THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1922

In the school of I'll Try; And there's many a wish and there In the school of I'll Try. But 'It's below and doing that after all.

Though many a failure and many For they nover drop back very far be · youd call In the school of I'll Try. It's the truest and dullard that not fur In the school of PH Try. But the wise and the willing keep adfe aleeve par

In the school of I'll Try. And It's Hopeful that unks just a of a sturt. And it's Purpose that line, of blu heart . " In the school of I'll Try,

The Testing of the Team

Made M. Prideaux

previous year. The boys took to all that was a cross between baseball and golf, which had been borrowed here one new feature Phillips Brown, the and there for the occasion.

Serked of by a limb of a tree," said until the first was a cross between baseball and golf, which had been borrowed here the horse tracks, and the cap was for the horse tracks, and the cap was for the feed in. Food iniddlings, mixing until quantities at a time with awest opinion on the subject.

"Say, boys, there is only one available, that I see, that's Joe Henson," sald one of the boys striding across the court with a long shambling walk, "He's the one, if you ludge a fellow by the length of his legs, or the cut of cont," called Bill, where upon all burst out in a yell, thinking of Joe's all too short trousers and still shorter coat. How, and why Joe Benson, "High Pockets," as the boys called him, had money," said Joe, calmly. chosen Howard Lake school a rather. select boys' school, where the parents of road amid the profuse cheering of of those there lavished all the little both sides. Ted swung off in the lead luxuries, known to suburban schools which brought forth more cheers. Joe of its kind, no one knew. The faculty strode along in the rear, at an easy rather admired Joseph for his brilliant | gait, which only emphasized his ridimind and his droit way of putting culous attire all the morn. things. Restful, in connection with some of the boys, "hurry up there" so far in munifesting the least desire others who were all close together. for any form of athletics; he could hall or like athletic sports. the athletic association for Saturday toward the last going to try out. The appeal for vol- boun better to have taken it a little ed. These two were among the best, He stopped, spoke, then something both in their studies as well as other within him welled up again, and he thinks. They evidently hated to think accosted him. of their rival school being shead in of big feet, and Joe Benson rose to his full five (feet nine inches, and a couple of dollars." thrusting his hands into his pockets, headway, but believe I'll try 'er," he your hurry?" said, with his undemonstrative drawl, us he slowly surveyed the ones com- was all," boldly said Ted. posing the company.

the boys settled to a low, undertone the boy us he held the pony while Ted discussion which brought a flush to climbed up behind him, then he turn-Joe's, face, especially when now and od the horse and they callogs! off. then there came a derisive cough. His Near a slight clearing, only here und only hat, was almost twisted into a there an ush tree and small under knot. But Ted Moore saw nothing brush, the horse shied at a rabbit amusing in the fact that Joe was going crossing the road. She jumped to one to try out. Ted was the winner of the side, almost throwing Ted off. His cup the year before, or at least is was cap caught on a low linb of a tree; through his skill that they had car- flipped up and throw the cap into ried off several honors. He also re-thick tangle of briars at the side. membered the last geometry test, wherein he had led the class, before Joe got shead. But the talk of the boys you can reach it."." terminated with more yells, and a slap or two on Joe's shoulder, and one after another they drifted away.

The following Saturday morning, the three boys gathered for the 'maiden effort" at a five-mile run, together with all the others, were on the campus at eight o'clock sharp.

. Ted and Cooll were fittingly garbed Ted and Cecil were fittingly garbed throw down the atick, and gave it up, for the adventure, but Joe showed no "Let's go on, I wouldn't get scratched evidence of change whatever, as so far up for the worthless thing," snapped he had never appeared in any other Ted, whereupon he made several atthan the slick navy blue suit appar- tempts to get up behind the boy on ently a couple of years old. Their director explained the route.

