THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1921

Brief Local Items

—A big cranberry crop is now pretty well assured.

—The price of wheat has an upward tendency now.

—Home-grown strawberries are now on the market.

—The elevator in the shoe factory has been installed.

—Butter sold for 25c. and eggs for 28c. here on Saturday.

—Keep down the weeds. Keep the garden all well head.

—The rains continue to keep the soil in good growing condition.

—And what is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, come perfect days.

—Judge Chisholm, of Guelph, died suddenly on Tuesday at the age of 78 years.

—Mr. George E. Collop, of Philadelphia, will sing in Knox Church next Sunday evening.

—It is about high time for the Council on the neglected back streets. There is a prolific crop already.

—Birds within the thicket, flowers along the way, children marching bravely, all of happy days.

—These are the days for the garden hauler. Guess a week over all the crop of vegetables is a good rule.

—Nov. W. I. Findlay, H. A., and Rev. J. T. Strachan, Naasagaweya, will exchange pulpits next Sunday.

—The June frosts, so perilous to the tender plants of vegetables and flowers, have been perilously close the past week.

—Kitcheners' restaurant, keepers were convicted and fined last Friday for selling cigars, cigarettes and candies on Sunday.

—Cut the grass and trim up the boulevard along your home and notice how people will admire the improved appearance.

—The Epworth League conducted the evening service in the Methodist Church last Sunday. Mr. A. T. Brown gave an interesting address.

—Of course the schools had another holiday on the King's birthday, last Friday. The kiddies enjoyed it. The teachers were bored, naturally.

—Ernest Lewis, 18, employed on the Dale Estate, Brampton, while setting off fireworks on May 24, lost one of his eyes when a rocket struck him.

—A dispatch from the fruit district says: "Strawberries at the old price of ten cents a quart may be seen here again this season, many think."

—The law against noxious weeds does not seem to apply at the O. A. C. but perhaps they are being developed to show the farmers how easily they may be killed again—Guelph Mercury.

—Mr. John P. Bearrow occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church last Sunday morning. He preached an impressive sermon on "Freedom" from John 8: 36. "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed."

—Bargains that will startle you—Geo. Wallace, Guelph.

Neighborhood News—Town and Country

ROCKWOOD

The Coleman property is offered for sale by auction on the 15th inst., for the purpose of winding up the estate.

Test new members united with the Presbyterian Church at the last communion service.

Mr. John Jolliffe left last week for a trip to the coast. He will visit friends at Vancouver and meet his son, Mr. Charles Jolliffe who is returning from his missionary field in China, on Thursday.

CREWSON CORNERS

The farmers are pleased at the prospect of the new Toronto-Barns Highway passing through here. A couple of men have been taking levels over the proposed route this week.

Miss Ethel Crewson, Eramosa, spent Sunday with her parents here.

Mr. H. H. Brown, of the Royal Bank, Hamilton, is spending his vacation with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood, and Mr. and Mrs. Player, Campbellville, spent the week-end with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stevenson, Milton, visited friends here this week.

HILLSBURG

Mr. Harley Ennis, of the Union Bank, has received word that he is to be transferred to Halleybury. Harley will be missed very much by the young people of the village.

Mrs. Torrance, of Mimosa, is spending a week or so with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Gordon.

Mr. Wm. Smart, of Deauville, has sold his farm and moved to Hillsburg, and is settled in the house just south of the G. P. R. crossing.

Mr. J. C. Avery, who went to California about the first of February, arrived home on Saturday much benefited by the trip.

Mr. David Root and family, of the 2nd line, had a very narrow escape on Sunday when returning home from church. They met on the highway, where the roadway is narrow.

The car came to a stop for Mr. Root to go by. When about opposite the car the horses sprang to one side and upset the covered carriage. It turned turtle and Mrs. Root was flung in. No one was seriously hurt, although most of them had bruises.—Erin Advocate.
