The Acton Free Bress

THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1024

TO FIND EASTER

"Thirty days bath Soptomber." Every person can remember: But to know when Enster's come Puzzles even scholars some.

When March the twenty-first is past, Just watch the allvery moon. And when you see It full and round Know Easter'll be here soon.

After the moon has reached its full, Then Easter will be here The very Hunday after In each and every year.

And if it bup on Bunday The moon should reach its height The Sunday Tollowing this event, Will bu the Easter bright.

GOOD FRIDAY

the remarkable things connected with expression of his face indicated either They left a man here-handy as that One whose life and teachings more years of an unseasomble matur- | woman-to look-after the young feller have more to do with the shaping of ity. As a matter of fact, Tom Lowey He's, chipper as can be, for all his free-thinking philosophy.

doctrine of all churches acknowledging debt, and everyone that was discon- outline of the delicate features, the the Christ as a Divine head, and the tented." the future holds in store.

Good Friday marks the greatest sacrifice the world has ever heard of, before which all human conceptions of ment dom and invention have failed to pene- cording to Jake's meaning. trute or explain. In a contemplation a dinner party, and listened gravely evitably make.

SHADOWED

hostess, and was aware that, while he his lips. The face of a lady, exquisitely railroad track last summer," talked, the impassive liveried footman his lips. Th face of a lady exquisitely behind his chair and another immedi- painted on Ivory looked out at him was strange. ately opposite on the other side of the with an expression so Ufelike, and a table were detectives from Scotland smile so vivid and tender that a real Yard, sent especially for his protection. Yet another guard, in evening dress, was waiting upstairs, ready to mingle with the guests when they tenance of a woman in middle age, the thought he must have pulled it out should be frozen they will come again serve this happy unconsciousness of comes only from experience of the ing on the platform. And just to think the police surveillance to which he highest and most tender relations of that you should find it, Tomi It's was long subjected, especially in the life.

unbalanced political opponents which one like her, but I didn't need to be made protection only reasonable, he told." "shadow" outside on his trail long eliciting no responsive caress.

stonian; but, the Gladstonian gait, an s'pose it's too late now."

"I believe, sir," he said, "you have hand and whined. and Mr. Gladstone to share the con- together." fossion. It was his last effort. After that, he recognized one sort of shadow his breast pocket. as no less inevitable than the other.

UNAPPRECIATED

The teacher of a district school tells need to look for no owner."

Joe was a boy about eight years old, ed forward and trod by chance upon my own with 'em. I learned to swear conviction, but would like to see the and was devoted to a small. lank the animal's foot. Enraged by the gn' to take a gluss. I've got a hot man that could convict her. Get of puppy. Out of school hours boy and yelp of pain which followed, he dealt temper an' the men liked to stir me the goggles, and guit "seeing things." dog were inseparable, and Joe appar- Mike a kick with his hob-nailed boot up just for the fun of the thing. When You will find that the world is not ently would not reconcile himself to which sent him away limping and I was mad I nover cared what I done as his seems .- "Boloman" to the necessity of leaving the dog at howling. Tom sprang forward in a or said. home. For several mornings the fury of anger-eyes blazing and fists "Then, one day, when I'd been out teacher allowed the puppy to remain clenched. But us he raised his arm shootin' sophers, I found this picture. at Joo's feet under the deak. Then there came a day when the rough jacket and he felt the unacous- like that. An' the longer I looked, small dog could not be kept quiet, but tomed pressure of the volvet case the meaner I felt. It was like I wan frisked about, to the delight of the above his heart. The oath died on his turned inside out an' could see every-take that dog out." Jou looked at her mournfully, but The habitues of the place looked at l'd only had a mother like that! Then plaked up the pup, and with its head such other in astonishment. —all at once—I thought why couldn't against his check started for the door. "Well, what d'ye think o' that?" I make believe she was my mother. The boy's feelings were evidently hurt, said one with a laugh. "Whatever's un' try to act the way she'd like. I but he said nothing until he reached come to Tom?"

he's named for you!" THE EVENING MESSAGE

"Hush!" she said softly, "The child- I frame straightened and took on a car- picture, too, an' I haven't unything!" ren are going to deliver their good tain dignity. night message. It always gives me a "Tom must 'a' got religion!" said feeling of reverance to hear them, one of the man one day when Tom it back! I wouldn't keep it from you told by the flowers: the flower is whisper, "Willo found a bed-bug!"