"We will try the Baker road out to- than over now.

the boys, winking at Tod. .. time," hastily added Ted, thinking of his eyes fell upon the truck of the the ungularly rival, whom he knew to horse, he looked cless, but only this be only a greener at any kind of ath- one truck was visible in the fresh sand, there was dependence in Joe and he panted Ted as he came up to the boat- foul trick. . . .

every day almost, for the end-term caught sight of something, among the run. They had a couple of new boys, briars. The brown silk lining of the the break-down of the law will mean who bid fair' to carry off the trophy, cap, shone brightly in the sun. Jee Those two schools had been running durted forward, grabbed a heavy limb, neck and neck for the inter-collegiate poked at the object, then caught aight cups, in previous contests; so this was of the green and white plaid sides to decide the one to go to mid-term of the cap, but saw-that only made ADVANTAGES OF THE WOODLOT for the district.

little matter." "Fire away," drawfold Joe.

little and give me the lead te-morrow I'll give you a ten-spot, unid Ted thinking of his ample allowance, from which he would hardly miss the money and he dld not have to give an necount for mane. Joe's face turned red; his eyes which were naturally large, opened wider, and with a tase of his head said, "Holl out to you, take a bribe, that's the idea is "Aw, not a bribe, you see the point, lou't you? My uncle is so proud of my record so far, and has offered me twenty-five If L. make It. Beuldes, I know that short-winded bunch over ut Highland. I can beat them easy," "You don't know me, my friend Hot you can fost but this down, Ted Moore. I don't do that sort of thing." until Jon deliberately. Tool glared at him, and then strede away. Joe watchof him go down the campus, then looking down at his shouldy shoes, which needed hulf-suling, he-walked wlowly: toward the street -Fruik Walnott Hutt:

Ted was not folled in the first effort, added a bit of sout to the atmosphere the worst. He he rushed away, and correct feeding and exercising of the as well as lent a brilliant freshmess to was crossing the slight ridge behind milking sew is one of the most inthe campus, where a throng of boys, the last clump of heavy trees, when he portant steps in making market hogs with waving permants, had useembled | met Ted coming at full speed. for the cross-country .run. Cocil was first, to appear among the number that was in the contout. Vifteen 'rahs were given him, the yalls given the Highland boys. Ted next appeared, dressed in a new oport built for the occusion

A brilliant green-checked cap while was in keeping with the rest of his going in for athletics strong, togs, gave him a decidedly sporty look. that fall. The football tours All cheered blm, much to his pleasure. country, since wreating the loving cup regular hubbub, all good natured, of in the sun. from the three contesting schools the course, when Joe strode up in a suit troduce, that of the cross-country run. It was all a joke, that Joe was only "No running for me. I don't mind making light of their runners, but was a like now and then, but that's too assured by Ted that Joe was really far," complained Hill Spencer, as the going to run. "And he can run like a banket-ball captain had asked their coyote, too," added one of the boys,

"Ho'd make a coyote get up and beat slow down about the Hewitt pasture, how, goes It, Jost' "Just got up and bout me if you can that's all I sak. I don't want, your All lined up and started for the Bak

Tod stayed in the lead, out of sight down the Baker road, and soon appear- the same time, just-us Joe was being | Here are the three fundamentals in style. But Joe had failed absolutely, ed a gray-moving object ahead of the borne slott on the shoulders of the successfully feeding the weaning pig: Joe gradually worked his way uhead, swim, or ridey but had no desire for but he did not care to overtake and pass Ted just yet; he could do that Phillips Brown called a meeting of later, as Ted always got short-winded morning, the end of the first month | Just as Ted entered the Howlit pasof school. 'He put the question to ture and turned into the dim, seklemthem about the cross-country run, used road through the woods, he was saying that Highland Park was also feeling ble strength go, He would have unteers was about to fail, when Ted slow. He came to a walk now und had Moore, a star basket-ball member said gone only a short distance when he he would try, then Cecil Smith assent- | met a boy riding a small brown pony.

"Say, I'm a little rushed for time. anything. Finally, there was a shuffle can't you take me across the pasture toward the boathouse? I'll give you "I was looking for black-haw, there may be some over there, and I'll drive

"Don't know as I could make much that way if it'll help you any. What's 'Hop on bohind, but he careful he There was a burst of applause, and to kick 'er in the flanks, or she'd throw "Hurrah for High Pockets!" 'And then us both, and be quick about it" said

"Buch luck," sald the boy with the horse, "just got a dead limb and maybe "Those boastly things scratch something awful," said Ted after & desperate effort to extricate the cap.

