Not the sinner and saint, for 'tis well

half good. must first know the state of conscience and health;

e two kinds of people

The MacFarlane Willows

HE MacFarlane farm was the next time I go over there." -Grandfather MacFarlane's acquiring says they need sandy land like his beople praised the beautiful hedge either of my grandparents was fifty sandy." -big red barns, a pratty cottage for father shortly. Units Stephen and Aunt Mary and But the beans did not grow. For every time." half consed to be active in working three successive years he stubbornly the furm.

caring for her wide, rambling old brown boan! question what the color of the paint athan has tried 'em over so many watered them faithful-" should be; any color for the barns years." except red with white trimmings And then grandfather's eyes would gosted grandma, whose eyes also were the house except white with green beaten. He could always appreciate a used— the teakettle." late apples of improved varieties, MacFarlane did not mention it.

Under grandfather's care the wide dooryard became a place of beautiful beds and borders and flowering shrubbery. He set out hedges and trees along the roadside and the lanes; he trained vines over a rough and rocky corner of the grounds; he built lattice; and planted shrubbery to shut off an undesirable view of the stables and the barnyard; and at last at the sunny routherly and of the house he built the spacious glassed room for winter plants that proved the wonder and delight of all the neighborhood. What a riot of bright bloom and follage glowed in that room! I can used for planting.

hear grandmother now describing to

"You through?" inquired grandma.

me the beauty of the plants for my why not set out the rest, seeing you childish edification and can almost the plants for my waters. Lake, or gray thought, pounds, farm was started by the united efforts are common to several of the Dominion Department of Agri- Waters in which speckled trout abound childish edification and can almost have them?" She pointed to three culture, the Quebec Department of are easily accountble, although, naturbreath the pungent fragrance and see especially fine cuttings that lay in Agriculture, and the French Canadian ally, the more remote the districts the the wonderful color of the blossoms against the snow outside, here were reraniums of every hue; there were fuschiss and begonias and a wonderful cactus with enormous crimson cuplike blossoms. Our city-bred relatives called the room a conservatory, but we knew it simply as the plant

Grandfather and Grandmother Mac-Fariane took great comfort and pride put at the front of the house to keep in all the improvements and were con- out the sunlight. During- the sumstantly planning how they might make mer, grandmother had always argued the place still more pleasant and the sun would be too high to shine delightful. Whenever they reached the in unpleasantly at a south door or top of the hill on their way home window, during the nine months that from the village they always looked remained the sun would be most welwith pleasure at their trim homestead. remark with satisfaction.

grown!" grandmother might respond. There are just enough trees in the poryard; I never admired a house othered in foliage, and I don't befoliage is healthy." both realized that something was

It was only after several years of vain wondering and experimenting that with cheer. Grandfather MacFarlane found out of the house, beyond the garden and the little orchard. A few rods behind the house the ground dropped off abruptly in a rough ledge at the foot of which ran a little atream. In spite of the pretty plantings the house plant room grandma only smiled; and stood out blenk and bare against the

I do believe," said grandma, "It's real guessed what was wrong, but I see now, since you have pointed it out. erect a hill! But how could we ever was not a man to give up casily,

One day while he and grandma, and Unole Stephen's wife were together do say a willow can't get too much at the blg house he announced triumphantly, "I've got the idea! Willows! Willows will grow like weeds along that creek bottom. In five years here by the house while you attend they will be a fine background for the to those down by the brook," grand, place and will improve year by year. ma would say of an evening. "I be-I'm going to hitch up old Dolly right lieve to goodness I see green leaves now and drive over to Elder Creek or shoots starting out. Now doesn't

"Willows are real pretty a ways off, tation, For the whole family realised and nothing grows to beat them. But," that something about the buildings or "A hen is sitting ?" she added emphatically, "I wouldn't their surroundings was amies, and have a willow tree any nearer my everyone believed that grandfather roply. "I asked father once, and he house than that creek bottom for any. had hit on just what was needed to mid he didn't trouble much about the thing."

minks the homostead attractive.

