the endeavor leaned against the house be could see Journey down the ladder was acclaim- to prove that they favored the system the burly form of Wager, a journey- jed by the booming of the thunder, we were trying to overthrow, Blutteman. Wager deliberately opened out flash upon flash of lightning, and a tion were given to prove that in 364 n wide bandanna handkerchelef and literal deluge of water. Too wet to cases, as found, in the asylume at buried his perspiring face in it a mo- enter the house he sought refuge on Toronto, Kingston and London it only ment before ascending to his work on the front porch, where Mr. Prael was could be attributed to intemperance, enjoying the gymnastics of the weath- and 20 to religious excitement.

ulready gone to new work without he found that his service to Mr. Prael terrunt offect on such a nefarious had lost him a prospective job. I'm calling. .Joo had seen happy days in the contented himself, however, with it is a favorite theory with tectotalers comfortable shop, with its trim quietly volcing his own regret, and that alcohol is not food, and consumachinery, its row of benches set reiterating his thunks to Thompson, quently it is polson. Young medical brightly along the windows, its woody His first duty had been his present men commencing practice, who fancy smell, and the spirit of geniality that employer's interests, whatever it cost; by joining the tectotal craze will give emandted from firm and working staff and he had learned that a customer's them a standing, have given this ulike, The nearing separation was a interests were usually identical with opinion to the Ludies' Christian Temdepressing prospect, but he tried the employer's. Bending down and perance Association, or us they should whistling his spirits back now while pressing the water from his trouser properly be called" The Ladies Muhe set a baseboard around the bottom legs with a running squeeze of his homedan Testotal Association." of the dresser. As he had advised hands, he humorously inquired of As to physical benefits from the Wager there was no use in taking it Thompson! "How would you like your use of strong drink they furnished us doctor to go to another patient and the following:

during such a storm us this?" Thompson laughed. The storm had, has never been afraid of a glass of troubling him. He did not look well, lulled now, and he prepared to move beer or something stronger. The und udmitted that he felt far from on. Jon turned to gather up his tools, former with only five years of service thop. Sympathetic though he was, casually observing that Mr. Preal's is broken in health and spirits, the Joe could not help smiling when the glance was fixed attentively upon him. latter at the age of 76 is as bright Journeyman said he had come down A few minutes later the portly man and energetic as ever. This fourcame and thanked him for the fast and page sheet closes by giving the "10 "Certainly," Joe acquiesced, "though efficient work on the roof. . At the reasons for opposing the Scott Act," I don't believe nuits are good for same time he sympathized with Joe which, by the way, are the same whatever is the matter with you. It in losing the promised job. "It is the reasons as were used by the liquorites you want to drive the trouble out of misfortune of Thompson's firm not to 30 years later. As samples we quote your system, I would suggest swal- secure a conscientious mun." Mr. four of them: Praci declared, with such a courtly Wager was not too sick to follow bow that Joe felt almost repaid for the liberty of the people by a set of the suggestion in part. With a wan losing the place. Yet, us he wended fanatics. smile he snatched up the hammer; his way down the street toward the and only Joe's quick apology for the shop to report and take his belongings lazy, vicious and squauni, and us h id noontime came, with its strident the shop and member of the firm, whistles inviting hungry workmen stood at the telephone. He seemed home to the table. As both Joe and cheerful enough, Joe thought, as be the journeyman lived near enough to listened to the tantalizingly one-sided ent with their families they walked conversation. "All right, Mr. Pract," thither together, chatting somewhat Joe heard him may heartily, before circular published in Huron County. despondently about the fortunes of hanging up his receiver and following New for a few choice bits from the Joe in among the machinery.

"Mr. Praci's roof come loose again?" "Just taking some instructions from thade. On the way back to his work the new member of the firm," 'Mr. Weston chuckled. "You are in luck tools under his arm he looked in surve taxes; that you are soing to destroy one last look at the lowering sky us prise at the foreman, who went on to the comfortable home which the hotel ed his "Descent from the Cross," and had the how is, and compolled to be kept so Behiller hubblehed his "Thirty Years" when Mr. Weston assured him that country; that it has proved to be a He was putting the finishing touches the firm was really better uble now fallure wherever it has been tried; edu- Heights of Abraham at Quebec, Btephon the dresser about half an hour to go on with the business than ever cates, people the decelt, drunkenness enson had made his first lecomotive, ufter noon, when Mr. Brael came in before. The news was so good that he and view as strong liquors, which to note progress. The sun had almost hardly thought of what he was do-disappeared by this time, and the sky ing as he followed the foreman's book-make people drunk much quicker than "Elegy," and Poe his "Raven." oning finger across the shop.