FOLLOWED THE LAWYER'S ADVICE

sullcitor on how to avoid his creditors accused of bein's saint, but I tell you have. And I want-a brother!" was instructed to place all his pro- firs-eny boy, or man ekhar, around ; ... porty in his wife's name. placed all, of my possessions in my to pay you for your services."

TATION OF THE PARTY OF THE PART The Bree Press Short Story

> The Ivory Miniature and Sheaf of Easter Lilies

> > MARY A. P. STANSBURY

Tom will never forget his fire meeting with Raymond Runnels. The brilliant blue eyes, the amile-all sug-

"Mr. Balder promised to send you," gested some haunting resemblance.

"What is that, Tom?"

me. Well, I am glad!"

the clusive likeness.

you not glad, too?"

"What do you mean?"

He buried his face in his hands.

Tom turned.

Tom gave it to him wondering.

T WAS many years ugo when upon a siding the luxurious private the Northern Pacific Rallway, car of one of the officials of the road. Jake Bolder greeted him voolferous creeping slowly ucross the continent, had its temperary ly. "Tom, you've come in the nick terminus on the banks of the Yellowtime. Runnels an' his party are her stone this side of the Rockies. again, an' he's brought his son along Among those gray, scarred battlegrounds of fire and water which the He told me last year that the bo Indians aptly named, "Hand-Lands-to- was out o' health, an' it sooms he's To-morrow marks what is really one Travel-Over." a tall, unkempt, roughbeen wort o' losing ground right along. of the three distinguishing incidents ly-dressed lad, gun in hand and close-His father allowed the journey inight that separate Christianity from all ly followed by a hound, was walking do him woolt, but it looks to me like other 'systems of religion the world slong the right of way. His lean, he was booked for a longer one. has ever known. It is a day that awkward figure might have been that \"Runnels and his men have taken should encourage a little reflection on of an overgrown-boy of fifteen, but the pholes an' gence on a prospectial trip.

any other, and the influence of which was in his seventeenth year, but in white face, but I've an idee that he life and teaching has affected individe unlovely experience of life he might gets lonesome. Now, you're just the unis und governments to an extent have been twice his real age. A one to chirk him up. Boys always unparalleled by any or all systems of friendless waif, he had been borne want somebody of their own age. Take thought, or the product of modern along by that westward-moving wind all the time off for him that you can of progress which carried with it not use. It'll be money in my pocket with The three outstanding incidents are only the enterprising and industrious, his father if I can keep the boy conthe birth, death and resurrection of but—as long ago to David in the cave tented." Ilim who is called Christ. These are of Adullam-"everyone that was in the pivotal points of the Christian distress, and everyone that was in immondity of the thought contained in | He was familiar with unbridled lieach of these three accepted facts conse or the far frontier. Drinking. may in itself be considered as evidenc- frofanity, and gun-play; the shameless said Raymond with an eager note of events, may be said to be humanly un- close Interiors of the gambling saloons though we cannot tell why or what adaptable, and fortified by evil know-

"He's got the makin' of a man in hope to emulate. peals to the deepest emotions of all him," said Jake Bolder, proprietor of For ten perfect days the boys spent human kind and has given to all the "The Tourist's Home," the combina- nearly all their waking hours to-desirable so that they will be well ad- vital that we offer them that cleanlisublime inspiration that beyond the tion hotel and saloon where Tom sorv- gether. Tom's speech was uncultivat- vanced before setting out. vell there is an experience wonderful ed as porter and general helper. The ed, but he possessed vivid descriptive and unique which all the world's wis- assertion was true, although not ac- powers, and his stories of frontier vegetables into the ground in the ling. They are apparently unconcern-of what it means the day ought to be and the hound lagged behind his young colorless cheeks. begun with a sense of obligation to master with lolling tongue. The air . At length the pony-train had re-Him whose life and death have given shimmered above the desert-growth turned, and Mr. Runnels' car was to land where the seed is not likely to the gardener daily. to the world an unparalleled faith that of aromatic sage-brush and prickly- be attached next day to the castward- rot before germination, on at least a One may have much pleasure, and is in itself the greatest strength and pear. The only shadows of the tree- bound express. It was the boys' last small brest, it will pay to sow the seed learn a good deal about the hearby support of all in the things that con- less waste were cast by the strange, evening together in Raymond's state- relatively early and take chances of bird population by hanging in the cern us as human beings. Good tawny "buttes" rlaing abruptly out of room. A restless motion of the sick frost for if conditions are favorable shrubs of the garden such things as Friday is not a holiday, but a holy day. the plain-like towers and bastions of boy's arm threw a book from his flerwards, the crop will beat out the plain-like towers and bastions of boy's arm threw a some old fortifications.

