

Births, Marriages, and Deaths are now charged at 10¢ each. Births, 5¢; Memorial Cards, 2¢, inc per line write for poems.

BORN

MCGOWAN—At the Cottage Hospital, Welland Street, Toronto, yesterday, August 31, 1922, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGowan, a daughter.

The Action Free Press

THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1922

Brief Local Items

—September 1—tomorrow.
—Harvest apples are plentiful.

—Get ready for Action Fall Fair.

—Schools re-open next Tuesday.

—Light frosts may now be looked for.

—Motorists, cultivate the hand signal habit.

—Prest Day at Toronto Fair tomorrow.

—Alliston's tax rate has been struck at 24 mills.

—The potato crop promises to be a bumper one.

—The school bell will ring again next Tuesday.

—Labor Day—next Monday, is the next public holiday.

—Laugh and the world smiles with you; grouch and you keep your goods.

—Eleven train loads of harvesters went west through Ontario last week.

—It is reported that new potatoes are selling at Hillsburg for a bag.

—People who have wood either for consumption or for sale, this fall, are fortunate.

—A large quota of visitors to Toronto Exhibition is going from Action this week.

—Remember that the pedestrian at the crossing has a right to cross, Mr. Motor Driver.

—Every person should go to the big Show Fair at Orangeville on September 14 and 15.

—Tuesday morning's showers were appreciated. A good day's rain would be much better.

—Young people learn to burn soft coal in their winter, evidently—both stoves and furnaces.

—The Farmer's Sun says the big barns of Ontario are crowded with bumper crops of grain.

—The law regarding noxious weeds is not well enforced in regard to some gardens and vacant lots.

—Rev. Mr. Stewart will resume his pulpit in Knox Church next Sunday, after enjoying his vacation.

—Orangeville Show, September 14 and 15, will be the greatest fair of the season. Don't miss it.

—Glenwilliams Athletic Club will hold a garden party tomorrow evening and a field day on Saturday.

—"Meet me at Action Fair" is the happy phrase in many letters from away from home folks these days.

—President Herren, of the Flower Show, brought the Free Press a splendid bouquet of white asters on Tuesday.

—The first car of turpines for the season was loaded by M. F. Barry this week. They were shipped to New York.

—Mr. David Carnahan, who fell at Starkman's new building last week and fractured a rib, is able to walk out again.

—The first day of the County Fair at Milton, September 29, will be given over to Halton School Fair, which will be attractive.

—The Guelph Salvation Army Band will give a band concert on the Community House lawn to-morrow (Friday).

—A dance will be held in St. Urban Park-to-night (Thursday evening, August 31). Five piece Orchestra in attendance.

—"It's a long lane that has no turning." The same might apply to the settlement of the coal and rail strike across the border.

—Now is the time for every wise merchant to have advertising in his local newspaper to come to the aid of his business.

—People who are complaining of the heat these days will be seeking the warm side of the streets in a few weeks from now.

—A business firm, to be known as Action Produce Merchants, with Mr. Hartley Harrison, as manager, has been organized here.

—Mr. Fred Smith, apothecary, Rockwood, had a very successful year in honey production. He has now about 15,000 pounds of honey.

—You can get the latest fair from Action to Thursday fair from Jitney this year. Perhaps by next week artificial propane will be added.

—Action crossed; from the third to the seventh lines, has been given a liberal coating of gravel by the Provincial Department of Highways.

—A man who tells us that Chief Conroy is the proud of his new uniform, they're off. Jim knows uniforms and he is the real high-toned rogue.

—Palmerston is surfacing the streets there with a new asphalt preparation, which would be worth considering for Mill Street.

—Action has sent a car of potatoes to shipment to the West Indies. The potatoes were shipped from Palgrave.

—Action Citizens' Band gave another enjoyable open air concert for the education of our citizens, on Community House lawn on Monday evening.

—We notice that girls of the flapper type are wearing furs again. Are we to deduce from this that another hot spell is on its way—Matti and Elmwood?

—Tony Sycuk, who has leased part of his premises to the Toronto Bargain House, is having alterations made to accommodate the new business.

—Rev. Charles Hackett preached in the Methodist Church, Ballinafad, last Sunday afternoon, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Evans, who is enjoying his holidays.

—Master Glen Ryder brought a very presentable team of horses to compete in the Free Press Texas on Saturday. The center car was surrounded by seven smaller cars.

—Master Max Starkman, in very poor health, had a walk with his son the other day, making a quarter of a pound, and measuring 6½ x 8 inches in circumference.

—Mr. Wesley Murray and family go on record on the first day of travel over the road with a load of lumber, 100 miles, with a team of horses. They came to town by that route last Friday evening.

—Toronto Exhibition will have a greater volume of music than ever before this year. The fees will be high class, orchestra concerts in the new coliseum, which has a seating capacity of 6,000 persons.

Neighborhood News—
Town and Country

NASSAGAWEYA

Mr. and Mrs. William McMillan, of Burlington, visited the pastoral home here yesterday.

Mr. William McMillan has been very ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillan and baby, of Toronto, visited at the home of Mr. Wm. McMillan.

