TO MY BOOKE

An idle hour I dreum away. Alohe knows my broke to-day, That scattered 'round me lie. Prionds, old said new, I hall you true Ay ohe we've gone the annual through Comrades, you and I. .

When woarled, left with many a care Too heavy far for the to hour. No friend or beloom by. The then to thee, good friends, I fice, While faces kind look down on me, Comrades, you and I.

Then closer come, tny comrades dear And tell me ull, both far and hear. Of things in earth and sky; Together we the truth may see, Not I for you, but you for me, Comrudes, you and I.

And when the night is drawing noul The sun has sat, and twilight here, Our love it cannot die:

For even then, we'll live again, The same old life that once has been, Contrades, you and I.

Timothy's Sugar

The state of the s

"All right, Grandfather," answered happy young father had said, "Now, deposit in this," he commented as he too small to be of any use. Hope in her clear, cheary tones. Evie, the first trip we make to town. drew out a round package, "which you tone the fort in fine we'll buy that davenport you like so saved by hiding it in the oat bin." fungl are not common, but several shape, You and grandmother have a much in Towner's. We'll celebrate this He took out his knife and clipped the reliable works are available to the

Grandfather gathered up the reins. It had happened that as each chim wide in amazement, a dispersion of the sugar bowl of the sugar bowl "Mushrooms, adible and otherwise," their departure. Hope lingered a tractiveness or made more comfortable becausee it was so precious to you and Hurd, Ohid Library Co. moment watching the trim, well- the home," With each one was asso- grandmother!" she exclaimed. matched buys as they stepped lightly clated some loved household possesoff down the lane, settling into an sion. It was Ambrose's davenport, and easy trot as they swung around the James Junior's clock, and .Willard's tening with pride, "Just right of you," curve onto the highway. Hope had highboy, and Ellen's sewing cabinet. | Ha/hesitated a moment his face very helped in the caring for and training 'Just before Timothy came grand- thoughtful. Then, after a quixxical wife, and she dispatched the work of pression. As he and grandmother took ing quality, "suppose we make this the morning with case and swiftness, their first trip to town with Timothy money a nest egg for that college There was even time for a little visit bome in the cradle, he turned to grand- course Hope is dreaming about." Then with Aunt Eather. Bo Hope picked mother, "What's Timothy's place to dropping his voice very low, he added, up the blouse on which she was work- ber", he asked, his eyes twinkling stepping close to grandmother, "Would ing, and went to her aunt's room. Two kindly down as he put a big, protect- you not like that for Timothy's memyears before an accident had left ing arm about the little woman beside origit" Hope's aunt an invalid, unable to leave him. And grandmother had auggested "Yes," grandmother's tones were full her bed. Hope was very fond of her, that they should not get anything that of agreement though a bit tromulous. and the two had many pleasant hours day, but wait to get Timothy's gift to "Yes, Indeed." And lovingly natting study. With a little help from a cou- compromise. To-day they would get sin who had finished high school, she some little thing and later when there portions for study that afternoon were mother went to town again, little Tim-especially fascinating, and Hope ex- othy had slipped away from their arms,

A call on her aunt to see if she need- gentle hands. Hope placed it on the ed anything, then Hope made herself highboy. ready for the night trip to the barn. Hardly had Hope replaced the trea-The outdoor chores attended to, she sure, when there sounded a knock at came in, prepared supper, which she the door. Brave, the big collie lying and her aunt enjoyed together on Aunt near the kitchen stove, growled. He Esther's bedside table. The evening went with Hope to the door. was passed in reeding aloud to her "Could you give me a bits to est?" aunt, with an occasional interlude of saked the man standing there. "I've