how she once sat next Mr. Gladstone at arrested by a gleam of blue at the the light. root of a coarse tuft-of buffalo-grass. while he discoursed on the safety of Turning aside to investigate he picked mond. our times in contrast with the past up a small, oval-shaped, velvet-covpossible for public men to go anywhere of fine yellow dust, the delicate color from the many enemies they must in- and material were uninjured. Tom pressed his onger upon the spring and the covers flew spart. - An exclamation as yet unlined by years, yet trans- of his pocket with his gloves or hand- and new potatoes obtained early.-W. The 'Grand Old Man' did not pre-

"She was just a mother-that's what Being entirely fearless, despite the she wast" said Tom, in describing his threats of lunatics, anarchists and smotions afterwards. "I'd never seen resented it with vigor, and tried per- | The air thrilled to the distant rumble sistently to clude his guardians. He of a train, and Tom, whistling to his dodged, he disappeared, he took short dog, strode away a few paces and cuts and unexpected routes, he gave concealed himself behind a butte. them as much trouble as if he had been He could not have explained why he a cracksman instead of a statesman; wished to be alone with this wonder- Then maybe you'll understand.

Riding he alloped the miniature into that.

a story that reminds one of Mary and | As Tom entered the barroom of the place. to strike, the movement tightened his I hever knew there could be anybody school and the dismay of the teacher. The and his hand fell to his side thing bad I'd ever done. I hated Pike "Jou," she said, firmly, "you must Stooping he laid his hand on the dog, City-the drinking, swearing and fight-the door, then giving his teacher a "First time I over see him whirk the work. Sometimes it seemed as if her reproachful look, with a pitying glance David an' Collath act," said another. eyes looked sorry un' sometimes glad. toward his dog, he said, slowly, "And !"I believe that boy'd march agin a bull When I'd been mad all through I army if ye only got him mad enough wouldn't let myself look at all. One He didn't look scalet either. What's whole week after I fought Tim Riley. come over the boy't" I didn't darst open the case. / As days and weeks passed the mys-The patter of they feet was heard tery deepened. Some subtle influence that picture than anything wheelin the from the top of the stairs. Mrs. Kind- | was at work in Tom. His outbursts world. I've tooked at it las' thing at orby raised her hand, warning the of temper grow infrequent, or were night, un first thing in the morning. members of the bridge club to be quickly controlled. The oath ceased All the Aime, Haymond, you've had half-formed upon his lips. His lank the real mother. Now you've got the side her walked a tall young man The two stopped boside one of the graves, and the lady placed the Easter lillen tenderly upon it.

"This is his first Easter in heaven. "om." she said, smiling through tears. "And my first real Easter on earth." Com answered. "You know, I never began to live till you taught me-

EASTERTIDE

"May the brightness of Easter daws and the innocence of the liles, and the hopefulness of springtime weave hemselves like golden threads into

All will welcome spring coming-for winter in just one ton of coal after Toll us, ye winged wintry winds, That through our whiskers blow. s winter never going to end? That's what we want to know.

Other signs of spring-the days are longer, the sun warmer, the eggs more plentiful and cheaper, and that is something to backle about.

