- If you can clean your ationt you Are in the way, and
- get through-If you can norub and Or boing cross and hot keep bravely
- Or, being hated by the family. Don't answer back, and yet look too glum-If you can doal with dirt and trush
- and cobwelm And treat all thefer M.you can bour to see the rugs
- Tracked up with mud-yet nx the blame? If you can take ough Down from the wall ways lain-
- Or watch the things your you-broken-And stoop and glue you can make nowapapera-Of war pictorials and battles
- And start ugain with backyard flagrations. (Nor breath a word is done); If you can fill outh unrelenting minute
- With soap and brush and all the strength you've got -. Your house is clean! and everything that's in it.
- And-what is more-you'll

MULCHING OF SMALL FRUITS AND PERENNIAL FLOWERS

fruits and perennial flowers is useful purents where he was going. in the attaining of soveral objectives, by alternate freezing and thawing. By creature. Henry easily drove her from small to be of use to him. the use of a good safe mulch, properly the field into the woods that bordered as a rule, stay frozen during winter the most annoying stubbornness. and early spring thaws, and when it be over. It frequently happens that a larged it by removing a whole panel few quite warm days, will occur dur- of poles, She dedged this way and ing early spring and the high temperplants, but induce growth as well. williger farm. Finally, when fairly Such unseasonable weather may be followed by severe cold which will damage or kill the newly started growth and often kill the plant itself. It is, therefore, evident that a mulch for winter protection is not so much a protection against cold as it is against unscaspnable heat by preventing premature thawing and too early

'Nature's protection, or mulch, is ideal, although unsightly. The stems on her tail. of herbaceous plants, after dying, remain upright and catch wind blown leaves and later snow. As the season advances these stems break down and form a protection in the early spring for the crown of the plant. Shrubbory holds leaves that are blown into it and anywhere necessary, leaves and littler collect to form an efficient mulch. long in discovering that he lacked the It is, however, usually desirable to clear up fall fitter of this sort us'it has an untidy and unsightly appearance, but if this is done, artificial proplants. The mulch should be applied to a depth of two or three inches as soon as the ground is frozen, in the fall, and removed when danger of the for it is merely the local stumbled to land, and followed the a famous place for them in April and Practically all of our common pervaries from a mile to a half mile in re-entered the pasture. Exhausted as with considerable skill. For some ennial flowers are benefitted by a breadth, and is about four miles long. he was, Henry was too well-trained reason I answered their voices with this material into the soil and, thus shallows in the middle, known to buy- ing eagerly of the comfort of dry a cry of delight. These might be Andy's a voice of its own. We knew hinsi enrich the soil and get rid of the side dwellers as the "Splt." litter at the same time. Strawberries The dun helfer had struck out from, are best mulched with coarse straw just below Simpson's Point on Cisco he suddenly paused for an instant, spread evenly over the rows to a depth Bay, directly down that sheet toward and muttered to himself. "It didn't cited more of the goese, until they discovered the color of the wind. He of two cares inches. The canes of the northern channel that leads into take a leg to get her back," he said, because and grapes should be laid down ahead—and survived—she could go mighty near taking the whole of mel" and govered with four to six inches of about nine miles before reaching land, soil. Currents, gooseberries and hardy although when she reached the chanrespherries are benefitted by mulching nel, less than a half mile away, the around the roots with ordinary barn- shore would be distant only a few the ground by outfivation during the She swam like a racer at first, but late spring. As a rule, many plants soon began to tire. Henry had stopwill survive and even appear to thrive ped trying to swing her back, but he without mulching, but experience has kept using the pliable rudder in his wilf benefit practically any variety or That so annoyed the animal and so enecied of small truits and perennial aroused all her innate shatinacy, that

THE "BOUL" OF A MACHINE

In every big railway junction, atation, or terminus, you will find that there are some locomotives which all the drivers like, and a few which are idea holds good with the cars in' a

It to not that the popular ones are again, and a little later shifted to the more costly or carefully made, or the east. others cheep and nasty. Quite the never leaves the gurage without some sort, especially locomotive engines, was tiring; her nose would repeatedly than that, it is quite usual, among drawn with a jerk while she blow mechanical experts to hear them say violently through her nostrils to clear that' a machine produced by one firm them. Henry was beginning to give may be distinguished from a duplicate up hope, when he noticed, quite un-all of the nameplate. shrug his shoulders and tell you that resting on a gravel foundation. They had reached an outlying portion of se does not know. and carries with it something of the personality of its creator.