About the time that Hope had gone 'most starved." out to do the night work, grandfather "Come in," said the girl, loyal to the and grandmother, their day in town traditions of the house which never. over, were driving leisurely toward a turned away one who came to its door supposed that the phrase was double- olive or umber. It is viscid when little inn a couple of miles out from hungry. the city. They had discovered this Quickly gathering together some food place many years before, and much she placed a chair at the kitchen table. preferred its simple hospitality to a The man ate ravenously, but Hope, more pretentious city hotel. The pro- covertly watching him, saw him dart prictor and his wife were like old sly glances around the kitchen and friends, and the stopover at this inn into the adjoining room. Once it alwas always one of the pleasant fee- most seemed to her that a gleam of ly grandmother gripped grandfather's a stealthy look toward the corner of James?" she asked, excitedly. "I've stood. A sudden fear clutched her. left all that money we got for the hill Timothy's sugar bowl! Grandmothfirst time Timothy's sugar bowl's done what if there were money in it! duty as a bank." Then he added, re- Grandmother did sometimes put money assuringly, "I wouldn't worry, Evie; in Timothy's sugar bowl. So wrought gestion of a tur, and Puff and Perry his plate, and pushing back his chair, trot. A minute later he turned to his make his way into the next room. To and she and Esther alone there." and the two went on through the half slowly back to the house.

out when grandfather reined the horses Aunt Hannah and ask her if Hen can't in at the small inn. A moment later run over for awhile. He'll help me and the old hostler was at their heads with my Franch and geometry and stroking their noses with a friendly maybe get me back to normal." hand. As grandfather helped grand- But the talk with Aunt Hannah over mother out of the sleigh, the proprietor' the phone brought disbeartening news. came out with a hearty greeting. "It's Ben had gone away yesterday morning good to see you and your lady again, to a friend's up the valley, and pro-Mr. Orcutt," he said, with a cordial bably wouldn't be home before tohandshake, "and there's a warm sup- morrow night. "Guess we'll have to per and a comfortable room waiting shake ourselves out of this feeling.

grandfather's genial response. "We near little shall enjoy both; and a visit with our figure that slid off the back end of the of the highboy, Hope saw the man sloigh, and wet off with a lagging step whom a short time ago she had given up the road. To him it was just a food. He reached a hand out to the nutural happening. "Somebody gettin" top of the highboy. "It encountered a lift toward home," he thought as he only space. Then he looked. The led the bays around to the snug stable. sugar bowl which had been there but Mr. and Mrs. Orcutt followed their a little while before was gone! host into the cosy inn parlor where | Hope had caught Brave by the colthe big base burner gave a ruddy lar and was restraining him with dim-welcome. Up the road through the culty. Her voice trembled as she dedarkness plodded the one who a few manded, "What do you want here?" workers of any department, and it is a man was, summoned from his minutes before had slipped off the end "I want that sugar bowl," he growof the sleigh. His mind was busy, led. "And if you don't produce it in commonplace men and women who do cry:

Orcutt, Orcutt. He must locate the a hurry you'll be sorry," Orcutt place and soon. It might be quite a ways. He must reach it by As Hope was wondering whether It is this quality which makes volun- tried to kill herself by inhaling gas!" morning. Just then his thoughts were Brave would be able to cope with the toers in church work, and the invalu- "Good gracious!" growled George as interrupted, by sieigh bells. Nearer, man, a welcome sound came to her, able men and women who do not have, he rushed to the kitchen, leaped over nearer they came. He heard the snow Boyish volces rang out on the quiet to be stood over. They are the joy of the cook's prostrate form, and turned the pastor's heart; they are the per- off the gastor's heart; they are the per- off the gastor's heart; they are the per-

A moment more and the sleigh was passing him, He called. The driver frow to his horse, "What's wanted?" The words were thrown out sharply. "Can't you give me a lift if you're gold toward Oroutt's-Jim Orcoutt's?" asked the footman. "Jump In." invited the other briefly. turning back the heavy robe. "Here," as the mus sented bimself, "tuck this in good. I can help you along a few tolles toward Orautt's."