A man said he was letting his whisdes grow since his wife has begun to buy his neckties. Lawyer-I want to know the whol ruth before I can auccessfully de-

EARLY TO SOW, EARLY TO HARVEST

Prisoner-Yes, except .- where I hi

the money. I want that for myself.

ment, an early start in hot-beds is and third broods in our gardens it is adventure charmed his listener and spring, providing the ground is well ed when a person stands only four The sun mounted higher and hotter, brought a flush of pleasure to the drained, will usually result in earlier feet from them, and I fancy that a crops. Even in the case of corn, if spider offered from the fingers would one has a warm, well-drained piece of be soon accepted by a Wren that saw reading-stand to the floor and Tom later plantings. Should the weather batting, etc. The neighboring birds The lad walked on steadily with stooped to replace it. As he did so, a prove very unfavorable and the seed will find everything that is suitable look bent upon the ground. Yet with small object fell from his breas: rot or the young plants freeze, another for their nests, and come again and all his apparent listlesquess his eyes pocket, and with an involuntary ex-A charming old Englishwoman has were keen. Suddenly he stopped short, clamation of dismay he held it up to plants are well advanced and properly One friend got so many Orioles around "What's the 'matter?" asked Ray- Held, they will ensure an earlier crop not tell accurately how many there than if plants are started late and set were, just by such means, and that "Nothing, I reckon. I was afraid it out when very small, though it is result awalts the dweller in small oval case of the miniature, and Ray- portance of starting molons early in tural Association. mond started erect in his easy-chair. . hot-beds, so as to have the plants well advanced and many melons set "A picture I found alongside the by the time the hot weather of summen comes, so that the glass may be "Let me see it." Raymond's voice taken off, has been well demonstrated by the growers of the noted Montreal molon, which is a rather late variety. "I thought so!" in an excited tone To have the earliest potatoes, sety "It's mine-my mother's picture! I should be sprouted and planted early dred dollars to have it painted for If we could get the blue goggles off Tom made no answer. His face was people, what a different world this turned away. Well he understood now would be! Man is prone to prejudice as the sparks fly upwards. We are "Why don't you speak, Tom? Are always forming conceptions in the absence of light and reaching conclus-"I'm trying to be," he said slowly. are people in Quebec who think people was a profitable beast of labor for this "I'll tell you about myself, Raymond sashes and whistling "Kick the Pope." There are people who have never been advertise. Contractors in a New York but he could not escape his "shadows." ful treasure-trove. Even the thought . "I was born in the poorhouse. My up under the "mountain" who are fool- town, engaged in extensive building Once, at his club, he persuaded a of the momentary flash of curious eyes father was dead, an' my mother lived ish enough to believe that Hamilton- have imported two work elephants to fellow member of about his general from a car-window displeased him. only a few days. I was brought up lanswalk backwards to keep their pants pull dirt cars. It may be, however, build to take his coat and hat and He threw himself upon the ground, there till I was goin' on eight. Then from bagging at the knees. Plenty of that the contractors have caught Barwalk but, carrying an umbrella suf- still gazing at the picture, while the they put me out to a farmer. I ain't people in the States are convinced num's spirit, and have sent the story ficiently aslant to conceal his face, in hound rubbed a soft nose against his goin' to say much about him, because that in Canada they cut the claws off to the news papers for purposes of the hope of drawing the waiting master's arm, wondering dumbly at I try now'days not to feel about any the builtrog to keep him from scratch- advertisement. body the way I have about him. There ing the mous off the backs of the insaid the boy at length, addressing I'd 'a' killed him like a snake if I'd wear currings, swear in Chotaw and It was a clever trick, but useless, the portrait as if it were living, "I been big enough un' durat. I've seen live on peasoup. There are those in The watching shadow saw the coat, reckon I wouldn't be in Pike City. I'd a lot o' hard men but he was the hard- Canada who conceive an American the hat and the umbrella emerge, and 'a' been in an altogether different was so little that I could to be a bumptious individual with knew them to be unmistakably Glad- place, an' I'd 'a' been different. I not hard hold the plow-handles, he'd hook nose and billy goat whiskers, who sit on the fence an' watch un' then talks had English through his nose and morning. equally unmistakable point of identi- A sudden spasm of emotion shook pound me if the furrer wa'n't straight. punctuates his sentences with avaficataion, was conspiciously absent. him, and long unaccustomed tears I was half-froze in winter un' half- lanches of tobacco. All this is the -Me stepped up and tapped the ob sprang to his oyes and uncontrollable starved att the year." Finalty I ran result of the tendency of humanity to liging individual sharply on the arm. sobs shook him. The dog licked his away. I begged somethin' to eat along build. conclusions on inadequate the way an' slept under bushes at foundations. Because some ass anjust left that club with another gen- "Poor old Mikel" said the youth, night till I got back to the poorhouse nounces that he has stopped putting tleman's property in your possession." lifting his head. "You're the best An' then-he come for me an' they water on his hair, as it rusts the .The suspected thief had to confess, friend I've got. You und me'll stick made me go with him again. You can wheels in his head, that is no reason guess what sort of a deal I got after why you should form the impression with Carlyle that most men are fools. "I stayed till I was twoive, un' then A man down in Kentucky was read-"I can keep it all right." said he. I tried again. That time I got away. ing from a paper the other day a list "A thing like that never belonged to I fell in with some trumps that took of curative uses to which water might anybody around here. Somebody must a liking to me. We beat our way be put with success. Throwing aside 'a' dropped it off the train. I sha'n't West. That's how I got here. An' the paper in disgust, he remarked that then-I found a job at Jake Bolder's It would make a saw-horse sick. We are so influenced by our prejudices her little lamb, only it is of Joe and "Tourist's Home" with his dog, a man "There was a lot o' hard oustomers, that some of us reach the point of the who had been drinking heavily lurch- un' it wa'n't long before I could hold old lady who said she was open for Shoe and Leather Journal.