Although the countries along the edge of indicated a will of her own. Aunt Mary Inquired us grandfather started for the barn. "Pather had that, ant look to his mouth, seems to head and made a gosture. "I don't know as I've any cause to worry," she observed. "If brown beans won't grow about willow trees doing it!" protty little Grandma MacFarlane per- thugs. huld because of more or less unauethe most prominent characteristic of in early spring." the MacFarlane family. Grundfather conf the beans. I can't see why lirgte the routs of it to see whether grab or eventually he grew old , and his son Leeps raising those brown beans; they insect was ut work there; he found reigned in his stead." certainly do not taste so good as the hone; the ground seemed to be block. class are you? Are you easing grandma caught a glimpes of her hus- dled. "Nothing can beat the white marrows! that you raise, Jonathan."

"I liked the bouns," grandfather had the dooryard. replied. "I intend to get seed of lirate and plant brown beans this spring in- creek," granding used to say. "The stoad of white snarrows."

a week later grandfather came home can't bring enyeoff to feel real sorry quarts of brown beans and shout the willows' dying, in spite of but them with some other garden seeds all the work we've put on them. For supper at the farm grandma brought early apring!" next morning be inquired, "How'd acy kept alive his determination to set your like and sorrows. you come to cook my seed beans, out the three willow cuttings in the mother? Are 'we all out of white dooryard every spring.

community. A good start in says," she remarked on returning, "he thing of genuine beauty. early life together with ability doubts whether you can raise these is real handy here to water them. We Farlance has conquered an inborn must come down every evening and streak of obstinacy by saying, "Oh, dip water round 'em until they get a well, what's the use-willow trees won't good start, I declare I don't know grow in our dooryard, anyway." when I've been so pleased about anyhing as I am about those willow trees. It was real smart of you, pa, to see why our place didn't look the way it ought and to think of these willows as

With undiminished cheerfulness the little lady emptied her dipper and without another word followed him to the dooryard. The farm buildings faced south.

come. It was only the west side of the "Looks pretty good," grandfather would house that needed shading in the hot remark with satisfaction. "I like the east "How that row of maples has side fairly clear too," she would say, "morning sunshine is always a joy." Grandma's reasoning was good: No pleasunter house could be imagined than her own. Living rooms were cheery with morning sunlight. The unshutaun aank lower during the winter into the plant room full of may bloswhat was the real trouble. "The place grandfather went: straight for the needs background," he declared with sacredly preserved open space, beside conviction one day. "Everything is in the front gate. While he dug a hole front. I've observed that the prettiest and firmly set one of the little trees 'country places have fine barns for a luto it grandma hastened to the well background, or have a slope of land for a pull of water. "When the tree dooryard and the front of the house Our barns were situated at one side rout nice," she observed, casting an appreclative glance upward as if at 'im-

Grandfather made no comment When he planted the second tree impertinently in front of the precious when he set the last tree close healde the pleasant west kitchen door she remarked pheerfully: "Now this one ought to do best of all seems to me. clover of you, Jonathan. I'd never have The soil is extra good and deep right here, and this one will get lots of water, thrown out from the kitchen. Troos seem to be the only thing we I've got so I'use the kitchen drain so can use; we can't move the barns or much for everything that I'll probably have a hard time remembering the get trees to grow on that rough ledge?" trees at first; but plenty of water can Grandfather said nothing, but he just as well be thrown out round this little tree without making an /extra step, you've planted it so handy, They

> All the willow settings received much care and attention. "I'll water these up that boat all you ever saw?"

