

Births—Marriages—Deaths—No notice charged for the following states: Births, $2; Marriages, $2; Deaths, $2; Memorial Cards, $2; per line extra for poems.

BORN
GOLDTHAM—In Georgetown, on Friday, May 12, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Goldtham, a son—Robert John.

BROW—In Esquinton, on Monday, May 12, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. Tom W. Hines, of Mulock, a son—Harold Wesley.

MARRIED:

COLEMAN-POWELL—At the Church of the Holy Trinity, Toronto, at high noon on Saturday, May 22, 1922, John Victor Coleman, youngest son of John H. C. Coleman, formerly of Acton, to Helen Mabel, daughter of the late Canon and Mrs. Powell, of Toronto.

DIED

ADAM—At his residence of Dr. G. D. Adam, 100 King Street, on Sunday, May 21, 1922, Dr. J. G. Adams, of Toronto, a native of Acton, aged 82 years.

HILL—At Cleveland, Ohio, on Tuesday, May 22, 1922, Mrs. Hill, a widow of this late Thomas Hill, formerly of Acton, and Mrs. Hill, mother of the late Canon and Mrs. Powell, of Toronto.

MCFARLAN—At the home of her niece, Mrs. Ronald McEachern, lot 30, town of Acton, on Thursday, May 24, 1922, Janet McEachern, in her 77th year.

The Action Free Press

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1922

Brief Local Items

—Head off the house now.

—Saturday's rain spoiled the baseball schedule.

—Make Acton beautiful. Flowers will help greatly.

—Twenty-fourth of May. "The Queen's Birthday."

—The spring-sown grain is showing through nicely now.

—The three days' rain last week gave vegetation a great advance.

—Prompt payments for the people's paper powerfully please the printer.

—Owing to the holiday the Post Office is issued a day earlier this week.

—Nasagawaywa has a girls' baseball club. They'll make the boys stand aside.

—Oakville band will treat the citizens of that town to an open air concert tonight.

—Welland repelled its daylight saving by-law last week after one day's experience.

—Make it a real holiday today. A minimum of excursion and a maximum of pleasure.

—Remember, boys, it is an infraction of a municipal by-law to let off firecrackers.

—Since the prolonged rain last week pasturafamilies has been very indistuctive in the home garden.

—Kitchener has gone to Osgoode, Ont., to have its daylight saving by-law quashed.

—Has the sanitary inspector called yet? Are you ready for him when his call is made?

—Forest, mountain, lake and stream are calling—especially these days, and many are obeying the call.

—There are many flowers in bloom in Acton—day than ever there were before at this time of year.

—If the adage is true that "rain in May makes plenty of hay," the barns should be well-filled this season.

—Mrs. McQueen, of Alberta, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. McPherson, and other friends, Nasagawaywa.

—The soldiers' monument plot has put on its spring dress. The bed of tulips there is very attractive. Just now.

—Lots of people seem to have lost faith in everybody except the fellow who promises to make them rich quick.

—It is expected the Legislature will prorogue in about three weeks. That will give time late for spring plowing and sowing.

—St. Albans' Church, Acton, will hold their annual garden party on Thursday, June 22. Further particulars later.

—Mr. D. H. Lindsay is having very substantial granite pillars erected for a new veranda at his residence, on York Avenue.

—It is reported that the Province of Ontario will receive over $5,000,000 in succession dues from the estate of late Sir John Eaton.

—A young fellow who heard a radio wireless concert said it was just the same as the gramophone only you didn't have to wind it.

—The big glass window in the Conservative Store, which was smashed some time ago, was replaced with a new one on Saturday.

—Many a fellow will "listen in" at a sermon 300 miles away who can't be persuaded to go to church in the next block—Guelph Mercury.

—Smith's Falls Town Council may have to raise taxes with a monumental gateway to the remembrance of the soldiers of the town.

—Now, if any men have yet been seen who actually ran a town, but some have been met who knew exactly how the job should be done.

—The Methodist Sunday School Orchestra played on Tuesday evening and were well received by the Epsom League there.

—Some people wonder if Action Council is seriously considering the holding of the municipal elections in December instead of in January.

—Milton's Council has purchased a tractor for work on the streets and is buying a real asset to the town, in improved roadways at a minimum cost.

—Pineview Cemetery presents a most attractive appearance just now. The lawns and trees and the beautiful background on Monument Hill are beautiful.

—W. J. Alexander, of Ashgrove, has sold his farm to Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, of Ottawa, who wanted them for the Government Farm in that city.

—The horses and the bellers must have been going some on Saturday at the Woodstock. Five per cent. of the betting amounted to $3,000. This was paid into court.

—Some one predicts a dry summer with a light crop, but the same prediction has been made regularly for the past 100 years according to historical deduction.

—Acton's forest acreage park is a beauty spot just now, the green and the trees in their spring foliage are unusually attractive.

—Mr. James Ross, of the check line, was taken to Guelph Hospital and underwent an operation on Monday of last week. He is reported to be progressing favorably.

Neighborhood News—Town and Country

NASSAGAWAYWA

Dr. E. Hutchison, former Reeve of Nasagawaywa, was at the old home last week. He removed about the middle of last year to Galt, where he is in the real estate business. He says farm land is in good demand, and will probably be in good shape.

Jesus Cameron, widow of the late James Easterbrook of Nasagawaywa, died rather suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Victor Coleman, young son of John H. C. Coleman, formerly of Acton, to whom she was a daughter of the late Canon and Mrs. Powell, of Toronto.

