Police Court News

Following complaints from various sources that there was traffic in liquor at the home of John Telow, Nelson, stable Atkins made a search of the premises on the afternoon of last Monday. In a large room, the door of Telow's house and on the way to his barn, the officers found four quart bottles of moonshine whiskey. The principal analyst showed that the liquor had a content of 88.26 per cent. proof alcohol. The case came up for trial before Police Magistrate Moore at the Court House, Milton, last Wednesday. The defence was made that because Telow's house and yard are on the right of way of a road allowance running from the Guelp Road, that possession of the liquor by Telow could not be established. The Magistrate held that if such interpretation were given to the act no "equities" in Ontario could be found guilty of an infraction of the act. A penalty of $200 and costs was imposed. Crown Attorney Dick acted for the prosecution, and L. E. Gault, Guelp, for the defence. The case may be appealed on the technical grounds.

At the sittings of the court J. P. Denison, of Georgetown, charged A. A. Corner, who is working his farm on the sixth line, Esplanade, by selling a number of cattle which they were in partnership, and falling to make return of the same, was ordered to be tried by Judge and Jury. Preliminary evidence was taken and the case committed for trial. W. J. Dick, Crown Attorney, acted for the prosecution, and T. A. Hutchinson for the defence.

On Saturday morning Leonard Simons, a bright boy of seventeen, was driving from the scene of the accident at the corner of Mill and Main Streets, which occurred on Saturday, November 3, without entering his name, and the number of his car to Clarence Henderson, the driver of the other car. Henderson, who was injured, stated that the reason of the accident was that a car was standing at the corner and he could not see the boy and his express wagon until he had darted past the standing car and, on the centre of the crossing. He saw the boy get up and walk away, and thought little had been done. He went to Mr. Henderson's house on Monday and argued to pay any damages sustained. Fortunately the lad was not seriously injured. The case was given by Rev. Mr. Howard and Mr. J. E. Langville, superintendent of the Shop Factory, where the accident occurred. The boy was fined $200 and costs was imposed, and an order given that $75.00 damages be paid to Mr. Henderson. The boy was also ordered to dispose of his motor car, and entered into an undertaking not to drive a car again until after he was eighteen years of age.

Amrose Kentner, of Toronto, who was arrested at the home of his son John, on Young Street, several weeks ago, was summoned to appear in court on Saturday morning to answer to the charge of violation of the Motor Vehicle Act by driving recklessly and to arrange for the damage incurred. He was served at his residence by a Toronto policeman, but failed to answer the summons and did not attend the court, rendering himself liable to arrest and imprisonment to await his trial. The case came on for trial on Tuesday and explained that his car had broken down on Saturday, and he therefore could not reach court. He pleaded guilty to the charge, was fined $500 and costs; and settled the damages agreed upon with Mrs. Brown and her son John. Kentner was a motorist overseas during the war, in France, and has since driven both motor cars and trucks, and never before had an accident.

On Monday, Bowers, the Cookville hotelman, appeared before P. M. Moore, charged with selling liquor to Joseph Hamilton, Inspector Ayrault, of Toronto, presented. Bowers was fined $200 and costs. We should think this will prove to be a very popular verdict in Cookville—Huronian Banner.

In court on Monday at Brampton Mrs. Frank Keats, of Dixie, was charged before Police Magistrate Moore with selling liquor on October 24 in her home on the Dundas Street. She was fined $100 and costs. Mrs. Keats swore she was in Toronto all the time. The case was given to the jury. The case was dismissed. Mrs. Keats pleaded guilty to the charge. She was fined $100 and costs.

E. W. Fisher, of Milton, pleaded guilty on Tuesday before Police Magistrate Moore to driving his motor car without lights on November 3. He was fined $20 and costs.

The Old Boys' Euchre and Dance. The Old Boys of Acton and vicinity held their annual old-time dance in the town hall last Thursday evening. A good crowd attended and the entertainment was of a high class. The old-time party. The shortlist family provided the music.

Property Changes Made. The brick house at lot 1, Main Street, belonging to John Boyd, has been sold to John H. Watson; also the brick cottage on Young Street, belonging to W. J. Kelly, has been sold to Mrs. Duncan McGregor, Nasasaugawa. These sales were made by H. F. Kerr, real estate agent.

Guelp Winter Fair Admission. The director of the Guelp Winter Fair, November 30 to December 6, has reduced the admission to the show from 50c per 3 tickets for $1.00, to 75c. This one admission admits the visitor to all parts of the building, including the arena. The generous movement on the part of the Winter Fair Society is sure to result in increased attendance.

