BORN
WALKER—At home, on Thursday, December 18, 1931, to Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, a son, Harry (Died Thomas, formerly of Burlington).

MARRIED
GALLOWAY—LANGRISH—At the residence of her father, John Langrish, on Wednesday, January 11, 1932, by Rev. Father Galloway, Miss Kathleen Langrish to Mr. Frank Galloway, of Burlington.

DIED
HUNTER—At her residence on Wednesday, January 16, 1932, John Hunter, aged 64 years.

CRIPPLE—At home, on Monday, January 23, 1932, Joseph D. Cripp, of his 84th year.

MALDONALD—At home, on Wednesday, January 25, 1932, Allan Mc Donald, in his 41st year.

TRUMAN—At Burlington, on Wednesday, January 19, 1932, Maurio Truman, aged 72 years, on Monday, January 15, 1932, by Rev. Father Truman, in his 82nd year.

HOBBS—At the residence of her son, Dr. C. G. Hobbs, 71 Regal Road, Toronto, on Wednesday, January 18, 1932, 72 years, on Monday, January 15, 1932, by Rev. Father Hobbs, in her 82nd year.

WALLACE—At the General and Marine Hospital, St. Catharines, on Sunday, January 23, 1932, at the residence of his son, John Cameron, in his 41st year.

IN MEMORIAM
HAMMILL—In loving memory of Harold, dearly beloved son of Thomas and Catherine Hammill, Ottawa, who died January 27, 1931, aged 28 years.

Harold, beloved Harold, soon we would cease to weep, Could we glance through the golden gateway, would we see the angels keep?

But love, our love, that is deathless, Can follow you where you roam, Over the hills of God, Harold, The beautiful hills of home.

MOTHER AND FATHER
McDONALD—In loving memory of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. M. A. MacDonald, who departed this life on January 27, 1931, aged 78 years.

Two years have gone, dear Annie, Since you have passed away; How well do we remember The sad and merry days.

Now know how sad the parting, Or what the farewell cost; But God and His fair angels Who guard the souls of those who rest.

HUSBAND AND DAUGHTER
GAMBLE—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. E. J. Gamble, who passed away January 30, 1932.

One is the one we loved so dear, Far away from sight, But the love we loved to hear, Is not too far for our thoughts to reach.

We do not forget her, we loved her too dearly, For memory to fade from our lives like a dream, One has passed, but when our hearts mourn so deeply, For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.

HUSBAND, SON, DAUGHTERS
Years will come and spring's sweet showers Will bloom on hill and plain, But in this world of ours Will dear grandma return again.

Some day we hope to meet her, Some day we'll know when to clap her hand in a better land, Never to part again.

Neighborhood News—Town and Country

CREWSONG CORNERS
The coldest snip of the winter was expected for the morning's milder end. One of Mr. Mannen's foxes got out of the enclosure last week and escaped. Mr. J. S. Campbell spent Sunday with friends in Georgetown.

EVERTON
E. V. Mackinnon, a prominent Brantford farmer, died suddenly last Wednesday on his farm near Everton.

A number of the young folks of this section helped to swell the attendance of students at the Hillsburg short course at 210.

NABASAGAWAVEA
On Sunday a wood pig Robert Currie fell on the ice on his farm, near Campbellville, and broke one of his legs.

The suit, Allison vs. Haines, in the Campbellville Division Court, which was adjourned last September, was to have been tried at Milton last week, but was settled out of court.

The suit, W. J. Allison of Campbellville, claimed $155 from Marshall Haines, of that village, for fertilizer purchased by Haines in 1931, instead of paying the plaintiff, had paid James Brown, of Hamilton, who later gave the plaintiff a cheque which was 75 cents short.

The novelty of a Police Magistrate's Court, with Crown Attorney, lawyers and inspector, attracted a large number of spectators yesterday. This unusual event is an outgrowth of the alleged sale and consumption of bootleg whisky at the dance on January 6, last.

BURLINGTON
The Methodist Young People held an indoor picnic on Monday evening.

W. L. Smith, of the new President of Burlington Agricultural Society, Stanley Dynes continues as Secretary-Treasurer. The finances are in a flourishing condition.

The Methodist Church was crowded to capacity when Jack Minny gave his address on "Birds and Their Ways" on Thursday evening. Rev. J. D. Hamilton, was in St. Catharines last week attending the program committee for the annual conference to be held in that city next June.

