Improved Roads Being Constructed in This Section

Second Line, Esquesing; Second Line Erin: Seventh Line: Base Line BECOND LINE TO MILTON BOOM

It is gratifying that we have so buch activity in improved road construction on the Provincial Highway between Acton and Crowsons Corners, and other horoughtures are being improved in several directions.

The New Stone Road The construction of the bow ston oud from the limits of the Corporation of Acton to the Erin town line has been completed. It is a fine pleas of roadway and with necessary care for maintonunco, should make a permanent road. Constant supervision will be necessary, however, for it is inevitable that places here and there will disintrograte and require repairs.

The New Base Line Roadway The aplendid new atone road on the base line from the second line to Hornby, is a great boon to the people who use that roadway. It was in had condition for many years. The County linch, and Mrs. Curris, of Erin. is certainly growing. . Last Bunday close attention, however, to this road. In several places already the broken stone has worked out of place and depressions annoying to drivers are growing larger. Minor repairs now will moun the preservation of the road. Otherwise it will soon get out of repair as so many others of our county roads

Improving the Second Line, Erin The influence of a good example is vividly seen on the second line, Krin. last when the bands from Acton, Milton and Deorgetown gave musical salections, singly and massed. The first hand to take the stage was Anton, whose selections were both artistic and entertaining. Miss I. Mason's rendering of "When the Tide Comes In." as a cornet solo was aplendidly given and greatly appreciated by the audionce. Two selections were rendered by the Acton male quartette, evoking hearty applause. It is sincerely hoped that next season this ideal musicale will be more extensive and that they will be heard at frequent intervals. After the programme the bands were entertained at the Public Library by the Women's Institute, who loaded the