ROMANCE GONE FROM GOLD FIELDS

mantic trappings. An horiest-to good- | way, The water was cold, and us ness stampeds after real gold has just soon as the boy ceased to exercise, his taken place in Batavia and ! (ameel- foot and legs began to feel numb and boom district, Bouth Africa.

There were no six-guns, such as distinguished the mushing for precions now stood, for at low water that part metal in the Western States and Aus- of the Spit is bare, and at no time ralis. Boots, spurs, tiquor, gambling is it safe to cross in a boat. After parapharualia have gone by the boards, sighting a number of landmarks on juncts to the proper stuking of a claim he decided that he was about midway business leaders of today will soon remain essential. Stampeders of 1938 between the north and south channels, travelled in automobiles and motor- one or the other of which he must first stake was planted, the field hat! tion lay his home.

The Bree Press Short Story

ROE L. HENDRICK

wrathfully should, '4'll got you back as she passed. if it takes a legi" felt under obligit-acres, backed by woods, and songeated from the remainder of the farm of the best, for it was a makeshift of south channel, a hundred yards wide, and sleighing, and is nearly always Old Ladies' Home. Well, good-by!" poles and stakes, but it was enough lay beyond; and in the middle of it to keep in the other gattle. The dan fringe of march that bordered Ter- that the bord strip had felt the effect walk. Somehow, she felt a little older of barley. Alnong these were two of and rather diminutive stature, was known as "Stub" by virtually every one except his mother, had just been told by Alfred Terwilliger that unless the two-year-old helfer were at onen removed from his oat field, he would bring a suit for damages before Squire loved litigation. So Henry had drop- her. ed his hoo and raced toward the cornered, she isaped into the water, and began to swim and wade alterdirectly away from the point.

Henry's patience. After throwing a handful of stones in a futile effort to head her off, he plunged into the bay after her, and gained such an impotus by his spring from the bank that in a couple of seconds he had a firm grip powerful Pennsylvania German, swim across. out and steer a frightened and bowildared ox to the shore by simply grasped simple then, but Henry was not trength and skill to make it effective. The attempt, however, produced prompt results so far as the helfer was the shallow marsh.

mulch two to four inches in depth of Where it makes its diagonal junction and too sturdy by mature to think of the charlon note of the migrating goose in the bush as nature will turn the straw, leaf mould or strawy horse with Whitehaven Bay there is a chan- leaving the gap open. After hurriedly looking for shelter. A chorus of calls louves. net of open water on each side, with but firmly replacing the poles and Many follow the practice of digging a long stretch of marsh and gravelly stakes, he set off toward home, think-tender varieties of rasp- Whitehaven Bay. If she kept straight with a chattering chuckle, "but it came shown that mulching if properly done, hands to veer her, toward the left. Bowers .. P. . Browne. Assistant soon she turned at right angles and Baperintendent, Experimental Station, headed due south. Soon after this change of direction she began to labor so hard that Henry became frightened. They were now going toward the Torwilliger farm, three-quarters of a mile away; but the helfer seemed so exhausted that the boy believed she and he might drown in a short time.

Accordingly, he not only cased pull upon her, but began to swim with her. That plainly afforded her relief. for a short time her movements became slower and ensied. But she turned squarely about to the morth contrary. Of two engines or two cars least one fishing party on the buy in built in the same shop, and at the mid-afternoon; but the farmers were same time, one may be sweet and now busy with their spring work, and kindly, and always ready for its work. the bay was deserted. It is a lonely place, with timber all about it except in a few cleared pastures, and lienry could not see any one on shore. You will find that machinery of every A half hour passed, and the helfer have similar curious variations. More sink under water, and then be withproduced by another firm, without the expectedly, that the helfer was not swimming but wadlag. Letting down Ask one of these men how he per- his feet, he stood walstdeep in turbid water. There was mud underfoot.