After a little, a question anguested liself to the driver. "What's your bustnois at Oroutt's?" he unked. "Expect to get work there," said the man, pulling his cap down further over

Now and then the two exchanged a sentence, but it was cold and converaution lagged. Presently the driver turned in at a gateway. "Here the trail ends for me to-night," he said "and, glad I am. Hadn't you better stop for the night, tooy" he udded, his humane instincts overcoming his mitural inclination to keep clear of

"Oh, no," the mun said hastilly, as he got out of the sleigh. "No, thank you. A few minutes later, Hope, in not But I wish you'd tell me how far it quite even tones, was telling her couis to Orcutt's place, and what it looks sin and his friends all about it. The "fungi." There is a widespread mislike. You see I'm a stranger around recital over, iten went to the phone. here." The man paused, pushing the "['ll just call up mother, Hope, and of the fleshy fungl. The public genfew words the other must gave him of thanks and a good hight, the travely mother come back." ler resumed his way.

the kitches window looking out at the sugar bowl is, and I don't want you to log the late summer and fall. All varisnowy meadows sparkling in the brit- tell us, either. Wherever you've but etter outside of these are popularly light sunshipe, she said, "The weather's it, just leave it there until the folks called tondstools and avoided as being going to hold all right. No grand- come home. Then it can be put back poleonous. The question is frequently futher and grandmother to-night." in its usual place." After a little she turned away, a sud- Late the next day grandfather and "mushroom" from a "tondatool." There den resolve in her eyes. "I'll dust grandmother arrived home. They were are hundreds of kinds of mushrooms this morning and get everything spick- much concerned when Hope told them most of which are edible, and but a and-span. Then to-morrow, I'll do the of her adventure. At length Hen in- few are poisonous. It is then a quesbaking, and get a regular company terrupted their expressions of anxiety. tion how to distinguish the edible from clamation of the reprobate, "I deren't supper ready for grandfather and "I'm just hursting to know where Hope the poisonous species. All so-called touch it, sir! The doctor told me I grandmother. I'll have cornbroad for hid the treasure, Grandmother. Make "tests" such as peeling, discoloration have got un iron constitution und I um said Grandfather grandfathers-he likes that so much- her tell quick."

morrow night according to schedule. touches the beautiful old mahogany was placing the sugar bowl in its usual offers. It is strongly advised to leave on the sylls of late nights and late ris-I've been wanting to see Houire Nelson davenport, she thought of the pleasant place on the highboy. about the yoke of exen he wants to custom her, grandparents had estabsell, and if the weather looks likely to lished with the coming of their first father, putting her hand gently saids rooms are nauseating to some persons hold, we'll probably drive around there, child. It was when Ambrose, the first and lifting the cover of the bowl. but prove barmless to others, while born, was but a few days old, that the "Grandmother had quite a good-sized many are edible but of poor flavor, or

The twelve o'clock dinner over, and set his lips in a stebborn line, and said feel that Timothy's memorial promises cap is large, from 4 to 6 inches, roundthe dishes put away, Hope settled her- that they'd attend to it to-day. But to be the finest and most satisfying of self at her deak for a couple of hours' grandmother coaxed him around to a all." was pegging away, fitting herself to was a bigger margin, they would try the examinations in several ad- choose Timothy's real present. That vanced subjects: She had a dream was the way it came about that they hidden away of one day going to col- took home with them a quaint, flowerlege. It did not seem as if there was sprigged piece of china, that was given much chance of the dream ever coming the place of bonor on the highboy and true. "But anyway" she told herself, always alluded to as Timothy's sugar. "I'll have the fun of the dream." The bowl. Before grandfather and grandclaimed in surprise when laying her and that fregile, flowered bit of china books aside, she glanced at the clock took the degrest place of all among the household heart treasures. With been walkin' a long ways, and am satisfaction shot through his eyes us As they talked over the day, sudden- he brought them back to his food after arm, "Do you know what I've done, the living room where the highboy timber lot in Timothy's sugar bowi!" | er's tressure! Oh, if she could only "Well," chuckled grandfather, who hide it somewhere. Then a second was never easily disturbed, "tisn't the thought flashed through her mindup was Hope that when the man ut Grandfather gave the reins a sug- length cleaned the last morsel from responded by breaking into a brisk stood up, she half expected to see him companion with a question. "Did her great relief, he muttered a word Hope know you put the money there?" of thanks and picking up his hat, went Watching from the window, Hope up closer around her cars as she spoke. saw him go down the lane, and out into "She wasn't in the room when I put the main road. Delaying not another It away in the sugar bowl, and I for- minute, she run into the living room, got to tell her about it afterward, as caught up the sugar bowl with a sure grasp, and Brave at her hools run with "Well, maybe it's just as well," said it to the barn. Through the barn, into grandfather easily. "Might make Hope the granary, also flew, and with swift a mite worried and uneasy if she knew | yet careful fingers, thrust it deep into there was so much money in the house the bin of oats. The grain closed over it as she withdrew her hands, and sigh-The early winter dusk settled down, ing with relief, she turned and went light toward their stopping place for ""I believe," she said after she had tried in vain to bring herself back to The stars were beginning to shine her usual calm, "I believe I'll call up

