Brief Local Items

—Is your name on the voters' list?

—It looks considerably like winter this morning.

—Bread is selling in town now at nine cents per loaf.

—It looks like dollar wheat again. This low price is rather discouraging.

—Guess it was "Squaw winter" we had on Sunday night and Monday morning.

—The snowfall on Thanksgiving covered the face of mother earth quite effectively.

—A jolt in coal will take the wreck out of reckless motor driving.—Oakville Record.

—The sacramental services of the Methodist Church last Sunday were well attended.

—Evan Jones, Elgin street, has laid the foundations for a new barn on his property there.

—A box social and concert will be held by S. S. No. 15, Terra Cotta, on Friday, November 11.

—It didn't look much like Indian Summer on Thanksgiving morning with four inches of snow.

—Quite a number of acres of turnips are still in the ground. Some folks will have cold fingers.

—Thanksgiving Day is past; now for a good energetic round up of work until the Christmas holidays.

—The snow shovels were brought from their hiding places yesterday morning and did good execution.

—Have you registered for the coming election? If not see George Hynds or W. J. Gould, registrars, at once.

—Any man who is satisfied with a job half done, and is content to let well enough alone, will have to be satisfied with half a success.

—The S. S. M. Club will hold a dance in the town hall, Acton, Friday, November 25. Music provided by Selden Orchestra, of Galt.

—Good morning! Has your Free Press subscription been renewed? If not, your kind attention to the matter to-day will be appreciated.

—W. Evans of the West End Meat Market, has opened another shop at Georgetown, and is reported to be doing a lively business down there.

—Mrs. W. J. Reid, Main Street, entertained the choir of Knox Church last Wednesday evening. The choir spent a very pleasant evening.

—The officers of Acton Horticultural Society spent Thanksgiving in distributing hyacinth and daffodil bulbs to the 200 members of the society.

—Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture, will turn the first sod for the new Memorial Hall at the O. A. C., Guelph, next Saturday, November 12.

—Oakville ratepayers decided last Thursday to authorize $12,000 to be spent in the erection of a rink in that town. The by-law carried by 335 to 168.

—A euchre social is to be held in St. Joseph's Parish Hall, Thursday, evening (to-night). Everyone welcome. Mrs. Mulholland will be the hostess.

—Alex. McDonald, who has carried the mail on Route No. 4, since the rural mail service was established, has been appointed carrier for another term at an increased salary.

—Mrs. John C. Nelson has purchased the pretty bungalow on Main Street, belonging to the estate of the late Councillor W. R. Mullin. This will make her a very cozy home.

—Ontario's apple exhibit at the London, England, apple show has won the £100 challenge cup. In addition to the premier trophy, the province also won a number of other prizes.

—Thomas Cutting, who recently sold his farm on the sixth line, and his stock, etc., by auction last Friday, will remove to Winona, where his brother Walter, is now engaged in fruit farming.

—A District Meeting and Missionary Banquet will be held in Norfolk Street Church, Guelph, on Tuesday, 15th inst., to which all the churches of the District are requested to send delegates.

—The Arlington Hotel, at Listowel, has closed its doors, leaving only one hotel in that town—a marked contrast from early days when there were nine hotels and all with busy bar-rooms.—Mitchell Advocate.

—There is a great range in the price of potatoes in Ontario this fall. In some places they are selling as low as 60 cents a bag, while in other sections $2.50 and even $3.00 is being paid. In Acton the prevailing price is $1.25 to $1.50 per bag.

—K. R. Wood, Esquesing, who was arraigned at Milton October 31 on a charge of seduction of a servant, pleaded guilty. The sentence imposed by Judge Elliot on Monday was an indeterminate sentence of two years, probably at Burwash.

—The King's Printer at Ottawa has announced to the public that hereafter printers are authorized to charge twelve and eight cents per line for all legal and government advertising. This ruling applies to both Dominion and Provincial matters.

Mr. Robert H. Watson, of Tampa, Florida, has kindly sent the Free Press copies of the Tampa Tribune giving interesting reports of the great hurricane and rain storm which caused two million dollars of loss in Tampa, and five million in Southern Florida.

Neighborhood News--Town and Country

CREWSONS CORNERS

Thanksgiving Day passed over quietly. A number of hunters spent the day in the vicinity.

The first indication of the approach of winter was noticed on Sunday night when in a few moments the ground was covered with a mantle of beautiful snow.

Hunters have been heard in the vicinity of Blue Springs the past two Sundays, contrary to the game laws. Evidently they didn't bag much in the swamps as they visited the farm of Mr. Thos. Nellis and during the absence of him and his family they stole about twenty hens. It would be advisable for the Game Warden to visit this locality some Sunday.

Mr. H. H. Brown, Hamilton, visited his parents here over the holiday.

