Good Price for a Luther Farm The Star and Vidette of Grand Valley gave the interesting news last week of the sale of Mr. Joseph Col-beck's fine farm, across the road from Monticello Church, for $15,000. This property is known as the old Colbeck Homestead, and has been in the family for sixty-five years. It is one of the heat equipped farms in that county. Mr. Colbeck, who has purchased David Lawrence's general store at Robb, held clearing auction sale of his farm effects yesterday. He will take possession of the store on December 3. Mrs. Colbeck is a daughter of Mrs. John Lafferty, and a grandfaughter of the late Alex. F. Smith, of Acton.

Little Lad Seriously Injured On Saturday afternoon little Gordo Mann, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mann, Agnes Street met with an accident which might have had fatal results. Mi Alvin Plaher, of Erin, was driving to load of grain, when Gordon and Wi frid McCutcheon climbed on the load for a ride. When opposite Tue Fare Pages Office the lads were souffling on the load, when Gordon fell off and the rear wheel of the heavy farm wagon passed over him. Mr. G. A. Dills, of this office, who witnessed the accident run out and carried the little fellow into the office and phoned for Dr McNiven. He arrived in a moment and found that Gordon was more or loss soricusty injured internally. He was taken to Guelph Hospital Sunday morning, for treatment, and for a day or so his life was despaired of. He is now, however, making good progress toward recovery.
