Good Citizens Leaving Town
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rice held a diaper sale on Saturday and sold their household effects. They were loath to break up their home here, but the infirmities of elderly life required this course. They will live at the home of their daughter, Mrs. James Whitham, Hurstington. Mr. and Mrs. Rice have many friends in Acton, who greatly regret their removal.

An Old-Established Business Bold
The jewelry and fancy goods business of the late George Hynds has been sold to Mr. Milton, of Toronto, an experienced watchmaker and jeweler for nearly twenty years. The reason of a well-established business, which has been in successful operation for nearly twenty years, is that Mr. Hynds established himself among the business men of Acton, in the old post office store. He continued this business until his death a few months ago, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of the community. Only a few other business houses in town, which were established when Mr. Hynds commenced business, upon the estate of Mr. J. C. Hill and the boot and shoe business of Mr. J. Kenney Hill. The business was founded the following year.

Celebrated Their Golden Wedding
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Guntion, formerly eminent residents, celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Toronto, on Tuesday evening, June 10. The celebration was a most enjoyable affair, and was attended by many of the members of the family. They were married in 1850, and the event was further celebrated at the Precious home, where Mr. Guntion was born. They were married on June 10, 1850, in the old home in England. Mr. Guntion was an officer of the Great Eastern Railway in England. When he retired from active service he and Mrs. Guntion came to Canada so as to be near the members of their family who had settled here. Their many friends in Acton offer their congratulations upon attaining their golden jubilee together, enjoying a fair measure of health.

The New Platform at the Station
The Canadian National Railway workers completed the fine new cement platform at the station last week. It is a magnificent structure, and required nearly a month's work to lay it. It is 100 feet long and 16 feet wide. It is a most beautiful structure, and will be a great improvement to the station. The platform was reinforced with woven wire mesh, and is a most beautiful structure. It is a most beautiful structure, and will be a great improvement to the station.

An Enjoyable Staff Function
On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dill, Howar Avenue, entertained the members of the staff at a supper at their residence. Twelve sat down at this enjoyable function, which was most enjoyable. A delightful social evening was spent together. Mr. and Mrs. Dill were especially delighted at the opportunity of meeting the members of the staff socially on the eve of their leaving for a tour of Great Britain and the Continent. In the members of the Canadian Weekly News staff, Mr. Moore, who is on his first address, expressed personal satisfaction with the spirit of the staff, and the members of the staff, and said he felt very comfortable at leaving for overseas when he had the confidence of such members of the staff, and of himself to make the paper superior in his absence to what was attained during his absence. The members of the staff, Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

Citizens' Band Activities
Last week the members of Acton Citizens' Band, under the leadership of Landmaster A. Mason and president H. W. Wiles, held a rehearsal at the home of Landmaster A. Mason, and requested that he purchase any instrument suitable to his own requirements. The rehearsal was conducted by the band for over two years without salary, and this was in recognition of the fact that the band is now in its present state of efficiency. Mr. Mason, in a few well-chosen words, thanked the members of the band for their loyalty and support to him in his leadership, and for the recognition of his work. Mr. Mason is now trying to obtain various makes of cornet suitable for the band, and when the model he has in mind is selected it will be suitable for the band. The rehearsal was held in the window of the Howar Press office.

An Unusually Expensive Young Man
Last Sunday evening five young men would their way to a somewhat notorious house on Main Street, and were involved into games of poker. They played until bedtime, and then left for home. While on Church Street they commenced an unusually rowdy, one charging another with cheating at the game. These young men, who were dressed in a very expensive manner, came to blows, and had language very much used, and two of the number were rather badly battered. Complaints were made of the trouble to Chief Magistrate on Monday. He investigated, and as a result the three men were summoned before Police Judge Moore, and charged under the provisions of the Police Act. The men were fined $10 each, and the man who was the most violent was fined $20. The man who was the most violent was fined $20.

The Halton Agricultural Society has decided to hold a Bacon Hog Show at Milton, on October 12. The show will be held at the Milton Agricultural Society, and will be a most enjoyable affair. The show will be held at the Milton Agricultural Society, and will be a most enjoyable affair.

Official Bank Inspection
The Proposed Inspector-General for Canadian Banks will have Very Real Power
The Commonsense and a great deal of interest in the subject of the proposed detail of Hon. James Hobb's proposed amendment to the Bank Act, providing for Government inspection of chartered banks. It is to the credit of the Acting Minister of Finance, that he has insisted upon the inspection of the places placed before him by certain interests, to accord to the people of the Dominion such legislation as will inspire in them more confidence in the security of banking institutions than had been warranted before.

Police Court News
At Hampton last Wednesday afternoon Robert Deane, of Carleton, was charged before Police Judge Moore with selling liquor at Erin on May 12. The charge was proven, and the evidence was that Deane was engaged in bootlegging in rather a large way. He was fined $200 and costs, and is in default six months in jail at hard labor.

Magistrate's Decision Upheld by Judge
His Honor Judge Elliot, of Halton County Court, gave out his judgment in the John Towhee case, sustaining the conviction made by Police Magistrate Moore. In October last John Towhee, of Nelson Township, was charged before Police Magistrate Moore with having liquor in an unlawful place. Evidence showed that Inspector Howley and other officers had observed Towhee on the property on which Towhee had his home. It was asserted beside a path leading from Towhee's house to his barn. He was convicted and fined $200 and costs, and three months in jail. The appeal was allowed, and the conviction was set aside. The appeal was allowed, and the conviction was set aside.

Women's Institute Summer Meeting
Last Thursday
The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held Thursday afternoon in the Parish Hall, with the guest, Mrs. Wallace Leiby, in the chair. After a short business meeting of the Institute, the meeting opened with singing the Institute hymn, and words of welcome by the President to the visiting branches and all present. Miss Betty, of Hamlet, gave a reading in her very pleasing manner, entitled, "Gully or No Gully?" Mrs. W. C. Hensley, of Georgetown, gave two well-rendered solos, which all enjoyed. Mrs. M. L. Lowe, of Toronto, gave a very interesting talk on "The Value of the Institute to the Community with some splendid suggestions in the work." The President, Mrs. A. G. Girdle, of Georgetown, and Mrs. A. G. Girdle, of Georgetown, gave an address on "The Different Branches of the Institute." The meeting was a most enjoyable one, and all present were very much pleased with the results.

More Games Promised for This Week, and a Season's Programme Being Booked
The past week has been rather a quiet one in baseball circles. The ladies' team played their return game last night, and this time they were defeated in a tie, with a score of 11 all. The Georgetown girls put up a real game, and the Hamilton team had their hands full to keep them in place. The game was a good one throughout. The Hamilton team was called off for a Saturday evening. A game with Guelph Intermediates was scheduled for last Wednesday. Saturday's game with Rockwood in the park here should be the game of the season. The Rockwood team was defeated by the team by a score of 1-0. They met again in the Hillsdale tournament, and the Rockwood team won with a score of 3-1. Rockwood will have on their strongest line-up for the Hillsdale tournament, and Acton is expected to win.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM ANDERSON

After several years of failing health, death came suddenly to one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens, Mr. William Anderson. On Monday evening of last week Mr. Anderson was attacked by stroke, and gradually lost consciousness, which ended in death on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Anderson was a staunch Christian, a member of the Presbytery Church, and by his gentle, steady disposition, his untiring industry, and readiness to help those in need, he won the admiration and respect of all
