The Arton Bree Brees Communication of the Arton Brees Brees Communication

THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1924

THIS GLORIOUS LAND OF OURS There are mountain beaks and passes wild with beauty all their own. There are mountain lakes and rivers mourpassable in draims, . There are near of billowed grasses, valleys thickly flower-sown, Cavaras where through midnight quivers many an opalescent gleater. Thire to grandour pust the puinting. levelmens the soul acquainting With the Thrill of things supernal and the calm of things divine-With the Muster Workman's turest manterpleces, grandest, fulrest-There are mysteries eternal in this land of yours and mine! There is history far older than the annals of manking, There are footprints left by nation of far ages, all unknown, There are traces of a bolder race and ... mo of lofty mind. The remains of whose creations outlasted cliffs of stone; There le legend, there is story, there is commune, there is glory, Where history and mystery their unclost lures combine: Marvels old with awe to thrill marvely new with pride to fill us. Ali! what it was and is to be, this land of yours and mine! Our cities are the wonder of the ar clent futherlands. Our far-spread plates are gleaming droumed-Now let us pause to ponder on the from Plenty's horn have stream; Let us honor our own mother-our own . Country-first, my brother. all lands beyond the brine. For the best gifts of creation God has given to our nation, treasures in our hands,

A MASTER OF DESTINY

Hearts with bonds of love to fetter took a position near it, and thereby tempter to me or to my father, and the cowboy said could turn on a dime blocked the line of entrance. "Miss." he said, "I've been setting at that table for half an hour, an' I job of rebuilding the mangers and can't get waited on. The young ladies ler, sharply. "You're right in the way." The young man did not move. "I've hour, un' I can't get waited on," he stable I could see the cattle in the me full in the abdomen. like that to the young ladies that's walting on table they'd take my order."

out of the way here, please!" he said.

"I reckon it don't matter whether over at that table for half an hour. un' I ain't been waited on yet." "Cive the man something to est!"

usk her to take my order." he said. proportions in an undecided way for I was a draft horse build; it was true hand on one of his horne. an instant, and then weekened. "If you'll sit down I'll see that you are waited on right way," he said. what's the trouble," he remarked, gen-large plate of corned-boof hash.

ANCIENT MONOPOLIES

In this day of trust and mergers, ing, to find that, like every other good and evil under the sun, trusts are no new thing. They are at least as ancient as the pyramids.

eight thousand years old give accounts gusted than angry. Again and again atrength on his right horn to keep his is a disturbance in equilibrium be- fusz about selling the property. Ham of these menopelistic transactions.

In the days of the Romans monopoly the buil was plainly working himself was a recognized institution. The Ro- up to the fighting pitch. man government farmed out taxes. I ran back to get a club from the The tax-farmer placed embargoes on broken scraps, but found nothing exmake up arrears in taxes.

distribution. This form of monopoly, I shouted to Duke in an effort to scare they would begin to tremble from the part there is diminished vitality. The like the famous league of the Hanse him away from Dick; but the bull long tension, and then they would lose hill has been climbed, the summit free towns, was for protection against look it for the starting word and lungcompetition from towns not in the league. It was in the hands of many dropped like a flash, and I saw the jerking his head suddenly when his ment of life, the descept has begun. element of such trusts as, are con- themselves as he met the bull squarely. he folled me. Then I tried to turn trolled by selew. Bur it was a commun practice of English monarchs to grant monopolics to court favorites. The most complete monopoly in the crusaders had to pay for ships to transport them to Palestine. As the

A FORMAL INVITATION

The Chinose servant opened the door The rest of the cattle watched the angry blowings, I rose from his head and found a tramp of long and varied fight with as much interest as I did: and climbed through the hay hole over my money and I'm hungry; very, very tion, us if he were the referee. hungry. Can't you please give me u "title bits of somothing to eat?" The Chimman comprehended situation at once. A benevolent, placid almost crazy; shutting his eyes, the as glad to be done with the strain as smile sprend liself over his entire bull would rush blindly at the other. I was.

