THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1924

HIB MOTHER Wondrous was his might and fame.

As he thrilled the world with song-

None there were but know his name. Mightlest of Pame's great throne. Not a glieved or wounded heart. But found comfort in his words; Of all things he accmed a part !-Fields and atreams and singing

Many asked from whence his power All of life to feel and see: Burely such a wondrous dower Calmed from wondrous source mus

But not one that, wondered knew Prayed and longed while first he grew. Dreuming dreams boyond their ken -Cloorge Lawrence Andrews.

BEFORE THE MAST

A college professor sometimes remarks playfully that he worked his way into school before the mast. But whom he tells the story he makes it clear that he began by threatening to run away from school if he were not allowed to try a sailor's life. He lived in un inland town on the Great Lakes, and was possessed with a boyish infatuation for a ship. Unuble to take any interest in his studies at school, he prevailed upon his relatiyes to allow him to drop his books and to ship on board a lake steamer. "You will be glad enough to go back to school in two or three weeks," his uncle remarked to him.

.. But that was a mistake. The box sailed up and down the lakes for two or three years before he was wears of life before the mast. Even then he had no desire to return to school. When he left his ship he entered a sallor's life had made him restless and Harkin' with all her might for fear

At last the 'tinsmith's apprentice came to himself. He had deliberately ashamed of his ignorance. "I'll go back to the water," he said carry me into college." Returning to the Lakes he shipped But I hear you've come out on us mute of a vessel, studied during his loisure hours, and saved every dollar of his earnings. He had a motive now for his occupation, and he And now you are comin' to get her was the happlest man affect. "I am sailing into college before the wind," he told his friends. "I shall passed his examinations and entered college. With the disadvantages of an inadequate preparation he had at first a low standing in his class, but so resolute was his determination to succood that he outstripped all his companions and was valedictorian at the end. He made several lake voyages during vacation seasons to replenish his savings, and by prudent management paid his way through college. His brilliant record brought a tutorship within his reach, and before long he Ah. Davie, you know the path from was a college professor with the promise of a useful career. A ship was a strange training-school for a professor's lecture room, yet ! served the purpose when precious years of his youth had been wasted For you know 'tis needful in shippin' in an employment for which he was unsuited, although it had exercised a To potent fascination over his imagination. The professors experience was an exception to the rule that boy's For she wants you all to herself a caprice for sea-life ought not to be indulged when it involves sacrifice of So light you down at the old olm here. education and sheer waste of oppor-

THERE'IS SOMETHING BETTER

A year ago an employee in an ordinary position in a large concern said to himself. There is something better in me than this, and I'm going to get it to work for me!" He didn't. wait for his resolve to weaken or his enthusiam to grow cool, and although a wife and two children were dependent upon him, he threw up his job then aspect of things at this corner seemed the Post Office Department called upon and there and started out for himself. strangely unfamiliar. Something ap- him. To-day this man is doing splendidly peared to be lacking, and it took me in a business of his own, all because he had the faith to act on the belief than there was something better in spruces which I had been accustomed each operation connected with the him than he had been called upon to to seeing there for the past sixty or missing letter?". use in his dependent position as an seventy years were gone. For some "With pleasure. I sit here. I take a ordinary employee.

Thousands of bright, ambitious Thousands of origin, and that decided to cut them flown.

Ithere is something better in them than they are using, but doubts, the fears of ridicule if they should fail, hesitation since the late Thomas C. Moore Then I seal them all up as you now ridicule if they should fail, hesitation to assume unaccustomed responsibility, to take the risk of starting out for themselves, pulling up stakes and risking everything on the chance of succeeding—prevents them from acting on their belief that there is something on their belief that there is something better in them. So they hang on lilics and other shrubs. These were night."

So they hang on year in and year of the late Thomas C. Moore Then I seal them all up as you not to the late Thomas C. Moore Then I seal them all up as you not see me do."

"Just so; and what next?"

