I reached the station brouthless quit And saw the last receding car; My face in wrath turned rad, ther

The train had gone a mile too far To catch. I unked the ugent why A train would leave at such a rate; I held my watch before his eye.

He said. "You are two minutes late, "Well,", I exploded, "a'pose I am! Why must she start in such a hurry?

He said in patronizing way: "The road ston't run by south a rule-Where did you get that notion, pray?" answered blm. "At Sunday Behoot." "We always come a little slow; They walt on the for quite a while?" What did the agent day D'you know? He rubbed bls nose, and then, by

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Issue of the Free Press of Thursday, March 31, 1904

Easter services in all the churches next . Sunday." Mr. W. Williams has put an attrac tive metal celling in his shoe store. The coal problem is not yet solved. Numbers of citizens are again without unthracite.

After ulneteen weeks of continuous sleighing the wheels are coming into There is every probability that Acton will have A fine new C. T. R. station before Christmas.

coed Mrs. H. C. Hunter, who very efficiently fulfilled the duties for sevoral Years. Mr. A. G. Clarridge, the new progetting settled there. He was fortun- raised up Samuel, 'a prophet second ate in getting his household goods and only to Moses," to guide the nation farm implements, etc., moved before the roads broke up. The moving was quite a contract, us he moved 32 loads to the new home. Mr. James McLam has disposed his blacksmithing business and property on Main Street to James R. Anderson, Eden Mills, who takes possession on April 11. Mr. McLam has been for thirty-six years in the shop disposed of. 'He served his time there and bought out the business twentytwo years ago from the late Michael

NELLES-In Nassagawaya, on Wed nesday, March 16, 1904, to Mr. and

Mrs: George Nelles, a daughter. DIED KENNEDY-In Acton, on Saturda March 26, May Kennedy, aged DOWN TO FUNDAMENTALS.

"Now, Lydia Poters," said Miss Tenney defensively, "you needn't shake your head at me repreachful, because can't help it, and it's no fault of mine. I don't interfere with other folks' liking her, do IT And I haven't said a word against her, have I? She's pretty, and brought up nice, and perfeetly polite, and so deferential to her elders I'd like to shake her-as if were ninety and had one foot in the grave! And I dare say Tom Mottram has married a prize like everybody says he has. So what you can find to in my behavior I don't see. I declare I don't."

"Ann! Ann!" cried Mfs. Peters. laughing. "You're giving yourself away with every word .. I haven't criticized-only you know you deserve gan with Abraham, the Friend of the stoutly. "She reminds me of blanc- ine; Moses, the Liberator, Legislator, mange, that's all. Protty as can be, and Prophet; Joshua, the Citizenturned out neat and careful from a Soldier and Man of Courage; Samuel, wheat-sheaf mould, and nice-flavored, the last of the Judges and the Foundand made of good, nourishin' stuff- or of the School of the Prophets; only so smooth and shiny and slithery Saul, the first King of Israel; the nery," Mrs. Peters conceded. "Bo mystic and murdered; and Solomon, he wants to, either. I think she'd

"Oh, she just fairly glistens with agreeableness!" said Ann Tenney, dryly. "I don't know what's underneath. and I never expect to." .

They had been talking on a corner with a chilly east wind and pelting of these epochs are covered by the rain driving against the two umbrel- lessons of the past three months? has, canted together at a conversational angle. Mrs. Peters laid her cold, cracy begin? What was Abruham's house sermon." which developed into bronchitis to the great contribution to religion?. What imprudence of that little chat. It, was several weeks before she saw Tenney ugain, and then Ann rail with a dish of sparkling cales for Jelly, out in tempting cubes, with ui napkin over it, and upon the top a he favorable to this change? What single perfect rose. Him was allowed was the result of the monarchy? Did to put the dish on the invalid's truy the fall of the monarchy and the disand carry it up horself. After pruisa laugh: folks have sent me blancmange-but Israel? Characterize the "Mountain then, of course, I know you wouldn't; not considering the way you run down blanenunge last time we talked." "So I did," ussented Ann, "and sort, of run down Pauline Mottram too; and I'd ought to been ushamed. She's us-likable a young thing as I byer mel, come to get at her," "Getting at her . was the trouble though, the way we figured it out the other day," said Lydia Peters, with Interest. "How'd you manage to do it.

