IN MEMORIAM

ALLEN—In loving memory of my dear friend, Allen, who passed away March 17, 1923. The years may wipe out many things, but this they'll never take away. The memory of those happy days, when we were young and gay, will ever remain in my heart.

HADIE—In loving memory of my dear friend, Hadie, who passed away March 17, 1923. Dearest Hadie, you have left us, and your loss we feel. 'Tis God who has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal. Ever remembered by Parents, Sister and Brothers.

Brief Local Items

—This is March all right.

—Spring's near—cheer up.

—Back ball begins to crowd hockey now.

—Robins and crows are with us again.

—The snow is going off now more rapidly.

—Do your shopping where you are invited to shop.

—No matter what happens, somebody always knew it would.

—Next Saturday will be St. Patrick's Day. Wear your shamrock.

—New snow banks blocked the roads in some places again on Monday.

—The snow shovel comes in a very useful domestic implement.

—Motorists will require to exercise patience for another week or two yet.

—Maple sugar operations have commenced on a number of neighboring farms.

—People running—Quite a number of farmers have tapped their maples already.

—Experienced sugar makers say the prospects are good for a good yield this year.

—People who fall on the slippery pavements on Monday found the water very wet.

—A credit balance at the bank makes a real balance of power. Try and get it.

—The daylight saving had about run its days. Montreal is one of the last cities to boycott it.

—New printing creates a favorable impression. "The Sun" Press is the home of the latest job work.

—Women are funny, sometimes. If it's a 1923 gown, it's a disgrace. But if it dates back to 1200 B. C., it's ultra-modern.

—The mercury took another dip to ten below zero last Thursday night. Hope that's the last zero weather for this winter.

—A break in the Hydro transmission line at Eden Mills on Monday deprived all users of current of power for over three hours.

—Just another touch of winter to remind us that balmy spring with her verdant green, is not here yet, but she's coming.

—Other signs of spring—the days are longer, the sun warmer, the birds more plentiful, and this is something to chuckle about.

—For stealing rails, John Douglas was convicted at Collingwood and sentenced to the Ontario Reformatory for four months.

—The community—that's you. If everybody in the community were just like me, what kind of a community would Acton be?

—Nearly all the joys of living are summed up in the word "struggle." There is no joy of struggle for one who always falls to finish.

—St. Patrick was born in Scotland 1,500 years ago. He afterward became a resident of Ireland and the green side was all the better for it.

—Fathers of families paying income tax will be glad to hear that the exemption for each child under 18 has been raised from $100 to $200.

—A break in the Hydro line between here and Georgetown on Friday afternoon put all power connections out of commission here for two hours.

—Mr. H. M. Mack, the popular and energetic manager of the Bell Telephone Company for Guelph and district, has been promoted to Ottawa.

—Congratulations! Mr. Minister of Finance, Hon. Mr. Mackenzie King, may the dear boy grow up to be a real comfort and pride to his mother and yourself.

—The family garden-makers will soon be saying to their poultry-keeping neighbors: "Keep your chickens at home now; don't you see I am making garden?"

—The genuine pleasure a personal visit is a local paper often gives to faraway friends is often demonstrated by appreciated personal in these columns.

—Two men in an automobile were killed on a level crossing two miles west of Weston on Tuesday afternoon, by the passenger train which leaves here at 1:32.

—A married philosopher says: "It would be wiser for a man to be glad that spring is near, if it were not that it also means that the hoarse-bleating race is also near."

—It takes more handling to make a pound of maple syrup. The sugar content of sap varies with the season, but it usually contains about 25 per cent of sugar.

OBITUARY

MRS. CHARLES STEWART—Mrs. Stewart, Cameron Street, was in poor health all winter. With a view to relief she was taken to the Hospital at Guelph, but gradually failed, and died on Sunday, 4th inst. Mrs. Stewart's maiden name was Mary Jane McNamee. She was born in Guelph seventy-five years ago. In 1871 she was joined in holy wedlock to her husband, Charles Stewart, who was born in Massachusetts, and came to Acton three years ago. She was the mother of nine children, five of whom are now living. They are: John Duff, Thornton, New Ontario; Mrs. Frank Thompson, Galt; Mrs. Victor Sharp, Glen Watford, Galt; William at Pindlar, Galt; Charles A. at Port Arthur; and George W. at home. Mrs. Stewart was a member of Knox Church. Her pastor, Rev. Mr. Stewart, conducted the funeral services.

MRS. (DR.) F. J. ROBERTSON—A daughter from Stratford on Thursday said Mrs. Robertson passed away on Friday, March 8, 1923, at her home in Stratford, Ontario. She was the wife of Dr. F. J. Robertson, who passed away in her 40th year, after an illness of her 40th year. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kelly, of Guelph. In the fall of 1881 she accompanied her father on a tour of the world with him. He returned in 1917. Besides her husband, Dr. Robertson, there are three children, Dr. F. J. Robertson, Dr. C. W. Robertson, and Dr. C. W. Robertson. Dr. Robertson spent several years of his boyhood days in Acton, and afterward practiced medicine in Guelph. He was a member of the Guelph Reformatory when released from the Guelph Reformatory in 1917. He was a member of the Guelph Reformatory when released from the Guelph Reformatory in 1917. He was a member of the Guelph Reformatory when released from the Guelph Reformatory in 1917.

Neighborhood News—Town and Country

CREWSON'S CORNER

With the rain and warm sun the sleighing is disappearing. The highway from here to Acton is bare. Miss Margaret Holman, Kitchener, is visiting at Mr. D. A. Cripps.

Miss Dorothy Burnside and Comfort Joseph, Georgetown, visited at the home of their father, Mr. John Burnside, last week.

ROCKWOOD

James Knepp, butcher, who was arrested and placed in Guelph jail several weeks ago, because of an unpaid fine imposed for an infraction of the Ontario Temperance Act, has been released. He was serving his term at the Guelph Reformatory when released. It is understood that the amount of the fine was reduced by the department at Toronto, and the amount was paid and Knepp was released.

High Honor to J. E. Carter, Guelph

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Council of Horticulture, held at Guelph, was given the distinctive honor of having conferred upon him the title of member of the Council. This was in recognition of the valuable services he has rendered to the horticultural industry in this country. No one man outside of professional circles in this country has done more for flowers and plants, and to encourage organized efforts for the spread of horticultural knowledge and inspiration than Mr. Carter. He has been most self-sacrificing in his efforts, and has continued them for years.

HEAVES

Yours truly, with pleasure, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th inst. in relation to the above-mentioned matter. I am sorry to hear of your illness, and hope you will soon be able to resume your duties. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours truly, J. E. Carter.