The peny was restless, stumped and which around. It was all the boy could do to hold her. With one final-threat atrthe offending cup, Ted only pushed it down deeper among the-briefs; he the horse, finally making it, rode off sullenly, for he felt considerably worse ward Codar Springs, turn into Hewitt's Joe Benson, some distance in the pasture at the big fron gate and cross lead of the other boys, was making the woods to the boathouse at the dam | rapid strides through Hewitt's pasture, creek. I will meet you there, have expecting every minute to come in lunch and we will come home in the night of Ted, for he had overtaken him each time before this distance. Joe "Here's a toust to Joe," called one of stopped, listened, but heard only the rustle of dead autumn leaves, as they "It isn't all legs that count every here and there flitted down. Then pucked firm by the shower the night The first attempt at the new sport beford. "Ted has out across unother resulted in Joe arriving more than way, or there is something tricky thirty minutes shoul of the other boys, whout these horse tracks," said Joe Mr. Brown was pleased, for he knew scrutinizing the wood road, But he hastened on with renewed strength. would broke a formidable rival in any and determined to find out one of two things, whether Ted was the boy he "It's so beastly hot to-day is the had appeared to be in offering the reason I could make little headway, bribe, or some one had played him a house, where Joe and Mr. Brown were . Joe never halted, but was busy with If he prevails, you men who made ready to aprend a lunch. Cool was a his thoughts as he swung on down the clearing, he halted. There the few paces in the rear, and evidently the read into the wood. Buildenly at "It is unusual for this time of the rider had evidently stopped for some for democracy, will hear the meb rapyear, but you boys did exceedingly well thing. Joe looked at the shee prints, ping at your door, will see your women ply. for he was sure the first affort would couldn't aweur that they were Tod's. tire them, then, too, the day had been too, the horse seemed to have been warm. Not a breath of air, still and restless, no doubt someone fixing his anddle girth. He was about to start Highland Park boys were training on to make up for the delay, when he feet, he trampled down the vine un'

athletic association as representative matters worse. Sol with his heavy Ted, Cecil and Joe practiced diligent - much us possible, reached into the every farm has its woodlot or bush. In ly, each time making it a little closer, underbrush, unmindful of the thorns, many cases this portion of the farm is Then Ted and Joe were very close, and tore the cap out. His borrowed indispensable to the owner's comfort each seemed bent on one thing, that shirt was torn on the shoulder, and and prosperity. He could not short to was a win. Still Joe was just ahead the cap also had a good-sixed tour, buy the fuel, fence-posts and tomber ject. every time he was long-winded, and ucross the top, He stepped back, glar; that are required about the place. The "Ah, well," replied the gentus, "it's his long limbs seemed to be decidedly ed at the cap, then anger allow came, outling of these gives him occupation jad supply to be named Fiddle, with-met Joe on the campus and said, "Bay, far belind, and thought, of course, Ted farm, and the sale of an occasion Joe, want to speak to you about a was stready at the boathouse, receiv- load of fuel or posts brings him in ing the cheers and applause of the ready money. The 'protection' the schools. First defeat and shame met | woodlot affords against , winds, for | "It's this way: you know I've won him face to face. No one would sus- dwellings, gardens, orchards and live several things for/the school, and since heat Ted of anything underhunded, stock is often of grout importance. this is my last year, I don't want to then; too, being a new boy at the and one of its many values which canfall out: You see you are only a fresh. subool, and to be deutt such a trick not be readily expressed in dollars and show, and want to get out and go to Branch, Ottawa.

It Measures Up in Tea Quality 100% of its Selling Cost

TEA "STANDARD" THE WORLD OVER

-FEEDING THE MARKET HOQ

of their importance is absolutely os-skim milk. This gots the little pig gradually prepared for wearing. Scattering a few handfuls of good plump mixture is kept low, and the fat con-months pig of 50 lbs, food a bound or se of the mixture daily. Book for 12 to 24 hours beforehand. Feed with 6 his. of skim milk daily. After the pig is well over wearing the milk may be fed better soured (not decomposed).

