

Births, Marriages and Deaths are now charged for at the following rates: Births, $1.00; Marriages, $1.00; Deaths, $1.00 per line extra for poems.

MARRIED
RUDOLPH HINDELLA, on Thursday, October 6, 1922, Jessie Blinde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Blinde, of Guelph, Erin, to Carl Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Miller, of Erin, Erin.

DIED

TUHUNG—At his home, lot 4, condominium 4, Neogawawa, on Monday, October 10, 1922, Harry Tuhung, aged 47 years.

HINCLOUGH—In Elgin Township, on Sunday, October 8, 1922, Mary McEachern, wife of Alfred J. Hinchlough, of Archdale, died, in her 70th year.

MITCHIELL—At the home of his daughter, at Laramie, Alta., on Monday, October 16, 1922, Rev. George Mitchie, formerly of Georgetown, aged 82 years.

The Action Free Press

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1922

Brief Local Items

A spell of cold weather again this week.

A car of furnace coal is expected here this week.

Farm work is generally well advanced this fall.

Plant your tulip, hyacinth and narcissus bulbs now.

The price of coal in Guelph has been fixed at $16.00 per ton.

Friday, the 13th, didn't mark any unusual calamities last week.

We're just at the corner of autumn with all its glory and riot of color.

The Ford cars have been reduced another $50 by the Ford Company.

The first noisy flurry of the season came yesterday. It was of short duration.

Mr. N. F. Moore is in charge of the grocery department at McLean & Co's store.

Cold fingers these days pulling turnips and picking potatoes and apples.

Mr. Taylor, a student from Toronto, preached at the Baptist Church on Sunday.

Guelph Council is getting along this year with 28 miles—two less than last year.

With empty coal burners the coal men seem to lack his usual fall-time enthusiasm.

The heavy frost last Thursday night robbed the flowers of their beauty everywhere.

Wood sawing bees are popular these days in the effort to beat the coal shortage.

The first car of anthracite arrived at Liedlow's retailed at $14.50 per ton.

After six months of constant and luxurious bloom the gardens in town are now denuded of their beauty.

A. G. Clarridge won first prize at Erin Fair on his fine span of roadsters, and second on his two-year-old.

Mr. Bryden Wood, of Sydney, Australia, has kindly forwarded to the Press Department of the Daily Telegraph the following:

The paymasters of Hanover carried a by-law on Monday to expand $15,000 on waterworks additions.

An electric iron left with the power on caused $100 damage to the home of David Brunton, Parkdale, last Thursday.

Rev. Andrew Telford, of Bronte, will have home, October 21, for Buenos Aires, as a San Pedro missionary.

The mild weather has saved many tons of coal. Now if we have a good long Indian Summer a further saving will be experienced.

Jackson Court in the School Room of the Methodist Church, under the auspices of the Edward League, Monday, October 20.

Most business trouble starts from workers who don't think of thinkers who don't work, or loafers who don't do either.—Factory News.

At the meeting of the Presbytery of Waterloo, held in the Knox Church, Weyburn, Rev. J. C. Wilson, B.A., occupied the chair.

Gasoline has gotten down to Acton's price in the city. It has dropped two cents in the past fortnight and is now selling at 36c.

Already announcements are calling the names of the priests to the Provincial Wing. They are to be held at Guelph, December 8 to 14.

Chief Cooney, of Acton, was one of the special constables in town Fair Day. "Jim" looks well in his new uniform—Georgetown Herald.

The erection of Kitchener's proposed new city hall will be deferred until next year. They were too late in deciding about plans, etc.

Mr. John Savare is again issuing hunting licenses this year and has the usual stock of deer licenses, etc., ready for the hunting season.

Three men were fined $1,000 each in Guelph Court last Thursday for carrying on a lottery. The fines and costs came to a total of $1,000.

The delightsome weather of Saturday afternoon afforded numbers of people another opportunity for a pleasurable outing in the autumn woods.

R. Kirkwood, of lot 5, eighth line, Erin, has made his last venture to lose four or five of his young cattle within about five days by some mysterious ailment.