> The young cow lerked away from him as he touched bottom, but pledded on shoud, just out of reach in water that first shouled and then despend Dew." slightly. After going a few mais, they came among tufts of rushes, beyond which the taller cattail flags grew in serried ranks over many acres

Before entering the murch, Henry pubsed and the unimal, breathing Gold stampedes have lost their ro- heavily, also stopped a few yards > tifoless. He had never before been where he the shore, which looked strangely unfamiliar from the unacoustomed angle, kinds. The statesmen, inventors and cross in order to reach land. He turn- will pass to their well carned rest, Within two hours of the time the ed toward the south, for in that disease the stake was planted, the field had tion isy his home.

But some one has to lead. Are you can bifthely sing beneath a ranged path from the stake was planted, the field had tion isy his home.

As he did not be the south a ranged path from the state of the show.

Following the Dun Heifer

ANTING, red-faced, brouthless, t. Deeply regretting that he had per and hot with unger, Henry mitted her to escape. Henry tried to Miller raced across the Ter- run in pursuit, but was soon brought started across the frozen creek. williger out field after the dun to a laborique, hatting walk. He could helfer. That most troublesome uni- not follow us fast an she led; and after mal of the Miller herd was again out a time he could tell where he was only of bounds, and Henry, having just by the waving of the tall mursh growt tiously, in the hope of surprising her, that have come down from the Strait no idea how my time goes. I have Buddenly, he camp to the edge of of Belle Isle, In the winter it is a two shut-ins whom I visit every month the helfer was swimming toward the Headily the belfer wallowed should. In a couple of minutes she had reachcome to the narrow beach. There she turned to the right, and headed for her Cake. This threat the lad knew to further straying; for the mament at like white fudge. Several times I make it?", be no idle one, for Terwilliger dearly least home had keen attractions for thought of turning back, but I knew "No, deary. I can't do unything so searched up and down the border of on.

applied, the plant, after freezing will, the bay, but there she began to show od flag-cutter, after his boat drifted skated on.

but it would at least keep his head Then I raced out to the bergs to see does most of the work on his two Once he had seen his father, a big. above water while he kicked his way if there was any narrow place where acres, and is as interested in political cold and extraustion. So, setting his the shore at all.

or very strawy horse manure. Close and towed behind her. He could swim way foot by foot, and almost inch by shanty, would be inside, near the lying or dense material, such as well only a few strokes, and by the time inch, till, when the shore marsh was warm stove, with the door tight shut. rotted manure, is not satisfactory as he realized the situation, was so far a couple of rods away, he found him- Out to sea I must go, until the less heating may often start and kill the out in deep water that he dared not solf able to stand erect, with the water broke up in the night.

clothing and a warm supper.

the music, Doctor Mointyre, I am interested, and organize an excellent choir for you. But there is one condition-Miss Wellwood must go." Into the minister's eyes came a look ought to go. And yet there had been a time when she had saved the music. as Madeleine Vincent, strong, capable splendidly trained, was planning to save it now. Watching Madeleine's vivid young face, and 'choosing his words carefully, he tried to make her see. But she could not.

"She flats so terribly, Doctor Mo Intyre. The young people wouldn't come if she sang: and isn't it their With an ache in his heart minister went to see Miss Wellwood. cup cake, made his task all the harder the aut very atill for a few minutes, looking out of the window. Then she turned to him with the brave smile that never had fulled. "I am so glad that you could go Miss Vincent, She has a beautiful voice and splendid training. As for me, I'll try to wake up the people in the pews; it seems too bad there's not more singing down there. Isn't it good that there's always a place in The minister reached across the ten table and took the hand-it was trembling a little-that was playing with one of the spoons. "Miss Wellwood," he said gravely, " wish that I might serve God as brave-