The date of the auction sale of seeds at the Guelp Winter Fair has been changed from Wednesday, December 6, to Thursday, December 7. This will make Thursday a real sale day for the sale of seeds and dried poultry in the forenoon, and sheep and swine carcasses and steers in the afternoon.

The bank of Montreal is distributing its business in the dairy farming, in which the cow is designated "The Mother of Prosperity." "Where the cow is kept and cared for, civilization advances, lands grow richer, the farmer grows better, the farmer's power." Every owner of cows should secure a copy.

We are squaring away for the coming of Christmas. Trade follows the season, and it is no truer than the statement "Trade follows the season." Now is a good time to buy your Christmas gifts. The early bird catches the worm, so the business man or woman who put ginger into his or her business, will be invited to please.

OBITUARY

MRS. J. W. JEFFERSON. O. W. JEFFERSON, of Toronto, the son of the late Rev. J. W. Jefferson, the Canadian minister who died last spring, took place at the home of his daughter Mrs. J. W. Albert, of Toronto, last Wednesday. The deceased was about 3 years of age, and was a most active and healthy child. He was the second wife of the late Rev. Mr. Jefferson, who passed away last month and was only 10 months and ten days. Many of the friends who attended the funeral and reception held in the Methodist Church on the evening of February 16 last, and how joyful Mrs. Albert was in seeing a piece of a birthday cake, which she had made in honor of her son, and which was highly appreciated. The remains were taken to Oakville and the funeral was held on Saturday afternoon with interment in St. John's cemetery.

MRS. J. W. JEFFERSON. The death took place at Orillia on Friday October 12, of Mary Ellen Armstrong, wife of Mr. James Lowell Armstrong, of Orillia. The deceased had undergone an operation and complication set in from which she failed to rally. Mrs. Albert was in the hospital county, near Acton, thirty-three years ago, and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong. About twenty years ago the family came to this vicinity, and settled near the farm of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. P. L. Macdonald, assisted at Ennisdale, where interment took place, by Rev. W. W. Lane—Huronian Banner.

SAMUEL HARRIS. The funeral of the late Samuel Harris took place on Saturday, November 3, at 2 o'clock, from his farm home at Rockwood. The services were held in the Methodist Church, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. J. W. Lane. The deceased was a faithful worker for many years. The services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. H. Geiger, H. A. assisted by Rev. Henry Caldwell, S. T. L. of Georgetown, and Rev. John Little. Mr. Harris was born in Rockwood, Ontario, in 1844, on the Harris homestead, known best now as the Joffe farm. He had been a citizen of this country all his life, whereby his kindly but firm adherence to the Christian principle which he believed in, and his respect for all who were his neighbors, and his respect for his church and the community. In the death of Mr. Harris we have lost a splendid type of the men of the old school who passed away. He was married in 1870 to Mrs. Sarah Harris, nee Starr, of Newmarket, who bore him in 1913, six children. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and was a member of the village and Wesley, who was accidentally killed on his farm near St. Catharines, about seven years ago. Interment took place in the Friends' Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. L. R. Guild, Arch. McNabb, George Holton, N. K. Thomas, Emmerson, Carter and O. H. Pearson.

MRS. DANIEL NEILSON. Nannantha Hice, wife of Daniel Neilson, died suddenly and unexpectedly on Wednesday evening, at her home, lot 2, concession 5, Esplanade. On Tuesday she had a fall in her house and her face was bruised. Mr. Neilson was with her all day on Wednesday. In the evening G. M. McNair called to get a lamb, which he had bought. Mr. Neilson lighted a lantern, went to the barn, and returned with the lamb to his house within ten minutes. When he entered the home he found Mrs. Neilson lying dead on the floor. She had apparently got up from her chair to light a lamp, had taken off her shoes, and struck a match on the stove and fallen to the floor. The match had ignited her dress, but little of it was consumed, nor was Mrs. Neilson seriously burned. A physician was summoned. His opinion was that Mrs. Neilson was dead before she was burned and that the cause was probably heart weakness, to which her previous fall was to be attributed. Mrs. Neilson is survived by her husband and seven children, all of whom have left the home. There are three sons, Andrew, Milton, Jonathan, Esquingue, and Wm. Alex. Hornby. The four daughters are, Mrs. Jax, Service, Nasasaugawa; Mrs. Wm. Allan and Mrs. George Pearson, West Toronto; and Mrs. W. A. Aikin, West Toronto. The funeral was held on Friday at Evergreen Cemetery, Milton.