Beaton about opery in New York, over while she was sitting saugly. Then in one corner; and I was almost across he proposed. the room talking puddings with Amanada Lamkin. Well, I noticed the she gazed at him calmly. Then she talk was kind of tangulahing in the said: opery corner, and when I kturted reciting a receipt for chocolate rice pudding it stopped dead; and all of a water more than fifty foot doop, and audden Pauline Mottram leaned for- if you were going to act as you should ward, and begged me to write it out act if I accepted you, we would be for her—she never could carry a rule capsized, I will decline your proposal in her head. So I did. And she thank- at this moment—but, George, row as ed me, and said, if only Tom would fast us you can to the shore and ask Quebec, with a map showing the route, out it she'd be so glad. Seems she'd me again." been having trouble making desserts he'd cut, but he is dreadful fond of choculate.

"Well, next meeting she came over, just beaming-not a bit her polite smile-and sang out before sho'd half day she offered her nunt a share of crossed the room, 'O Miss Tonney, her candy, Tom lust loved it! Can you tell mu! any more checolate desserts that are Aunt Mary?" she asked sweetly, at stories. The other regular departsimple and good Hovering?' I told the same time tendering the paper her if she'd stop in on the way back hag. I'd write her out half a dozen; und she did; and I did. Of course I was aunt. And us she was particular what glad to help her out. We've grown she ute, she selected a white one. roal chummy over it, though, Lydia, "Auntie," said little Dorie, "do you you'd be surprised."

"I'm not," said Lydia, "You got un- and white almonds?" der the surface and down to fundamontals, that was all."

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FOR SUNDAY, MARCH 30.

OUTLINE OF THE HISTOR FROM ABRAHAM TO SOLOMON. Golden Text ...

Johovah is morelful and gracious, Slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness. -- I'an. 103: 1 Lesson Thomas

The Theocracy--The history of the Jowish nation begins with Abraham. the friend of God, the father of the faithful, 'the ancestor of all, nations which have beld a monothelatic bellet Two minutes more! Law, how I run! practically." With him and with his And now hand aform a about and family was, made the first convenint of promise. In Egypt the family became a nation. The stern discipline of toll and suffering in the presence of their common enemy bound them togethor. The great signs and wonders of the Exadus declared their high doutley. At Sinal the covenant made with their forefathers was renewed, confirmed, and amplified to the nation. The Law was given us a schoolmaster for the childhood of the newborn. nation, "a kind of external consciones" to train it to obedience. The Israelites entered Canana, and the first part of the promise to Abraham was fulfilled. But for a long time the nation seemed to make no progress. 'The period' which intervened between the entry into Canuan and the life of Samuel was a time of anarchy and apostasy. The Book of Judges is a record of two conturies of national disintegration and religious declension. It was necessary, humanly speaking, in order that they might learn their weaknesses. They were unable as yet to hear the pure Theoremy, the direct govbetween the enemies which surrounded it on all sides. In order to make solid advance, retrogression was inevprietor of "Gordon Hall" farm, is now itable. At this critical juncture God through this crisis in its existence, and effect the transition to the second stage of its education. The Monarchy-The sovereignty of u visible monarch was a declension from the ideal of the Theocracy. Yet ect outcome of faithfulness. It was a berry bushes and stunted firs. That defection from God. Neverthises, the was not quite all, either, for in a shelrequest was granted. God first gave tored ungle of the house was a tiny otherwise learn; and then a king "aftative of the kingdom of God. In his conceive might have been asked for without ain, fulfilled important purmaintain its independence, thus saving the nation from destruction, and pru-of blessing to the world. The Hierarchy-The Hierarchy at length took the place of the Monarchy and resumed the ideal of Theocracy. When the kingdom fell, and the disciple of the Captivity had done its of prophecy ceased. In the absence of new revelations, the people pondered on the past till, at length "the time was fulfilled and the kingdom of God