Miss Edith Dennis, Guelph, spent the week-end at her home here.

Mrs. Greer, Hanover, spent several days this week visiting Mrs. D. A. Cripps and other friends here.

Miss Lily Frankum, Hurlston, visited in the home of Mr. Wm. Dennis this week.

CHURCHILL

The Ladies' Aid Society of Churchill Congregational Church held a very successful parlor social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnson on Wednesday evening, 2nd inst. An interesting programme consisting of speeches, recitations and music was enjoyed by all. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and social intercourse and a dainty lunch was served by the ladies. A liberal collection was received in aid of the church repair funds.

Mrs. Arthur Swackhamer spent the holiday with relatives in London.

Mr. John Graff is off on his annual expedition to the northern woods.

Disaster almost ended a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mr. John Graff. A young lad of the neighborhood discharged a rifle and the ball passed through the upper pane of the window in which a number of the guests were preparing to leave for home.

DOLLY VARDEN

Mr. Nelson and Miss Hewitt, of Toronto, spent the holiday at his parental home here.

Mrs. Alex. Cross was here from Toronto.

Mrs. Cunningham, of Galt, spent a few days with her niece, Mrs. Jas. Plant.

Miss Ida Dobbie, of Kitchener, visited friends here over the holiday.

Mr. Bert Rice was here from Kitchener visiting friends.

Mrs. Andrew Dobbie and Misses Tillie and Gwendolyn visited friends in Stratford over Thanksgiving.

Pig killing seems to be the order of the day around here.

Some of our men spent the day hunting game, while others stayed at home getting their pork ready for winter.

Things are busy, as usual, two kilns burning and another is being built.

Hallowe'en passed over very quietly. The kiddies behaved themselves well. Of course they had their usual fun making faces.

ROCKWOOD

The turnip judging contest under the auspices of Kranoma Agricultural Society, was held by Mr. James McLaan, of Richmond Hill. The award of prizes was as follows: Lorne Allan, 90¾; Gerald Kane, 90; A. F. Auld, 89; R. Shultis, 88¾; Jos. Graham, 88; Wm. Gordon, 87½; Chas. Bonham, 87; K. McLeod, 85¼; G. H. Hutchinson, 85; Jos. Marden, 84½; Wm. Wishart, 83; J. D. Cummings, 79.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Squires left last week for a holiday trip to Western Canada. Mr. Squires will be missed at the Grand Trunk office, where he has for years been the obliging agent.

The new continuation department at the Public School opened on Monday. Miss Edna James, of Belgrave, a first-class teacher, is in charge.

One evening last week the girls of the T. I. H. Class met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. J. A. Little, and presented Miss Christina McGladdery with a towel shower. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, after which dainty refreshments were served.

GEORGETOWN

Miss Annie L. Heaney, leaves this week for Toronto, where she will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Linham and daughter have removed to Hamilton where Mr. Linham has purchased a business.

Mr. Keith Nixon, who has just returned from Northern Ontario, where he has been occupying a responsible position with the C. N. R., spent a few days in town.

Tenders have been received by the Council for the construction of the new waterworks system but no contracts have been let.

The return match between the teams of Acton Continuation School and the Georgetown High School was played here last Thursday when the visitors were easily defeated by a score of 3-0.

Robert Stone, of Coldwater, has purchased the 200 acre Denison farm and the 300 acres adjoining, belonging to James Moore, on which he proposes to carry out general farming and dairying.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Fairly and Mrs. H. Johnston, of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. O'Neill over Sunday.

Mr. J. P. Hukh left last week for the annual deer hunt in Muskoka with the Farm Creek Hunt Club, of Toronto.

The social held in the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Mission Band, was a big success.

A Young People's Guild has been formed, in the Presbyterian Church, Mimosa, with Hugh Adsett as president and Miss Alice Bailey as secretary-treasurer.

Miss Ethel McAllister, of Shelburne, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. McLaren last week.

Mr. Thos. Somerville, of California, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. K. McDougall during the week.

Charles Adsett, of Mimosa, student of theology, won a $50 prize for his essay on "Family Worship," in connection with the summer school of Theology at Westminster Hall, Vancouver.

Anniversary services were held in the Methodist Church, Alton. Rev. J. R. Wilkinson, pastor of Inglewood Methodist Church, who is a former Alton boy, preached at both services. The choir rendered special music at both services. The evening service was withdrawn in the Presbyterian Church for the anniversary.

Mrs. James McDougall, of Acton, spent last week with her friend, Miss Sophia Neely at Alton.—Advocate.

OAKVILLE

The tenders for the new west side school opened last week showed estimates from $38,220 to $62,500 for a four-roomed school building. M. E. Hackrider, of Brampton, was the successful tenderer at the first-named figure.

The Oakville Red Cross Society has a balance of $251.16 in the treasury.
