

Births, Marriages and Deaths are now charged for at the following rates: Births, $1; Marriages, $2; Deaths, $2; Memorial Cards, 50c per line extra for names.

MARRIED

OAKVILLE—(Continued)—At the Union Georgetown, on Wednesday, March 8, 1922, by Rev. R. F. Cameron, Deacon. Young couple, Mr. and Mrs. David A. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Overland, all of Etobicoke.

DIED

LAWSON—At his home, Milton, on Wednesday, March 15, 1922, John Lawson, in his 74th year.

JEPPICHUH—On Thursday, March 16, 1922, at his late residence, Oakville, Rev. Thomas M. Jeffries, aged 100 years, 1 month and 20 days.

ARMSTRONG—At Brampton on Monday, March 20, 1922, Alexander Armstrong, beloved husband of Martha Graham, formerly of Acton.

MILLIGAN—At his residence, Acton, on Friday, March 17, 1922, John Miller, father of Mr. Ed. Tyder, Acton, in his 74th year.

MOFFAT—In Milton, on Tuesday, March 21, 1922, Mrs. James Moffat, wife of James Moffat, in her 76th year.

CHRISHOLM—In Trafalgar, on Wednesday, March 22, 1922, Rebecca Chisholm, wife of Thomas Chisholm, in her 77th year.

GHATAM—At his home, 93 Hazelton Avenue, Toronto, on Monday, March 20, 1922, James Graham, Irish and English teacher, Hamilton, Ontario, and his wife, who were accompanied for this galaxy of enter-tainers and their renderings were very satisfactory.

A feature of the programme was the "Past and Future." It was evident words the patriotic soul of Ireland was enlivened in the history of his life, and with it the history of Canada. The importance of Ireland in the past was emphatically set forth, while the future peace, industry and progress of the country were confidently predicted. In closing Father Ghatam said Cardinal Newman's apt and eloquent statement: "I look upon the Emerald Isle as the crossroad between the hemisphere, the centre of the world; old in Christ, young in its promise for the future."

His Ambition is Realized

And Rev. T. M. Jeffries, Oakville, the Centenarian Preacher, Passed Away

—Selected your garden seeds yet?

—How do you like the new maple syrup?

—Methodist Ladies' Aid social this evening.

—The dust was flying on the streets last week.

—The robins are here in considerable numbers now.

—Many of the roads are in bad condition now.

—According to the almanac spring opened on Tuesday.

—Wild geese have been flying northward during the week.

—Winter hasn't surrendered to spring very gracefully yet.

—Vernal thaws are coming to the lawns and boulevards again.

—Quarterly review services in the Sunday Schools next Sunday.

—Ipswich's tax rate has been struck for this year at 41 mills.

—Sunday afternoon's storm gave the streets and pavements another coating of ice.

—Keep Good-Friday evening free for the Easter Cantata in the Methodist Church.

—Meat-cut taxpayers will stagger along the roads under a rate of 61 mills off the dollar.

—Guelph has a new band known as the Royal City Flute Band with twenty-eight members.

—J. A. Smith, real estate agent, has sold Mrs. Thos. Ryders farm to Duncan McMillan, Ottawa.

—The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church will be glad to greet you at their social this evening.

—Mikola Ertody, of Thorold, drunk bootlegger, died on Monday and died just as he reached home.

—The equinoctial storm—if such it was—on the 19th and 20th, came a trifle in advance of schedule time.

—The Sanitary Inspector writes all citizens to clear up the winter's accumulations about their premises.

—Have you ever sent a news item to the Press? If so, you have one worthy of publicity send it to-day.

—It is reported that Bir Adair Beck has sold his fine property east of Oakville, and will shortly take up his residence there.

—Mr. J. H. Wood, of Sydney, Australia, has the thanks of the Press from the annual meeting of the Australian Association.

—Whatever the rest of this winter may bring, there is general agreement that the weather over, and even the worst was not bad.

—Frank Whittley will hold an auction sale of dairy cattle, at lot 11, second line, Exeter, on April 4. Watch for particulars next week.

—Owing to lack of suitable accommodation at Washington, D. C., the present teacher may have to go elsewhere.

—Mr. W. H. Walker, of Acton, former resident of Mitchell, is painting and decorating the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Massey, Huron Road, West.

—At the annual meeting of the Ontario Bar Association, Mr. Marcel Jeffreys, M. A., of Guelph, was chosen as one of the Vice-Presidents of the Association.

—Chas. Philpott was arrested, on Monday by Chief Conney of a farm near Acton where he has been working and sketching portraits. He was wanted there on a charge of non-payment of taxes.

—Although confined to the house for the past month Police Magistrate Moore has held several court sessions there and wrong doers have been obliged to pay penalties commensurate with their offense.

—Mr. A. D. Savage, Guelph, has been appointed as official optometrist for the C. P. R. in Guelph district. Up to the present the C. P. R. optometrist at Toronto has had charge of the Guelph division.

—It is reported that the U.S. Farmers' Cooperative Company has suffered an impairment of $22,000 of the $25,845 paid-up capital of the company, with a total loss of $34,000 during the past three months.

—Several friends in Oakville had a good time with W. A. Holmes, who is greatly enjoying his Mediterranean trip, and at present is touring Greece.

—Oakville Star, Mr. Perrin, was Lance Inspector for Halton for several years.

—In the course of the Mill Street payment to the Methodist Church on Sunday evening, Mrs. H. S. Holmes sustained a painful fall on the floor. Her side and arm and head were severely bruised by the impact, but no bones were broken.

The St. Patrick Concert

At Galway of Splendid Talents and an Excellent Programme.