" some way, Brave," Hope said, rump-Suddenly Brave gave a low grow and sprang into the living room. No one but the hostler noticed the Climbing into the windle at the side voice of the driver urging his borse i recognized as Ben's. The man heard some who do not have to be watched. gas bill will be this month!"

"Nowadays" It is "SALADA" for breakfast, for dinner, for supper and five o'clock Tea the Continent wide Tea, as staple as our daily bread

the voices, too, and disappeared with EDIBLE AND POISONOUS MUSH all possible speed in an opposite direc-

. The next morning as Hope stood by you haven't told us where Timothy's posed for sale, and found in fields durand for grandmother I'll make one of Grandmother looked from the high-, ford no guarantee. The best method Orcult, as he bent to piece and for grandmother to my cream cakes that she's so fond of." boy to Hope and finally to grandfather, of knowing them is to study their er's feet, and reaching over, Hope went gayly to the closet where Hope, her eyes dancing, caught her characteristics one by one, starting tucked the robe anugly around the the dust cloths were kept, and was grandfather's hand and drew him out with a common variety, have this idenlittle woman at his side. "You're not soon moving busly through the room. with her. A few minutes and they tilled by one who know it, and then to be anxious if we don't get home to- As Hope dusted with lingering were back in the living room, and Hope continue one's studies as opportunity an hour to a lecture from his father

"That was just right of you, my girl," commended grandfather, his eyes glisof those bays, and she felt a certain father met with some heavy losses. glance in Hope's direction; he turned proud proprietorship in them. "It was pretty close travelling just to grandmother. "Suppose," he said, Hope was a neat and capable house- about then," to borrow, his own ax- and his voice held a deep, remember-the house later. But grandfather had Hope's shoulder, she added. "And "I once read a fine description of certain 'family." Natalfe, remarked. The writer said that it was a family much to be a good talker, a person who said clover and sparkling things. How stupid just to chatter on endlessly about commonplace doings! Cousin Lou's head lifted to the slort terested in something. "That's fine." word! If there are noble alteness- ours along roudsides wood-margins and and there certainly are—then there are open woods, generally, from June till also silences that are ignoble. There front. are not only allences that are coward-thinking especially of her young rela- gills free from stem, largest at the tives "How silences can be lazy?" middle, white. The stem is $ to 5 she asked. "Oh, yes, indeed, my dear! inches long, generally hollow, white. Means of people are silent from last. The base of the stem is inserted in a ness; their bodies may be notive semi-free white sup-shaped covering of a world like ours with its exhaust- woods, groves, and along borders of have the most interesting thing under mushroom the dark colored gills and hing worth remarking on!"

about," she said; "It's that other people don't care about those things." "How do you know they don't?" kind of things they do talk aboutwhom you saw at the post office and sion of Botany, Central Experimental what he said and she said and they Farm. said and how Miss Muttie Burber's knee is and what color flowers to put on last year's hat" "Yet when a novelist writes about those things we find them intensely interesting. Funny, isn't it?" why?" she asked slowly. "Hecajise of our imagination and of 'No Thoroughfare' across all my little darned stuff away!"