He stopped on the way home to tell Madeleine Vincent. Hhe, too, was fields, how bright the blue-bird's wing, every hour, 'Try this investment for silent for a moment after he Colehed. how sweet the scent the plumbloom your family. Then-"I couldn't have done that, Doc- yields, how clear the sparkling spring! tor McIntyre," she said. "It-it makes How glowing is the Bummer day, how od with serial stories, short stories, me ashamed clear through to think brimming with delight, how swiftly editorials, postry, facts and fun. Subhow much more beautiful her voice glide the hours away that bring the sorthe new and receive: must sound to God than mine! I tranquit night! How morrily a man think she will teach me to sing as no can go about the day's offuirs, how sues in 1924. other teacher ever could . I'm going happily the moment flow when there's And so there was a change in the

TOMORROW'S LEADERS

have joined the great majority. Those who are carrying the world's burdens

WHEN MOLLY CALLED A CALL ON THE "BORD"

"You, I know," Mrs. Bardell said

And so Molly read it, and Mrs. Bar-

"I suppose I must go," the girl said,

"It isn't where you belong," Molly

BEABONABLE ITEMS

Fall and winter are just one ton

A botunist declares such tree has the callouses of the coal and snow

October! Where's your friend, Jack

These are moving days. No soone doos a man get his Christmas and New

Your bills paid than he begins saving for his summer vacation, and us soon

tion, he has to begin "shopping early."

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

fast a guest noted for his blunders. rose to his foot, causing keen unxiety

"Ludies and gantlemen," he said, "!

drink to the health of the bridegroom!

INVESTING FOR THE FAMILY

Abraham Lincoln humorously said of a poor neighbor's ussets, "He has a wife and two children, which I should think were worth thirty thousand dol-

The family is the greatest wealth, of a golden investment and mode the same protection and care that any

One of its best safeguards is good reading: one of the things that puts Youth's Companion has always been, in the mutter of supplying good read-

the investor. Its principle is guaran-tood, and its interest is paid with

The 63 issues of 1934 will be crowd-

1 .- The Youth's Companion Li is-

3 .- All the remulning issues of 1923.

THUS YOUTH'S COMPANION.

Subscriptions received at te by loopardy th bad roading. The lng, what a United States bond is to !!

every member of it-the first concern |

lars to any man."

May he see many days like this!"

At the close of a wedding break-

You always come together.

With lovely leaves

and hazy, drewny weather.

On all the trees

Edith alloped into & chair by the When I came back to Prince Edward Island in April for my vacation, I wanted to skate along the outside ice. her brown hair turned the ends of some periodicals of the day filled with to our farm and surprise my family the curling tendrils to gold. by coming home a day earlier than Bardell settled back in her rocker with lead a youthful reader to form the without the aid of chalk or injurances they expected me. The weather was a look of anticipation. It was please mistaken idea that there are short ure. By the use of an &-ray photomild, and the lee was beginning to ant to have a visitor like Edith. break up, but it suited me to take a old lady was glad that she had on her hours weekly given to a course of in- of missits and avoid all becessity for few chances rather than wait over- new walst. Its delicate lavender and struction through the mail, will take "trying-on." The X-ray silhenerica of oight in a cheerless held for the stage, creamy laces were "becoming," she the place of a college education, that the regular customers which would I left my bag at the store in the knew, and for all her eighty-nve years, personality and 'originality are things have to be very different from cadinvillage, put on a thick sweater, bought she was not above enjoying a com- casily acquired if only some one will any X-ray pletures, would be stocked pair of skates, and on the bank of niment. But none came. "I suppose you're coming to church the creek I strapped them on, "Home this afternoon, Jimmy, after year cooped up in an office, with no it's -- "she hesitated a second, "it's a in the world to get.

mait-water lee!" I shouted to Jimmy Mallet, the old lobster fisherman, as I quietly. "It's Old Folks day." "Be careful, boy!" be saug out. "It's went on, blithely. "You mustn't miss been a damp, ofly day, and there'll be it. 'They're going to send carriages like him make a good living out of an ice fog before dark. I'm thinkin'." for any who can't walk to the church." foolish people like you, is that so many Before he had stopped speaking I the took one of the old hunds and of you are trying to get something was halfway to the dunes. I was tak- wently stroked it. Mrs. Hardell did for mothing. You will not succeed ing the shortest way to our farm, not find it altogether pleasant. tions of the worst binding kind to be way. Finally, when compelled to Along the beach the smooth "bord" pause for broath, Henry noticed that ice runs out for a quarter of a infle. in before," Edith said, as she rose to some swindler makes. the sound of rustling ahead had cous- It is protected on the outside by a go. "It always meant so much to cupied Himpson's Point, a lonely forty od. Perhaps the heifer had stopped ten-foot pressure ridge, formed by grandmether those last years to have when he did. He crept forward cau- the jamming of bergs and heavy cakes people come to see her. But you have saft air and no surf and no good white special Hunday."