"Why, Jonathan, the very thing," Never had any improvement on the used more interest and solici-had a way of occasionally saying the creek had taken root. But in the HTEP HITEES had a way of cocasionally saying the creek had taken root. But in the with a apprited "tilt of Her bond that to will and droop, Grandma mentioned the fact to grandfather after one of her dally visits of inspection to the borders and the shrubbery. Grand-cutting, but he could discover no mark of injury on it. Every evening the mulat carth round it was proof that t had been fulthfully watered. Yet

Aunt Mary laughed. Hie had heard bud gone out of the ground Grandof the upleade of the brown beans, father Mucherlane said that he inwhich had happened before she mar- tended to hitch Dolly and drive th Creydon hospital for treatment, while Man's job sooner or later, or some bornness. The uffair of the brown more jealously than before, and that was run over by a cab. beaus had begun one evening after the granding watered and tended them older Muckarlanes had had suppor at faithfully. They took root, and little less stories to tell of their favorite green, shoots started out bravely, but breed. One of the heat is of the animal they did not last long. This time which went to a dog show "on his the tree may the kitchen door was the own." He was a wonderful dog and way hope. "Everything was good ex- first to droop. Grandfather dug round had taken prizes everywhere, but Every apring the old couple went Elder Creek for willow cuttings; you fall hever found a live willow tree in "It is so pretty down there by the brown water and the tender new barn Neither said anything further. But and the pussy willows! I declare on the top shelf of the pantry. One if it weren't for getting new outlings ter than medicine. night when the minister was taking I'd never get down Elder Creek in the supper at the farm grandma brought early apring?"

in a large dish of brown beans. If Perhaps grandfather also enjoyed white in a sick-room. grandfather was displeased he did not the little yearly journey to the creek; | Laurn to keep your troubles to your mention it before the guest. But the perhaps pleasure rather than obstin- self; the world is too busy to care for

It was astonishing that in five years man is always, welcome, but the dys-"Why, no," grandma had replied; trees could have grown as large as the peptic is not wanted apywhere. "but the white ones were all over in willows down by the creek. Their the granary, and I was in a hurry, roots went deep into the moist earth; The brown beans looked so clean and their tops were high; their branches bear whether you have hondaches, ournice I thought I'd just use some. Brate were thick and graceful, Already the has lots more seed; I'll get you some white house shone like a great pearl against their lacy green follage. Macshow place of our country She was as good as her word. "Brate Farlane farm was at last becoming a "Kind of queer about willows," grandand native thrift had resulted in beans on this place, Jonathan. He ma used sometimes to remark when neglect it. what was known among us at that lower lot; and you know we've al- along the creek. "Every tree grew time as a good-sized fortune. Before ways been so glad that our farm lan't fine down there; but willows don't seem to do anything in our dedryard. years old they had built, beyond the "I guess they'll grow," said grand- Jonathan has planted them every year now for five years, and they die off

One day when she spoke of the procured the seed and carefully plant- willows in the dooryard, grandfather's Grandmother devoted her time to ed it; yet he harvested scarcely a eyes suddenly twinkled, "I give you my word f'll never plant another willow farmhouse, and grandfather began to "Funny now about beans," grandma tree in this yard," he said; "but I'd like do all the odd jobs round the place often used to say when she served de- to know, 'Lizabeth Ann, what atled that he had longed to do during the licious white marrow beans to ap- those willow trees I set out. The soil crowded years of his active life. He preciative guests. "Brate Doyle raises is good, and I planted 'em best I know kept the plain substantial buildings real nice brown beans, but brown how. Never any sign of their getting er or the canoeist. It is what is aptly neatly painted. There was never any beans won't grow on this place. Jon- injured in any way. You bertainly "Maybe that was it, the water," sug-would have looked odd; any color for twinkle. He knew when he was fairly twinkling. "You see, odcasionally I blinds would have been beneath the joke on himself-long afterwards! If As long as grandfuther lived he aldignity of MacFarlane farm. He de- there were any reason except the ab- ways delighted in telling about the distance of over a thousand miles, with dignity of MacFarlane farm. He de- there were any reason except the ab- ways delighted in telling about the Hudson Bay as its northern limit. To willow trees and the teakettle. Once willow trees and the teakettle. Once willow trees and the teakettle. Once willow trees and the teakettle. orchard, which contained early and failed to grow, serene Grandmother he was fairly beaten, he could see Grandfather came home early with No more willow cuttings were ever made it." the delicious greengages without which his willow cuttings; and after supper planted on MacFarlane farm; but to no old-time Eastern garden was grandma went down along the creek this day the old MacFarlane willows. bottom with him to help set them out, near the creek are the beauty spot of its vast forests there roam at will "They ought to do right well," she a lovely old country place. Every reasoned aloud as she dipped water your they are faithfully trimmed and from the shallow but rapid stream, thinned and cared for. And many is "Willows need lots of moisture, and it the time that one of us later Mac-

