Women's And Young Women's Coats with the Virtue of Economy

Economy not only in the low prices, but also in the high standards of workmanship and quality of materials rigidly adhered to in every individual coat. That is the only TRUE ECONOMY.

One remarkable instance is in a special group—

AT $25.00

Man-tailored models in some of the season's smartest styles. Every model is made after the "famous" models with a pronounced one-side effect. With side-tie and, perhaps, a large pane-collared button. Now "four-way" convertible collar, with a wide collar of Chin-Chin, collar of French Beaver, some with fur cuffs, too, and fur pieces on ends of sleeve. Made in excellent quality.

$10.00—A "SPECIAL" FOR WOMEN'S AND MISSSES' DRESSES

Smarter, we think, than you'll probably expect for this very attractive figure. Straight-line models in serge, and flannel; brown, blue and green blues in the latter; navy blue and black in serge. Touches of emerald green seen in some of them; others with contrasting bindings and color combinations. Sizes 16 years up to 40 bust. The $10.00 special featured for this week only.

HERE'S A SAVING FOR YOU, MR. MAN—$5.00 to $8.50

ON A NEW SUIT AT

$19.50 $24.50 $29.50

150' Buits involved in a clearance of broken lines at those three reduced prices—that's the secret of the possibility of these worth while savings. All the lines with only a few sizes remaining, gathered together so that there's good choice in all sizes, and then marked down in price that the clearance might be speeded up.

All clean patterns, suitable for Fall and Winter wear. Several different models in men's conservative, as well as women's novelty, styles. Sizes 34 to 44.

The Fine New Goods in All Departments Show Splendid Preparations for Meeting October Needs—Men's, Women's and Children's Wearables, Staple and Fabric Needs—Wallpapers, Draperies and Floor-Coverings for the Home.

Acton Fall Fair of 1923 Added Another Success

Favored with Good Weather; Satified Exhibitors, and a Happy Crowd; Results were Gratifying

LIST IS HERE GIVEN OF THE EXHIBITORS WHO WERE SUCCESSFUL IN THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS

Acton Fall Fair for 1923, held on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, marked another gratifying success for this popular fair open to the world. The attendance reached the highest average of former fairs in recent years. The hopes of those directors who had planned for larger attendance for the coming year were realized. The purse for races were increased to $750.00, but the attendance was not increased therewith. In fact, the receipts showed a decrease in the last year. It does not seem to state, though, that fair was held on the same days at Aberfoyle and Cooksville, both of which centres have a large attendance of members. There are many more members initiated.

The drawing contests which have been in progress among the pupils of the Public Schools since last April were completed with drawings sent in for the twenty-two contests.