smooth enough for skating. williger's woods. The boy watched of an early spring. In some places and, more tired than she had before the little Beandinavian ocean boats her in silent despair. In this present the surface was rough and honey- Edith came, . weakened condition he knew that he combed. Now and then I met a long. would sink before he had swum a sod. Jagged crack that extended from the girlish face that smiled in at her a that there is any lake of tonnage for shore all the way through the heavy little later. "I've been aching to see charter, but say that vessel agents are berg jam. Heyond, the gulf was dot- you, but I've been so tled up with anxious to secure cargoos and that ed the marsh, waded across it, and ted with bergs floating out to sea. As I skated along, I crushed through fields of shell ice, and jumped over friend. "That waist is lovely," she pasture. She was in no mood for cracks a foot wide to flood that looked said, "and ever so becoming. Did you that I could turn aside and walk ashore difficult." But Molly's question had

It was about half past one of un big enough to afford him at least par- so suddenly that it seemed to drop from anything? If I'm not, I wonder if its chief use is for winter and spring afternoon late in May, but as the tial support in crossing the channel, out of the sky, the ice fog caught me, you'd like to listen to my article for protection. Ordinarity, our common season was so backward that the eats He found only two trees, so deeply em. It drifted in a great white wall over the High School News?" hardy species do not suffer much harm were only an inch high, little harm bedded that he could not stir them, the pressure ridge, stretched long. from freezing, but are usually killed had been done by the trespansing and a little scattered brushwood, too lilmy fingers across to the dunes, and in a minute the shore was only a blur. dell told her that she thought it was Then he remembered how a strand. Picking my way more carefully, I splendld, and the two chatted cheerfully over the possibility of making It still better, and how Molly should go away, had crossed to the mainland the Now the cracks became more numer-She stoutly refused to see the open- autumn before. The recollection gave ous and wider. I turned sharply to about doing it. finally thaws out, severe weather, and ing she had made near the edge of him new courage and started bis chill- the right, toward the land. The shore the danger of its again freezing will the water, although Henry had en- ed blood to' coursing again through had begun to loom up through the fog reluctantly, a little later. "Don't tell Opening the big blade of his jack- When I turned toward our farm, I stayed so long!" and Mrs. Bardell that, and once made her way nearly knife, he began to cut the tall growth found that the crack reached com- laughed outright, it was so delightful atures not only thaw out unprotected back to the open fields of the Tor- of old flags left standing from the pletely round to the bergs. It was that Molly had found the time slip previous senson, and to form tightly, ten feet wide. I doubled back, intend-away so fast. bound bundles about six inches in ing to recross a narrow crack I had "Molly," she diameter at the butt and from five Just lumped, and thus get to shore. It to a soul, but I hope I sha'n't have to nately along the shore to the east, to six feet in length. When he had When it came in sight, a sudden fear go to church Sunday! Some how I cut half a dozen of them, he tied them made me skute toward it at full speed, don't want to go to anything that's together with the tough stems, so as At the edge I stopped. Since I had labelled for 'old folks,' though dear to form a rude float, which he pushed crossed over, the ice floe had drifted knows it's where I belong." into the water as soon as it was made, out toward the open guif, and the once It sank till almost awash, but the narrow crack was now ten feet wide, said, quickly. "You're so young in all cellular pith of the dry flags was buoy. As I watched, the distance increased to your interests. Nobody's old unless ant enough to keep the raft from go. twelve lest, to fifteen, to twenty. The he wants to be. My great-grandfather whole floe was floating out to sou. It would not support him entirely. For a moment I stood stupefied.