"Why, my clerk comes in and clears of my desk for the post."

"Here not only planted apruces, but maples, balm of gleads, ashs, elms and the post dest, not go out before night."

"It was pretty when they were young."

"Oh, yes, of course. I quite, forgot to their jobs, hang on year in and year all very pretty when they were young. "Oh, yes, of course. I quite, forgot out, every year thinking that the next They made quite a hedge along the to say that a money letter, for greater year they will surely start out for prederick Street and Bower Avenue security. I but in a terthand drawer," themselves, but the years go on and sides. When they grow up to mature "Which one?" size there was quite a dense growth. "Which My, this one. I open it clutch of a habit which, day by day. When the late John Bharp retired so, and [-Bless my soul! Goodness find it practically impossible to break feel that there is something bigger and but they gradually grew fewer. When hetter in you than you have been use in gradually grew fewer. When he is 'indignant and 'emphatic. Good! Ing; if you feel that you have not yet done the best thing possible in you. planted more maples. But the big The activities of the ordinary kill-why don't you have a heart to heart maple at the corner was planted by joy we know. The fraternity are out is clamoring for 'expression.-O. B. than now. Marden.

PAPER MONEY'S SHORT LIFE

and so, is not so quickly worn out.

liank keeps on hand a constant supply went there to reside. H. P. Moore tuble for ten. Mother will be so surof $500,000,000—think of it, half a billion dollars—in new paper money just Mrs. Moore made that their home for "Never du that again, Mona! If you for the purpose of replacing worn out fourteen years. In the meantime had of broken a cup I should have currency sent in by banks of the New Moorecroft was built, and when com-been very upset!"

York district. At present, there is pleted Mr. and Mrs. Moore and their To-day, without knowing or meanabout four and one-half billion dollars son, E. J., went there to reside. Mr. ing it, you may have acted as such a circulating in the United States. Of James McIntosh, the present owner, kill-foy, Have you snubbed anyone? this amount, simost four million dollars then purchased the place, and for the Have you turned against the anthusiis in paper money, which most of us past twenty-night yours the old spruces asm of one of the younger and joyour prefer because of its lightness and have gullantly waved their evergreen your older, perhaps cynical wisdom? convenience. In the large cities, silver plumes over the domicile, where they dollar are seldom seen or given in the change; so paper notes are on almost divine who covery visiting Raptist. Then you are a kill-joy. Anything money, but this process rather inreal purpose of this haundrying is to prevent the passing of so many discussed garms. Worn out paper money is sent to Washington, where it is put linto a management of the paper linto a management of the paper. The paper linto a management of the paper linto a linto a management of the paper linto a lint into a macerator that converts . It into a useless pulp. If we did not use THE OLD ELM OF NEWBURY . so many checks in our business, paper This is the obliquery of a tree. An-

Over the Hills to Newry

Klek-klek, there, Bessie, Go 'long, go And lift your .feet, Ketury; for the baggage is stowed and ahead's the road

That's over the hills to Newry. seem to know how the Dann boy feels le's smilin' there on the hinder seat tinumith's shop, and worked away at Hand at her for rard and one at her winters have treated more kindly. Edward, the older and the heir, as-She'll miss the ruckle-te-chuckle roar neglected his 'education' and was O Dunn boy, Dunn boy, how've ye ben Down in the city a-tusslin' men? "Twas hard at the first! That's right, to himself, "and earn enough money to Slippery footin' till loca got sot; Bumps and bruises until you won. · Dave Dunn. Good for you, that you've got holt-Klek-klek, there, Bessle, go 'long there, Ah. lad, you've been loved since you True to you over as needle to pole, come to anchor by and by, and enjoy Lovin' and longin' with all of her soul; Eyin' my stage when it rumbled by, At the end of another season he With a bank'rin" gaze and a wishful

the big old packet for me You may leave it to-night at this Follow it in. At the grove take care straight.