do as well as unything." "Come lellday," said the hospitable he wanted him, with his horns against drove Duke into a corner and put the heathen us he quietly closed the door, the other's neck, and in an instant rope on his forms. Then I led him out

ONE OF THE GOOD-FOR-

tween the father and mother of a laxy yard at his best pace until I turned son, who had given up one position the bull into the stable and shut the after unother, and seemed to believe door. that working between meals was in-place again, is he? What is the trouble him over for injuries. There was only that I had a new doll. "He complains that the hours are which he had got when he knocked. "A new doll?" said her mother. "Why too long," the mother, answered. . the feed rack over with a swing of your old doll is as good as ever." "Il'm! I guess Goorge would like to his heavy hips.

The Bree Press' Short Story

An Impromptu Bull Fight

E. E. HARRIMAN

plough and were fairly prosperous. down smartly in order to make it enteof until at last I had all the care of

Among the cattle there 'was Offe-Horned Cherry, h cow.thut knew more sly tricks than a circum mule. Bughorn Dalsy got her name, from the fact that her horns, which came out in front and made a lovel circle until "pinchers" on large beetles. The with more wealth than Midas others all had names, too, but I shall

Timothy. The gifts beyond our dreaming which manners of a gentleman. Judge had a behind him to get him by the tail. white face and a look of almost human Let us tearn to know her better than white; and he was always ready to he almost cornered me, and I just sittingroum below. to this land of yours and minel the woods and ride him home. I length from the butl. -Lee Bhippey. named him one day after I had seen

> we thought him perfectly safe. One day in the fall I had begun the end, and left an open floor - about timothy hay and cornstalks. could be. As soon as I had finished to feel the strain. "Will you 'speak to one of them my work I was going hunting, and my I realized that, if I did not do some heart was light at the prospect. Father thing very soon to end the bull's atan' ask her to git me something to had allowed two days for the repair tacks, in one of his quick turns he work, and was willing to let me have would catch me. As he rushed at me for myself all the time that I could again I leaped us far to one side as I prictor, who came bustling up. "Move save on it. I had figured that I could could, but I had to wait until he was the open door in the south end of the peremptorily. "Let these ladies and I could get more fun out of half a followed me so quickly that I should boy of to-day could get in six. I was blessed with a big body and the manger, when I heard Duke on the horn. elbows squared, he was attacking a him with his back to me, his head > up over his back in a shower. the trouble was, and was evidently the bull dragged me halfway across structures, the fibrous envelopes and got the wust of it.

The young man smiled broadly at never refused to wrestle any man that right side.

