

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL
LESSON

FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 28, 1931

REVIEW: THE SOCIAL TASK OF THE CHURCH.

Central Facts

Lesson I.—The Christian is he who, to the best of his ability, works in the footsteps of Christ. It is his duty to help and to be helped, to be of service to his fellow men, to be a part of the world's work.

Lesson II.—The New Testament teaches that all honest work is honorable and unbecomingly tedious is desirable.

Lesson III.—There would be no necessity for the distinction between poverty and wealth if the spirit of Christ dwelt in the hearts of all men.

Lesson IV.—The highest education is the which transforms and ennobles, rather than the which makes of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lesson V.—Both rest and recreation are necessary to normal work, which is the real object of life.

Lesson VI.—Co-operation in all right things is necessary to human progress.

Lesson VII.—The Christian view of life is a view of harmony and mutual helpfulness.

Lesson VIII.—The real neighbor is he who helps and who is helped, a neighbor Christian is to bring his life into the world Christian is to obey the great commandment.

Lesson IX.—The only way to make the social order Christian is for Christians to practice what they preach.

Daily Readings for Next Week
Monday, June 27.—Matt. 10: 1-15; Luke 10: 1-12.
Tuesday, June 28.—Hebrews 1: 1-3; 2: 1-4; 3: 1-6; 4: 1-13; 5: 1-10; 6: 1-6; 7: 1-28; 8: 1-6; 9: 1-14; 10: 1-17; 11: 1-40; 12: 1-28.
Wednesday, June 29.—1st John 1: 1-7; 2: 1-17; 3: 1-24; 4: 1-20; 5: 1-20; 6: 1-10; 7: 1-17; 8: 1-12; 9: 1-4; 10: 1-10; 11: 1-10; 12: 1-17; 13: 1-17; 14: 1-21; 15: 1-20; 16: 1-7; 17: 1-19; 18: 1-26; 19: 1-22; 20: 1-10; 21: 1-10.

WHEN OUR SPRING BIRDS ARRIVE

Mr. Arthur Hyndall, of Ottawa, who is an interested student of bird life, has kept a list of the dates of arrival of birds in the Ottawa valley, and supplies the following interesting list:

American robin—First observed February 21; reported as nesting in the valley of the Ottawa—March 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st.

Bluebird—March 12.
Meadow lark—March 13.
American goldfinch—March 12.
American crow—Observed on and off in sheltered places all winter.

Chipping sparrow—April 9.
Yellow-bellied sapsucker—April 20.
Tree swallow—May 2.
Nighthawk—May 10.
Veep sparrow—May 11.
Red-tailed hawk—March 25.
Red-winged blackbird—March 25.
Herring gull—March 26.
Mourning dove—March 27.
Hated Kingfisher—April 1.
March hawk—April 1.
Cuckoo—April 1.
Chipping sparrow—April 9.
Yellow-bellied sapsucker—April 20.
Tree swallow—May 2.
Nighthawk—May 10.
Veep sparrow—May 11.
Red-tailed hawk—March 25.
Red-winged blackbird—March 25.
Herring gull—March 26.
Mourning dove—March 27.
Hated Kingfisher—April 1.

Wood pewee—May 14.
Blackburnian warbler—May 15.
Purpo martin—May 20.
Kingbird—May 20.
Junco—May 20.
Field sparrow—May 20.

Children can easily know when their children are troubled with worms, and they lose no time in applying a reliable remedy, our Grand Worm Expeller.

IMPROVED SEED
The Dominion Department of Agriculture, through the Seed Branch, works in close cooperation with the provinces in the matter of improving grain and field seeds. Money is provided to purchase the best seed available to the provinces, and this seed is distributed to the provinces at a reduced price. The Dominion Department of Agriculture is pleased to announce that it has received a large quantity of improved seed, and that it is now available to the provinces at a reduced price.

Some fine before it. There are many who have been afflicted with sore and have driven their eyes with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. All similarly troubled should give no time in applying this splendid remedy, as there is nothing like it to be had. It is cheap, but its power is in no way expressed by its low price.

HOPE FOR HIS JOB
Learn to rejoice in the opportunities of others. If a classmate is a prize, instead of being resentful that it was not yours, congratulate him with all your heart. If a classmate is in the business office, do not be envious of his success. You are also in the business office, and you are also in the business office. You are also in the business office, and you are also in the business office.

TELL HIM YOU ARE GLAD OF HIS SUCCESS
Learn to rejoice in the opportunities of others. If a classmate is a prize, instead of being resentful that it was not yours, congratulate him with all your heart. If a classmate is in the business office, do not be envious of his success. You are also in the business office, and you are also in the business office.

CHILDREN'S AND LADIES' RUNABOUTS AND OUTING SHOES
Repairing SEWED AND NAILED WORK

Slippers Women's Ties, and Oxfords. One and two strap.

Kenney Bros. MAIN STREET - ACTON, ONT.