She's over there waltin'. God blass Kick-kick, there Bessie! Go long, go

And atir your hoofs, Ketury. wish 'twas me for that old elm tree Inflead of bound to Newry. . . OLD LANDMARKS REMOVED day as I took a walk down Bower mailed from this office, containing some Avenue, when I reached the corner of hundreds of pounds in Bank of Eng-Frederick Street at "The Maples." The land notes. Finally un expert from some time to study out the cause. I have an object in what I ask. Will finally found that the two stately you kindly sit at your desk and recall time the tollage has been confined to bleet of this note paper and one of decided to cut them down.

grows stronger and stronger until they from farming and bought this property, mel I am very sorry for all the trouble over fifty years ago he out out about I've given. Here is the letter! every other tree, claiming they made Just think this over, and see if it the house damp. A good many citizens isn't true in your own case. If you thought he was stashing out too many.

talk with yourself and see what is his uncle when he planted the spruces, to spoil in the mass, all innocent fun holding you back? Why don't you None but maples are now left, and the and galety, But there are other killfind it? Don't wait until it is top late. name which the property has joys. These are not organized; they Now is the time to find and bring out borne for more than forty years. "The don't seek to spoil the fun of crowds. the larger man or woman within that Maples," was never more appropriate Their line is to take the joy out of in this property the old apruces lent their tent. But the effect is exactly the shade to only six families. Thomas C. same. Moore, who was a carpenter and build- | Some parents are kill-joys. Thuy How long' does paper money last? er, erected his home there., After he are too particular with their children. This is a hard question to answer, un and Mrs. Moore had resided there for too careful, too much concerned. A less you name the part of the United a number of years, they removed from childish game in which angels might States in which the money is being town, and John Matthews and family join is brought to a sudden halt. used. For instance, in New York city lived there for a time. The place was "Bobby, you mustn't do that!" "Elslo, money changes hands so much faster then sold to John Sharp. Mr. Sharp little girls should not tear around as than any other place in America that built the house at the corner of Church if they were little boys. Hit down a five dollar bill is worn out in about and John Streets, and went there to quietly at once!" eight months. A one dollar or two live. Mr. and Mrs. James Moore were . The joy is killed.

dollar bill will not last nearly this the next possessors of this home. If. Uncle gives Tommy a quarter, and long, but a ten dollar, twenty dollar, think hearly all the members of their Tommy with great joy, pictures what or a hundred dollar is not handled as family were born there. While resid- he will buy. But a kill-joy perent inoften us the smaller denominations, ing there the brick house, which is now sists that the money must be put it and so, is not so quickly worn out. Dr. Nelson's home and surgery, was the savings box. The New York Wederal Reserve built for them, and Mr. and Mrs. Moore Little Monu, with great joy, lays the divine who came to town to officiate which dackens the sun of Youth, or Just recently a new machine has on special occasions to the congrega- causes shining, eager eyes to cloud; or been installed for "washing" soiled This record of the passing of the those who do the darkening, the cloudcreases the wear on the paper. The troos which have been so long with us ing or the like, are kill-joys.

and, which are the delight of the visitor and the just pride of the native. "The old elm of Old Newbury" fell n no reason to doubt the truth, by young thown farm. Richard Juques, when it was a sapstick. He had been calling on his doules her for my wife." / und defense. When he reached his own home he children's children.

tested it with the familiar tape of their charmer's home. measure always in his pooket, and rom thinkin' of one he's a goin' to admired its huge girth and tower of surprise and embarrassment, Phile- in such brimming measure the twelve scrawly writing! It was from Billy girl that's out at the gate fore new careful comparison with one or two "Let her be for whichever, you or I, and the children she refused to sit and read: With hand held level acrost her brow, other of his noble friends, whom the did see her first." 'alightly overrated"; but he relented mented. Of the whools a-laughln' tow-wards Judgment, and hustened to add that it the meeting than I beheld the girl, had just crossed over into his teens us kids happy. Ungrateful brats that was none the less a "stately vego- and loved her," said Philemon. . .