standing quartering; but at the next me back and forth. The earliest form of trust was the challeoge from Duke he turned until I had twisted his head halfway are called the common elements. archs. : Assyrian records seven or his head high and looked more dis- thigh; I had to bear down with all my lies the physical alterations of old age frame house near the p'int-had a the food supplies of the provinces to cept a tapering place of one-inch In the Mildle Ages the trade guilds raced back to the yard I reslixed that controlled the output of certain arts it was a very inadequate weapon, but arms were beginning to feel the strain the powers of endurance are weakened, and industries, and also the means of it was all that I could get in a hurry. In the hollow of my clow; presently digestion is impaired, and in every than the hollow of my clow; presently there is diminished vitality. The merchants, and so had not the worst muscles on his thighs roll and knot feet hit the wet places, but each time . I knew that I had no business in his nose higher and to throw him as a that mix-up with such a weapon, and cowboy. throws steers-buildogging, so I dropped it and ran for a pitch- they call it; but his neck was too fork. There was none in the stable, strong for me to twist it any farther, Middle Ages was the Venetian control and the only one in sight was up on and I went back to my former methods. of shipping in the Adriatic, which was the haymow, afteen feet above me. Three times maral tried unsuccess-From the sounds from the yard I know fully to throw him by a sudden jerk that the struggle was becoming more on his neck. Then I managed to get furious, and I hurried back to the him; to turn in the opposite direction. doorway to see how the battle fared. And us he revolved I watched until his The two beasts were very evenly feet hit the wet planks. At that inmatched, and their feet went plough- stant, summoning every ounce of ing through the damp soil of the yard, strength in me, 1- gave a tremendous the head of a perfect maritime trust. First one would get the advantage jerk. The bull's feet slipped a little. When the Council of Ten were in and then the other. Dick pushed the trust gave another quick jerk and they bull back against the east fence, and flew out sidewise, and with a crash he then Duke got Dick to slipping, and struck the floor, on his side. forced him almost across to the west I dropped across his head and held fence. They tipped over the feed rack him down while I wheezed and panted. and the water barrels, amushed a bran At last, when I could breathe natural--It was high moon on a Monday, when must pall and knocked down a year- ly, the buil had coased to struggle und a knock was heard at the kitchen door, ling that was trying to cross the yard. rage. When he had entirely cossed his um in mighty hard lunk. I've lost all danced round to keep his relative posi- the long strain and my knees trembled At last the battle began to swing in walked over to the back of the stuble favor of Dick, chiefly because his ad- and stood shaking his head and blowversary became so angry that he was ing great breaths of relief; he seemed Once, when Duke was charging. Dick . After I had recovered from the exerthe shifted his position just a little; the tion, I went out of the barn and came instant that Duko's head wont past, back with a rope and a bardwood club "Yes, I'llke fish first-rate, That will the steer swung and caught the bull about the size of a baseball but. With off guard. Dick had him then where those in hand I entered the stable,

It was all over except the shouting Au dxchange reports a colleguy be- then, for Dick chased Duke round the

/A wave of my hand in front of Dick wus onough to stop him, and he stood "He George is going to give up his still while I went up to him and tooked a baby sister, sold to her mother one work from twelve to one, with an hour After petting Dick for a moment, I am I just as good as ever; but the stood unmoved, but we're the bloom-

E had moved out to Manitoba put a rope on Dicke and fead him to in 1862. When he had been another stable, where I would jouve there ton yours and I had him thed until he had repented of him

As my brothers left home to begin life the staple. To unfasten the door for themselves, more duties fell to my generally knocked the book up with the hundle of the pitchfork. I had no 'sooner got the hook into the ataph than I heard a rumble from Dick and, turning, saw him lower his bond and start for me full till.

and I had little time to dodge. In fact, great loker, I stood will until he was within three bowed my back.

fight unything that were hair. His managed to dodge his rush by throwbelligerency did not extend to the ing myself to the left so that I struck to get the glass of water, I noticed human family, however, for he would on my hands. My feet described a half from the appearance of the stovepipe let me walk up to him anywhere in circle and I came up nearly twice my hole that there was a very faint light

I tried to rush to the lay hole, but half again as big as he. I was sure a half-turn and was skirting that side of the stuble at full speed. Dodging standing on a chair, getting ready to vulsive jork, it wrenched itself clear Duke Timothy was a three-year-old to the left, I made a quick turn and thrust the mouth of a long tin dinner- of the web, but left every one of its walking to the cashier's deak, calmly Ho had never shown a sign of usly made me think of the cow pony that > and have a nickel to spare. It is easy to joke about it now, but I heard a great gurgling and sputtering it was far from seeming funny to me noise, and the joker below went tumbthe entire west side of our barn. The while it lasted. Every time I bowed ling out of the chair to the floor. Y twelve feet wide by fifty feet long. was afraid that he would strike with a vanished, horn and all. planked over and a little wet. Through sidelong swing of his head and catch "At the breakfast table next morn-

I was whistling as I worked, for I them by efforts that wet my face with And my young brother, I found, was "Will you please stand to one side was as happy as a boy of nineteen purspiration and made my legs begin pretty effectually cured of practical graduates on its staff. It may or may Throw him a pie!" shouted another, all was grist that came to my mill. I half turn, and I fell heavily on my as to be almost unperceived.

