Here's Your Chance!

Our Season for Men's Winter Overcoats Will Close Very Soon, Though You'll be Wearing Yours for Some Time to Come. And There's Another Season's Wear Ahead That You Might Save on Too, When—

One Hundred and Seventy-five Overcoats are Marked at Final Reductions

REGULAR $25.00 OVERCOATS AT $19.50.
REGULAR $30 AND $35 OVERCOATS AT $25.00.
REGULAR $40 AND $45 OVERCOATS AT $35.00.

Latest styles, of course—in fact, the season's most popular models, because the most favored coats are the first to be sold down to a few sizes, and this is a season-end clearance of all the broken lines, few-of-a-kind, etc. Only reason that could make such reductions possible.

Raglans, Ulsters and Ulsterettes with checkbacks and "pole" linings, with leather buttons, or plain, all around belts or half belts. Oxford and Cambridge grays, Lovatt shades, fawns, browns, and heather mixtures. Men's and young men's models.

No Bigger Reductions to Come—These are Final—

Longer You Wait, the Fewer to Choose From. Come to Guelph at Once!

Hockey Games at the Bank

Acton Wins One Game from Glen Williams and Loses to G. T. R. Team of Toronto
On Wednesday evening of last week the local puck-clubmen took the strong Glen Williams team into camp and beat them by a 3 to 2 score. The ice was in good condition, but the local team did not play the class of hockey they are capable of playing. McDonald and Gibbons did not get going until the second period. The Glen boys played a good game but were defeated by a rather rough Acton team. Kenna and Kennedy had played first-class hockey. Gibbons was the star of the game. He scored two goals and was the key to the Acton victory.
