A CHILD'S LAUGHTER

All the bells of beaven may ring. All the wells of earth may spring. All the winds on earth may bring All sweet sounds together; weeter far than all things heard and of harper, tone of bird, Sound of woods at sundown stirred, Welling water's wingone word, Wind in warm wan weather.

One thing yet there is, that none Hearing ere its chime be done Knows not well the sweetest one Hard of man beneath the oun, Hoped in heaven hefeafter; Hoft and atrong, loud and light, Very nound of very light, Heard from morning's resient heigh When the woul of all delight Fills a child's clear laughter.

Goldon bells of welcome rolled Never forth nuch notes, nor told Hours so bilthe in tones so bold As the radiant month of gold Here that rings forth heaven. If the golden created wren Were a nightingalo-why then Something seen and heard of men Might be half as sweet de when Laughs a child of seven.