"Maybe you'll speak to one of them of athletic sport practiced in the woods toward me. Ills grout head was fairly of one set of cells in the body for whether, abhor 'reporterial,' never young ladies that's waiting on table an' that I did not try, but, because I was over my body, and in an agony of another set: in the overwhelming and split an infinitive, and never write a rather heavy, I never could run or desperation I reached for his nostrils stifling of what are called the noble sentence long enough to the in a double The proprieur eyed his muscular jump well. My brother Will said that with my right hand and closed my left elements or cells by the common that I did draft horse work most of . I felt my thumb and two fingers sink into his nostrila, and, with a minute individualities of which the DEFEATED, BUT NOT DISHONOR

"swear," as I called it. That rumbling When his head was in the bent concerned in the performance of the fortune with both hands." It is equalbass Bood-uh! meant war. Dropping position that this manocuvre gave it vital actions—digestion and assimila- ly true that many people have a lion's list four minutes later, with his the board I ran to the door to see he could not use his horns on me, and tion, movement thought everything in share of misfortune because they napkin tucked under his chin and his what had disturbed him, and found he fought hard to free himself. I knew fact relating to corporest existence, choose rather to suffer than to inflict that this was the crucial moment and These cells make up the essential parts it. A bit of philosophy from the lips down and his hoofs sending the dirt resolved that I would not relax that of the brain and nerves, the various of "Cap'n Joe," an old man who was grip while I had any strength in me. organs, the secreting glands, and the rehearsing the news for the benefit of Representatives for this District Duke heaved his neck and stamped his heart and other muscles of the body. a summer boarder is worth repeating. in wonder. I could not make out what feet, and all the while blow his breath They are called the noble elements or "You 'remember Noel, Adams," said had angered him until I noticed Dick, over me like what blast from a furnace, cells. The other, set comprises the he. "Well, he had trouble with his I struggled to my knees, and at once framework of the body, the bony pardner about their schooner, Noel he > round, and held it across my . left head in that position. Round and tween these two sets of cells. The got the west of it." round we whirled on the wel planks, common cells are the hardler. They at times we got on the dry flooring have nothing to do but to grow, and tunate," said the visitor. ut the next ferk to the wet purt. horn for a second, but I know that I functions of the aged are disturbed.

Barney walked up until his head was the manger and lay down on the loose . "I've been travelling," he said, "and within two feet of the belitzerents and hay in the barn; my arms ached from under mv. Duke rose to his feet, > he had whirled the bull half round through the yardful of cuttle and off and was at him in his most vulnerable to the other stable, where he remained until we sold him a month later.

"Well, answered the little lady, "so

GADRIEL'S TRUMP

A cortain excellent lidy of Boston has so great a horror of practical jokes lying in a hammock, reading, one warm Chicago told his pupils that he should and all other sorts of fooling levity afternoon, when his attention was at- consider them educated, in the best which does not regard the rights and tracted by a loud buzzing directly sonse of the word, when they could feelings of others, that it was with overhead. On looking up to see say "Yes" to every one of the fourmuch surprise that her friends recently what was the matter, he found that teen questions that he should put to heard her avow that she once, in her a big fly, with legs twice as long as them. It may interest you to read youthful days, perpetrated a practical its body had become entangled in a the questions. Here they are: juke of her own. "Ah," said a young spider's web. mun who was present, "so when you! The fly struggled to free itself, bu were young you believed in practical the web, though bent and stretched. Jokes yourself?" "Not at all," she an- would not break. The only parts of swered. "I merely believed in curing the my which did not become engaged young men of the practice of perpe. Were those tremendous legs.