1.-Koop him hungry, Have him squealing for his rations an hour before they are due. 2.- Keep his pen clean, but we that the bottom of his trough is the cleanest part of his pen,

3.-Hen that he gets exercise, outdoors

in the summer, or in a well bedded son or shed in the winter or early

From three to four months use u mixture of oats, 50 thu, shorts 50 ths.

middlings 25 that, com or barley 25 that.

lingeed meal 5 per cent., or equal parts of onts, shorts and barley, with milk or tankand. From four to five months

a mixture of oats, shorts and barloy or corn, equal parts with 5 per cent.

ing whole or adding to the ground meal

1.-Do not overfeed in an effort to z.-Where milk is not available

tankuge may be fed 3 per cent. to 10 per ount, depending on the pig's age.

lest results are obtained by feeding

3.-Green food, either cut or pasture s a moul saver in summer. A few roots (mangels) are a wonderful help

4-If a prime bucon hos is desired

stick to a ration that will grow bone and frame for the greater part of the

POISON WE ALL EAT

Few people know that in its original juice when freshly dug. The root is There is no need to worry about the proparing farinha for 'centuries, for taploca of our shops, and both are pro-

Taptoca, however, is the purest pro-

THE LAWYER'S SURMISE

In an Iowa court, recently a lawnost. Then he paused a moment, and "I see your honor shukes your head

"I-luye not influented how I shall declaten shuff by. Your remarks ure

"You shook your head," was the re

"That muy be true," retoried the court. There will a fly on my ony, and I reserve the right to remove it in any manner I see lit. Proceed with your

MAKING BAD WORSE

Thomas Fiddle was a very learned

But his friends were frightfully dis-

One of them tackled him on the sub-us to that statement, but I desire to reastirm what I have remurked."

mixture.

Coneral Rules-

in a solf-fooder.

inish a pig in record time.

to the winter futtened hog.

Fooding the Weaning Ply-There are

Brood sows and boars of correct an honest upright place. If this was what higher education stood for, he was done. But then he reversed his thoughts; there is someone in every bacon type and with size and quality growd no Moubt who will do such a ure hepeasiry to produce bucon pigs. and of what ten dollars would mount to thing, and he know there never was The condition of the sow and boar at Joe, all he would need in the morning a better, more zealous faculty than breeding has much to do with the was to produce the crisp green or the there, for they had ut once found Jos quality, strength and size of the comto be their best pupil, and all the lng litter. Proper feed and exercise A clear, crisp morning, which follow- boys as a whole had been fairly decent outdoors -is absolutely necessary for ed a slight whower the night before, to him except a very few, Ted being success with the programt sew. The

> "Joe, I just couldn't do it." Kamed Ted out of breath. ply crop, but the proper appreciation at 5,000 feet. "Do what?" suppost Joe as he fold the rolled-up cap in the pecket of his

> "Go on; when I got near enough to thousands of little pigs from the best hear the crowd und know they were of breeding stock rulned unnually expecting you, instead of me, I was through improper or everfooding from ushamed," admitted Ted cowardly. "Where's your cap, Ted?" said Joe, Overfooding at this stage makes a you get into." looking at Tod's auburn hair shining short, fut, dumpy, poor quality finished before he is heavy enough and

"Here's your cap; I got it out of he briars down in the clearing," said Joe and thrust the cap into Ted's whole outs in the litter is good practice

After weating is the critical time. "Hay, Joe, you're the straightest chap The following is a good ration for the I ever know. When you wouldn't take weaped pigrouts, (either finely ground it I'll wager, if that unimal ever got that money, I saw that honor amount- well-niled cats, feeding outment, or, a squint at him." Whereupon all rour- ed to more than anything else," said better still, ground hulless outs) 50 Ted, looking Joe straight in the cyos. Ins.; middlings, 25 lbs.; shorts, 25 lbs.; "I'll pass it up this time, Ted, but ground flax or linsood meal, 5 lbs.; you must tell the whole thing to Mr. tankage, 3 Mss. This may be varied Brown. I want him to see the in- provided that the crude fibre in the ulds of the whole thing." . tent fairly high. For the two to three

"Good, I can promise him one thing

dlas; you're the straightest boy on the toam, and I'm going to be, after this," "Go on shead, Joe, it's your win. I'll come on later," said Ted. "Here, let's shake Ted, Y sin't any- Food it soured all the time thereafter. thing but a freshman, and serier green, Do not occasionally change back to but I believe you are my friend now." sweet milk. Buttermilk is excellent,

Joe won the race by only a few probably the best milk by-product for minutes, for the boys all came in about the plg over 3 months, cheering crowd.