"Shoemakers to Children" Entertaining Fairies in Brampton and Acton Turn Out Nearly 2,000 Pairs of Shoes. While in Brampton on Tuesday this last evening was invited by Mr. Howland to inspect the important and growing industry of Hewson & Co., of which he is the head. The splendid factory, which was enlarged last spring by the addition of a third story, is commodious, convenient and well-lighted. The premises are ideal in the matter of orderly arrangement and cleanliness. The latest improved machinery for the manufacture of children's shoes is installed, and a large staff of expert operatives have recently employed the year around. The lines of manufacture are confined to shoes for children, but they embrace the most varieties of patent leathers, furs and blacks, and substantial boots for every day and school wear. The patterned sole, controlled by the Hewson Co., brought out into the world, is much in favor by the trade. This factory has nearly 300 employees in the forenoon, and has an output of 1,200 pairs of shoes per day. The Acton factory is a replica of the parent institution at Brampton. It executes many of the identical lines made at Brampton, employing sixty-seven persons, and is now turning out 750 pairs per day. Mr. Howland says this will be shortly surpassed to 1,000 pairs per day. The heavy work of cutting wool and uppers for the Acton factory is mostly done at Brampton. Both Brampton and Acton may well feel proud of these useful and flourishing industries.

Real Practical Kindness. The ladies of Holyrod Women's Institute visited the House of Refuge in Holyrod County last Thursday afternoon and gave the old folks a nice entertainment as well as a fine present for each and all. The men were dressed in a suit of such such, and a liberal supply of candles and oil. The women were each given a nice apron together with several oranges. The luncheon was delighted with the treat provided by the good ladies of Holyrod—Waterloo Telegraph.

BALLINAFAD

The Rev. Mr. N. Waddell gave his congregation a strong temperance sermon last Sunday. Mr. Clayton Rodgers, of the 10th line, Guelp, happened with a bad accident while driving a tank water truck last week. The front axle of the wagon broke, pitching him off, but he got off with a few bruises, where it might have been very serious. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bridger and family have removed to Norfolk.

LIMEHOUSE
The present teacher of our school, Mr. Jolley, is certainly making the school country the most interesting. His latest plan in the endeavor to inculcate a hearty and enterprising spirit, and a worthy home interest in the school, is arranging for a school banquet to which parents and children will be invited. This will be held in the Community Hall on Friday evening, 30th inst. Brief addresses will be given on home influence and inspiration, and the value of environment. ### Parols for Great Britain

On and after today parols for Great Britain may be issued at the post office against stamp, at a charge will follow in approximately $50 and 30 cents not exceeding $100. This will be welcome news for persons sending parols to the Old Country, as it is necessary to register them, which cost 10 cents, and in addition to which they had to pay out letter rate, making it very expensive for the usual good-sized packages. This new arrangement will mean that most of the senders, relying then on the safety of delivery.

SELF-CRITICISM
A business man who had assumed a comfortable fortune but it in speculation. He became a travelling salesman, and having to "work" every holiday and country where he went to make money, he found himself one night crossing a pasture where a number of milks were grazing.

WORTH DOING WELL
You cannot make a greater mistake than to let yourself get into work you are doing is not worth your best efforts. The question is not alone the worth of yourself, but the worth of the work you are doing. If you do not allow your best effort into your work, your work will be done by the best in your town. If your work is not worth doing well for its own sake, do it well for your own sake. Do not allow yourself to be turned into a whirler and a slacker, just because you are not fond of your task.

HE ADMITS IT
"English as it is Japped" is the term given by Anglo-Naxons in the Orient to the worst effect sometimes produced by Japanese in their efforts to speak English in their shop alone. This Oriental capacity for using another tongue with strange twists of unbecoming humor is perhaps not better exemplified than in the wording of a sign on a Japanese baker's shop in Tokyo.

JUST OUT on Porunawick
There are a number of young fellows out shooting these days who are either insufficiently skilled in handling firearms or are too careless to be permitted to handle guns. John Brown was playing on the home farm, a bullet whizzed past him, within a yard of his head, and he was so startled for such carelessness should be deprived of the privilege of carrying a gun.

Give Us Teaching to Run Newspaper
Mr. George Hudson, of Walkerton, has thrown up his school in Walkerton, and has gone into the newspaper business in London in the following Leader, and gets out his first issue this week.