light enough for the portly gentle-man to see that Joe was doing good the chief, tapping a bench with his the licensed truffly failed, as both work. Anyway he knew of old that foreinger, indicated that Joe was to Huron and Oxford carried the measure trust. by very large majorities. And so in ... When the work by very large majorities. And so in ... When the work is the color there. lighter and better placed bench than Hulton, and many other countles, may do. his old one. In fact, it was Thomp- And now the cry was raised, "It is not son's former place. Wonderingly Joe fair for the large towns and cities to tifted his eyes to meet those of the be ruled by the rural vote," so in time foreman, who was enjoying lils mys we have Local Option, and only a tification, 'lie stool by and watched muni plece over to the other bench and then ward the window, suddenly sheeted ussured him with a smile that he way to have a fourneyman's rank > and pay with the bench. "Mr. Pruel's wish," the foremun said You have done your-last job as an apprentice."-Young People.

WOULD NOT BREAK PAITH WITH KITCHENER

sandpaper, immediately he picked up Kingsley, President of the Chamber succeeding government by the throat, of unselfish service; the experience of a hammer, left the house and ran of Commerce of New York, recently, But thank God a better day came, peace which passeth knowledge; the n hammer, left the house and ran of Commerce of New York, recently, rapidly up the ladder. A glance show—at the luncheon given by the chamber in token of Mr. Schwab's war services at the least would have to be done.

"A considerably large area of slingles had been removed to find the legit;" added Mr. Kings—and Wager had cut a section of board with an offer of underneath." Joe stuck his, hammer in a convenient helding-place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to held the helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to helding place, and self that Germany and Britain to held the held that there were the held that there were provided upon the hadder again with self the house of the horizon that make the restrict the part book chickles the privilege of honest toil; the measure war, when the hade government was provided upon the provided upon the provided upon its hence of the unit man of a great book chickles, in the privilege of a great book chickles, in the privilege of a great book chickl considering, the situation, while Joe and his wonderful lamp road like the | Mnough of liquors' taxes. went after a place of pine for the reminiscences of a cheap promotor." We have turned the grindstone long the virtues of Dr. Thomas Refection patch. "Telephone the weather bureau, Leaders in the world of finance and enough; Oil. Well rubbed in it will still the

Do You Know

GREEN TEA

be convinced.

has a far liner flavour than that of any Japan or China Green Tea? Send for a sample and

IN THE LIGHT OF HISTORY Now, he the amoke of the temperance battle has cleared away, we may have come for way, 40 years. Let us first review some of the statements made by the friends of the Bonned truffe and bar-room, for their

ugo. They make strange rouding, as viewed in the light of the present, and will be more so In coming days. In a circular, duted 1886, we are urged to fight ugainst all fanatical outroachments on our civil rights. making thebrsolves conspicuous forcing this injurious law on the country, are men of little character; men unsuccessful in attending to their own affairs; men of no property, or functio leaders of secret sociaties, who aubatitute mummery and skepticism acknowledged they are mante guides upin," they pay no taxes, and are inheat disapprovingly as he hauled in a place the rain poured off from his which may be imposed on the mom-

"If you do away with licente the comforted as Wager bent his head over | While the watched the tops of the business at once fulls into the hands In an apparent agony of sorrow. "We trees: bend over before the gale, a of men who have no responsibility; will got other jobs somewhere." Wager figure suddenly, amerged from the men amenable to no law; men who vouchsafed u. shrivelied-up smile in durkness and the flood of waters, from the tyrannous dictates of a lot acknowledgment as he emerged from coming of from the highway at a run of canting fanatios—called toetotallers. the red fold. Then he climbed to his to take shelter on the veranda. It was are placed outside the pale of responshingling and Joe turned back to the Thompson, caught by the storm in an albility. These man will sell in dedresser, ruminating on the fact that errand to the lumber yard. Between flance of any Boott Act legislation, his firm was going out of business. . . the rumblings of the thunder he ex- founded on untruths, hypocrisy and in-· He and Wager were on their last pressed his regret that Joe had de- justice, and they will have the entire Job. The chief member of the build- layed coming down for the promised sympathy of every lover of liberty. ing and Jobbing company had with- place, which had been given to an- it-is true occasionally informers will drawn himself, and his capital; and other application less than an hour be found to lay informations before his partners, badly crippled financial- before Thompson left on his errand. over-sealous J. P.'s, but the treatment ly, were going to close the one-time. Joe allowed a grimace of disap- these informer's got when found out