STOP-LOOK-LISTEN.

lying room shaking a cockiall mixers You editors who are trying to make the law a lie by bringing back, wine und beer and the boor saloon! You politicians who want the saloon back because you think noul it in your business. oll meal. For the finish the corn or What are you doing? lurley may be increased either by feed-When your daughter good down the street after dark her safety depends upon the law and the respect of the Your property, your house, your bustness, your bonds, your bunk, depends wholly upon the law for protection. Your children play around the house and the school and pass through the streets safely bucause the law watches. Everything that is in and of America-everything that is worth wiffe in the life of every individual in the country-rests squarely upon the basis f law and order.

You can't dostroy the prohibition aw, you can't ridicule and oppose the inforcement of that law, without striking directly at the safety of your wife the last two months—G. Il. Rothwell, and daughter, the security of your Dominion Animal Husbandman.

aw of the land. It is a stone in the coundation. There is only one way in which it can be gotton out of that state taploca is a deadly polson. The foundation without wrecking the struc- root of the manice plant, from which ture and that is by the due process of it is propared, is full of poisonous

The fathers who gave us this glori- grated and subjected to great pressure. ous country-Goorge Washington, Which climinates every trace of the Chomas Jefferson, Madison, Benjamin | polson, and ultimately gives us the Franklin, John Hancock-determined familiar taploor of commerce. how the prohibition law should be put into the Constitution. They said, "If chance of being poisoned the next certain things are done in certain ways, time you take a helping of taploga they must be accepted by the entire budding, for the natives liave been They made it hard to make changes their own consumption, and know exand they expected their children to actly how to make the polson root peraccept the changes that were made ut. feetly safe. Farinha consists of grains cording to the agreed plan of making of similar size and appearance to the

That plan is the bond of union, the ducts of the same root. only thing that holds our people and commonwealth together. Destroy It, duct of the poison root. Farinha has convince the nation that the people no a little woody fibre in it which gives longer believe in the rule of the mu- it a yellowish color, and its hard, dry jority, let the people begin to think grains contains no gluten and very litthat it avails nothing to exert the the sturch, - und crumble like carthy effort necessary to cause the sub- mutter when mixed with water. Yet mission of a Constitutional amond- this product of the poison root is the ment by two-thirds of Congress and staple food of the poorer planens in its ratification by three-fourths of the countries where manico grows. legislatures, let them think that there In contempt, and the rule of the ballot breaks down in this country, with unlimited mossibilities of chaos in prosyer arguing his care became very par-

There are enemies of the Constitution, of law, of shelety, at work among us to-day. The Bolshovik, the unurchiat, the man who wants to destroy all existing social compacts, is here. monby for the first time during the great war white sons of prohibition cowering in the darkost corners of the basement, will see your newly acquired Wealth ripped from your houses to food the greed of anarchy. Only pae thing stands between you and that-the Constitution and the law. to you personally .- World Dignet. young man. 'At school he shone like all the stars and planets, lumped together. A sixty candle-power lamp wasn't in it boaldo the burning flame of this genius. appointed when he refused to accept the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

man," said Tell more friendly and in | made Joe rebel at all the nome and cents.-Bulletin 69, Dominion Forestry

Come or dryness of the hir. cartle, he heard a railway train, but

Two miles up he heard the barking Another balloonist, the Hev. J. M. sounds rising from human beings " The discharge of a gun was heard by Claimber at a height of two miles.

the spasmodic yelp of a dog. It was the sound of artillery practios on Plumstead Marshes a mile beinstant only, and reminded him of of the sea. 'At a greater height still, the sound had sunk to a more murmur, while'at a beight of four billes ulsove London, all was hushed, of her litter. Those are steps in the A noted French balloonist discovermaking of a bacon hog uside from the ed that he could hear the crowing of actual market feeding of the season's a cock and the sound of a church bell

Fred: "How many shirts can I go out of a yard" ..... weaning time to three months of uge. Ted: "It depends upon whose yard

COUPE

SEDAN

WONDERS OF BOUND TRAVEL

A Tamous balloonlet named Chalaber dways found that sounds from the arth varied according to the damp-When in clouds four miles above the

when the clouds were far above him, all was silent. . of a small dog, yet at less than half that height he failed to hear the shouting of a large crowd of people. liacon, found how wonderfully plereing was the shrick of a railway whilstle. The shouts of children were always the first to be heard among the many Itacon's experience in this respect was curious. He was ballooning between Woolwich and Phimstead, in England, when he heard what he imagined to be low. Each sound was heard for one those finance of lightning which are followed by a single roar of thunder. At a height of between 5,000 foot and 6,000 foot (Halaher could hear the ded) would of London rising like the roar

STUDEBAKER

Announces New Prices!

