Is Proving a Very Dear Exploit The United States is making Gennany sit up and think, even at this late day with treference to the wanton destruction of life when the Lusitania was torpedoed. The authorities at Washington have decreed that Germany must pay for the American lives lost on the Lualtania, and satisfy all other claims of the United States and its citizens for war losses caused by the ex-Kuiser's government before German property, now held by the United States will be returned.

This levely interrogation is the query of an article in a leading religious journal of the United States when the matter of the absence of the bible from the curriculum of the average school of the continent of North America is being considered. "The same and conscientious demand an answer to the inquiry: "Why, if the Christian religion canno be taught in our schools and colleges is three any right or reason for teaching materialistic evoluevery school and college, what right is there for Sonate. teaching the old Greek and Latin myths and mythologies, and for studying the books of the old heathen writers of those lands? There is no reason that can, for a moment, stand any reasonable test."

Intoxicated Auto Drivers

Already the season of 1021 has recorded an appalling list of deaths due to automobile accidents. How-many-of-theso-have-been due to autoists under the influence of liquor it would be difficult to say. If the truth were known in regard to this the percentage due to the above-mentioned cause would be startlingly large. Almost invariably drivers responsible for these accidents vehemently dony intoxication. In some cases, however, evidence to the contrary has been overwhelming. The frequency of such accidents has added strength to the demand for bone-dry conditions. - Apart altogether from moral conditions, the demand for sufety on our public highways is a sufficient argument in itself for the closing up of every avenue through which intoxicants get in their deadly work. The authorities would do well to institute the most thorough investigation into the source of the destructive agent. We believe that the public opinion would sunction the confiscation of all liquor found in the home of any person proven guilty of driving in public highways in an public must be placed far above the so-called rights raising taxes too high. of individuals to drink to their hearts' content in their own lidme, and then go out to menace the lives of fellow gitizens .- Pioneer.
