Brief Local Items

—September.
—Going to Toronto Fair?
—Labor Day—next Monday.
—There's the school bell again.
—Listen for the school bell ring.
—People crop who will be short in this section.

—To-morrow will be Press Day at Toronto Exhibition.
—Fourteen-foot corn is now the habit of the growers.

—Collector Hilt advised ratepayers to get their taxes ready.
—The temperature has been so close to eleven degrees again on Sunday.

—Taxes are payable this year in installments, on September 26 and November 23.

—Mr. Frank Holmes is bringing in a car of western oats to supply the market.

—Acton Hall Fair prizes that are out Geo. Hynd, secretary, will be glad to hand you a copy.

—The town hall flag was at half-mast yesterday in honor of the late Lieutenant Governor Clarke.

—Both the regular and the special program lists of Acton Hall Fair are this year unusually attractive.

—The new drain on Mill Street is nearing completion. It is down pretty deep at the southern end.

—Clarkson strawberry growers sold hundreds of the ever-varied variety on Toronto market on Saturday at 60c.
per box.

—A considerable number of the school pupils of this section spent "Children's Day" at Toronto Fair on Tuesday.

—Mr. Fred Blow, the contractor for installation of the steam heating plant at the shoe factory, has the work well under way.

this section visited Toronto exhibition Tuesday on the free tickets which had been distributed.

—Mr. John V. Hartnett shipped 13 of his famous Dorset Horned Sheep to the exhibition to the Toronto Exhibition on Monday.

—The O. W. Y. A. Community House lawn was quite a gay place on Saturday evening with its illuminations and orchestral concert.

—The general deposit of gravel on Paradise Avenue will greatly improve the road into the park for the Fall Fair.

A half day's "rolling" would put it in better shape.

—"It's got no sense days that a man can't be dead until he can see the girl he desires," said an observant man to his friend the other day. "Two heavies?" "Yes, marriage and automobile."

—The next winter will be a cold one as the indication of weather data computed by Dr. C. E. Brooks, associate Professor of Meteorology and Climatology at Clark University, New York.
We will have —Regular filial and his commitment to the welfare of the town cemetery considering the small amount of money they had at their disposal—Oakville Hear.

—Are you a member of the Masonic Order? If not, why not? Do you see any other local paper that gives us much local and neighborhood news?
The subscription price is only $2.00 per year, or less than four cents a week.

—The editor of the Free Press has had unusually well the past week at the hands of kind friends, who have sent in donations of watermelons, cantaloupes, pumpkins, sweet corn and big eggs. Hurry we dole in a generous-hearted community.

—The splendid condition of each hole on the east end for allage, is the secret of the success of the golf community. It is reported that golf itting has been started in some additional unusually early record. The work will be pretty general next year.

—On the fact that the real estate is maturing there is this week earlier than usual this season the fair will see very few plums and none of the various varieties of pears. The same is true of many varieties of pears. Sweet pears are nearly all done now.

—Mr. John H. Kennedy has graded and levied the soil pit property he purchased from Mr. James McLean some months ago, until it is quite an attractive place of land. It will not be surprising if at some time in the future one or more cozy homes will occupy sites here.

An Enjoyable Sunday School
Pic-nic

Splendid Outing of the Methodist School, Tuesday Afternoon.

The annual picnic of the Methodist Sunday School is purposely deferred until a few days before the re-opening of the schools. The weather has interfered much with it. It is certainly very pleasant on Tuesday afternoon, the day chosen for this year's event.

A large number of motor cars were numerously placed at the disposal of the committee, and the scholars, yes, and the teachers and visitors all enjoyed the drive to the first stop, Milton, where Mr. Johnson's farm limns...The shade grove and the clean and level roadside there have been appropriately adapted to the idle passengers.

The programme of games and sports covered the membership of the school from the primary to the adult. The boy's football team, still and volleyball by Rev. Mr. Moyer, Miss Minnie Homist, Miss Emma Hawthorne, Miss Bertha Brown and their comrades of the school and gave much pleasure to spectators, and the applauded spectators.

The pic-nic tea was much enjoyed, and the abundance of ice cream cones and the gay scenes in the features of the day. The hand, as usual, added a most interesting interest and was much appreciated as was also the sing-song.

Very cordial thanks were extended to Mr. Fred Denby for his willingly granting the use of his grove, and to Mr. and Mrs. L. Johnston for favors freely expended at their home.

CREWBOND CONNERS

A number from here will attend the exhibition, Mr. McNeil has sold his farm, home to Mr. Denby of Weston.

A reunion of about two hundred members of the Kitching family of Nasawaway was held at the Hotel Kitching, Friday evening. The members were one of the early ploughmen of Nasawaway and have always held an honored and esteemed place in the community.

GEORGETOWN

The enlargement of St. George's Church is now in progress.

Editor and Mrs. Atlee, of the Echo Express, were in town on their way to Montreal. They made the Herald a very enjoyable time.

Mr. Joseph Hindley has purchased the property under the Methodist Church, from Mr. Everett Currie, and will remodel and paint the place this fall, which, when completed, is to be known as "Rock Cottage."

ROCKWOOD

Mr. H. H. Hirsch is having a building done, prepared for the men of the village are anxious to get started on the new game. The other evening fourteen of them visited Guelph grounds to get ideas and learn how the game is to be played.

Wm. Croft, U.P.O., whipper for Rockwood, was on the Toronto market with some good cattle last week. One bull was weighing 1,400 lbs. and two averaging 750 lbs. owned by Henry Leolle, Eden Mills, brought $7.00.

Alex, Catharine and J. H. Gilmore were in Toronto on Saturday getting plans and specifications for a new, up-to-date pavilion for Stanley Park.

Mr. John McCaig has completed the new cement sidewalk on the east side of Main Street, which is certainly a big improvement on the old wooden walk.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Hull and Mr. and Mrs. F. Hutchinson spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. H. Franklin at Harriston.