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

HE'IS RISEN INDEED

pur world into new life from the chill now greenery and with the flowers, of and left the room without a word. | lng-an' I kept saying to myself, 'If an immortality which endures past uny or many deaths. Its song its of black tombs opened to prove their emptiness, their powerlessness to hold back life when the order goes forth from the Bun, as it once went forth commended to try. "Twas awful hard to a resting one in the village of Bothany, "Luzarus, come forth!" It L now gooth on his way weeping and bearing good seed to the sowing place of earth-life past, who is at the great Egster to come again with Joy and "I've got so that I care" more for bring his sheaves with him. The promise is always true, we are reminded every Easter: "Bocause I live. ye shall live miso!"

THE EASTER PLOWER

"Tom! Tom!" cried the other, "take had with difficulty restrained himself for the world. But listed! You shall little preacher, coming into the sun-There was a moment of tense under exasperating provocation. Amid have the mother, tool You are going shine to live the Resurrection lifestlence, then: "Mamma," came a shrill the uprogrious laughter which follow- home with me-to her! Futher spoke preaching the Easter gospel.' Al ed was board the rough voice of, the of giving you a chance sometime. Howers are altar dowers dowers on They'll do anything for me," he went the world's great altar, as all life is a "An' if he has, Jim Helstrom, it's a on rapidly, "anything! You see-we climbing of the Altar stairs, those kind that it wouldn't do you or ary make believe that I'm going to get mountain atira which . slope from of the rest here, any hurt to be for- | well, but-we know better. Whatever darkness up to the light. Every flow-A man seeking advice from a young agin' for! I don't guess I'd ever be I want-for the little while-I can er is a messenger, a teacher sent to us, growing out of the bosom of our this place that speaks everybody tair, It was very beautiful in the hillstde lives, by an act of faith the flower Later the solicitor presented his bill an' does his work faithful, an' no graveyard, All around it was an grows. And faith finds expression; for services rendered and received the kickin'; is goin' to be stood by. You avenue of pines, and the light wind the flower prayer There is a prayer fellers 'Il find it bealthy to let the kid made a noft whispering in their of faith from that little need which branches. The turf was velvet green gradually stretches up its arms to-Some months had elapsed, when and the air full of roses. A slander wards its Maker, answered by every wife's name, and now I have no money. Tom, returning from shting all guide lady in black, carrying a great sheaf raindrop and sunbeam that charishes to a party of buffalo-hunters, saw of white Illies, came up the path. Be- its life... "Miseriourdia."