Miss Frank Hayes, of Toronto, visited friend and working girl, Mrs. Wm. McMillan, of Guelph, visited here during the week.

OAKVILLE

A diver is busy working on the mouth of the waterworks intake blue in order to ascertain whether the pipe has plugged up and if it is in good condition.

Oakville bridge is now described as the "new" instead of the old, the latter being the name the new bridge at Oakville.

Reaffirming its strong belief in the support of the Toronto-Hamilton Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario to proceed with the construction of the new plant at Guelph, and authorized the execution of an agreement between the town and the Commission for carrying out the work.

ROCKWOOD

An interdenominational service was held in the Methodist Church the other Sunday evening. The church was too small to accommodate the large congregation, which numbered 1,000.

Orlando and Charles Jolliffe, whose "furlough from their mission in the Orient" was due to end on October 1.

At Friday morning's session of the Guelph County Court Josephine Veron, Alice Bressel, was convicted on a charge of selling liquor, and was fined $200 and costs by Magistrate Watt. It was Mrs. Veron's husband, John, who was given three months' sentence at Niagara Falls, while on a bootlegging trip.

LIMELINE

Miss Minnie Shaw, of Toronto, visited friends here for a few days last week.

Miss Euphie Ivens was home from Toronto over Sunday.

The Wild is here for this year.

Miss Edwina Marshall was home from Toronto over Sunday.

The students of the secondary schools are returning home after their long vacation. School re-opens on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marshall returned home after visiting friends in Erin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDowell and Miss Irene, Mr. and Mrs. Mills, and Babe and Mr. and Mrs. Massalew, of Toronto, visited at Mr. Lepidolite's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Pollett and family have returned to Toronto after their summer residence here.

Mr. Wm. Gandy spent a day or two this week at Toronto exhibition.

Mr. Johnson, merchant, is up north recuperating.

Mr. Dougall Gandy continues to convalesce in his camp among the pines on the riverbank on the back of the farm.

CREWBON'S CORNERS

On Sunday evening Velma, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Velma Murray was removed to Guelph General Hospital, suffering with appendicitis. An operation was performed and she is doing as well as can be expected.

Velma is a favorite of many friends here and has many little friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Masters Morgan and George Urquhart, and son, are settling at their Uncle's Mr. M. C. Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor's last week, visited Mr. J. Taylor's Tomball, Hamilton, visited at Mr. J. Taylor's last week.

Friends here have lost Mr. Mr. Crown.

The Wild is here for this year.

Miss Edwina Marshall was home from Toronto over Sunday.

The students of the secondary schools are returning home after their long vacation. School re-opens on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hallinan, of Milton, and son, have sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis, of Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dennis, of Milton, spent the week-end at the home of his brother, Mr. Wm. Dennis.

—People who are complaining of the heat these days will be seeking the warm side of the streets in a few weeks from now.

—A business firm, to be known as Action Produce Merchants, with Mr. Hartley Harrison, as manager, has been organized here.

—Mr. Fred Smith, apothecary, Rockwood, had a very successful year in honey production. He has now about 15,000 pounds of honey.

—You can get the latest fair from Action to Thursday fair from Jitney this year. Perhaps by next week artificial propane will be added.

—Action crossed; from the third to the seventh lines, has been given a liberal coating of gravel by the Provincial Department of Highways.

—A man who tells us that Chief Conroy is the proud of his new uniform, they're off. Jim knows uniforms and he is the real high-toned rogue.

—Palmerston is surfacing the streets there with a new asphalt preparation, which would be worth considering for Mill Street.

—Action has sent a car of potatoes to shipment to the West Indies. The potatoes were shipped from Palgrave.

—Action Citizens' Band gave another enjoyable open air concert for the education of our citizens, on Community House lawn on Monday evening.

—We notice that girls of the flapper type are wearing furs again. Are we to deduce from this that another hot spell is on its way—Matti and Elmwood?

—Tony Sycuk, who has leased part of his premises to the Toronto Bargain House, is having alterations made to accommodate the new business.

—Rev. Charles Hackett preached in the Methodist Church, Ballinafad, last Sunday afternoon, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Evans, who is enjoying his holidays.

—Master Glen Ryder brought a very presentable team of horses to compete in the Free Press Texas on Saturday. The center car was surrounded by seven smaller cars.

—Master Max Starkman, in very poor health, had a walk with his son the other day, making a quarter of a pound, and measuring 6½ x 8 inches in circumference.

—Mr. Wesley Murray and family go on record on the first day of travel over the road with a load of lumber, 100 miles, with a team of horses. They came to town by that route last Friday evening.

—Toronto Exhibition will have a greater volume of music than ever before this year. The fees will be high class, orchestra concerts in the new coliseum, which has a seating capacity of 6,000 persons.

A Debt Paying Crop
The Western Harvest Promises to Benefit East as Well

"The wheat is going to harvest a rich crop," said Mr. W. B. Lanigan, freight traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Burlington, "and it is to be hoped that the weather will be good."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good, and the weather is favorable for a good harvest."

Mr. Lanigan said, "The wheat crop is looking good