> LARGEST HORSE FARM EAST OF range of territory. MANITOBA

sters this your, while thirty-four are caught the lordly sturgoon, sportsmen French Canadian horses, but it is also twenty to two bundred pounds. In clear that most of the problems of the waters contiguous to Hudson Bay horse breeding, feeding, housing, and excellent salmon fishing is occasionalmanagement, can be investigated as ly experienced. Pike and pickerel are well with this breed as with any other. common to the waters of this norther These problems are quite numerous: | wild. inbreeding, close in line, and outcrossing: in feeding roughages, concentrutes, pastures; in housing, the big isstion the waters of the northern parts special barn, part of the cattle barn of Quebec and Ontario afford ideal partitioned off, cheap single-boarded facilities. : Rivers, many of them tered south windows and doors were shelters; in management, work or no mighty streams which for generations cool and airy in summer, but as the work for breeding unimals, prevention of diseases in youngsters, raising months it slanted, warm and pleasant, autumn colts. These in themselves to und from Hudson Bay, are almost some and filled the big sitting room such a farm, effects of any improvement of the of Moose Factory on James Bay. French Canadian horse accomplishment thereby and the scope of the stock, the Tuture of that enterprise is roully in the hands of the farmers of the Province of Queben. If-they showenough interest, no doubt French Canadian horses will continue to be bred at Bt. Joachim: but if it is found out, which is improbable, that French Canadian stallions and breeding stock are not in demand, then it will surely be in order to look into the question of In the mountime; the Province of Quebec can boast of having the most important borse breeding establish-f you could raise my salary." Employer: "It lan't pay day." Clerk: "I know that, air; but thought I would speak about it tous so far, haven't IT" THE IMPORTANT QUESTION

> ment in Eastern Canada. RAISING HIS SALARY

"Well, miss," came back the prompt know was whether the hen was laying Coutting along the edge of or lying when she cackled."

DOG INTELLIGENCE

in Knahand, a short time ago, says

but presently he came up at racing good man down. He can bile titles and the little tree drooped. By midaummer speed, took a jump at his master, and majury on top of a man, but'if the man the cutting in front of the plant room | sent him sprawling into the bedge. ulso began to droop; and by full not The dog blusself equid not escape the spot. on MacFarlane farm, I've my doubt allow cutting in the decryard was bonnet of the car which, but for his intervention, have killed his master, drape overalls and a ten-a-work sulary and was thaty injured. Quite recently an Irish terrier, of its cleaning ouspidors, but it the chap own accord, paid repeated visits to a has brains and pep he will get the Oh ried into the family, and she admired Elder Creek to get three willow cut. In the boarding room of King's College other job just as good. Hospital, London, is a picture of two for terriers escorting a wounded collis to work to satisfy not the Boar but conful encounters of her own with plied. "I love the woods and creeks to that institution. The incident de- himself. Let him ask himself each pleted is a true one, The owner of Itoth went, and later they set out the dogs was a bookseller named Hutt, to-day? How do I stack us? Have I was a good man, upright, kind, gen- the new outtings where the unfor- and his explanation of the dogs' saga- accomplished anything? Is the cause erous and as honest as daylight, but tunute outlings of the year before had city was that they must have noticed in which I am engaged any further once his mind was made up he was been. But, alast the new ones also beople who had met with accidents about by reason of my thought or "set." No one was ever sure what seemed destined to die. It is true being taken there. They used their effort? Have I carned my sait to-day, might not arouse his unyielding stub- that grandfather watched over them knowledge when their friend, the collie, and a little more? Has the Boss Owners of bull terpler have count-, mine T-American Mutual Mugazine,

Evidently, however, he thought ed up at the Hortlouitural Hall, where varieties of corn. he took his place on the stund.