Mountain Personalities-The history we have reviewed in the last quarter but neither of them is of the neticing did, Et; the window was open." may be compared to a mountain range kind, and when men-folks ain't notic-Father of the faithful; Joseph, the "I don't!" insisted Ann Tenney Herbert Hoover of the Egyptian fammany-sided David, shepherd, musi-"Her manners are a mite too-man- cian, athlete, soldier, ruler, diplomat, polished you don't seem to get u-holt the most brilliant failure in the whole I was born in sight of the sea, and siways unhealthy, and will be stunted securely to a piece of wood. This is of her anywheres to pull her in close. blatory. Each of these mountain men it doesn't seem to me I. could live in its growth. It is a merciful act to best done by cutting a nick all round the way from it. Then I belong to the rki it of these destructive parasites, the wood in which to tie the string. and smiles sweet on us but she seems ing and of inspiration. Not one of light, too-you have to if you keep especially when it can be done with Now let each pair of players stand It may be said that in each case the I cook for the men that do, and that like to be folksy, if she could. She good was greater than the evil and counts. They'd get blue and queer that each did his part in the ongoing in a hurry if they had to do for themrevelation and ever-growing king- selves. I guess that's the real secret For Study and Discussion What were the three great periods in the history of Israel? How many people have that, if they'd only realize

When and with whom did the Theewas the national condition during the time of the Judgest When did Bamel appear? What was his mission message? What part did he have stablishing, the monarchy? Was cipline of the captivity revive the ing and tasting, Mrs. Peter's said, with ourlier ideals of Israel? Does disappointment rightly received lead to "I'm glad it's jelly, Ann, for other greater spirituality? Was this true of Men" of this range of history. Daily Readings for Next Week Monday, March 31-1 Kings 13: 1-6

Tuesday, April 1-1 Klags 13: 13-20. Wednesday, April 2-1 Kings 12: 25--Thursday, April - 5-1 Kings 13: 1-5. Friday, April 4-1 Kings 15: 25-30. Saturday, April 5-1 Kings 16: 8-16. Bunday, April 6-Paulm 131.

TACTICS "It happened. She was telling Margie shops above, and the sea was serone; From the opposite and of the craft

"As a malter of common sense. routizing that we are in this boat, on

That girl will make a good wife. A GREAT DISCOVERY

Little Doris is very polity. The other "Will you have a sugared almond,

"Thank you, I will," replied her those interested in Canadian sport.

"No, doar," said nuntle, with a kindly smile. "I suppose that was it," assented "Well, I'll tell you," explained Dorls. The record of the brain and hand; Ann. "Food's fundamental, that's sure: "They were all this once, and I And then, should Tallure come to me, experimental preparation, but one with and even if I um a settled spinster, I sucked all the pink off the white sines. Still work and hope for victory. Didn't I do it nicely ?"

SAVING SNOW-BOUND DEER FROM STARVATION

Above-Too Exhausted to Escape Below-Quite Happy After Rescue

deepest snows of the season the dwellors in the north country often have opportunities to perform humaniturian acts towards the unimals that roam ernment of God without the inter- the woods. It is only now and then vention of an earthly ruler. Some that the winter proves too severe for visible bond must be found to unite the furry folk. Cold weather they can photographs were taken near H. serious attempt to escape. Gently, but Jovite, a pleasant little summer and firmly their feet were tied with strips The snow is going away gradually and there have been no floods as was feared, there being no frost in the ground the water readily sinks into a solid mass the scattered tribes pretty well stand and when the snow his heaviest there his always snots in the depths of the forest where it is not too deep to move and places where and ground the water readily sinks into Material and political means must pretty well stand and when the snow Jovite, a pleasant little summer and firmly their, feet were tied with strips the depths of the depths of the forest where it is not too deep to move and places where an cliff Railway north of Montreal. Durtong the struggling. They were laid on the congretion and resourceful deer can dig ing the stay of a party of visitors have to the long that ites underweath. pare the way for the spiritual and down to the food that lies undernoath, there for the winter sports, word was big hay stock, and a shed to sloop in But sometimes the deer are caught brought in by a guide that two deer quite reconciled them to their troubles. in the open by a heavy fall that makes were stranded four or five miles away in an astenishingly short time they the going hard and if the way to on the shore of Lake Ouimet. A became used to being with human besafety is long the deer, become ex- rescue party at once set out with ings and they apparently find their hausted and likely victims of strva- snow-shoos and toboggans and when new home has many advantages over they arrived on the scene they found their older and wilder state.