realize the history, the pathos, the Edward, "and at the foot of the hill, spruces at "The Muples" will be great- the meeting house; and I loved her." ly missed by many, and they will be

TWO LOST LETTERS

An English merchant was advised beautiful as herself. by his agent that a check for . six hundred pounds would be sent to him by the next mail. It did not come, and With her for a prize when you came the merchant at once made complaint at the post office. The postman on received, and delivered. He remempaper. The merchant's wife had pick- here. ed up three packets, and was positive there had not been a fourth ..

lighted on a litter of pupples. thought struck him. "Have the dog kennel cleared out, please." "Nonsense! Why?" "Kindly have it cleared." "Well, if it must be. Thomas, take out the straw." On the floor of the kennel, torn into thundred bits, lay the missing letter throughtout the year." and check. A current of air along the passage had blown the letter about; the pupples, naturally enough, had pounced-Upon it as a plaything, and had had a good time. Mr. Barnos, who tells this story in his "Forty Years at the Post Office," adds another equally good. A mer-I was greatly surprised the other chant complained of the loss of a letter

"Believe me, sir," the expert said;"

the top branches and Mr. McIntosn these covers. Then I write my letter

JOY-KILLERS

During their seventy years of life on do it without malice or deliberate in-

QUICK QUAKER COURTSHIPS

The Friends are usually supposed to victim to one of the recent gales. True, be more deliberate in their ways than / Every woman that Anne Gordon met had lived. She was so happy in and it was past its prime; venerable and "the vorld's pecipie." Certainly they on her way to church had one on. Mrs. so proud of the other five, Splendid beautiful still, but the storms of the are not impetuous, but they have often Tom-Johnson, plump and easy-going, young people, every one of them. last dozen years had wrenched away proved themselves capable of quicks a mother of five children, all well Maynard at the university, Bert, the a number of great branches large decisions and swift judgment; some married with homes and automobiles gentus of the family, covering himself enough, each of them, for a good-sized times even of what they are likely to of their own-and youngaters enough with glory at the art school, Edito, tree and the perfection of its sweep call, in others, the "foolishness" of of terraced ages to keep their grand - happily married; the twins, dear, ing outline was marred and malmed. love at first sight. Such an instance mother's mind and fingers happily oc- wholesome high school girls, favorited Nevertheless it will be notily initiand, was that of Amasa Holden, a middle- cupied knitting small sweaters. and the glory of West India Lame is uged bachelor, of reputed atggardly in striking contrast was Mrs. Rod- of thankfulness that they had all been habita and nustere appearance and man Griffith, who gave Anne a stately incked but few years of two conturies. Brown. The was a girl of sixteen, infinite credit to "my son Colonel Reg. in her secret heart, level more than Local tradition perpetuated in verse gentle, but gay, rosy and "of laughing insid Griffith." by the once popular but now almost countempos," who had come from t. A start of surprise sprang to Anne's "Anne, dear, can't you drop in this?" forgotton poetens, Hannah Gould, as | distant town to visit her uncle and eyes when she saw that Mrs. Jessica afternoon?" said Mrs. Tom Johnson, signed to it a pleasing history. It aunt and had accompanied them to Neshit wore a carnation, too. Presi- waiting for her after service. "Total stood before the Juques house, next meeting, prettily shepherding their dent, of the Federation of Women's children are all coming over, and 32 the entrance gate, plunted, there, ac- flock of seven children. Early the very Clubs, head of the Mobilized Women haven't seen Harriet's boy since If cording to the story, of which there is next morning. Amusa called at the of Middleton, Secretary of the Wes- got back, or Jim's Susle with her & to be carried in the hand as a walking her, to be both comely and amiable. I mother. And as her mining engineer sweetheart. Elizabeth Knight, and "Friend Amusa," was the prompt missionary daughter in China only be rubbing it in more than she could having to return late by a lonely roud, and placid reply, "my niece Rachel came home on furlough once in seven lighted only by the uncertain russ of has also seen thee, and tigs perceived yours, there was some excuse for rethe moon and shadowed doeply much thee to be neither the one thing nor missness of memory. of the way, he pulled up the little elm. the other that thee has named. Neverun unregarded growth by her door, theless, I will ask her if she desires a tender light-misty with .. tears. and took it with him by way of staff thee for a husband."