"Hon Alexander McKenzie is a rigid tectotatier; John A. Macdonald

It is an importinent interference with Enforced total abstrance makes men consequence festers every species of While he made his report to the secret immorality. Before the dresser was quite finish-bookkeeper, Mr. Weston, foreman of trary to the teachings of the Bible. It will have at tendency to make young people infidels and unbellevers, and thereby injure their immortal souls. The foregoing are extracts from the one issued in Oxford County: . "Now olectors, before you sign the Scott Act petition, consider that you more cheerful, in spite of the fact that Joe wanted to know with a laugh, are going to put the County to an his connection with the shop where There was not much stiffness between immense expense; that you are going to be immense expense; the context is the con to rob-your follow-oltizen out of property; that you are going to destroy your towns; that, you are losing a large amount of money raised threatening a lively storm of wind to have made such a good impression licenset that you are going to enand rain.

"I'm stot surprised that even the bench. Still keeping the bundle of that you are going to encure weather is gloomy about our going bench. Still keeping the bundle of that you are going to increase your municipality could vote on the quesclour-out and dofinite, the liquor ha able to calmly look at the situation months previous, by a majority of five and forty-banks have closed their and see the pathway over which we about 250,000. We word told by them doors. There has not been a bank continuince, during the Boott Act," we should not submit to the will of a banking business in this country has and "Local Option" campaigns of years well-organized minority." Under the been the chief factor in saving the new heart. . Let us not be discouraged by the commentary on the agitation that was hindrances thrown in our way during on foot in the Canadian West's short these four decades, since no reform time are for the importation of the has ever succeeded until it has had American system into the Western a baptism of fire and literary cari-, provinces." cature and political hate and trickery are only milestones on the way to victory, Having secured our wellearned victory let good, mun and women averywhere, stand for continued education as to the avils of the old "hoose" business, and for the enforcement of present laws until our final goal is attained.

Address-Salada, Toronto.

"We will neither faint nor falter, God is just, and right is right; We will conquer, we must conquer, In this glorious temperance fight." May 19, 1921.

YOUNG MEN OF YESTERDAY

'At fifteen Victor Hugo gave a poem to the academy, and Bossuet dassled ill who heard him by his eloquence. on the confo sections, and Bacon had | credit. pointed out the errors in Aristotle's At seventoen, Mozart was entertainington Irving was delighting the readurs of the Morning Chronicle. At olghtoon Mondolssohn had produced the beautiful "Midsummer Night's Dream," and Bryant his postle phenomonon of "Thanatopels." At twenty, Woher was producing symphonics, fichalling had grappled with the philosophy of Kant, Galtleo had discovered the use of the pendulum, and Lefayette was a major-gen-

At twenty-and Alexander stood ut the head of his army on the plains of Thousaly, and Tamo had begun his immortal poem, "Jerusalem Delivered." At twenty-three Browning wrote "Purnoclaus," Halloy gave us "Fostus.". Wagner produced "Lohengrin," Emmet thrilled Ireland, Michaelangelo had completed his masterpiece in murble. Plots and Newton discovered

At twenty-four Pitt was Chancellor for the Exchequer, Ruskin had written his "Modern Painters," and Shorldan produced "The Rivals."-At twenty-five Acuchylus was the most famous poet of Greece, Colorldge had finished "The Ancient Mariner, and Don John of Austria, had won Lepanto.

At twenty-ulx Howe invented the sewing muchine, Benjamin Franklin had written "Poor Richard." Mare Antony was here of Rome, Hannibal was in command of the Carthagenian army, and Dickens produced his "Oliver Twist." ... At twenty-eight Ruphael hainted the "Slatine Madonna," Thomas Moore wrote "Latla Rookh," and Pollook his "Course of Time." At twenty-nine Helpio gained the hattle of Zana, Watt discovered steam.