BIRDS IN THE GARDEN

The many economic reasons why we man who would try to place a financia! glued down to his temples. estimate on the value to us of those things that we enjoy.

purselves from the economic idea, so the attorneys. Then he walked up to even while we are enjoying the pres- the bar and poured out a glass of once of the birds so much that we ice-water. would spend money to secure them, we are apt to hug to our souls the thought that they are useful as well as en. joyable. And of course they really glasses. The young man was just are so. Perhaps none others are so raising the glass to his lips, when the useful in keeping down insects as those that come in the winter: Chickadees, Down and Hairy Woodpeckers, and the White Breasted Nuthatch These bundles of incessant activity if attracted to our gardens by suct. or suct and nuts on a slab, will live with us day after day and week after week during the cold weather when other apecies are absent, and much of their time will be spent hunting over our trees entered the court-room again with a and shrubs for insect posts, and if one roll of parchment in his hand. The has a fair population of winter birds, judge glared at him savagely, but the he is almost certain to have a sparse young man never flinched. Finally lot of insects to begin the year with. there was a luit in the proceedings, When the spring comes, we greet and he addressed the courtr with joy the return of the sojourners from the southlands, and we are lucky If our bird boxes attract and hold a fend you. Tlave you told me everypair of House Wrens, whose incassant certificate of admission to practise in bubbling songs ought to cheer even the supreme court and all other courts the vegetables to do their best. Wrens of this state," and he passed the are rather strange in their selection parchment to the clerk. of a nesting place, and it is well for the bird lover to be prepared to offer judge. them a choice of nest boxes, as the house that suited the female that way the proofs of my admission to the bar. While the expression, "Early to Sow. with us last year may not be the thing I would move the court that I be per-Early to Harvest" does not apply to all in the estimation of the latest arrival mitted to drink from the official pitkinds of vegetables, it does to many. So, in my own place, they always find cher," and he calmly drained the glass Such heat loving plants as the bean, at least two types of house in sarly of water he had left on the table. ing their divine origin. The circumparade of fare tables on the sidewalks stances of two, the first and third when heat drove the players from the shall be good friends.

Welcome in the sidewalks welcome in the sidewalks now that I see you. I am sure we and corn make little if any progress them another of the preferred style.

A COINCIDENCE Good friends they were from the ground is warm and danger from are once wedded to a location they are comprehensible, the second, that which we commemorate to-morrow. Good friends they were from the comprehensible, the second, that which into the open air; degrading crimes first. Tom's sympathy for the beautiful, pule-faced boy, cut off so cointher unpunished by dealt with by the summary methods of lynch-law—all comprehended by everyone, through these had ceased to excite him by these had ceased to excite him by the summary methods of carrot, lettuce, onlon, peas, these had ceased to excite him by the summary methods are growing and it to his age, precluded any feeling of radish and spinach, and if cauliflowe. which experience all must | travel, their novelty. Naturally fearless and diffidence on his own part, while Ray and cabbage are well hardened off be- to use a new nest for their second mond, attracted by the strength and fore setting out, the early planting of brood. A bird may use the same nest ledge, he had made for himself an freedom expressed in Tom's athletic them will usually ensure much quicker 'n successive years, after the lice have assured place in his rough environ- frame, admired with all his generous returns than if they were planted late. been killed by the cold, but in sumheart the qualities which he could no: Even with some of those plants which mer, they want a new house, and if require much heat for rapid develop- | we want them to raise their second > ness they desire. When unmolested. Promptness in getting the hardier their tumeness becomes almost start-

NO MONKEY WRENCH

An automobile tourist was travelling through the North West, when he met with a slight accident to his machine. In some way he had misiaid his monkey-wrench, so he stopped at

"Have you a monkey-wrench here? "Naw, my brother he got a cattle rench (ranch) over there; my cousin he got a sheep rench further down this road, but too cold here for monkey

THE ELEPHANY ADVERTISERS The late Mr. Barnum had an ele phant plowing on a Connecticut field. in view of passing railroad-trains. To ions in advance of the facts. There a farmer who usked if the elephant in Toronto go about wearing orange country, the showman replied that it was not unless one had a circus to old sallor," asked a wanderer at the rear door of a suburban house on-"Poor old sallor!" ochood the house wife, who had opened the door.