I could get across. There was none as he was seventy-five years, ago! Henry hesitated to trust his life to I thought of taking off my clothes and Well, good-by." Molly kissed her so insecure a support; but a moment trying to swim across the widening friend. "Come over when you can. If ing the animal's tail, and swinging was enough to convince him that he channel, but I was a poor swimmer, I get that runabout for my birthday, him about bodily. The trick had look- would soon perish where he was, not and I knew I could not live in that ley we'll have some larks, I can tell you! necessarily from drowning, but from water. By this time I could not see In another minute she was hurrytooth. To waded in threw his arms I sat down on the ice and tried to back to wave a jaunty hand to the over the float, and kicked off from think: There was not a house on the happy old face that looked out of the dunes for a mile, except a little shanty upper window. concerned. Frightened nearly out of . It was slow work to propel both on the beach, owned by Andy Cahill, a her five senses, she ceased to follow himself and the mass of flags, but the market gunner. Would be be on the form of a mulch, should be given the the shore, and struck directly out into channel was unruffled by waves, and dunes? I shouted with all my might. plants. Generally speaking the best the bay. Henry, still struggling man- there was little current. Pausing now There was no answer. On such a foggy material for a mulch is coarse straw fully, was dragged from his footing and then for breath, he worked his afternoon, Andy, if he word at his the culinary horizon.

early May. I had often shot them fluenza, go to bed and stay there until came through the for. Suddenly I sprang to my feet with the calling goese would rouse Andy. Eight or the good lusty honks axfilled the air with their clamor. A says he went out and found it blew, minute or two I waited, and then I shouted, once, twice. Trembling with Just think how one short month ago excitement, I listened. Through the We all did much perspire; tog came a faint "Hello-o-of" in a Now down the cellar steps we go voice. I recognized. My repeated yells To feed the furnace fire. brought first the rattle of ours dropof rowlocks. Half un hour later I was the hand that was blistered by the warming my feet before Andy's red- lawn mower now looks forward to "I thought 'twas a flock on the way shovels. to the Lubrudor," said Andy. "It's lucky you learned to cull."

LAZINESS AND SLAVERY

There is no man who boasts of his yet there is no more abject slave than master to serve is self, for he is never satisfied and never relents. The free! man is he who can say to his own mind as he gets on his feet after the vacaand body, "I um master." The controlling of others is but child's play compured, with holding the reins over one's own thoughts, umbitions and acts The hand of the diligent, shall bear 'ule." In the light of solf control-for The sluggard stands little chance of getting to the top. Diligence is the outward evidence of an inward condition. We do not take any stock in the diligence of the man with a ball and chain on his leg, or with a Winrity of the boy who knows that there is a "hot time" shoud of him if he does not get through his errand in a specified time. Diligence that is the result of fosce of diroumstances is not much, better. . The kind of diligence of the individual or of society. It is that will bear rule is the kind that is born of love of the job. It is the man who is in love with his job, whether it is stone breaking or selling goods who will bear rule in his oulling-Botomon in Shoe and Loather Journal.

80 SOME ONE CARES

someone who cares! There is no charm in robes of state, no power for 1924. All for $2.50. choir of the Third Avenue Church, and that righes send, no magic for the .... Or include McCall's Magazine, high and great like that which love the monthly authority on fushions. can lend. For often, like a day that's Both publications, only $3.00. dim when the skies are overcast with clouds that lower, gray and grim, and lightning's foarful blast, the way should looks dismal, too, foreboding doop despairs; till, like a flash, the sky's all a brave man's note; the happy heart

NO SUCCEBB WITHOUT WORK

wlodow; the sunlight slanting in on work because there is none. There are Mrs. advertisements which might easily fore propose to at their custoffiers

Nothing takes the place of work The man who says that in six wooks "The service will be levely," Edith making newspaper cartoons is a plain liar. But the reason he and others without work, no matter what coupon "I'm hehamed that I haven't been you send in, nor what big promises

MOVING THE GRAIN CROP

recently from the port of Bort William the flugs. Deep water, that of the regular thoroughfare for hauling wood -and to-morrow I'm to sing at the head of the Great Lakes currying the biggest tonnage of the season. Mrs. Bardell sighed as she watched There went out of port 2,164,000 bush-When I was on the lee at last, I saw the trim young figure go down the els of wheat, 63,000 of oats and 130,000 lwhich 'are plying on the upper lakes "May I come in?" It was a sweet, for the season. Grain men here deny school work I've bardly had a minute." occasional cuts are made in rates in Molly took the chair near her-old order to secure them.