LEARN TO LAUGH

Lourn how to tell a story; a good story, well told, is us welcome as sun-Learn to meet your friends with a smile: a good-humored man or wor Learn to hide your aches and pains under pleasant smiles; no one cares to aches, or rhoumatism. You will pass through this world but once. Any good thing, therefore, that you can do, or any kindness that you can show to any human being, you had better do it now; do not defer or

THE "NEW NORTH" A Sportsman's Paradise

To men who spend their vacation fishing, hunting or canceing, Canada te first among the countries of the world for the opportunities it affords for indulgence in either of these inviting, invigorating and exciting pastimes. But there is one part of the Dominion which is particularly inviting to the sporting fisherman, the big game huntvast stretch of virgin country contiguous to the Canadian National Railways, Transcontinental Division extending across the upper part of the provinces of Ontario and Quebec for a

"It is a virgin country just as coops To the sportamen this northern counto the North American continent, Of the hig and burly moose it is the home. Red deer have a wide range and in caribou are to be had by the hunter who seeks them in their feeding grounds. In several districts bear are to be found, while the smaller furbearing animals are common to a wide Disciples of Izaak Walton will find in the numerous rivers and lakes all It is not generally known that the that the most ardent of them can most important horse breeding out desire, both in regard to extent and Grandfather merely grunted and be- tablishment cast of Manitoba is situ- variety of fish which abound in their gan to gather up the tools that he had ated at St. Joschim, County of Mont- waters. Lake, or grey trout, ranging Horse Breeders' Association. The work better the sport. In some of the rivers is being carried on by the first-named and streams are to be caught speckled and is under the direct supervision of brook trout (known also as the square Mr. Que Langeller, who is also super- tail trout) weighing from five to seven intendent of the Dominion Experiment- pounds. - Good bass fishing is to be al Station, Cap Rouge, Que. There are had in certain parts, and particularly at present, on the horse farm, over in northwestern Quebec. One specie ninety horses, all pure-bred French of fish which is common to some of Canadians; an idea of the scale on the older parts of Canada not found Neither tree nor verandah had been which breeding operations are con- in this far-northern country is the ducted can be had when it is known maskinonge. But in some of the waters that twenty-two mares have young- flowing into James Bay are to be having landed fish of this species Part of the work is to improve ranging in weight all the way, from

To the canonist who socks adventure in territory beyond the fringe of civilhave served as highways to adventurers, fur-traders and trappers bound show the advisability of having started beyond compute in number, the country teing grid-ironed by them. Wonder-What will be the future of the place? fully interesting cance trips, either ex-From an investigational point of view tunded or limited, are available. Take t is assured, as even a quarter of a for example the six routes to Moose century is not near long enough to Factory all of which find their way solve-many of the problems. As to the into Moose River about 30 miles south Until within recent years this great new north was inaccessible to those distribution of improved breeding who had but a few weeks vacation at their disposal. It could not even be reached during an ordinary vacation term. Now, over the lines of the Canadian National Italiways, the sporting fisherman, the hunter, the cancelst and holiday seekers in general can, occupying on route modernly appointed steel-constructed trains, reach points In this "Happy' Hunting Ground" in the course of a twenty-four-hour using another breed for the experi- journey from such centres as Toronto and Montreal and from New York, Chicago and Hoston in approximately thirty-six-hours.

And there is an interesting little booklet entitled "Where to Hunt, Fish and Paddle in the New North," obtuinable from any office of the Canpdian National . Railways, which pnables the holiday seeker to select his camping ground in this primoval para-

A number of sectional maps covering the sporting territory from west of Lake Nipigon to Western Quebec, which are shown canoe routes and dosk, and don't worry. I've managed trails, will prove invaluable to the to raise it every week you've been with sportsman visiting the territory. The booklet also furnishes information regarding guides, outfit and other necessary details.