The St. Patrick's concert, under the auspices of St. Joseph's Church, last Thursday evening, was in all respects a most creditable affair. The artistic program suggested to supply the program.

The spirit of Ireland's patron saint pervaded the program, and it was a decided success.

In the presentation of the numbers provided for the entertainment, the Rev. Gordon, under whose direction the band played, proved himself an ideal chairman.

The program was very versatile and well-rehearsed throughout. It was provided by the following talent: Frank Roy, the boy soprano, from the Victoria Hall; and singing, Miss Lydia Tyler, Acton, in her 74th year.

MOFFAT—In Milton, on Tuesday, March 21, 1922, Mrs. James Moffat, wife of James Moffat, in her 76th year.

WILLIAMS—In Trafalgar, on Wednesday, March 22, 1922, Rebecca Williams, wife of Thomas Williams, in her 77th year.

CHIRSHOLM—At his home, 93 Hazelton Avenue, on Tuesday, March 21, 1922, Rev. Thomas M. Jeffries, aged 100 years, 1 month and 20 days.

WILLIAMS—In Trafalgar, on Wednesday, March 22, 1922, Rebecca Williams, wife of Thomas Williams, in her 77th year.

GHATAM—At his home, 93 Hazelton Avenue, on Monday, March 20, 1922, Rev. Thomas M. Jeffries, aged 100 years, 1 month and 20 days.

WILLIAMS—In Trafalgar, on Wednesday, March 22, 1922, Rebecca Williams, wife of Thomas Williams, in her 77th year.

IN MEMORY—In loving memory of our dear Father and Jessie.

We do not forget them; their memory to us.

From our lives like a dream; Our lips need not speak When hearts beat on so deeply For eyes often dwelt Where it seemed to weep.

Where it seemed to weep.

THE ARTON FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1922

Brief Local Items

—Selected your garden seeds yet?

—How do you like the new maple syrup?

—Methodist Ladies' Aid social this evening.

—The dust was flying on the streets last week.

—The robins are here in considerable numbers now.

—Many of the roads are in bad condition now.

—According to the almanac spring opened on Tuesday.

—Wild geese have been flying northward during the week.

—Winter hasn't surrendered to spring very gracefully yet.

—Vernal thaws are coming to the lawns and boulevards again.

—Quarterly review services in the Sunday Schools next Sunday.

—Ipswich's tax rate has been struck for this year at 41 mills.

—Sunday afternoon's storm gave the streets and pavements another coating of ice.

—Keep Good-Friday evening free for the Easter Cantata in the Methodist Church.

—Meat-cut taxpayers will stagger along the roads under a rate of 61 mills off the dollar.

—Guelph has a new band known as the Royal City Flute Band with twenty-eight members.

—J. A. Smith, real estate agent, has sold Mrs. Thos. Ryders farm to Duncan McMillan, Ottawa.

—The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church will be glad to greet you at their social this evening.

—Mikola Ertody, of Thorold, drunk bootlegger, died on Monday and died just as he reached home.

—The equinoctial storm—if such it was—on the 19th and 20th, came a trifle in advance of schedule time.

—The Sanitary Inspector writes all citizens to clear up the winter's accumulations about their premises.

—Have you ever sent a news item to the Press? If so, you have one worthy of publicity send it to-day.

—It is reported that Bir Adair Beck has sold his fine property east of Oakville, and will shortly take up his residence there.

—Mr. J. H. Wood, of Sydney, Australia, has the thanks of the Press from the annual meeting of the Australian Association.

—Whatever the rest of this winter may bring, there is general agreement that the weather over, and even the worst was not bad.

—Frank Whittley will hold an auction sale of dairy cattle, at lot 11, second line, Exeter, on April 4. Watch for particulars next week.

—Owing to lack of suitable accommodation at Washington, D. C., the present teacher may have to go elsewhere.

—Mr. W. H. Walker, of Acton, former resident of Mitchell, is painting and decorating the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Massey, Huron Road, West.

—At the annual meeting of the Ontario Bar Association, Mr. Marcel Jeffreys, M. A., of Guelph, was chosen as one of the Vice-Presidents of the Association.

—Chas. Philpott was arrested, on Monday by Chief Conney of a farm near Acton where he has been working and sketching portraits. He was wanted there on a charge of non-payment of taxes.

—Although confined to the house for the past month Police Magistrate Moore has held several court sessions there and wrong doers have been obliged to pay penalties commensurate with their offense.

—Mr. A. D. Savage, Guelph, has been appointed as official optometrist for the C. P. R. in Guelph district. Up to the present the C. P. R. optometrist at Toronto has had charge of the Guelph division.

—It is reported that the U.S. Farmers' Cooperative Company has suffered an impairment of $22,000 of the $25,845 paid-up capital of the company, with a total loss of $34,000 during the past three months.

—Several friends in Oakville had a good time with W. A. Holmes, who is greatly enjoying his Mediterranean trip, and at present is touring Greece.

—Oakville Star, Mr. Perrin, was Lance Inspector for Halton for several years.

—In the course of the Mill Street payment to the Methodist Church on Sunday evening, Mrs. H. S. Holmes sustained a painful fall on the floor. Her side and arm and head were severely bruised by the impact, but no bones were broken.

WHAT BRETHREN OF THE QUILL SAY

The following kind expression relative to Paulus' re-organization are highly appreciated:

The Rt. Patrick's concert, under the auspices of St. Joseph's Church, last Thursday evening, was in all respects a most creditable affair. The artistic program suggested to supply the program.

The split of Ireland's patron saint provided a program which was to include the success of the event. In the presentation of the numbers provided for the program suggested to supply the program.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience to have Mr. George G. Goodwin, father of Rev. George Goodwin, under whose direction the band played.

It was an equal pleasure to have the audience