"And turn you out on the great trails of endless adventure!" Cousin Lou-smiled. "Bon voyage, little girll"

THE BOY WHO IS ATTENTIVE "The boy who tends to things because they need attending to, without specific directions, is the boy who, other things being equal, is going to be in demand when he gets out into dirt removed being eighteen aubic feet the great world," says Rev. Charles per lineal foot of ditch. The operation M. Sheldon. It is the attention to little of the digging machine is coptrolled things and the habit of observations from the dock of the locomotive by alr which sees what needs to be done und then does it, which makes exceedingly useful men and woman. There will always be a position for such persons. digger has achieved what, yours ago, There will always he a call to come up was regarded as a physical impossibilhigher. . It is in one sense, a small ity, so far as speed is concerned. thing to do these little things without orders, but it is the doing of them that mukes great captains, great engineers, great artists, great architects, great nothing unless they are told to do it. "George, come quick! The cook has cluded under the collective term apprehension concerning the character snow with nervous movements. In a tell her that Nat and I have invited erally classify them under two main ourselves to be your guests and pro- divisions-toadstools and mushrooms definite directions, and with a word tectors until grandfather and grand- the latter only being considered edible, and embracing the several vari-A little later lien said, "Now, Hope atles of the mushrpont community exunked how can one distinguish a > severely alone all kinds about which lings in the morning. "Just a minute, Hope," said grand- there is any uncertainty. Many mush-the trip, and bring yourselves back to chap's arrival by putting a new place string. As the paper parted, revealing student who wishes to acquaint himof furniture into the home." And so grandfather gathered up the reina it had happened that as each child wide in amasement. "I didn't know "One Thousand Fungi," McIlwaine,

"Mushrooms," Atkinson, Henry Holt "The Agaricaceae of Michigan," C

H. Kauffman, Wynkoop, Rullenbeck, In' a short article it is not, possible even to describe the commonest varieties such as Fairy Ring (Marasmlus orendes) Shaggy Mane (Coprinus comatus) luky, Cay (Coprinus atramenturius) and the ordinary field mushroom (Agaricus campeatris.) The two following deadly polsonous ones are described and should be thoroughly known before anyone ever takes to eating wild mushrooms.

The Fly Aguric (Amanita muscaria.)

This is a very consplouous mushroom, not resembling any other variety in the whole range of mushrooms. The ed at first, then nearly plane; surface, whom fresh slightly viseld. Its color is aubject to great variations, ranging from orange-red to yellow or almost white, the yellow color being more ture plants is marked with radiating lines or murkings, The surface is covered with thick, angular, persistent Although Natalle was not aware of scales, and saulty removed; flesh white. , her voice was defensive. She knew The gills are free, but reaching the that she was not a good talker. There stem. Color white rarely becoming were times when she would have given | yellow. Stem 4 to 8 inches long, shining white or pale yellowish, becoming hollow, enlarged at the base into a ent, concentric, irregular rings. There she agreed. "The phrase makes such scaly cap, brilliantly colored, large a clear distinction without saying a ring and bulbous ringed base. It ocly but silences that are lazy and sej- phalloides, or Death Cup-is 3 to Natalie looked startled; she had not or yellowish, but may be grey or brown edged. "I don't see how," she pro- moist, smooth, oval, and finally extend-Cousin Lou apparently was not flosh white, not objectionable to taste, enough, but their minds slump down called a volva. It is of common ocin rocking-chairs all day long. Think currence from July to October, in the less beauties and adventures and dis- woods. 'It resembles somewhat the coveries, to say nothing of the millions common field mushroom, but a slight of human beings in it all of whom examination will disclose in the field the sun-human nature. And then the absence of the out at the base of think of a mind so lasy that it can go the stem. A Phalloides is the most through a day without finding any- dangerous of all fungi and is responsible for most of the deaths resulting Natalle colored. "Oh, it's not that from outing mushrooms. Ten to nfthere isn't anything worth talking teen hours may elapse before symptoms of poisoning may appear. No untidote has been found. A safe rule is to avoid eating all mushrooms have Natallo's color despened, but her ing white gills, a ring on the stem, and chin litted. "I know because of the a volve at the hase of stem, combined in the same plant,-W. H. Odell, Vist-

