Brief Local Items

—It's October.

—Three-fourths of 1923 has passed.

—Milton High School has 176 pupils this term.

—Take up the leaves before the snow comes.

—Good morning! Have you renewed your Pass Pass subscription?

—They say that little imp—the Jack Frost, is out again these nights.

—The farmers are taking their Wednesday half holiday now attending the fall fairs.

—J. J. Kerr received second prize on his road mare at Milton Fair on Saturday.

—Despite heavy expenditures, the Town Council of Cornwall has reduced its tax rate by three mills, on the dollar this year.

—How lovely the trees in their fall tints, and how beautifully the various colors harmonize.

—Read This Pass Pass and get all the local and district news, $3.00 a year and worth every penny.

—The merchant who does not advertise may have bargains to offer, but no one knows of them.

—Dr. Farmer, with characteristic kindness, sent the editor a basket of very fine cucumbers yesterday.

—The newly-sown fall grain looks well everywhere. It has germinated very evenly and is showing vigorous growth.

—Albert's wheat crop, it is stated, will be more abundant than was expected, and will average 30 bushels an acre.

—Canada has 12,347 post offices. There are 2747 rural mail delivery routes serving nearly 130,000 rural mail boxes.

—A Cartick township man was fined $1 and costs, or a total of $11.10, for permitting his 17-year-old son to drive his car.

—The toll roads along the road, the syndicate and snickers, one man who helps to pull the load is worth a thousand kickers.

—On Sunday, October 7, a collection will be taken up at all the Methodist churches in the London Conference for the Japan Relief Fund.

—R. J. Kerr, auctioneer, wielded the hammer at a very successful sale of furniture and stock, owned by J. Holmes and Son, on Monday.

OBITUARY

JOHN C. LALING

The death of John C. Laling, teacher, occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Burlington, on Thursday, September 27, 1923. Mr. Laling was not in good health when he left the home of his health in Toronto, to resume his duties after the summer vacation. He was the oldest son of Adam Laling, an esteemed resident of Acton and Nassagaweya for many years. He spent his childhood years as a Public School teacher. His wife was Miss Mary A. Sawyer, present Mrs. Laling, a number of years ago. He was survived by his wife, his son, Clarence, who was awarded during the war, resident at 118 Balsam Avenue, Toronto. Two sisters and three brothers survive, all of whom were formerly residents of Acton: Albert, of Burlington, Vermont; Arthur, of California; and Alexandria and Euphonia, of Toronto. Mr. Laling was a member of the Christian church, a member of the Methodist Church.

MRS. WILLIAM GOWDY

An esteemed and kindly home was sadly bereft, when Mrs. William Gowdy passed away at Limerhouse early last week. Mrs. Gowdy has been a resident in poor health for some time, but her death was sudden. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is a great loss to her family. She was born in the town of Acton, and was the daughter of the late Thomas Gowdy, ex-Mayor of Guelph. The family celebrated their wedding on Saturday afternoon, September 21, 1923. Mrs. Gowdy was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a devoted worker in the church. She was a kind and generous woman, and her death is a great loss to her family and to the community.

Neighborhood News--Town and Country

CHURCHILL

Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson have moved to their new home, Mr. John Simpson's farm, on the east of Fairview, at the head of Fairview Lake.

Mr. Robert Kerr was seen more successful at Oakville Fair than the several occasions. He won several prizes, including a first prize for his splendid horse at the Wood Show. He repeated this splendid record, taking five first and two second prizes. These prizes were awarded as follows: 1st for two-year-old, for three-year-old, 1st for high step, 1st for best trotter, and 2nd for team, and 2nd for single carriage.

LIMEHOUSE

Miss McKay, of Peterboro, is holding a party at Acton, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Scott, of the 4th line.

Mrs. M. Dobbie, of Hamilton, is spending a few days with friends here. The Evening School Fair was held in the Park, Limerhouse, on Wednesday, September 26. A large crowd attended and were delighted with the various exhibits. We are pleased to say that our school is doing well under the leadership of Mr. J. J. Standish, well up in points, and hope to secure the flag.

Mrs. E. W. Grace, of Acton, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. Edwina Marsh, who was home from Toronto over the week-end.

Mrs. Henry and children, Mr. and Mrs. Mills and Mrs. H. H. McDowell, Toronto, spent the week-end with friends here.

The anniversary of the Presbyterian Church will be held here on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Patterson, of Toronto, will preach morning and evening.

BURLINGTON

Three tenders were received by the Council for the construction of a sewer on Grant Street, and the Council accepted the tender of E. Carr, for $2,400.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Harris, of Coltonia, spent a couple of days in town, and were seen by Mr. Mayor B. J. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Whitten, who have been visiting Mrs. H. Bray, left last week for Nassagaweya, where their home is in Miami, Florida. Mrs. Whitten and Mrs. Whittaker and Mrs. Jack, also visitors, will be seen here on Friday to join Mr. and Mrs. Whitten in New York.