Have you sent your contribution or clothing for the Northern Ontario children? If not, the committee will be glad to receive it at the town hall to-morrow afternoon.

Last Thursday was the one hundred and tenth anniversary of the death of Sir Isaac Brock in the attack on Queenston Heights during the war of 1812 with the United States.

It is time to select roots of beets, carrots, parsnips, etc., which for seed next year. Choose the best roots, store them carefully, plant next spring and grow specially for seed.

Last Sunday St. Alban's Church observed Children's Day and, except for the services, the services were conducted by the children. Rev. Mr. Baugh, the rector, was in charge.

It will make matters easier as you do as the Council has done with the elections, in the matter of commanding with your Christmas present. Begin to sign your friends' names to those used.

The village of Southam has been fortunate in making a contract with the Dominion Government to supply water for the fish hatchery there for five years at $4,000 per year.

Our enterprising exchange, the Pilton Gazette, is branching out. The regular issue of the paper and those will in future be known as "The Wellington News."

A Happy Silver Wedding
Silver Tea Service Presented Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Brown, Limehouse

Neighborhood News— Town and Country

BALLINAPIA

An evening long to be remembered was spent at Mountain View, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Turner, Hillside, on Wednesday evening, October 12, being the occasion of their twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding day. Early in the evening many members of both families gathered around the beautiful tables, which were suitably decorated with flowers and silver, to partake of the banquet which had been prepared for the occasion.

In the evening the guests gathered in the parlors, where an impromptu programme was given. Rev. Mr. James, brother of Mr. H. Ferguson, acted as chairman. The proceedings consisted of speeches and music.

Two numbers worthy of special notice were given by Miss Anna Evelyn of Huntington, Quebec, and Miss Evelyn Browncombe, of Uxbridge. Miss Rose gave a very interesting recital of her trip to Bermuda, and Miss Evelyn Browncombe related interesting incidents on her recent trip to Europe.

The following address was read by Rev. Mr. James: "We your relatives and friends, meet and greet you in your beautiful home on this, our anniversary. How quickly the years have flown, bringing many of our loved ones with us, and many more, where no farewells are said."

"We have come to-day to express our hearty congratulations to the happy couple, and to thank the Giver of all good, that has spared you to celebrate this golden anniversary. We are well equipped and splendid residence which are ours, and we hope you will be so for many years to come. We have no desire to call you 'Mister and Mrs. Smith' as we all delight to call her, in a position of no mean order, the most charming woman we have ever seen. You are so highly esteemed in the neighborhood where you have lived so long."

We wish you much joy and many happy returns of health and happiness. Please accept this silver tea service as a token of our love and good will.

On behalf of the donor, Brothers and Sisters and Relatives, Limehouse, October 12, 1922.

Many other beautiful and costly gifts were presented by friends and relatives. The Women's Institute sent a beautiful candle. Mrs. Brown being the president.

The friends dispersed after the singing of "For they are Jolly Good Fellows" and the singing of that they might be present at a similar occasion twenty-five years hence.

Guests were present from Toronto, Guelph, Uxbridge, Quebec, Stratford, New Dundee and Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The boys carried out their various duties with great interest and the parents were greatly pleased with the way the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, were carrying out the sermon.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The rector, Rev. H. G. L. Baugh, spoke with great interest and the services were delivered with his well known eloquence, full of helpful advice and exhortation to all.

Last Sunday the Children's Day Service was held in the Central Hall, Hillside School, parents and parents were held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. Miss V. Shepherd, of Stratford, visited here over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and Elizabeth, of Toronto, visited here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Sonner visited at Mr. H. Ferguson's over the weekend.

Mr. James, of Guelph, is visiting here over the weekend.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The boys carried out their various duties with great interest and the parents were greatly pleased with the way the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children's Service was held in the evening, when the offering was given by the boys of the Sunday School, the rector, and the teacher, Mr. H. Ferguson, who was greatly appreciated.

The whole idea was allowing the children to take part in the service, which was held at 8 o'clock. Matins were held at 10 o'clock. The real Children