AT THE LIGHTHOUSE .

A morry crowd of young people had teach them a lesson they would not. The keeper and his wife and son really. met the visitors, the two men with a ter His own heart," a true represent courtesy hone the less genuine because it was silent, the little gray- so on, but Eb never did. hands such a monarchy as we may haired woman with vivid interest. The poses by consolidating the scattered girls. She dropped behind us the I overheard the young men talking he is right. crowd trooped after the men, and turned back to the little woman. "I've seen lights before," she said. serving it to fulfill its great deatiny "I wonder if you'd let me come in and make you a little call instead." She was almost startled at the sudden illumination of the old face. work, "the unity of a church succeeded father and William the only time I ways looks us well as you could ex- become un established fact, Surely ways they have to hurry right off us made up, and so did they. goon as they've seen the light, and I "When he beaued me home that his unimals, scarcely get a look at them. I tense evening, he said, 'I most wish you

> "They have the light, but you, off here it, either of us." alone-oh, I don't wee how you endure

The wise old eyes met the young of it. You don't got very much out of sorts as long as you've got some- May be alive to grow and thrive body to do for-and I guess most And out into the sunlight strive,

The girl drew a long breath: "Thunk you," she said. "It is a real light-

Sores Flee Before It .- There are many who have been afflicted with sores and have driven them away with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oll. All similarly troubled should lose no time in applying this splendid remedy, as there is nothing like it to be had. is cheap, but its power is in no way expressed by its low price.

CANADA'S GEOGRAPHY thousand miles of pruirie. By master warrior won; Beliald her windows open wide

To greet the rising sun. thousand miles of river. A thousand miles of sea. thoughild miles of silvered peaks. -James M. MucGregor

ROD AND GUN FOR APRIL

akon in the Klamika lake district. too. and full details concerning the trip is written by J. Jonkins in the April lange of Ited and Gun in Canada. This number also contains a good bear huntling story by T. C. Young who describes his bear hunt on the Cout River, British Columbia, and a hig game hunt in Alberta by E. Hang, both of which are unusually good ments contain much of interest, and tached button will force the oork out. the April issue will be enjoyed by all

A CREED TO LIVE BY know the difference between the plak To live us gently as I can; To be, no matter where, a man; To take what comes of good or ill And cling to faith and honor still;

A TEMPERATE ANNOUNCEMENT THE CAUSE OF "BLUE MONDAY" run over in a launch that clear August ceeded in extracting a word of com-eagerness in her bright, dark cyrs sometimes. But one county fair day dition and temper. The excellent conappealed irresistably to one of the I had charge of the candy table, and dition of that man's teams proves that outside the window that was right be-my cousin, Ella was.

the mon-folks powerful to tell me could have heard what I told 'em about what they wore and how they looked, you this noon, Milly,' and I said, 'I

With so thorough a preparation at blue ones with quiet humor. "Oh, hand as Miller's Worm Powders the there's lots of ways of enduring," the mother who allows her children to suf- oven number of players who are to

MY LEGACY

To tollers in the sun. May be induced to take a spade And plant another one. -Etholwynn Wother

CALLING THE KETTLE BLACK A rustle was sitting on the bank stream when the parson's daughter came that way .- Punch gives the conversation: "Well, tales, I be fuir 'maxed witthe way o' that 'ere fisherman, that I be!" said the loafer. "Why is that, Carver?" asked the young lady. "The owd fool has been sittin' there fur the last six hours and hasn't caught purtment of Murine. Since December nothin'." "How do you know that?"____

To have the children sound and follows: Ontario, 6; Nova Scotia, 1, healthy is the first care of a mother. Quebec, 1; British Columbia, 3, and They cannot be healthy if troubled Alberta, 2. with worms. Use Mother Graves'

Worm Exterminator. NO CHANCE

The local clergyman had called unc the deserted husband to sympathize with him. The bereft one seemed singularly obserful, considering the nature of his loss. "It's too bad, Jock; too bad!" the dominie. "I understand Bandy, who persuaded your wife to