WHAT BOBBY BAID

Bobby's mother was anxious to know whather he had obeyed her injunctions Natalle looked startled. "I wonder and behaved himself at the party. He was sure that he had. "When Mrs. Smith asked me if I wanted more cake, our sympathy and love for folks. You I said, 'No thank you." Ills mother remember Mrs. Browning's description was relieved, but wanted to know of Euripides with his 'touches of things | more. "Did she ask you again?" "Yes, common till they rose to touch the and I still told her, 'No thank you.' But urter a while she asked me shother Natalle shook her head whimsleally, time." Bobby looked confident,. "I "You're pruel, Cousin Lou; you put said what pa always says: Take the

DIGGING MADE EASY

The new method of digging a ditch alongside a ratiroad truck is to hitch kind of scoop to the front of a looonotive. By this means twenty miles of ditch can be plowed in one day at a cost of about $6.35 per mile. The ditch can be thus dug three feet deep and fourteen feet from the

BUCH WASTE !

TRAVEL TO THE NATIONAL

This season's travel to the Canadian National Parks seems likely to be one of the heaviest in their history. Heservations in many of the botels have teen benked months ladadvance und the chief resorts are now full of foreign and Canadian visitors. The Justice Park Lodge, the new bungalow hotel which was opened for the first time on June 15, at Jasper, will make it mosable for many more tourists to find accommodation in this great reservation along the Canadian National Rallways and a noticeable increase bot! here and at Bant' to the number of people who come to spend the entire summer and go out along the trails to the beautiful but little known portions of the Parks is observed. The total number of visitors to the Canadian National Purks during the hust season was approximately 150,000, about 60,000 of whom came from outplde countries. It is estimated that tills travel represents approximately $18,000,000 foreign money brought into the country for which Canada went out practically nothing in return. The total expenditures on the National Purks during the past . 25 years have beent & little over $6,000,000 or ulmut one-third the value of the foreign travel they attracted last year.

AN INGENIOUS RETORY

low, but to the vicar's great regret he was partial-distinctly partial-to the trong drinks. The vicur met him one morning and decided to try once more to get the big fellow to reform.

"I wish, Jim," the vicar remarked "that I could persuade you to drink nothing but water for alx months." "Water, sir!" was the startled exof a spoon, etc., are mythical and af- afraid to touch water for fear of rust-

THE WICKED WORM

Cuthbert had been listening for hal unless you turn over a new leaf," andd the father. "Remember, it's the early bird that catches the worm." "Ifa, ha!" laughted Cuthbert. "How about the worm? What did he get for turning out so early?" "My son," replied the father, "that worm hadn't been to bed all night; he

McLeod and cast.

$15 to WINNIPEG

toba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, Edmonton, Calgary,

TORONTO-(Union Station)

was on his way home."

PARKS

Of All Summer Goods at Prices Far Below Cost Relow are a Few Illustrations: Misses' Gingham Dresses, in checks and plaids, organdie trimmed, sizes 34, 36 and 38, to clear at $3.25.

> and 38, to clear at $3.00. Girls' Gingham, Voile and Chambray Dresses, sizes 10, 12, 13, 14, to clear at $1.00.

Voiles, regularly 75c, to clear at 59c.

August Clearance

Real Linen Tub Frocks, in blue, pink and green, sizes 36 Jumper Dresses of extra good quality gingham, to clear Mercerized Sport Shirts, regularly $4.50, to clear at $2.95. Voiles, regularly 50c and 60c, to clear at 39c.