THE HOME OF THE BIG TYEE

Tree Salween caught at the mouth of Campbell River, Vancouver Island.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

There are two streams on the island which rival one another from a sportsman's point of view. The first, which has been fished by all sorts of people from princes and prelates, down to the social scum of the world, is the Cowichan, a famous Indian tribe which used to inhabit this part of the country, and about whom there are many right and romantic stories. The second is the Salween, which is a tributary of the Cowichan, and is also a famous fishing stream.

On the rim of the world in Western Canada, just at the mouth of the great Columbia, lies Vancouver Island, an outpost of the Empire. This island, which, on a map of the world, is almost negligible in comparison with the vast area of Canada, is as big as several of the Kingdoms of Europe, and is in reality made up of 15,000 square miles of magnificent and diversified country.

One of the island's chief attractions to the traveler, if he is anything of a sportsman, is the fine fishing and hunting to be obtained among the mountain fastnesses, the giant timber, and in the waters of the lakes and streams. A day or two's run out from Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, will take you to the southern extremity of Vancouver Island, and there you will find the heart of the wilderness, the sanctuary of all sorts of game from the black bear and the pig, to the beaver and the squirrel, from the quail to the ptarmigan, and from the grouse to the quail.

We Develop the Farmer's Business

Banking at any time is co-operation between the bank and the customer for the development of the customer's business. The better the bank understands its customer's business the more readily and efficiently can it assist him.

Eighty-nine years of dealing with farmers in Canada has given The Bank of Nova Scotia a complete knowledge of farmers' banking needs.

Call and talk the matter over with the nearest branch manager.

The Bank of Nova Scotia

W. K. GRAHAM
Manager, Acton

The Ford Garage

HAS MADE COMPLETE ARRANGEMENTS FOR STORING BATTERIES

Batteries kept at proper temperature and regularly inspected, and kept to the desired gravity. Batteries re-charged or repaired when necessary. Advice free.

Oxy-Acetylene Welding Plant

Is being installed. All welding in repairs promptly and satisfactorily executed.

Our Plant for General Repairs

Is complete. Prompt expert attention given to necessary repairs to cars of any make. The electric starting and lighting systems satisfactorily overhauled.

Full Line of Tires of all Makes

And a complete assortment of ACCESSORIES always in stock.

L. G. KING, H. A. COXE,
Manager Proprietor

WANTED THE "JIGGER"

"Don't be surprised at the faith cure you hear about. Down in 'littimato' said a local physician, the other day. A friend of mine treated an old woman for typhoid fever. At each visit he put his thermometer in her mouth to take her temperature. His improvement, and finally a day came when my friend could diagnose with his temperature taking. That day he merely pronounced, 'She's better.' 'That he hadn't got far from the house when the old woman's daughter ran after him, and said, 'Mother, she's better.' 'My friend went in to the old woman. She looked at him reproachfully from her pillow and inquired: 'Doctor, why didn't you tell me the jigger was in my mouth to-day? That does me more good than all the rest of your trash!'"

APPLY TO
E. D. SMITH & SON, LTD.,
Windsor, Ontario.

Notice to Creditors

In the Matter of the Estate of Thomas P. McHenry, late of the Village of Acton, in the County of Halton, Laborer, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario, Chapter 121, and amending regulations, that all persons having claims against the estate of the said Thomas P. McHenry, who died on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1929, are required on or before the 15th day of June, A. D. 1931, to send by post prepaid, or to deliver to Mrs. Sarah McHenry, administratrix of the property of the said deceased, and to the undersigned, their claims, with descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, and a statement of assets, and the nature of securities, if any, held by them.

And further notice that after such last mentioned date the said administratrix will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto having regard only to the claims of which they shall have had notice, and that the said administratrix will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claims notice shall not have been received by her at the time of such distribution.

Dated the 13th day of May, A. D. 1931.

MARY HERRINGER,
Administratrix,
Midway, Ontario.

ACTON CREAMERY

Full Market Price Paid for Butter Fat

Any Small Amount of Cream will Receive Our Best Attention

Sweet Cream for Sale Every Wednesday and Saturday

We Will also Pay Spot Cash for Eggs

Open Friday and Saturday Evenings

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER, NEW LAID EGGS AND FRESH BUTTERMILK WILL NOW BE SUPPLIED AT THE CREAMERY EVERY DAY

Acton Creamery Co.
WATSON & WILES, Proprietors

ACTON BAKERY

Call Phone No. 77 if you want a delicious loaf of Bread, or Brown Bread, or a Boston Loaf, Steam Loaf, Buns and Rolls, Pies and all kinds of Cookies and Cakes.

ALSO WEDDING CAKES MADE, BAKED OR ICED

BREAD IS YOUR BEST FOOD EAT MORE OF IT

Phone 77—The Waggon Will Call at Your Door

M. EDWARDS & CO.
ACTON, ONTARIO

Store Closed Every Night Except Fri day and Saturday, at 8:30 p.m.

