Brief Local Items

—Put out your rage for the Fair.

—Action Fair next Tuesday and Wednesday.

—The equinoctial storms came right on time last week.

—Numbers of Fair-wool-wishers are expected in the homes of our citizens next week.

—Many friends of citizens will attend the Fair here next Tuesday and Wednesday.

—Fretton Fair will be held on October 4, instead of October 1, as has previously appeared.

—The brick work of Mr. James McMillan's new residence on Knox Avenue is nearing completion.

—Yes, Acton Fair will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday, and will be one of the best.

—Taxas came in exceedingly well last week. The bank of Montreal received a little over $1,000.

—Oh, you hunters. Don't be so hard on those few ducks which rest from time to time on Fair Lake.

—The place is Acton. The dates are October 2 and 3. The event is the big Fair—open to the world.

—Buy your excise stamps for your chassis—now. No postage stamps accepted after Saturday.

—Municipal elections are only two months away at Acton. If the candidates are not adopted, a contest is continued.

—The foundations are in and the frame work up for the residence of Mrs. Minnie Moore on Knox Avenue. The harvest moon this week has been a delight, clear and bright in a cloudless sky several evenings in succession.

—The price of gasoline is lower now, both in Canada and the United States, than it has been since the outbreak of the war.

—The brilliant-hued salvia has been at its best in many gardens the past week. It makes an attractive spot wherever it is grown.

—You have to be a pretty strong "believer in signs" to believe the one on Main and Mill Street corner that says "Guelph, 14 miles."

—The beautiful autumnal tints now being assumed by the maples, ashes, sumacs and other trees render the forests well worth a visit these days.

—Dwelling to the heavy rain last Friday the directors of Brampton Fair decided to postpone the Fair to Friday and Saturday, October 12 and 13.

—Provincial Constable Atkins has been taking in the fair throughout the county. There has been good conduct and no disturbances at any of them so far.

—Brampton Fair last Wednesday was a great success. The weather was grand. The Nelson School Fair was held in conjunction, which added much interest.

—Over 150 applications have been received for the position of night constable in Guelph. Constable McCreary vacates the position at the end of the month.

—The Championship School Fair will be held at Milton in conjunction with the County Fair, to-morrow and Saturday. Any pupil is eligible to compete at the Championship Fair.

—This Fair was received last week from the Canadian Government Exhibition Commission an invitation to attend the British Empire Exhibition to be held in London, England, next year.

—The Deansy of Hallow will hold the Fall-Champagne and message at Milton on Wednesday, October 10. The Women's Auxiliary of the Deansy will have charge of the afternoon session.

—For the convenience of subscribers who subscriptions are expiring, or have expired, renewal blanks and return addresses are enclosed in the issue of this Fair Press. Please use them promptly.

—Dr. Tait of Milton, who was a prize winner with his horses at the Toronto Fair, was equally successful at London Fair last week. So were Campbell & Ames, of Moffat, with their Shortorns.

—Rev. A. W. Hare, D. A., Hillsburg, delivered two interesting and helpful addresses in Knox Church on Sunday, in the absence of Rev. A. C. Stewart, M. A., who preached anniversary services in Hillsburg.

—Provincial Constable Melville, formerly Chief of Police, Georgetown, who has been at Palmerston since last spring, has been promoted to Guelph. Provincial Constable Menzies, of Guelph, has been transferred to Oranville.

—President Coolidge announces that there is not the shadow of excuse for the increase in coal prices announced by the big coal distributors. What he could convince the coal barons of this before the coal reaches the poor consumer.

—This Fair Press will be mailed to new subscribers anywhere in Canada for the balance of this year for only 50c. This is like a weekly letter to an absent friend. United States subscribers pay one cent a week extra for additional postage.

—One year ago to-day—We were kidding about the weather. Five years ago to-day—We were kidding about the weather. Ten years ago to-day—We were kidding about the weather. Twenty-five years ago to-day—We were kidding about the weather.

—The Ladies of Hallowbourn Women's Institute are collecting fruit, jelly and jam for the Sick Children's Hospital. Anyone wishing to co-operate with them may leave their donations at Mrs. H. N. Brown's, Acton, downtown, on or before October 15.

—At sunset last Wednesday evening the Jewish people in Acton and the world over commemorated the observance of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, regarded by the Jews as the holiest day in the calendar of the Synagogue. The celebration lasted until sunset on Thursday.

—The Epworth League re-opened on Monday evening with an enjoyable programme. Rev. Charles Hickox, the pastor, gave a highly interesting and instructive address on "Lazarus, the People, Mission and Physical Characteristic." Miss Nellie Resor read a solo, which was much appreciated.

Neighborhood News—Town and Country

HORNBY
Fred Wrigleyworth and J. W. Cantelon brought a good bunch of prize horses home from Guelph Fair last week.

BANNOCKBURN
Hallowbourn Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Holt, Deputy fourth line on Wednesday afternoon, September 19.

LIMEHOUSE
Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Coe, of Georgetown, visited friends here on Sunday.