FITTING BUITS BY X RAY

The cuts to almost everything, that a few graph they can eliminate all danger tell you how to do it. As for far- in the fitting cupbourds, and so quick tunes-if you will believe the adver- and cheap do they expect the process Bunday?" Edith remarked, "You know tisoments:-they are the englest things to be that the ready-to-wear suit would be put out of the market."

A Flour that's at the Head

Of the procession of pastry makers is the Excelsion Brand, It has a natural and carned right to take such high rank, because the wheat from which it is made, the skill, care and cleanliness used in its manufacture, prove our claim that EXCELSIOR FLOUR is the best made.

TRY EXCELSIOR FLOUR TO-DAY

ACTON, ONTARIO

and BRONCHITIS

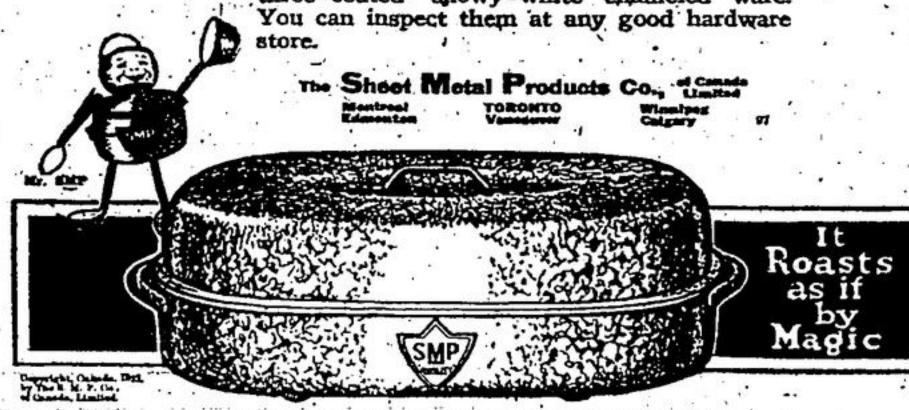

MILL STREET

For tender, meltingly, delicious and wondrous flavored turkey, you must roast it in an SMP Crystal Ware or Pearl Ware roaster. This roaster roasts as if by magic. It bastes the roast or fowl-the fat dripping down from above. The delicate juices and rare flavor are cooked right in. Nothing is lost. There is no wasteful shrinkage.

When you buy expensive roasts of meat, turkey, or other fowl or fish, you want them perfectly cooked. For from $2.00 to $4.00 you can purchase a splendid SMP Roaster that will positively guarantee the roasting. To ensure the perfect cooking of an expensive 15-lb. turkey, surely it would pay you to use the proper utensil-an SMP roaster costing only one-quarter the price of the fowl! A roaster that fully guarantees perfect roasting!

After the hardest roasting, an SMP Roaster cleans as easily and simply as a china dish. No scouring or hard cleaning. There are styles and sizes to suit every size of roast, fish or fowl. Finished in Pearl Ware, twocoated pearly-grey enameled ware, or Crystal Ware, three-coated snowy-white enameled ware.

FULL LINE OF S. M. P. PRODUCTS HANDLED BY

James Symon

Hardware

Acton, Ontario

Putting Acton on the Map

Acton merchants who believe in advertising are doing a great deal to help put their town on the map. Other towns are doing all they can to pull trade their way, and away from Acton.

Newspaper advertising is one of the strongest magnets that can be used to hold trade and bring new buyers to town.

And once the path is travelled from a farmer's or villager's door to a shopping centre, it is easier to make the same trip. next time, especially if a good reception is given the out-of-town buyers when they come here.

Local Merchants can put Acton on the Map