Needless to say, Rachel did not.

recalled, with a arcity touch of schil- choice and prompt wooing of a sulter lay sleeping in France. ment, the place whence the little tree of colonial days for a fair Quakerery Anne Gordon was deeply religious came, and instead of casting it aside of Maryland. Barah Covington. As But during the church service that her planted it. The little green sprig the tale is told by Dr. John William morning try na she would, her saimlitted to herself how hurt she was grew and flourished, and in tinic shel- Palmer, two brothers. Edward and thoughts wandered. They were rest- that "the children" had let the day tered not only the lovers, who were Philemon Lloyd, had seen and suc- less-like her heart-for that was the pass without remembrance of her-she married in 1713, but their children, and cumbed to Sarah's charms; but each form Anne's lonesomeness took. She who had tried so hard to be a mother The "Old Elm of Newbury" was one until the day following Friends' meet- rebellious: too wholesome to mope, nard? Edith? Or a round robin from of that wide and beloved circle of ing, when the two, each mounted on a But during the desolate months she Bert and the twins? acquaintance, all great trees so valued sleek mare and trimly attired in his had been back in Middleton since her by Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmen. He spick-and-span best, met at the gate brother's second marriage there were gave a start and a stare. Then the greeneryi. True, he pronounced it, in mon; the younger, made a proposition years she had made a home for Stove With shaking hands she tore it oper with quietly folded hands.

Little do those who plant trees ing at the Peach Blossom Farm," said ness. . The spirit of motherhood, the our hearts, we sure appreciated what sentiment which will naturally sur turning into the gate at the water mill, police through a woman's heart when round them during the succeeding de- I saw this girl on a pillion behind her it gives itself out in loving and spect- something off my chest that's been accades of their life time. The old father, and they inquired the way to jug love in return; the practice of cumulating a long time-to tell you Then Philemon rode back to Talbot, and Edward dismounted at the gate and led his horse to the porch.

The lovely Sarah gave him her afbecame in due time his wife, the mis- of bloom. tress of . Wyo House and many broad And suddenly a most ridiculous pic-

ORDER A THOUSAND CARS

With the placing of a large order of that route was called in by the post- freight and passenger equipment all spanking she administered?" mused got a job on a cattle range out here, master, and in answer to questions to be built for Canada, for use on the Anne, with a new swing to her truant and like it fine. I'm making good said that the missing packet was duly Canadian lines of the system, the Cap- thoughts; the hot anger that commit- wages, and, for the first time in his adian National Railways are preparing ted her to the deed; the benumbirg life, little Willie's saving something And she said. "If you're bringin' a bered it distinctly-its shape, color for the summer and autumn traffic stagefright when she began the un- every month. For Aunt Anne, I don't and postmark. As his habit was, he which it expects will break all dertaking; the physical difficulty with always intend to be somebody else's had poked it under the house door, records this year, says a statement her slim strongth pitted against the hired man, but as soon as I can buy with two other letters and a news- issued from the C. N. R. headquarters struggling and shricking Billy-for, of a little patch of ground of the pasture

> An order for one thousand sixtyorulpment of the system, says the ment and a heartache. statement, which continues:

