

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25

THE PARABLE OF THE POINTING
GIBSON TEXT: He that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much.

Verse 11. They supposed. The disciples supposed that the kingdom of God was about to appear. The subject of the parable was to lead them away from false hopes and to teach them the lesson of patient waiting and active work.

Verse 12. A certain nobleman went into a foreign country. This nobleman had actually gone from Jerusalem to a far country, away to Europe, for the purpose of securing a kingdom for his son. He was subsequently done by the king, and he was left with nothing but a few Jews who were his retainers.

Verse 13. Ten pounds. A mina, here referred to, was one hundred drachmas, or about twenty dollars. The nobleman left ten pounds, or about two hundred dollars, to his servants, and he went away.

Verse 14. He returned. The nobleman returned after a long absence, and he found that his servants had not been faithful. Some had sold their pounds, some had lost them, and some had given them to the Jews.

Verse 15. He said. The nobleman said to the servants who had not been faithful, "You have been idle and unfaithful. You should have put my pounds in the bank, and I would have returned them with interest."

Verse 16. He said. The nobleman said to the servant who had been faithful, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. I will appoint thee over these ten cities."

Verse 17. He said. The nobleman said to the servant who had been faithful, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. I will appoint thee over these ten cities."

Verse 18. He said. The nobleman said to the servant who had been faithful, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. I will appoint thee over these ten cities."

Queen during the latter part of January, just at the time that the proposal was made that the gun be returned to the original owners.

It is not clear whether the gun was captured just outside Toronto, and the proposal to return it to the original owners is a very interesting one.