At thirty Charlemange had made hithwelf master of the French wid German 'empires; Chries gaved on the golden cupulas of Mexico and Payne had sung his deathless song, "Home, Sweet Home." At thirty-one Repnie hullt the London Bridge, Christopher Wren was commissioned to re-build St. Paul's London, and Maurice of Baxony seoured religious liberty for the Protestants of Germany by the memor-At thirty-two Clive outablished British power in India, Rubens paint-

At thirty-three Napoleon-was Emperor of France, Wolfe scaled the Edison had harnessed electricity to There are from victories still to be won. Face the future manfully, with undaunted courage and unfaltering

LIFE'S FRAGRANCE

of love! high and holy dreams of good, volces of the night touched with towns were still "going dry," and the on suns; the pressure of the hand progress of Local Option must be re- of a friend when the tides of hope tarded, so the "throe-lifthe clause" was are running low; the response of s devised to clog the whoels of this kindred spirit when the light on the reform. | That saved many a town altar of the soul is flokering; a whist and olty from going dry, for during of colestial air at eventide; a kind the nine years of its oppressive opera- word fitly spoken in time of great tion, some "263 municipalities voted hurts; moonlight shimmering in silagainst the Hoonsed bars by large very ellences on the face of the waters; majorities; but not up to the three- God's gentle voice floating down out Afthe: und, if we suppose that there of the kindly clouds; a vision beatific Germany offered a bribe of $100,- was an average of four licenses in each of the outlines of the unseen; the 000,000 to Charles M. Bohwab, steel of these, we have over 1,000 bar-rooms trust of a little child; the warmth manufacturer and Chairman of the retained by the operation of that un- of the breath of a great woman's Emergency Fleet Corporation during fuir, un-British requirement; In all soul; the consciousness of forgiven the war, to get back contracts his those charges we can discover the sins; of divine favor; the rhythm of a Joe frowned. He was not wanting company had with Lard Kitchener, hand of the liquor traine, for did they high passion making music in the not give their money freely to political soul; the thrill of a great poem; the The statement was made by D. P. 'Compaign funds' and they had each contacy of beautiful music; the low

OUR-SYSTEM AND THEIRS

Occasionally we find a man Canada who finds fault with our bunking system. Not frequent, nor do many of he enthuse over it. As in a good many-things we take, the service and convenience we get no a matter of sourse and say nothing about it. flomething of conditions across the border is outlined in an appreciative Journal! "Husiness and financial conditions of the last few months have shown as perhaps nothing siss could have done

the superiority, of the Canadian banking system over the banking system of the United States. The contrast has been remarkable. The United Htates has in the neighborhood of thirty thousand independent banks organized under various laws and operating under many different jurisdictions. Canada has eighteen banks with upwards of four and a half thousand branches. The stress of reterests were anxious to inject the cent months has caused numerous question of "government control." fullures of banks in the republic. In though it had been defented, eighteen North - Dakota alone between thirtye in flaming advertisements, day after failure in Canada, and Canadian day, that this was "a stangent issue banks have met the situation without between prohibition and government embarrassment or any suggestion of control, (which it was not) and that panic. The centralised control of the throw-fifthe clause we were forced, for situation in this country. The effect nine years, to submit to the will of a has been apparent not only in the minority, as it was then possible for more satisfactory readjustment of the will of 59 and 9-10 votors (em- business affairs generally. Canadian bracing usually the best people in the business and Canadian industry, innumicipality) to be defeated by the cluding agriculture, are . passing will of 40 und 1-10 votors, who to may through the period of difficulty and the least, were not usually any better danger with less disruption and inin character than the temperance jury to the community than are seen in the United States The Canadian In this campaign, as in former time, system has made it possible for the the changes were rung on "liberty," financial needs of the country to be but when a mun's definition of "per- taken care of in the exceptional cirsonal liberty" is that he must have cumstances in a much more satisfacliberty to tampt, and make possible the tory munuer than would have been

BTRAY POINTS

When a peasimist expects to be disappointed, he is disappointed if he

The only way to find success quickly without working for it, is to look it up in the dictionary.

As another possible effect of dryness, it is stated that mon's clothing next full will be along sober lines. Hometimes a mun is not satisfied with building his house on the sand At sixteen Pascal wrote a treatise but goes on and builds a garage on

Many a man who is going to set the world on fire finds that someone has ing the court of Germany, and Washauddenly turned the hose on him. A follow who has notually tried it, Muye that though there ure three scruples in a dram, the more drams you take the less scruples you will

TEN THINGS TO REMEMBER

The value of time. The pleasure of working. The success of perseverance. The worth of character. The virtue of patience. The wisdom of economy. The obligation of duty. The power of a amile. The profit of experience. The Joy of achievement.