ANNE GORDON'S WHITE CARNA-

The exact and of the ancient tree dementor, when his eyes first fell upon how from the opposite sidewalk, tall, days of her failure in Hilly's case; was not known, but it could have the levely place of his neighbor, Joshus hundsome, patrician, a mother who did lilly, whom she yearned over most man's Suffrage Union, Mrs. Jessica bobbed." "Friend Joshua." He said, "I have was prominent in so many other things ling, slender, light, and single enough seen thy ninge Rachel, and I perceive one sometimes forgot she was also a son lived in Africa and her medical

The name eyes suddenly softened to I'tnned with the white carnation that Mrs. Avery wore wan, an inconspicu-Better fortune attended the swift our little flag in honor of her boy who times when her longing for the love blood sprang in a flood to her cheeks. When they had recovered from their and companionship that had been here There could be no doubt about that

In caring for Steve's six children from Julie and Judy, the cunning two- of you-dear little auntie-mother who the moment that he had pronounced No sooner had I taken my place in year-old twins, up to Maynard, who spent yourself so unstintingly to make when she went to them, Anne had we often were, yours truly leading the "I passed the night before the meet- known the mother life in all its full- list. But all the same, deep down to great, thrilling, throbbing joy that you did for us, motherhood as well, all the little daily that more than once when I've been so problems and perplexities and anxieties down and out the little game didn't -the mother life that had the same seem worth playing any longer, the spley fragrance wafted all about Anne dear picture of you with the mother as she sat there that mother Sunday look in your eyes and the mother smile fection, although it was somewhat less undecorated in the midst of the on your lips has flashed before me

> Griffith scated opposite with "my son, your patience, your faith in me hav Colonel Reginald Griffith," a kjeking. yelling small boy, draped across her hold on to. knee, being spanked.

"Would she ever forget the first course, Billy was the transgressor. Poor, incorrigible Billy! When con- going on my own-ton box cars is being placed to add to science dictated she had not spare! The postmaster went to the house the equipment necessary for the proper the rod. But had it done any good? letters I have no excuse to offer. There There, there, now, lad-don't blush- and examined it carefully. Then he handling of the grain from the west- Had anything made un impression? is no excuse. But this much I'll say looked into the back garden. His eye ern provinces and these cars will be Punishment, reasoning, pleading, her by explanation, When I was down on A used almost, entirely in the movement prayers? Billy, the family ne'er-do- my luck I hadn't the heart to write. of crops. The traffic is growing yearly well, the only one of her brother's And afterwards it had been so long and makes hig demands upon the children who had been a disappoint- since I'd written I was ashamed As Anne, with thoughts as far away if I hadn't stumbled on a Mother Sun-

Mill Street, Acton

hands. For always would be the torturing doubt whether Billy might not have turned out different if his mother wherever they went. Yet in her cup uny of the others.

Anne Gordon made an evastve reply It was like Mrs. Tom to want to share her mother day happiness. But she bear. And, with a deepening shadow of andness, Anne Gordon walked home through the May stnahtne's mucking brightness.

"There's a special delivery letter for you, Miss Anne," greeted the old family servant, who had eagerly come buck to her on Anne's return to Middleton. Expectantly Anne turned to the hall table. Not until that moment had she was unaware of the other's feelings was too disciplined a woman to be to them. Was the letter from May

She picked it up from the table and

'Dear Mother o' Mine:

speedily won than his had been. She mothers with their white honor badges and given me courage to make another try to tell you that many a time, wher. I've been up against big, ugly temptaacres, and the mother of daughters as ture flashed across Anne's mind-that tion threatening to bowl me over in of the superbly dignified Mrs. Rodman the mire, the thought of your love.