THE BOSS

in exchange, a medal was awarded a near all-powerful. That he isn't, "He's Great Dane for saving his muster's life, as helpless in the hands of time and A rouring, destening wind, was blow- events as you are. Especially he ha ing, and the man was walking along a belpless as to you. " Don't think that dark Cheshire toud with his houd the Boss can make you or bronk you,

He cannot keep a poor man up or u

WARNED AGAINST CORN BORER

amologists who have been investigating the means of destroying the corn borer have again 'insted a warning for all farmers to clean up their barn white ones." Ferhaps at that instant Yet one after another the outlings was an oversight, on the part of his yards and burn all old stalks before the first of July. As this peat is nearly how entering on the free flying or tnoth stage of its existence and soon kitchen window, over several walls. will be laying aggs. There is only nade his way through miles of Lon- one brood a year in Ontario and the don's thickest trume, and finally finish . horars food almost entirely on all

> No shild should be allowed to suffer an hour from worms when prompt relief can be got in a simple but Learn to laugh; a good laugh is bet- strong remody-Mother Braves

Double action - Goes farther -Try it and you'll be delighted with the results.

EGG-O Baking Powder

FROM YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

Kenney Bros.

Full Lines of Bummer Postwear In-Men's and Ladies' Oxfords Tennis and Bowling Shoes Ladies' Patent Strap Slippers (Buckled) Girls' and Boys' and Children's

PRICES AS REASONABLE AS THE QUALITY IS GOOD REPAIRING Man's and ladies' sewed work and all kinds of repairing. All work promptly finished

Bring in your repairs. Blore Open Every Evening Except Wednesday

Partridge users throughout the Dominion testify to enjoying

A typical recommendation reads:- "Beyond all doubt the Part-

PARTRIDGE

TIRES

Game as Their Name

durability in excess of their greatest expectations.

Battleships are not the only things being Scrapped these days

Lots of other things were scrapped before the Washington Conference became even a possibility---old prejudices--- old grudges---old methods of diplomacy had to be discarded before it was possible to ask for bids from the junk man on a few

If you are to make the most of your opportunities selling your goods it will pay you to take stock of your methods of doing business, and scrap ruthlessly the old systems or prejudices that new conditions have rendered obsolete. And above all court publicity---secret diplomacy is as bad for your business as it is for the business of running a nation---ADVERTISE.

Advertise In The Acton Free Press

billion dollars worth of "war canoes."

ridge Cord tire is the best of its kind on the market to-day."

Gold Medal

LOOKI LISTEN!

Binder Twine

13 3-4c per lb GOLD MEDAL, 560 feet ...... 13360 BUILERION, 600 feet ...... 131/40 EXTICA, ELO feet ..... STANDARD, LOS fort

The BOND HARDWARE CO.

This Store's Policy

actly as to their quality; to sell to those who know and to those who don't know at a uniform fair price; to fulfill all guarantees and cheerfully correct all mistakes: to deserve your confidence, by always giving you satisfaction.

Savage & Co.

GRAND TRUNK STILTEN The Double Track Route

MONTREAL - TORONTO

Trunk ticket agent or C. M. Horning. District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

Full information from any Grand

H. S. HOLMES, Agent

R., NOBLE Ltd.

Acton Elevator

Grand Trunk Station

Just Arrived -- Car No. 1 Feed On QUANTITY OF FEED CORN AND OIL CAKE JUST

FLOUR FEED, NORVAL BRAN AND SHORTS, FEED FLOUR

RECEIVED

Surprising Bargains

For Acton Ladies Summer Shoes

OXFORDS, ETC.

CANVAS

Very low prices on a lot of The quality is there and

COME IN FOR BARGAINS

Mill Street

Children Cry FOR PLETCHER'S

CASTORI