"Well, I was sevention years old, make, a closer Inspection. and was probably about as timid as The fly was making every effort to most girls of my uge. There had been recape. Its legs were whirling round reached the uge of ninoteen sins. I fastened the door on the inside a revival of the Millerite excitement and round like the arms of an oldwe died sixty-live acres under the with an Iron book that I had to push in our seligiborhood, and some people fashloned windmill, while the contornightly expected to hear the sound of tions of its body shook the whole web street? (Jubriel's trumpet, announcing the and like an earthquake. The spider seemof the world.

young man.

that if I should hear a horn blow in constully carried out. the night I should be frightened out But a spider rurely gives up, and of my with 'I was foolish-enough to after a few moments of meditation inches apart, reminded me of the quickly on the balls of my feet and was just getting over a mild attack short time so many of the threads of the measles. He was somewhat had been wrapped around the legge of He went past me so close that one troublesome in the night, and occa- the fly that they were no longer able mention, only the three steers-Dick, born caught in my half-buttoned sionally called for a drink of cold to kick. Judge and Barney-and the bull, Duke Waistcoat and ripped two buttons off. water. It fell to my lot to take care As his head hit the post at the side of of the child; and in getting him the Dick was tall and red, with the the door a resounding thump, I sprang water I had to pass through a darkoned chamber, in the floor of which a But I was not quite quick enough, stovepipe hole had been left open to solemnity. Harney was black and He whirled to the right so swiftly that allow heat to come upstairs from the he is helping to hoist's sail; and at

> "As I passed out through this room in the room below. . I went on out.

A young man, evidently from the Country, and patiently at a table in a down-town restaurant for many minutes, says the Chicago News. The deer and his head was up high all the succeeding that I very nearly ran on "I took a step or two which he could waitresses, busy with customers, who lime except when he was grazing or his horns as he whipped round at me. hear, and up came the mouth of the waltrosses, busy with customers, who the came the mouth of the looked more fruitful of tips, passed challenging. He was a handsome kor an animal of his size he could horn. And then, just as he was prescornfully by. At last he rose, and animal, and I was very proud of him. turn with astonishing quickness. lie paring to blow his fearful blast, I a microscope I might have seen genupoured my glass of water into the

> "Instead of hearing Clabriel's trump, lumber was piled up against the north my back to let one of those sharp rushed downstairs to make sure that horns pass my stomuch nervous four he was not hadly choked, but when sent a sharp pain through my body. . I I reached the lower room he had ing he looked so creatfallen that repeated calmiy. "Maybe if you spoke cow yard, busy with a good feed of . In quick succession he made half could not help bursting into a fit of a dozen rushes at me, and I escaped inughter, and had to tell the story, of the howspapers of New York City joking by the ridicule that followed this performance."

POSTPONING OLD AGE

do the work in a day and a haif; and close before I leaped, or he would have thing inevitable in life to one who lives long enough, it is the coming of old sign him to a place on the staff, when, day in those woods than the average not have had time to recover for his age. It seem, then, rather unfair to as if semembering something he had the middle-age reader to raise false He turned this time a little quicker hopes of avoiding the unavoidable by strong muscles and with well-nigh than before, and again I had to shift such a title as that which heads this unything to cut unless they have better perfect health. At that time I measur-like a boxor and bow my back as his article. There is no intention that luck than I've had. I've been setting ed six feet one and a half inches and head swept through under my breast, old age can be prevented. The only. weighed one hundred and eighty This time I did not recover as I should way to effect that is to die young, yet pounds. Hard work, and play that was have and his shoulder hit my side. I by right living the more serious sometimes harder than the work, had grasped for his neck with both hunds, changes of old age can be postponed toughened my muscles. My specialty us the only thing within reach, but almost indefinitely, and when they do was catch-as-catch-can wrestling, and missed my grip; my body whirled in a come their advent will be so gradual

-The changes proper to old age conthese suggestions, and then turned to challenged me, regardless of his age. I had no time to rise, for the bull, sist fundamentally, or at least primsize and ability. There was no form with an angry beliew, turned swiftly arily, it is believed, in a substitution