A quantity of the clothing stolen from the tailor shop of Mr. James Thall, Grant Street, on the night of the 13th, was recovered in Brantford during the past week, and returned to Mr. Thall.

Russell Smith made a proposition to the Council that if they would build a curb in front of his property on Park Street, he would pay for raising the sidewalk. The Council accepted the proposal, providing the Highway Commission will give their consent to the curb.

Owing to a break in the water main near the Grant House on Monday evening, the town was without water for a couple of hours. As the Supt. Dawson found the leak, it was repaired as speedily as possible. The women were also on the job, and Chief Coates had several men stationed at the hall until the repairs were completed.

Mr. Chas. Ladd, one of the town's best known and respected citizens, was seriously injured at the Grant House on Tuesday. He was returning to his home, where he was employed as a chauffeur, when he was struck by a car. He was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he received medical attention and an X-ray picture taken. His condition is considered very critical on account of a severe fracture of the leg, and it is feared his injuries will prove fatal—Gazette.

ROCKWOOD

The Italy Day service in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning was quite a success. The special program was conducted by Mrs. W. Burns, the superintendent. The recitations, readings and solos by the scholars were very appropriate and creditably rendered. Two special dresses on the theme of the day: "Four-fold Growth," and "How the Church brought their big fair to Sunday School Cars." The program was given by Mr. H. P. Moore, of Acton, and his wife, Mrs. Moore, of Toronto. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants, and the service was a most successful one.

Gervais Goes to Burwash

His Age Saved Him from Longer Sentence with the Lash Added.

Hilton Fall Assizes, which began on Tuesday, came to a close at 3:30 Wednesday evening. Two criminal cases were disposed of the second day.

Charles Gervais, aged 61, of Acton, was found guilty of a serious offense against a little girl, under ten years of age, also of Acton. His Lordship told him that his age saved him from the penalty of the lash. "SERVING IN" Edward Crow, an Oakville young man, was found guilty of indecent assault against an Oakville girl, and sentenced to two months in jail, to date from the day of his arrest. The two civil cases on the list were withdrawn.

Sent Down for Two Years

Judge Elliot sentenced William Bryan in Criminal Court last week.

William Bryan, alias W. White, the American, who in July last was arrested in the Carlisle Hotel, Toronto, on a charge of stealing clothing, valued at about $110, of the late Mrs. J. L. Limerhouse, appeared in Criminal Court at Milton last Wednesday afternoon in the Milton. The prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to two years in Kingston Penitentiary.

For stealing from the Ontario Reformatory, Bryan was given two years in the Penitentiary, the sentence of which he is serving at present. The charge of attempting jail breaking at Milton was not pressed. After talking to Hamilton in face of a charge of robbing a Catholic priest there.

CREWSON CORNERS

The new highway is getting into such fine condition that it is a danger of this three-mile stretch becoming a speedway. A good number of motorists have been observed "hitting the top" at 35 miles an hour.

The corn crop is moving out from the neighboring farms now. A good many loads have been moved to Acton during the past week.

Mr. H. W. Wilson has opened a new avenue for farming wood to Acton. The old-time hills on the old-time road are not met here, the distance is much easier on the horses.

Mr. Wilson has moved to Detroit last week with his family. He will be in town next week for his monthly meeting at Mount Pleasant Farm. He will be in town next week for his monthly meeting at Mount Pleasant Farm. He will be in town next week for his monthly meeting at Mount Pleasant Farm.

New Provincial Highway Wanted

County Deputation Asks that the Route to Acton Road be Taken Over.

The raising of the status of the highway between Acton and Toronto from that of a county road to that of a Provincial Highway, was sought on Monday by a Hutton county deputation, which waited upon Hon. George H. Hony, Minister of Public Works, at Toronto.

The petitioners, who were headed by Mr. J. H. Campbell, had one of his horses badly hurt when it ran against the manure spreader last week.

Hilton Fair a Great Success

Milton was thronged with Fair Visitors Last Saturday.

The County Fair of this year was favored with bright warm autumn weather. As a result the attendance was very large and the fair was a success in every respect. The exhibits in all classes were better than ever, which is saying a large showing of wool, sheep and a record display of poultry.

The entry list was above the average, and the exhibits in all classes were better than ever, which is saying a large showing of wool, sheep and a record display of poultry.

For years Hilton County Fair has been noted for its excellence. Saturday's showing of heavy and light horses was excellent. There was a large showing of cattle, sheep and a record display of poultry.

The championship school fair, held in connection with the Hilton County Fair, drew a large crowd of spectators. The exhibits were better than last year, and were a credit to the pupils of the different schools in the county.