SERIES 22 BIG-SIX PRICES

SERIES 22 SPECIAL-SIX PRICES

THE NEW LIGHT-SIX PRICES

All Prices F. O. B. Walkerville, Ontario

J. N. O'Neill & Son - Georgetown, Ont.

Acton and Milton.

Distributors of Studebaker and Dodge Brothers Motor Cars for Georgetown," .

ROADSTER (3-Passenger)

COUPE-ROADSTER ....

ROADSTER (2-Passenger)

COUPE (4-Passenger)

TOURING

CLUB ROADSTER .....

Engine-Driven Washer The Ladies are Invited to Call at Our Implement Shop and Inspect One on the Floor

FIRST-CLASS HONEY, AMBER, 160 15

Reduced Prices Have Come CALL AT THE IMPLEMENT BHOP AND LET US TALK IT OVER

TRACTOR PRICES. T. H. C. 8-16 M. P. 4 cylinder and 2 Furrow Tractor

Titan 10-20 H. P. 2 cylinder and 3 Furrow Tractor

Or Tractor Disc Harrow with either Tractor in lieu of Plow . DE LAVAL CREAM BEPARATORS

Let us have your order for Pertilizer. Repairs for various machines kept in stock or secured at your order. Wind Mills, Pumps, Gasolene Engines, Fleury Plows, Rollers and repairs: Don't send your cash to mail order houses for your Wire Fence. We can supply you at same price if you give cash with order and you can see what you are getting. Veedel Motor Oil. First Quality Muchine und Separator Oils. Cup Grease.

MILL STREET, ACTON

rubber rolls. The "Heafourn" is made by Dowswoll, Long and Co., Limited, Hamilton.

Special!

Seafoam Electric Washer

Combination Washing and Wring-

ing Machine

The Washing Michine works on the popular Dolly principle. The operating mechanium is simple and durable. All

Muchino equipped with strong ball bearing cautors. The motal-frame wringer it litted with bighest grade gours covered.

stock, priced at $50.00.

The BOND HARDWARE CO. LL.

This Store's Policy

To represent goods exactly as to their quality; to sell to those who know and to those who don't know at a uniform fair price; to fulfill all guarantees and cheerfully correct all mistakes; to deserve your confidence, by always giving you satisfaction.

Savage & Co.

he Double Track Route

Parlor Care on principal day trains. Full Information from any Gran Trunk ticket egent or C. E. Horning.

H. S. HOLMES, Agent

District Passenger Agent Toronto.

Acton Elevator

.At Grand Trunk Station

Just Arrived-Car No. 1 Feed Oats A QUANTITY OF FEED CORN AND OIL CAKE JUST

FLOUR FEED, NORVAL BRAN AND SHORTS, FEED FLOUR

RECEIVED

R. NOBLE Ltd.

Shoes, Slippers, Rubbers, Spats

For 1922

WILLIAMS

Has been Serving You for over Forty Years

with his Reliable Goods

They have Always Pleased

Try His Stock Again This Year for Practical Results.

Ohildren Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A Little Limelight

Have you noticed how everything else just fades into obscurity when the spotlight is focussed on the leading lady or leading man on the stage? And how vividly every detail shown by the spotlight remains in your memory?

Many a business man can draw an object lesson from this. Is your business, for instance, in the public eye? Do you regularly throw the "spotlight" of ADVER-TISING on your store?

-ADVERTISING will enable you to tell the story of your business to 5,000 in this town and district. ADVERTISING breeds confidence. Buyers go naturally to the store or business that is "in the lime.

Get the facts from THE ACTON FREE PRESS

The Wise Shop Where They Are Invited

Issued by Ganadian Weekly Newspapers Association. Head Office, Toronto, Canada

MURINE Mant and Marriage YOUR EYES if Sore, Irritated, Inme Murine often, Setties, Exterior, Safe for Infantor Adult. At all Druggists, Write for Frankys Book, Saste Rys Restricts, Chings For You