ACTON CREAMERY

Full Market Price Paid for Butter Fat

Any Small Amount of Cream will Receive Our Best Attention

Sweet Cream for Sale Every Wednesday and Saturday

We Will also Pay Spot Cash for Eggs

Open Friday and Saturday Evenings

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER, NEW LAID EGGS AND FRESH BUTTERMILK WILL NOW BE SUPPLIED AT THE CREAMERY EVERY DAY

Acton Creamery Co.
WATSON & WILES, Proprietors

ACTON CREAMERY

Full Market Price Paid for Butter Fat

Any Small Amount of Cream will Receive Our Best Attention

Sweet Cream for Sale Every Wednesday and Saturday

We Will also Pay Spot Cash for Eggs

Open Friday and Saturday Evenings

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER, NEW LAID EGGS AND FRESH BUTTERMILK WILL NOW BE SUPPLIED AT THE CREAMERY EVERY DAY

Acton Creamery Co.
WATSON & WILES, Proprietors

Railway Time Tables

AT ACTON

Grand Trunk Railway System

Going West

No. 39	8:12 a.m.
No. 31	9:18 a.m.
No. 35	9:59 a.m.
No. 39	10:30 a.m.
No. 25	10:34 a.m.

Going East

No. 24	7:08 a.m.
No. 39	7:18 a.m.
No. 24	7:28 a.m.
No. 39	7:37 a.m.
No. 24	7:47 a.m.
No. 39	7:56 a.m.
No. 24	8:06 a.m.
No. 39	8:15 a.m.

Toronto Suburban Electric Railway

Going West

9:17 a.m.	Daily except Sunday
9:33 p.m.	Daily except Sunday
9:00 p.m.	Daily except Sunday
11:58 a.m.	Sunday only
6:22 p.m.	Sunday only
8:58 p.m.	Sunday only

Going East

7:48 a.m.	Daily except Sunday
8:03 p.m.	Daily except Sunday
8:18 p.m.	Daily except Sunday
8:33 p.m.	Sunday only
8:48 p.m.	Sunday only
9:03 p.m.	Sunday only

Trains No. 3 arrive in Acton at 2:35 on Saturdays instead of 2:32 as on all other week days.

Freight delivered by special express freight. Freight picked up at any address in Toronto.

G. E. AGNEW, Agent, Acton.

FITS

Hilman's home treatment for epilepsy. Twenty years' success. Thousands of patients cured. Free booklet should be considered hopeless. Free booklet.

Wm. Hilman Remedy Co. of Canada
3611 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ont.

Up-to-Date Goods

AT C. C. SPEIGHT'S

Silverware in Tableware—Fine Variety.

Also Fine Cutlery.

Hardware, Tinware and Granite ware—Big Assortment.

Pandora Stoves and Ranges.

Famous Heaters.

Small Stoves—Oil Stoves.

EVERY ARTICLE IS OF EXCEPTIONAL VALUE

C. C. Speight
1111 Street, Acton

Chevrolet Agency

Mr. H. H. Wilson has secured the agency for Acton for Chevrolet Motor Cars, demonstrating and repairs. Come and see the new model. Now cars always on hand.

H. S. Wilson
BOWER AVE., ACTON, ONT.
PHONE 19

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Mothers Know That Genuine Castoria Always Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

CASTORIA

Always Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

CASTORIA

Always Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

ACTON CREAMERY

Full Market Price Paid for Butter Fat

Any Small Amount of Cream will Receive Our Best Attention

Sweet Cream for Sale Every Wednesday and Saturday

We Will also Pay Spot Cash for Eggs

Open Friday and Saturday Evenings

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER, NEW LAID EGGS AND FRESH BUTTERMILK WILL NOW BE SUPPLIED AT THE CREAMERY EVERY DAY

Acton Creamery Co.
WATSON & WILES, Proprietors

ACTON BAKERY

Call Phone No. 77 if you want a delicious loaf of Bread, or Brown Bread, or a Boston Loaf, Steam Loaf, Buns and Rolls, Pies and all kinds of Cookies and Cakes.

ALSO WEDDING CAKES MADE, BAKED OR ICED

BREAD IS YOUR BEST FOOD EAT MORE OF IT

Phone 77—The Waggon Will Call at Your Door

M. EDWARDS & CO.
ACTON, ONTARIO

Store Closed Every Night Except Fri day and Saturday, at 8:30 p.m.

ACTON CREAMERY

Full Market Price Paid for Butter Fat

Any Small Amount of Cream will Receive Our Best Attention

Sweet Cream for Sale Every Wednesday and Saturday

We Will also Pay Spot Cash for Eggs

Open Friday and Saturday Evenings

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER, NEW LAID EGGS AND FRESH BUTTERMILK WILL NOW BE SUPPLIED AT THE CREAMERY EVERY DAY

Acton Creamery Co.
WATSON & WILES, Proprietors

ACTON CREAMERY

Full Market Price Paid for Butter Fat

Any Small Amount of Cream will Receive Our Best Attention

Sweet Cream for Sale Every Wednesday and Saturday

We Will also Pay Spot Cash for Eggs

Open Friday and Saturday Evenings

BEST CREAMERY BUTTER, NEW LAID EGGS AND FRESH BUTTERMILK WILL NOW BE SUPPLIED AT THE CREAMERY EVERY DAY

Acton Creamery Co.
WATSON & WILES, Proprietors