The husband smiled, gently. "You," he said; "he was -and he is. TO GET THAT CORK

When a cork has accidentally dropstring and drop it into the bottle Then plerce the cork with a hatple and draw it up to the neck of the bodtle. Pull the thread and the at-

Makes Breathing Easy .-- The con striction of the air passages and the struggle for breath, too familiar ovidence of authmetic trouble, cannot eyes brimful of unshed tours, "you daunt Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma can trust me with any mortal thing Remody. This is the funious remedy on earth. For twenty yours I was which is known far and wide for its manager of a bath-house, and I never complete pffectiveness even under very took a single bath." .. muny years of strong service behind corn out by the roots. Try it -Edgar A. Gubet. It. Buy it from your nearest dealer. . Prove It.

a king might have been given by God morning to visit North Island light. mendation from Eben Hobbs felt that Monday" is not merely a phrase. The in His own time as a necessary factor They scrambled laughingly up the a notable feat had been accomplished, chief cause of the unpleasant "color" in the training of the nation. But the rocky path and then stood hughingly His wife used to tell with much en- of the day may lie in injudicious eatdemand for a king, as made by the looking across the desolate pile of joyment the story of her brief court- ing on Sunday. A man who takes the heat care of his aplendid teams of "I used to think he must like me," work horses says that he never gives she always began, "for he came Wed- his animals the traditional extra quart them a king according to their own garden of portulaes, marigolds and sometimes took me buggy-riding in working and therefore do not need and between; but he never said anything, cannot properly take care of the extra food. The result of overfeering is "Other young men would tell me I that the next day the horses are "logy" had bright eyes and rosy cheeks and and inclined to shirk, even if they do not become actually sick. A smaller "I used to get real tried with him allowance keeps them in better con-

> The same rule might be applied with benefit to human beings .- . Hunday is "'Ella Lane's the prottlest girl in or should be, a day of rest, but the this town,' one of 'om said-she was usual Sunday dinner in many families is more elaborate than the dinner on "Most of the boys chimed in and working days. What wonder, then said so she was, but three or four of that with more food than the body is "Would I let you, deary? Land 'em spoke up for some other choice, accoutomed to, and with much less sakes, I guess you don't know what At last I heard Eb saying my name, exercise in which to use up the extra it's like to live on a rock. I tell 'I don't see but what Milly Locke al- fuel, the "blueness" of Monday has envy them is when visitors come, and pect for one of her age, he said. And human beings ought to use as much go tagging off after them. Most al- then of course I know his mind was all judgment in the care of themselves nu the home owner buen in the care of

The Oil of the People-Many oils have come and gone, but Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil continues to maintain its in whose high elevation there are ing they ain't, and you can't make You know my mind; is yours the unefulness each year. Its sterling same? And I allowed 'twas, though qualities have brought it to the front The girl leaned forward, moved by his question might have seemed blind and kept it there, and it can truly 'to some; but we were married within be called the oil of the people. Thous-"How do you endure it?" she usked. a month, and we've never felt to regret unds have benefitted by it and would use no other preparation.

A JOLLY GAME

keeper's wife said. "I think of farm. for from the ravages of worms is be arranged in pairs. Provide some ers' wives us far off from folks as I unwise and culpably careless. A child places of string three or four yards in am, with only land all round them. subjected to the attacks of worms is length, each end of which is fastened opposite one unother, holding the string taut. At a given word they start winding the string on the wood as fast us they can, till they meet. Then taking hands they run to a cortain spot selected us the winning post. and the first couffe to breast the tape who can show that their string is fully wound up are the winners.

STOPS BLEEDING AT ONCE. PREVENTS BLOOD POISONING. REMOVES ALL INFLAMMATION

RADIO IN CANADA

Rovived Interest in radio in Canada is revealed in figures issued here recently by the Federal Government Des last II licenses for broadcasting stations have been issued by the depart. "I been a watchin' of he the whole ment, making a mini or to broadcast ing stations in Canada. The new stations are, by provinces, located as Montreal leads in the number of receiving licenses issued to amuteurs with 6,600, while in Toronto 3,400 have puld, and the work of collecting the licenso fees is not nearly completed. Approximately 20,030 radio licenses have been fraued to unsatours in Canada up to January 31, according to the records of the Department of Marine. Rudld is playing an important part in the colonization of Canada. What were regarded before the advent of radio us isolated farmsteads in parts A good description of a cance trip clope with him, was your best relend of the country some distance from rellways and settlements, are now linked with half the continent by the mystle and cheering bond of radiotelephony so that isolation, and distance uppeur to be, in many respects. only mouningless terms.