ROCKWOOD
A number from here attended the funeral of the late Jas. O'Brien, of Guelph, late Licenses Inspector of the county.

NASBAGAWAYA
A bad motor accident happened on Saturday afternoon on the Acton side-road, at the corner just east of the elm tree, when George Hillon, 55-year-old, was returning home from Guelph.

TERRA COTTA
The Harvest Home Services in the Methodist Church were a grand success. Appropriate sermons were earnestly delivered by Rev. Henry Caldwell, of Georgetown, in the afternoon, and in the evening by Rev. Capt. Dodds, of Cheltenham Presbyterian Church.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT LAST WEEK
Three Guelph Rinks Won Prizes and Dr. Gear's Rink from Erin were also Prize-winners.

THE BOWLING TOURNAMENT LAST WEEK
The bowling tournament last Wednesday on the grounds of Acton Athletic Association was a most enjoyable and successful affair. The wealthy and successful team, headed by Mr. H. N. Brown, of Acton, defeated all the players who attended, not having a good time.

THE GUELPH PLAYERS WERE THE MOST SUCCESSFUL. The rink skippered by J. K. Hunter succeeded in winning all four of their games, and carried off the first prize, each member of the rink getting a handsome club bag.

DR. GEAR'S RINK was the skipper of the rink getting second prize, and they each received a silk umbrella.

JOHN EASTON'S GUELPH RINK came third, and each received a quart thermos bottle, and Harry Mahoney's Guelph rink got fourth prize, each player getting a set of military brushes.

The entry consisted of 14 rinks, and the tournament was successful in every way.

EVERTON

A young man, apparently demented, who gave his name as Roy L. Hamilton, of Toronto, was found in Mr. Harbry's barn, on Saturday, and as he was unable to give his name, it was thought advisable to inform the police. He was taken to Guelph, where he is being held on a charge of vagrancy.

When he appeared before Magistrate Watt he stated he had gone into Mr. Harbry's barn for shelter from a rain storm. He was remanded to jail for a week on permit of the police making inquiries regarding him.

CROWBONS CORNERS
A number from here attended the anniversary services at Churchill on Sunday and on Monday evening, and enjoyed them very much.

The opening of the new highway from Acton has brought a large volume of traffic through here the last few weeks.

The mail carriers cannot use the new cross-country highway to advantage over the route as their patrons are all resident on the concession lines and are not used to the new route.

Mr. George Henderson, who went the spring and summer in Alberta, and in visiting his brother, Rev. James Henderson, at Pouce Coupe, B. C., has returned to Ontario, and is visiting his sister, Mrs. Orville Lamb, here.

The stone crusher engine in the gravel pit on the Wesley Murray farm, first line, broke down on Monday and has since been inoperative. This will delay the travelling of the highway west of the Corners. The roadway has been gravelled to the Nasagawaya line.

CHURCHILL
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walker and children, of Quinsigamong, spent Sunday at Mr. Albert Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sanderson, of Springfield, Mass., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith.

The anniversary services on Sunday and Monday were a great success. The congregation was represented by former members and old-residents of the locality attending in large numbers, both on Sunday afternoon and Monday evening.

Rev. George Morley, B. A., who served the congregation for several months ten years ago, was the preacher of the anniversary sermon. He was cordially welcomed by the people.

It was a stirring one on the acceptable worship of God. It was based on John 4: 24, "God is a spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

The church was artistically decorated with fruits and flowers and heart-veat produce.

The anniversary tea-meeting on Monday evening was a most enjoyable event. The church sheds were cleaned out and decorated, and the tables spread there. After the excellent dinner for which the church is indebted to the principal feature was the selection of literary numbers rendered by Rev. Mr. Morley, who preached so acceptably the afternoon before.

His numbers were versatile and interesting. There was pathos and humor, historical events, and children's stories, and each in turn was rendered as a fine interpretation of the subject treated. A quartette, composed of Messrs. Harry Gibbons, Archie Mann, James Smith and Alex. Mann, sang several numbers, which all enjoyed. They also assisted in the musical service the previous afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Howard, the pastor, proved himself an excellent chairman. The service was the eighty-fifth anniversary of which was being observed, and an interesting event was the presentation of David Ryder, the most prominent member of the community, whose birthplace was at the Hyder homestead at the Hill, and who is now in his second year. Mr. Ryder was a lad of seven when Uncle Hiram Denny, the first pastor, laid the corner stone of the church.

R. J. KERR'S LIST OF SALES

Official Visit of D. G. M.

The annual official visit of D. G. M. Bro. Cyrus O. Hemphill, of Waterloo, D. G. M. of Wellington District No. 7, was made to Walker Lodge, A. F. & A. M., on Monday evening. A certificate was initiated, and the officers tendered appreciative remarks. At the close of the work for the evening a social hour was spent. Fraternal speeches were made by the D. G. M. and W. Bro. Shields, Illiger and Downey, with happy replies by Acton brethren.

The Fall Fairs have not all been favored with Queen's weather so far.