> been like an outstretched hand to "Well, after some pretty hard knocks variety and a few head of cattle I'm

"Even now I might put off writing. These demands will grow as the as the far country of the wanderer day story in a magazine I was reading country becomes populated and it will from whom she had not heard for so last night, a whale of a story about a be necessary to maintain increasing long-automatically followed the gos- homesick kid, the kind of little tale numbers of grain cars in that area ture of the congregation and knelt in that sinks its bookers in your heart. prayer, tears stong the face hid in her And I calculated if I followed the guy's example and wrote straight off the bat could get a special delivery letter to you just in time for Mother Sunday. "With heaps of love-Billy," And that afternoon Anne Gordon would to Mrs. Tom Johnson's after all She went jubilantly, with head held high, a radiant smile on her lips, a shining happiness in her eyes, for she, too, wore a white curnation on her

BUSILY ENGAGED

A newly married man bought rabbit and asked his wife to muke i rabbit ple for his supper. He returned home in the evening expecting to find a good meal awaiting him, but instead, he found his wife in tours.

"Well!" he exclaimed, "what's the matter, dear?" "Your suppor lan't ready, darling' replied his wife, between sohs. "I've been all the afternoon trying to pull the hairs out of that rabbit."

JARS He. & Chartes Mindt all Bred Stars

How to Wash and Preserve Woolens

Woolen garments or articles cleansed with SURPRISE soap feel soft, fluffy, and well washed. Dry woolen articles in a moderate temperaturenot in the sun-and do not allow them to freeze. Sun is injurious to wool; freezing catises shrinkage.

"SUCCESS-LEADS TO SATISFACTION"

W. Kennedy & Son

PLUMBING-HEATING-TINSMITHING

The success of work in scores of Homes and Business Places in Acton is a guarantee that we are in a position to assure you satisfaction.

WE WILL APPRECIATE YOUR ORDER AND WILL EXECUTE IT WITH PROMPTITUDE

Sporting Goods

The season is here for real outdoor sports, and we are right on deck with a complete line of sporting goods of all

BASEBALL GLOVES, BATS AND BALLS . FOOTBALL SUPPLIES TENNIS BALLS AND RACQUETS BOWLERS REQUISITES

No matter what game you are interested in, we can supply you with all the necessities.

W. D. Talbot

Main Street Acton, Ontario

Seeds and Seeds

Now is the time to be particular about the kind of seed you sow. You can't have good crops if you don't sow good seed. Whether it is for the garden plot or the farm, we can. supply you with seeds that are reliable and with proper cultivation will yield bumper crops:

SEEDS FOR THE GARDEN

SEEDS OF ALL KINDS

D. H. LINDSAY

To Merchants and Business Men

Gentlemen:

Do you realize that you can make use of a similar space to this in THE FREE PRESS to tell a Purchasing Public what you have to sell, for the small sum of only

This paper has an average of 5,000 Readers weekly.

$3.78 per week or 18c per inch single column?

You may use any space you wish at. this rate, and change your copy weekly.

Come in and talk it over with us. It will pay you.

The Acton Free Press

New Lumber Yard With Builder's Supplies

False Economy

in our up-to-date bakery. With the quantities we bake, it is impossible to equal our bread in value at nine cents per loaf.

And for taste and freshness-well, we invite comparison with the best that is turned out. Baked fresh every day, and always sold out, assures you of the most wholesome and sweetest of

HAVE OUR WAGON CALL DAILY AND DELIVER

YOUR SUPPLY

FAIRBANKS' BAKERY

MARTIN-SENOUR

100% PURE PAINT & VARNISHES

For Every Purpose - For Every Surface

Write to Head Office Montreel for Free Booklet.

SOLD BY

It pays to use

No housewife can bake bread as economically as we can

The Georgetown Lumber Company Ltd. OF GEORGETOWN

Have opened a branch lumber yard in Acton, and will carry a complete stock of Lumber, Lath, Shingles, Sash, Doors, Frames, Interior Trim, Hardwood Flooring, Hydrated Lime, Hardwall Plaster, Plaster Paris, Bouver Board, Fibre Board and Cement.

We also do Contracting and Building, and will be pleased to quote you on remodelling or new buildings. Mr. A. M. McCann is in charge of the lumber yard, and

Mr. John Miller will have charge of the contracting and build-

PHONE YOUR INQUIRY TO 114w OR 120 AND YOU WILL RECEIVE