TALKS WITH NATURE

"I think you're funny," I said.
To the river; "for while you're a bed,
You're awake night and day;
And you're bound to go far from your head."

Loud to the hills: "I'll allow
You have a most wonderful home,
But you're such a big fool!
That you never can put
On a house, of that style they use now."

I said to the trees: "You're a mess;
You're all mixed up, but I fear
You can't leave until spring."

When a curious tree
You stand with remain standing right here."

To a green red hawthorn I said:
"I know you are green when you're red,
And you're red when you're green.
But to say what I mean—"

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the issue of the Free Press of Thursday, October 24, 1901.

It looked on Thursday as if people ought to go to Erin Show on Friday in earnest.

The ladies and girls taken with Aspern's "The Girl in the Moonlight" at the G. T. B. offices.

Mr. Connor—in visiting his double house, the corner of Church and Wilson Streets, had written a "short" and a stone foundation under it.

The new military song "Dolly Gray" is the favorite air with the "Whistling Ruffians" about town at present. It is a very good one.

Mr. Abram Glaufer and family have settled in their newly-rebuilt home at the corner of Church and Elm Street.

Thomas Glaufer who has been here for years does the bulk of the pumping business in Acton is still regarded as the old reliable pump and well-expert.

In addition to his pumping and cataract trade he is engaged in the agent for the well-known Aeromotor which is regarded as one of the very best wind-mills manufactured.

A remarkable feature of the Free Library is how quickly it got out that his book had returned the book a week ago, annotated to $1.00.

A fellow who was recently added to our library, after repeated visits to the Free Library to accommodate the frequent purchases of new books. When completed there will be provided for nearly 3,000 volumes.

WATCH THIS HURLYBURLY ALONG

One or two stories have been told of him, but he is a real "hurly-burly" of the world." Here's another:

A tourist dashed up to the British Museum in a taxicab, ran up the steps, and said to the man in the muh, "I want to see the mummy of Paul and tell what you know of the picture here mentioned."

"Experience at Tyre (v. 4-6)."

"What would be Paul's opinion in regard to the 'foe' of the 'spiritual' visit here?"

III. Experience at Caesarea (v. 7-10). What place in the Holy Land is objective on this trip? 6. What early event was responsible for the scattering of disciples to so many points?

DAILY Readings for Next Week Monday, October 21—Strong Drink in a Nation's Life (Am. 28: 1-13).

Wednesday, October 23—The Rechabites (Jer. 35: 1-10).

Thursday, October 27—Effects of Alcoholism (Prov. 23: 29-35).

Friday, October 28—Drunkards Punished (Luke 12: 41-48).

Saturday, October 29—Religious Work (Dan. 3: 1-25-28).

"All right. How about the Asyrian who came back?" "Leading the world?" "He's still there, sir!"

"German air-raiders during the war didn't damage your fine, sturdy physique?"

"No, sir, not at all, sir. But won't you step inside, and look around for yourself, sir?"