—COLEMAN-POWELL—At the Church of the Holy Trinity, Toronto, at high noon on Saturday, May 22, 1922, John Victor Coleman, youngest son of John H. C. Coleman, formerly of Acton, to Helen Mabel, daughter of the late Thomas Bell, formerly of Bowtown, aged 86 years.

—McFARLAN—At the home of her niece, Mrs. Ronald McEachern, lot 30, town of Acton, on Thursday, May 24, 1922, Janet McEachern, in her 77th year.

BURLINGTON

Mr. V. Pearl's fifty acre farm on the Guelph Road has been sold to Mr. Quigley of Hamilton.

A school garden contest is being conducted in Burlington by the local Horticultural Society.

Mr. John Belmont is again in command of the corner drug store, which he took over in February.

The Home of England will attend the service at St. Luke's Church on Sunday, May 28.

Mr. F. W. E. Fisher left last week for Vancouver to see his sister, Mrs. H. Haworth, and his brother, Mr. A. Haworth.

Also the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Barrett, Birch Avenue, had the misfortune to break her arm while playing last Wednesday afternoon, but is recovering rapidly.

The lady director of the Nelson and Burlington Fair are reviving the purse list for the Fair in September.

The Wednesday afternoon holiday in Burlington is growing in favor.

OAKVILLE

The address of Miss Laura Dunn, Secretary of the Canadian Society for the Protection of Birds, gave the pupils of the schools much information and a greater love for our birds.

Nothing which is really in force, but there is a pronounced upswing to it.

Billing permits aggregating $17,000 were issued last week.

Mr. Wm. W. Scott, of Guelph, left home yesterday with his host for Port Hope, to commence the fishing season there for the season.

Having to leave so early, Mr. Edward Munro of Vancouver, H. C. Knox Church choir presented him with a handsome club bag as a mark of appreciation of his services as a member of the choir for the past eight years.

The Bay Bee Mission Band of Kitchener gave their annual concert last Friday evening, and a large audience was present.

The League of Canada was a splendid number on the programme.

An event of unusual interest next week is the annual radio conference in the Methodist Church. It will be given in connection with a Father and Son Banquet on Friday evening, May 26, at 8:30 p.m. promptly, the mystery violin, organ, etc., caught from the air, will be distinctly heard by the entire audience.—News.

ERIN

Mr. D. J. Sinclair, of lot 3, eighth line, Erin, lost a valuable three-year-old gelding, Col, last week with blood poisoning.

Mr. Howard Sinclair, of the ninth line, has sold his fine driving horse and has purchased a new Ford car.

Howard has made things difficult.

Miss Malcolm, who has the winter with other daughters in Toronto and Cleveland, has returned to her home here.

Misses Reid, who spent the winter months in Toronto, have returned to their home here.

Lacrosse is becoming quite popular in Erin after a lapse of a score of years. The game has been an attraction during this time, but has failed to have disappeared entirely, and even the small boy carries his lacrosse stick.

The Erin Horse Breeders' Club recently formed under the guidance of the Horse Breeders' Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, are fortunate in hiring the Imported Chestnut, a son of Royal Yearling, owned by Mr. N. E. McLean.

The horse and the formation of the club have been approved of by the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

The Township Council will meet at the Court of Revision on Monday, 29th inst., at Hillsburg—Advocate.

DIVING FOR SUBMARINED MILLIONS

What is expected to rank as the most successful submarine "treasure seeking expedition ever inaugurated, has just left Portsmouth, England.

This particular venture is managed by the Admiralty and the Treasury jointly, and its business is to recover the gold bullion which went to the bottom of the sea when the liner Laurentic was torpedoed in Lough Swilly during the war.

Already some four or five million dollars ($20,000,000 to $25,000,000) worth of gold bullion has been recovered.

This particular venture is managed by the Admiralty and the Treasury jointly, and its business is to recover the gold bullion which went to the bottom of the sea when the liner Laurentic was torpedoed in Lough Swilly during the war.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

Interest in gold has been aroused such a pitch in Milan that it has been arranged to call a meeting with the idea of forming a club.

CANADA'S SPORTING MAGAZINE

A number of notable features are included in the June number of Field and Game, the Canadian short story magazine, a short story masterpiece. There is an article on the "Migratory Alligator" by that famous author, Lt. Colonel Alfred G. Brown.

The June number is again in the hands of the corner drug store, which has sold to Mr. A. J. Brewster, last February.

The Home of England will attend the service at St. Luke's Church on Sunday, May 28.

Mr. F. W. E. Fisher left last week for Vancouver to see his sister, Mrs. H. Haworth, and his brother, Mr. A. Haworth.

The Home of England will attend the service at St. Luke's Church on Sunday, May 28.

Mr. W. H. Scott, of Guelph, left home yesterday with his host for Port Hope, to commence the fishing season there for the season.

The Bay Bee Mission Band of Kitchener gave their annual concert last Friday evening.

The League of Canada was a splendid number on the programme.

An event of unusual interest next week is the annual radio conference in the Methodist Church. It will be given in connection with a Father and Son Banquet on Friday evening, May 26, at 8:30 p.m. promptly.

Boys' and Youth's Bands, strong, well made at $2.40 to $4.50.

Misses' Slippers from $2.00 to $3.50, and Boots from $2.50 to $3.75.