NEVER CAUGHT UP

"Yea'm, I followed the water for "Well," said the lady, as she slam med the door in the face of the unwelcome visitor, "all I have got to may is that you certainly don't look as though you had ever caught it."

Get their orders now

Think of the farmers who will want timothy, clover, wheat, rye, oats seeds, potutoes for planting: roofing or paint for the barns; wire for the chicken runways or pig pen - a hundred things.

If prices are favourable, get their order for them now, by Long Distance, and hold the goods, if necessary,

When the roads are bad farmers doubly appreciate your telephoning them. The first merchant who does stands a mighty good chance of getting their orders. Try a dozen calls. The results should average very well.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station.

ENTITLED TO A DRINK

"Truth, crushed to ear," will do well should encourage the visits and rest- if she always rises as rapidly as a dence of birds in our gardens, pale young man who was crushed in only before the great aesthetle reason. We of the superior courts. This young want birds for the same reason that man, says Stray Stories, had a dellwe want flowers, namely, for our own cate, straw-colored mustache, and his enjoyment. And he would be a rash hair was parted in the middle and

He sauntered curelessly into the court-room, eyed the judge through But we can never quite dissociate his glasses, and took a survey of all

The judge, who is nervous and testy. had observed the young man, and frowned down on the glued hair and udge roured: That water, sir, is for attorneys and other officers of the court." The glass almost dropped from the young man's hand; he started violently, turned red, then placed the glass on the table, and walked out of the court. The judge chuckled. Half an hour later the young man

"Your honor?"

"Well, what of that?" growled the

"Now, your honor, having presented

The Janitor-How did you come ter lose yer job? Ex-Office Boy-Mine and the boas grandmother died on the same day.-Exchange.

You need not hide skin defects - now

Millions know this simple way to avoid them—to keep skin lovely, youthful

But beware of harsh cleansing

Wash thoroughly with methods. They Injure skin.

Do not make the mistake of thorities say, to keep your comattempting to cover or hide skin plexion lovely, radiant, youthful. defects. It can never succeed. And there is a better way-which millions know: This simple method to avoid | Palmolive Soap-each night be-

"them-to keep the youthful radiance and clearness of schoolgirl complexion. For a week do this fore retiring. Rub the creamy, foamy lather well into the tiny pores. Rinse - and repeat the joy it for the bath also. Cleanse the skin regularly, an-washing. Then rinse again. little cold cream. That is all. Skin so cared for is not injured by cosmetics, by wind and sun, or by dirt.

But be sure you get Palmolie Then-if skin is dry-apply a -which is never sold unwrapped.

All dealers have it. Get some and follow this simple method for one week. Results will delight you, even in that short time.

The simple, correct tony tive beauty treatment. Because Palmolive Soap is blended of rare palm and olive oils-famous for mild but thorough cleansing qualities since the days of Cleopatra. And it is inexpensive. En-

You cannot find a more effec-

Volume and produce 25e quality for Nature's green color to Palmeline man.

THE PALMOLIVE COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED Winnipeg , Toronto Palm and altos oils-nothing also-gios

The Ideal Car for Personal Transportation

The G.M.A.C. Deferred

Payment Plan makes

It easy for you to own a

THE professional man, the salesman who carries samples, the contractor, the business man, the ladies who drive-in fact, anyone who requires the means for personal transportation, will favor this new 4-passenger Muster Four Coupe.

The rugged efficiency of the McLaughlin-Buick Master Four valve-in-head motor and chassis insures a day in day out service. The gasoline/mileage is very high. Upkeep is extremely low, yet in appearance and performance this car is typically McLaughlin-Buick Four-Wheel Brakes sure safety, prevent skidding, provide quicker negotiation of congested traffic.

A short turning radius facilitates easy parking. Although ideally suited for personal transportation, the car has ample room for Your. Space for small parcels and for luggage is provided by a compartment immediately behind the driver and a larger compartment in the rear of the body.

FISHER & KING

Representatives for this District

Georgetown, Ont.

MCLAUGHLIN-BUICK