

Births, Marriages and Deaths are now charged for at the following rates: Births, $1; Marriages, $2; Deaths, per Memorial Card, $1, less per line extra for poems.

Neighborhood News— Town and Country

DIED
WATSON—In Action, on Friday, February 23, 1923, John C. Watson, aged 74 years.

HOPKINS—At his residence in Acton on Wednesday, February 28, 1923, Thomas Stoy, aged 76 years.

ADAMS—In Georgetown, on Monday, February 26, 1923, Carl Wesley Adams, of the Ogden Relief staff.

CONOVER—In Oakville, on Saturday, February 24, 1923, Sarah A. Munro, widow of the late James A. Conover, in her 80th year.

MANN—At the home of Mrs. John Mann, on Wednesday, February 28, 1923, Margaret Mann, in her 86th year.

KENNEDY—On Wednesday morning, February 21, Donald L. Kennedy, of the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, husband of Hermelita Small.

MCFARLIE—At Brandon, Man., on Monday, February 26, 1923, Janet Forrest, beloved wife of J. G. D. McFarlane, formerly of Nepeanwaya.

McEVY—At his home at the Trout Point Inn, near Galt, Ontario, on Monday, February 26, 1923, Thomas Joseph McEvoy, in his 68th year.

IN MEMORIAM
COOK—In memory of our dear husband and father, Oliver Herbert Cook, who departed from this life March 4, 1922.

The day brings back To our memory And those who think of him to-day Are those who loved his best.

WIFE AND CHILDREN.

The Action Free Press

THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1923

Brief Local Items

Tuesday was "Pardesburg Day."

—One-sixth of the year has gone.

—Now spring freshets may be expected.

—The maple sugar orchards will soon be lively again.

—These are evidently the days of the auction sales.

—Day by day the weather is growing better and better.

—Fruit men are trimming and sprucing their orchards.

—Warmer weather is promised, and it's time to come now, too.

—Enjoy the Jubilee Concert with your band next Wednesday evening.

—Good-bye February. We've had enough of you to do us for a year.

—Give This Free Press, the names of your visitors and the names of your house guests.

—Good Friday arrives on the 30th of this month, and Easter Sunday on April 1.

—Sometimes when a thing is beautiful you can get too much of it. Know, for instance.

—A new $25,000 school building has just been completed in the little town of Ingleside.

—United States dealers think sugar has reached the peak price, and will shortly recede.

—The Dominion estimates include an item of $5,700 for repairs on Bronte harbor and piers.

—The first thaw of the year 1923 came on Monday. It lowered the snow banks considerably.

—The thaw this week replenished wells and cisterns for which many people are grateful.

—The best substitute for coal is coming. It will be here in a very few weeks. It's Spring.

—Drains and watercourses must be promptly opened, or pavements and cellars will be flooded.

—Numbers of roofs throughout the country are going down with the weight of snow-carried.

—Newest styles in Easter Millinery at Miss Murray's Millinery Parlor on Wednesday, March 14th.

—Every man likes to give himself the benefit of the doubt in making out his income tax report.

—Gasoline has gone up two cents like the sugar, the question might reasonably be asked: Why?

—An early spring is now predicted. Hope the prediction is more reliable than the open winter brand we got last fall.

—The bloodhounds scoured the delivery route for the last. They have been coming in freely again the past few days.

—The person who contributes something "Just-to-help" fit the paper, should call around and take a look at the waste paper basket.

—A good many dogs are running at large without license tags. Their owners are liable to be summoned to appear in court any time.

—In a town like Acton the Public Library offers a means of self-improvement that most of its citizens are wholly or partially neglecting.

—Held and Smith's women have their duties completed. An Acton aggregate assessment this year will be very considerably increased.

—The congregation of the Methodist Church will attend the Baptist anniversary next Sunday morning and that of Knox Church in the evening.

—Good-morning, March! See if you can behave yourself a little better than your sister, just departed, although she didn't do too badly the last few days.

—They say a weather prophet in Grey county had made a fine reputation by his prognostications, until this winter came along and showed it all under.

—A number of the Acton young people held an enjoyable surprise party at the home of Mr. L. L. Johnston, first line, Esquinton, last Wednesday evening.

—The skating rink hasn't been troubled much with mild weather affecting the ice this winter. Mondays are fine and they thawed it up a bit, however.

—Already about twenty new residences are either under permit or in prospect in Oakville, and this number will "greatly" increased before the close of the year.

—The Halton Glove Works are busy on good orders for fine gloves. They have fine prospects for the present year. Messrs. Spaulding and Son are engaged in a general trade in the town.