Easy Walking be imperative for the man who punion the greater part of the time on his fact. Shoos built on the proper last, made of good leather that fit the foot alouds to tiken ours of. Have us fix up that comfortable old pair. Our thou Repairing renews the life of your shoes, restores their usefulness, and means comfort. seemomy and satisfaction to you. Do Not Forget that We Carry a First-Class Line of Bhoss For Men and Boys

Mill St., Acton

All Spring Hats at Reduced Prices

To Make Room for Our Summer Styles

Nellie M. Stockford

ELORA

The Brunswick

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING IS-HEAR. ALL WE ASK YOU TO DO IS TO INVESTIGATE THE BRUNSWICK WITH YOUR OWN EARS

FRANK KING

The Dealer, Will Demonstrate

MAIN STREET

GEORGETOWN

Transcontinental Service VANCOUVER

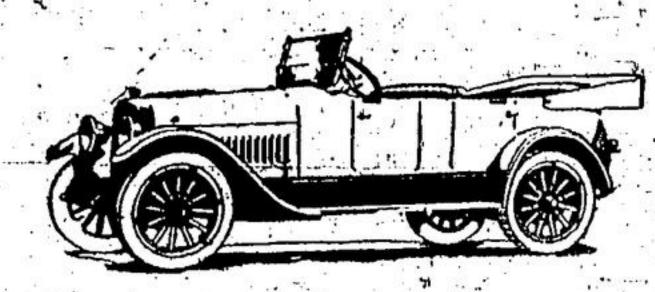

The "NATIONAL" Lve. TORONTO 10.30 p.m.

For Sudbury, Port Arthur, Fort William, Winnipeg ISTANDARD Edmonton, Prince Rupert, Vancouver, and Victoria Alternative routing t Through Standard Sleeping Car Service to Winnipeg. Leave Toronto 8.45 p.m. Daily via G.T., North Bay, thence "Continental Limited" via T. & N.O., Cochrane and C.N. Rye.

Tickets and information from any Agent; Canadian National or Grand Trunk Railways.

Canadian Mational Railways

Studebaker Special Six

A car of 119 inch wheel base with 50-55 horse power motor, Studebaker designed and Studebaker built, detachable head motor, improved carbureter with hot spot intake manifold, positive duplex lubricating system, it's comfortable and roomy sest, 32x4 Goodyear Cord tires and many other special features make the Studebaker Special Six the leading car in Canada to-day.

J. N. O'NEILL & SON

Garage and Carriage Works Georgetown

DISTRIBUTORS OF STUDEBAKER AND DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CARS FOR ACTON, GEORGETOWN AND MILTON

Sceen Doors and Screen Windows

No. 20, Quen, 14x29; Ifelght 10 in.... 30c No. 21, Open, 20x33; Height 10 lu.... 350 No. 22, Open, 24x41; Height 10 ln.... 450 No. 2, Open, 22x36; Height Di la.... 45a No. 3, Opon, 26x41; Helght 10 la.... 85e No. 'd, Open; 22xid; Height 14 ln.... 86e Nor: 7, Open, 26x44; Height 14 ham 700 No. 8, Open 20x62; Height 14 ip.... 780. No. D. Open, Mixto: Height 14 lu.... B50 No. 12, Open, 22x36; Height 14 in.... 70e No. 13, Open, 26x41; Height 18 in.... 86e No. 14, Open, 22x36; Helght 21 in..... 86e No. 15, Open, 26x44; Height 22 la.... 95e

Screen Doors Made of Clear Pine Made in three sixen- I ft. 8 in. x & rt. In.: # 64. 10 in., x 6 ft. 10 in.; 3 ft. x Front Doors-$3.50, $4.00, $4.75, $5.00.

Hear Doors-$2,50, $3.00. Hee our Casement Bercon Doors.

The BOND HARDWARE CO. LLd

This Store's Policy

To represent goods exto well to those who know and to those who don't know at a uniform fair price: to fulfill all guarantees and cheerfully correct all mistakes; to deserve your confidence, by always giving you satisfaction.

Savage & Co.

GUELPH -. ONTARIO

The Double Track Route

> BETWEEN MONTREAL - TORONTO DETROIT - CHICAGO

Bleeping cars on night trains an Parlor Cars on principal day trains Unexcelled diving car service.

Vull information from any Gran Trunk ticket ruent or C. M. Horniva District Passenger Agust, Toronto. H. S. HOLMES, Agent

R. NOBLE Ltd.

Acton Elevator

At-Grand-Trunk-Station A QUANTITY OF FEED CORN AND OIL CAKE JUST RECEIVED

FLOUR, FEED, NORVAL BRAN AND SHORTS, HAY

R. NOBLE Ltd.

When You Need

BOOTS SHOES

Satisfactory Footwear

and a factoring regards assessed that is specifically in the contract of the contract of REASONABLE PRICES