Saturday evening, January 28, is the date of the Christmas concert, to be given under the auspices of the Victoria Order of Nurses in the town hall. On such a festive night, Alexander will furnish the program.

The January meeting of the Clara B. Moore Mission Circle was held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Gamble on Tuesday evening. A dainty luncheon was served by the committee, and a social half hour enjoyed.—Gazette.

GEORGETOWN
At a meeting of the Georgetown Ladies' Bowling Club, presided over for 1932 are: President, Mrs. H. H. Henderson; Vice-President, Mrs. G. T. (Mrs.) Dale; Copyer Social Committee, Mrs. George Ford.

The receipts of the Horticultural Society last year were $148.44. Their expenditures were $65.08 less. There were 134 members. The Legislative grant was $10.00 and the Board of Health granted $15.00. The President for 1932 is Rev. W. L. Davidson.

Mr. J. B. Mackenzie was in Ottawa last week attending the Ontario Lumbermen's Convention.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario will unveil the memorial windows in St. George's Church on Sunday morning, January 29.

Mr. B. E. McRobert is remodeling the corner of his hotel block for a store. It will be occupied when completed by Mrs. Fitzrobert, the "indie" tailor.

Our town hall is being re-organized and will shortly commence regular practice.

Messrs. Geo. Ford, A. Norrington, H. B. McDowell, Georgetown, and Mr. John Kenney, of Acton, visited John Ross Robertson Lodge A. F. & M. at Toronto last Tuesday night.

The concert under the auspices of the St. George's Church on Saturday evening was given by the G. W. V. Unit, and a new musical organization in town, under the leadership of Mr. H. G. Melr.—Herald.

SHE DIDN'T KNOW BEANS
Groceries—We have some very fine string beans to-day.

Mrs. Newton—How much are they a string?

—William Thompson and Walter Lawson are the township auditors for 1932. They will receive $15 each for their services.

The Bell Telephone men have been busy installing new phones in town for a week or so. The Acton exchange is growing rapidly.

Farmers adjacent to the town are applying Hydro-Electric connection. This application should be granted them whenever possible.

The ladies' choir at the morning and evening services in the Methodist Church last Sunday made the service of praise especially interesting.

Inspector Revely visited the Station Hotel, Seymour's restaurant on a tour of inspection one day last week and found everything satisfactory.

The Acton members of the Ontario Motor League have been invited to the annual dinner, to be held in King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on Tuesday, 31st inst.

It is reported that ex-Dr. McArthur, of Georgetown, has passed with 100 per cent efficiency marks in his examination for a position on the Ontario Provincial Police.

At the annual meeting of the Hydro-Electric Commission last week, W. J. Gould was elected chairman for the year, 1932, succeeding George Hynds, who was the first chairman.

OPBRINGE
The annual report of the Presbyterian Church was distributed to the members on Sunday. The receipts for the year for the general fund totalled $105.44. The sum of $12.00 was raised for missions; $122.08 for Forward Movement; $423 for Sunday School; $25.82 for other work, and $5.00 for Chinese. Total: $1,409.35.

ONCE ENOUGH
"How often does your road kill a man?" asked a facetious travelling salesman of a Central Branch conductor the other day.

"Just once," replied the conductor wryly.—N. Y. C. Magazine.

GODD AT WATCHING OTHERS
"Somehow or other," said Uncle Eben, "do men that ain't never learned to do no regular work himself alius manages to get filled up wif do notion that he would make a good boss."

AN OAT-WORTHY DEPARTURE
His noble brethren are giving up eating porridge for breakfast. The suggestion that this is an account of the discovery of a less expensive article of diet should not be taken seriously.—London Sunday Pictorial.

AVOIDABLE ACCIDENTS
Accidents, fatal or otherwise, incurred in hunting can seldom be classed as unavoidable. Many times they can be classed as excusable. They occur either because of ignorance of the man who is so careless, or because of the man's own carelessness. The latter is the more avoidable.

HELPING DAD
A preacher, raising his eyes from his desk in the midst of his sermon, was paralyzed with amazement to see his rude offspring in the gallery belting the hoarse in the pews below with chestnuts.

NIAQAARA'S HORSE-POWER
If the falls of Niagara were fully utilized it is computed that they would supply energy equal to 7,000,000 horse-power, while on the upper Mississippi 2,000,000 such units of work should be available.

New Lamp Burns 94 per cent. Air
Beats Electricity or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been developed by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to ordinary oil lamps.

The inventor, F. N. Johnson, 346 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' "TRIAL," or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it.

Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.
