News of Local Import

Rev. Mr. Todd, of Guelph, on Sunday, May 11, at 10:30 a. m., will preach in the Methodist Church next Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Todd is one of the brightest preachers of the conference and will, no doubt, be welcomed by a large congregation. Rev. Mr. Hackett will preach in Dublin Street Church, Guelph, that morning.

Had a Stroke Last Week

Mr. E. S. Rice, who had a stroke last Wednesday evening, had a slight stroke, Mrs. Rice was ill at the home of their daughter, Mrs. James Whitham, at Burlington. Mrs. Whitham came to Acton and Mr. Rice accompanied her home on Saturday morning. It is hoped the elderly couple will be able to return home shortly quite restored to health.

A New Cement Platform

A new cement platform is under construction at the Canadian National Railway station here. A large gang of workmen from the Works Department are at work on the platform. Operations on Monday. Several cars of cement and gravel have arrived. The old platform was a well built one of heavy timbers and was in need of duty, with sundry repairs, since the erection of the present station, about twenty years ago. The new cement platform will be appreciated by travellers and citizens.

Acton Ladies' Base Ball Club

The Ladies' Base Ball Club has secured the Everton Dramatic Club for their home play, "The Yearling," to be given in the Town Hall next Wednesday evening, 18th inst. The play will be given by the members of the club. Mrs. A. E. Currie, and the five amateur actors represent: Uncle Billy Larkin, the retired farmer; Phyllis Larkin, his sister; Emmeline, Uncle Billy's niece; Mr. Graham, the minister; Mr. Dudley, the crook; Jack Watson, the lawyer; and Mrs. Watson, colored boy; Mr. Watson, a slave to drink; Beattie Lynn, Clyde and the Misses. The play is a mission play given by the Everton young folks in a number of places with much acceptance.
