Brief Local Items
—Clean up your yard.
—Gettin' ready for the election?
—The roads are fine for motorizing now.
—Mitchell's population this year is 1,739.
—May 20 is "Go-to-Sunday-School-Sunday."
—Houses for rental are at a premium in town.
—The pastures are now covered over with frocks.
—May flowers. A walk in the woods worth while.
—Twenty-fourth of May, a week from to-day.
—St. Mary's tax payers will pay 42 mills this year.
—Brampton's tax rate is down to 25 mills. It was 40 mills last year.
—The lawn mowers are humming out the agreeable spring tune again.
—Last you forget! Have you repowed your Pass Pass subscription?
—When the sun comes into the house it forgets to wipe its feet. Banish it.
—The lawns and gardens are beginning to look quite attractive again.
—The pretty hepaticas are blooming freely now in some of the woods about town.
—Sunday's bright sunshine was enjoyed after nearly a week of dull weather.
—The garage men are now extra busy. The roads are in good shape for motorizing.
—Wilbert Ford, of Milton, has been appointed Returning Officer for Halton for the general election.
—A crusty old bachelor says: "Works is a place where some woman works for her board and clothes."
—Candidate Hillmer, of Oakville, the Conservative candidate, called on Acton electors on Wednesday.
—Philosophy is just the art of coming to kid your own belief that money isn't everything.
—Mother's Day services were full of interest, both in the churches and the Sunday School on Sunday week.
—What a great, good hospital world it is! One might say: "It is one of these bright, beautiful May mornings!"
—The maximum rate of the tax on cheques, notes and bills of exchange is reduced by the new tariff from 32 to 21 cents.
—Mr. B. H. Perry has sold his double house on Elgin Street to Mr. H. W. Wainwright, Real Estate Agent Kerr, effected the sale.
—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Field entertained Mrs. C. Hillmer and her friends at a social evening in their home on Tuesday evening.
—The flowers so generally worn on Sunday, but of late for mother's day, are a worthy tribute by sons and daughters.
—Fidelity of exercise out-of-door will provide a complexion that will not cost anything to renew. Try it out helping father in the garden.
—Miss McNeill, of Hamilton, a clever speaker of labor matters, will give an address at the Drury meeting on Friday evening in the town hall.
—Coasting with express wagons down the hills is nearly as dangerous as speeding with a motor car on a public street. Don't do it, boys.
—Mr. T. H. Moorehead has disposed of his candy factory and wholesale candy business to J. H. Schneider, who has been his head candy maker for some years.
—The best way to judge your neighbor's life is to take a look into his backyard, and the best way to retain your neighbor's good will is to keep your hens in your own backyard.
—The May session of the Fourth Division Court will be held here this Thursday. Owing to illness the week before Judge Elliot was unable to attend on the regular date.
—In the school report published in The Pass Pass last week, the name of Gordon Cook was inadvertently used instead of Gordon Cooper, as obtaining 113 marks in the Senior Second Year.
—Congratulations! The Summer School fanglers are most attractive and satisfactory. They are splendid. A friend here is sending one of his friends in Japan.—A. P. L. Mount Pleasant.
—In the list of officers elected in the Women's Institute, the Flower Committee was omitted last week. The convener of this committee is Mrs. E. H. Hixon, assisted by the President and the Secretary.
—John Gibson, who worked in Acton for a number of years, but who has lately been living in Guelph, was run down by a motor car last week. He is in Guelph General Hospital, with a seriously injured head.
—A little example of faith, hope and charity—when you are planting your garden, you have faith for a few weeks you have hope; if you receive anything in return for your labor it seems like accepting charity.
—Messrs. Henderson & Co. have placed orders for over sixty new water services. This will mean one or two small new mains for short distances and will result in a substantial increase in waterworks revenue.
—Where good roads have penetrated farming districts there has been a notable movement toward beautifying farm house surroundings. This is conspicuously the case where the new highways have been constructed.
—Now that danger of frost is over the public drinking fountains at the Government Building should be furnished up and put into operation for the season. The National Drinking Fountain Committee would also be a convenient plan.

Try It on a Fifty-Fifty Basis
An observant philosopher suggests that if our young ladies and young men would make the garden evening for half of the time they now spend at baseball and tennis, the high class of living would be reduced in many homes, the home surroundings would be more beautiful, and the boy or girl would be physically benefited just as much.