HE WAS HONEST

The tramp knocked at the farmsuse door and asked for the farmer. He recited a tale of woo, and unked for a Job. "Yes, you can have a Job," hald the farmer. "You can gather oggs for me If you are certain you won't steal any, The trump chaked with gratitude and amotion. "Bir," he sald, with

How to Wash and Preserve-Woolens

Woolen garments or articles cleansed with SURPRISE soap feel soft, fluffy, and well washed. Dry woolen articles: in a moderate temperaturenot in the sun-and do not allow them to freeze. Sun is injurious to wool; freezing causes shrinkage.

Flat Wall Paint

Dirt, dust and grime cannot penetrate its hardy film. Stains can be easily washed away without marring the good looking surface. There is a wide choice of tones suitable for decorating any type of room. Interior decorators recommend it because it gives the glossless velvety finish so much desired. It also aids correct diffusion of light. .

WE HAVE A COMPLETE STOCK OF ALL KINDS OF MARTIN SENOUR 100% PURE PAINTS

W. D. Talbot

Acton, Ontario

Internal and External Pains are promptly relieved by DE THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL THAT IT HAS BEEN SOLD FOR NEARLY FIFTY YEARS AND IS TO-DAY A GREATER SELLER THAN EVER BEFORE IS A TESTIMONIAL THAT SPEAKS FOR ITS MUMEROUS CURATIVE QUALITIES.

Acton

Horticultural

Society

Acton Horticultural

Society

A Public Meeting

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE ABOVE SOCIETY WILL TOWN HALL ACTON

Friday, March 28th, 1924

WHEN AN ADDRESS ON HORTICULTURE WILL BE J. E. Carter, Esq., of Guelph

The Chair will be taken by H. P. Moore, Esq., at 8 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited to come and hear Mr. Carter, who is always interesting and instructive. Your presence will encourage the

Society in their efforts to make our town a real beauty spot. NO ADMISSION-NO COLLECTION FRANK SCRIVEN. E. T. THETFORD, President

MOTHER! Fletcher's Castoria is a harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, prepared to relieve Infants in arms and Children all ages of Constipation Wind Colic

Flatulency To Sweeten Stomach Regulate Bowels Diarrhea Alds in the assimilation of Food, promoting Cheerfulness, Rest, and

To avoid initations, always look for the signature of ANHILLERE Proven dientions on each package, Physicians everywhere recommend it.

Get your Job Printing at the Free Press

Railway Time Tables

No. 24 Hunday 7.08 p.m. TORONTO SUBURBAN ELECTRIC RAILWAY . Westbound No: 43 8.40 a.m. Eastbound

Going East

BUNDAY TIMETABLE Westbound

No. 67 0.40 p.m Eastbound

Preight delivered by special express freight. Freight picked up at an ad

E. T. THETFORD, Agent, Actor

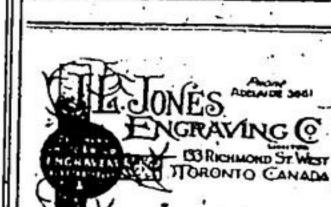

Tee. avage and ee better

A. D. SAVAGE Optometrist & Mfg. Optician Savage Optical Building "Right at the Post Office" GUELPH

T. E. Gibbons

PROMPT ATTENTION TO

T. E. Gibbons

Acton Elevator NEAR G. T. R. STATION

Following Brands on Hand: FLOUR-MANITOBA PLOUR-PASTRY ROLLED OATS OAT CHOP OATE OILCAKE HAY AND GRAIN

ALEX. L. NOBLE

HENRY AWREY, Manager

Grain Bought and Retailed

This Store's Policy

To represent goods exactly as to their quality; to sell to those who know and to those who don't know at a uniform fair price; to fulfill all guarantees and cheerfully correct all mistakes; to deserve your confidence, by always giving you satisfaction.

Savage & Co.