—The Hutton Glove Works are busy on good orders for fine gloves. They have fine prospects for the present year. Messrs. Spaulding and Son are engaged in a general trade in the town.

News of Local Import

Newspaperman in the Running

Mr. H. E. Iles, editor of the Huntsville Evening Star, and Mayor of Huntsville, was nominated as a Liberal candidate for the Legislature in the coming general election at the convention at Brantford. Mr. Iles is a very popular man in his constituency.

Kind Words for Chief Jackson

Chief Jackson has completed a year in Georgetown this month and has served the town well since coming here. He has been an official during his term, but his task is not over one, but we believe he has endeavored to work in the best interests of the town to all concerned.—Georgetown Tribune.

CHURCHILL

Miss Josephine Henry Thompson, who died from spinal fever, was exposed to the cold all night three weeks ago, has quite recovered and is now as well as usual.

—In this section have been almost impossible during the week between the big drifts and the mild weather the first of the week, the horses stumbled through with much difficulty.

LIMEHOUSE

Mr. Cook, of Toronto, visited friends here over the weekend.

The ice men are busy cutting and sawing wood to shore product to shore for their work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McMillen visited Limehouse in Toronto for a few days last week.

—After the recent snow storms numerous large drifts had to be shovelled out along the roads around here.

Miss Hall, of Ash, visited friends here for a few days last week.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Mr. R. Turner, undertaker, Milton, left for Buffalo Monday morning with the remains of Miss Margaret Hay, who died at Campbellville after returning to Milton where they will be buried in Evergreen Cemetery.

Deceased, who died at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Campbell, on Wednesday, said that her body was crumpled in Milton before moving to Campbellville. She was well-known and highly respected.

—The 33rd of the waters list for this township are in hands of the printers. It is being printed this year because provincial election is in view.

TERRA COTTA

Mr. John Townsend, who has been seriously ill during the past week, is now on the mend.

Miss was born on Friday, February 23, 1923, and Mrs. Chas. Simpkins, his son.

Mr. Hugh Logan is making some necessary repairs to his brick plant and is preparing to move operations as soon as the weather permits.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKeown, of Acton, spent Sunday with Terri Costa.

—Our young people attended a supper party at Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald on Friday evening and all report a good time.

—Mr. Aliega now on the mend.

A number of our citizens are laid up with colds.

SPRINGE

Several important farm deals are the feature in our community and are of interest to all. They are in order of the day, with our farmers attending in large numbers.

The auction sale of farm stock, at Acton, on Friday, was largely attended by fall high prices were set, with the order, by Mr. Roy Hindley as auctioneer.

Mr. David Stewart, of this village, has rented his farm to Austin McCutcheon and wife, and is staying at the home of his son.

Mr. Roy Young, of Rockwood, spent a few days visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tinney, of Erin, visited their son, Mr. Tom McCutcheon, of the second line, on Friday.

Miss Eva Robinson, of Acton, was the guest of Miss MacCuthcheon, Fairview Farm, for a few days during the winter.

A large number of our people attended the funeral of the late Anne Thacker of Erinmore, town line, last Thursday. Much sympathy extended to the bereaved family in their hour of trouble.

—A New Serial, "There Shall Be No Death," stars in Sunday, Chicago Herald and Examiner. Circulation over a million. Buy it to-day at Brown's.

Sudden Death in Erinmore

William A. Armstrong, a prominent Farmer, died on Monday

Death came with startling suddenness to one of Erinmore's residents, just prior to the annual meeting of the Agricultural Society in the basement of the town hall, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Armstrong, who passed away at his home on the second concession, above Four Corners, was apparently the victim of a heart attack, having complained of feeling ill after returning from the barn, when he fell into shock shortly before his death.

He informed his daughter that he was feeling much better and was prepared to have dinner.

A few minutes later, however, when one of his sons entered his room, he found him lying dead on his bed.

Deceased, who was a man of unusual strength, was buried in the cemetery of the town hall, on Tuesday evening.

—The coroner argued that his daughter had committed suicide.

—The spring distribution of seeds and plants will be made earlier this spring than last.

Bawling is School Study

Acton's 36 members of the Horticultural Society will all aim by dividing their efforts to make the study of horticulture interesting in their gardens and grounds and to keep tidy lawns and attractive surroundings.

They will also beautify public places and the Soldiers' Memorial Plot, the sumptuous flower beds, the animal drinking fountain on Main Street, and perhaps the side alleys at the Government Buildings—though this division of the club is not concerned.

Mr. Knight, of Guelph, operated the first of moving picture shows and Mr. T. E. Haskett was chairman of the board.

Mr. Haskett was chairman of the evening of the opening of the new theatre.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at Ingleside is to be completed in time for the opening of the new term.

—The new school building at