WE STOCK BETTER GOODS AT A LOWER PRICE

Acton

Phone 69-Open Evenings

Electric Washers

Blue Bird --- A. B. C. --- "Miss Simplicity"

We are now able to supply any one of these three lines,

A machine will be placed in your home on trial without which gives you a choice when dealing with us of any style of Washer that is on the market. Easy terms of payment may be arranged for and there is no need of you waiting until you have the ready cash. Let the Washer pay for itself each month.

Norman H. Speight Georgetown

Distributor for Georgetown, Milton, Acton, Brampton

$20 from WINNIPEG

August 11th and 21st-Toronto, Caledon Rast, Becton, Mexford,

August 14th and 23rd-Toronto, Inglewood and all stations south and west

Collingwood, Penetang, Midland, Parry Sound, Sudbury, Capreol and any obligation or expense of any sort on your part.

Canadian National-Grand Trunk

40,000

HARVESTERS WANTED

Special Trains Leave-(Standard Time)

August 14th-12.30 noon, 6.00 p. m., 10.30 p. m.

August 23rd-12.30 noon, 6.00 p. m., 10.30 p. m.

For Times from Other Stations See Special Train Service Poster

Through Solid Trains to Winnipeg Without Change.

Restaurant Cars on Special Trains-Meals and Lunches Served at Reasonable Prices. Special Cars for Women. Convertible (berth)

Colonist Care of Latest Design

For further particulars apply to nearest agent Canadian National-Grand Trunk Rallways.

THE CANADIAN NATIONAL REACHES DIRECT ALL IMPORTANT DISTRIBUTING

CENTRES IN WESTERN CANADA

Travel the "National Way" to Winnipeg when destined to any point beyond,

It pays to advertise---but

As they drank beside a pool.

Said the tiger, "Tell me why

Said lion, "That's not foolish,"

A rabbit heard them talking

And ran home like a streak.

But his roar was a squeak.

A fox came to investigate---

Had luncheon in the woods.

Unless you've got the goods."

Moral: "Never advertise

You're roaring like a fool."

With a twinkle in his eyes.

"They call me king

It pays to advertise!"

He thought he'd try

The lion's plan

Of all the beasts

A lion met a tiger

This Store's

Food Chopper

-PARTICULARLY AT THIS

TIME OF YEAR

"Universary" Vood Choppers cut

leanly without mashing-Fish, Mosts,

Vegetables of all kinds and Fruits.

four knives, course, Misdlum.

mak and very fine $1 75

No. 1 "Universal" $2 25

No. 2 "Universal $2 76

No. 3 "Universi" $3 80

PREBERVING BEASON SUPPLIES

OF ALL KINDS

The BOND HARDWARE CO. Ltd

"We Have What You Want"

Policy

or, capacity & quarte, each io. O "Universal," complete with

Wire Canning Backs, fit any boil-

To represent goods exactly as to their quality; to self to those who know and to those who don't know at a uniform fair price; to fulfill all guarantees and cheerfully correct all mis-

Savage & Co.

takes; to deserve your confidence, by always giving you satisfaction.

Jewellers

The Double Track Route

MONTREAL - TORONTO

Unexcelled dining car service. Sleeping cars on night trains and Furior Cars on principal day trains.

Full information from any Grand Trunk ticket-agent or C. E. Horning, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

H. S. HOLMES, Agent

R. NOBLE Ltd.

Acton Elevator

At Grand Trunk Station

Just Arrived-Car No. 1 Feed Oats A QUANTITY OF FEED CORN AND OIL CAKE JUST

FLOUR, FEED, NORVAL BRAN AND SHORTS, FRED FLOUR

RECEIVED

R. NOBLE Ltd.

Surprising Bargains

For Acton Ladies

Summer Shoes CANVAS TANS OXFORDS, ETC.

Very low prices on a lot of good goods in small sizes.

The quality is there and the prices are as low as the

COME IN FOR BARGAINS

W. Williams

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S

CASTORIA

Advertise In The Acton Free Press