IN MEMORIAM
HIGHT—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. David Hight, who died January 11, 1921.
In our hearts your memory lingers
As it dwells another year.
In the hourly hours of thinking
Thoughts of you are always near.
DAUGHTERS
COON—In memory of our dear mother, who died January 9, 1921.
Three years have gone, and still we miss her
Never shall her memory fade.
Loving hearts will always linger
Round the grave where mother's rest.
This world may change from year to year,
And friends from day to day,
But never shall the one we missed
From memory pass.

Brief Local Items

- Winter is coming on.
- The days are growing longer.
- A smile is the same in all languages.
- Sunday was a cold, blustery January day.
- A week of pretty cold winter weather has passed.
- The roads were badly blocked by Sunday's all-day gales.
- Not much danger of being run over by an auto these days.
- The new Council will meet for organization next Monday.
- Many a foot that used to rock the cradle now tugs on the gas.
- A bargain that takes your money out of Acton is a "back fire."
- The boy and his handiwork are putting in full time these days.
- The number of radio outfits is increasing every week in town.
- Keep January 21 open for Knox Church old-fashioned tea-meeting.
- Some of the snow banks have been torn down for the motor cars lately.
- Good morning! Did you forget to renew your Express subscription?
- Fresh strawberries have been on sale during the week. Only 75c a box.
- No comment about springlike weather is heard these January days.
- Wonder if that chap who predicted a mild winter has learned of his mistake yet?
- There was considerable healthy snow-shovelling all day Monday in some places.
- The Aeolian Concert Co. will render a high-class concert in the town hall to-morrow evening.
- Acton is big enough to be convenient, and small enough to be pleasant, and place to live in.
- They have splendid snow shovels at the hardware stores. Get one and keep your sidewalks clean.
- Mr. E. A. Harris, of the Burlington Gazette, was re-elected Mayor of that town by acclamation.
- The objection some people have to banks is that they are too inquisitive when you try to make a loan.
- Municipal Officer Macpherson has had a busy time cleaning the streets of snow the past week.
