Another Big Carnival To-Night

The management of the Acton skating rink have planned for another big carnival for to-night which promises to be a success. About twenty events with prizes of various kinds have been prepared. Acton Citizens' Band will be in attendance and there is ample provision being made for music and merriment.

Rev. J. Lafferty Gulam, M.A.—Sunday

Rev. J. Lafferty Gulam, M.A. of St. George, will preach in the Methodist Church next Sunday morning; and evening, Rev. Mr. Gulam is one of the leading clergymen in the Guelph area. His services here will be enjoyed. During his stay in Acton Mr. Gulam will visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. Herbert, 101, Main Street, and Rev. I. M. Moyer will preach educational services at St. George.

Canada's Centennial Minister
Rev. T. M. Jefferys, of Oakville, will celebrate his one hundredth birthday on Saturday, March 12, at 10 a.m. at his residence, 101, Main Street, Oakville. A special service will be held in the Methodist Church, Oakville, to commemorate the event. Rev. Mr. Jefferys expects to attend this service. The Rev. Mr. Jefferys will speak at a service to be held in the church of St. George's Anglican Church, Guelph, while Rev. Mr. Gulam will be minister of the Ytheness Church, Naugawaya, sixty years ago. Bishop Francis W. Warner of the Methodist Church in India, in an Erin boy, is here.