The colls-that innumerable host o About ten o'clock I heard sounds heave that took every ounce of entire body is built up-are of two of trouble in the yard. I had just strength that I had, I pushed his nose very distinct sorts. One set compicked up a board for the bottom of up and at the same time pulled down prises the nerve cells, the secreting cells, the muscle cells, and all those effect that some people "becken misprepared for some warlike demonstra- the stable; then I rose to one knee connective tissues. They are essential "Jim Dobson has been trying to make und one foot, singgered to both feet as constituting the supports of the his wife take up spiritualism. Ildn't He was halfway across the yard, and hung on while the croature swung body and all its parts; but they per- succeed very well. He got the wast standing quartering; but at the next me back and forth. Now the essential fact which under- lived with his brother-in-law in that I did not dare let go his nose or his killed off one by one, and thereby the The same kind of Yolks is always get-

BHE WAS DYING TO KNOW

A correspondent sends a dialogue service. The preacher had just read, "On these two commandments hang uil the law and the prophets." "Mamma, mamma," said little Erry, in a loud whisper. "how many-"

"Sh!" said her mother. "Hut, mamma, just one question, only

"Well, softly," answered the mother. seeing that the question must come, "How many prophets were there?" "I don't know." "Can't you guess?"

"No. Now keep quiet." "Were there three!" "Yes. Don't ask another question! "Twenty!" continued Eny, her eyes listending sworod, "You." "Then mamms, tell me this." "Hush!" "Just this," and by this time the little girl's voice was quite audible, how could twenty prophets all hang

The mother was in despair, and an-

REAL GREATNESS

An exchange give his story of a sompous member of Parliament who attended an agricultural show in Dubliu. He arrived late, and found bim. solf on the outskirts of a huge crowd. lising anxious to obtain a good view for himself and a lady friend who accompanied him, and presuming that he was well known to the speciators, he tapped a burly coal-porter on the shoulder and peremptorily demand, "Make way there." "Clarn, who, are ye pushin'T" was he unexpected response. "Do you know who I am, sirt" cried the ladisment M. P. "I am a representative of the people." "Yah." growled the porter, as he

A BUNCH OF LEGS

A correspondent writes that he was trating them, if I possibly could." The spider must have been aston-Tlease tell us about it," said the labed at the size of his unwilling visitor, and advanced cautiously to bel to realize that he had a contract "I did not believe in this, but I in hand which would require considconfessed at the dinner table one day | erable thought before it could be sub-make this confession in the presence this fellow made his plans and was He was not more than we feet away of my younger brother, who was a soon hard at work. I could see by his motions that he was spinning threads "It happened that at this same time and casting them over the fly's legs as the points were not more than four or four feet of me; then I turned unother brother, a very little fellow, fast as they were spun. In a very

Then the spider spun another thread about four inches long, and fastened it somewhere among the former ones. Grabbling hold of the free end, he began to haul, just us a sailor dues when every tug the fly's legs were drawn closer and closer together until they were all in a bunch hard and fast. Now comes the astonishing part of the story. When a person is in great danger, or near death, he is upt to and as I returned softly with my glass make a strong effort to save himself; hilm while a neighbor's steer that was before I could reach it Duke had made into the sittingroom.

I tried to rush to the the had before I could reach it Duke had made into the sittingroom.

a little extra squirming it freed its > spider! He durted down to the insigine diaguat written all over his face. Those bony remains must have contained very little of the juices that a apider loves so well. The logs were cut loose from the Web and fell to the ground at my feet. while the spider retired to his darken corner, where he evidently gave him-

NOT ABBOLUTELY IGNORANT

It is commonly understood that one has a rule to employ none but college not be true. Nevertheless a young man of good address, bringing with him excellent recommendations, and equipped for journalistic work by several years' experience, called one day at the editorial office of that paper. He made so good an impression that the managing editor was about to as-overlooked in examining the applicant he suddenly usked: "By the way, of what college or unl versity are you a graduate?". "I am not a graduate of any," reilled the young man, 'but I know better than to write 'pants' for 'trousers, 'pled' for pleaded, and 'he was given a chance' for a chance was given him.' I never use the phrase, 'in our midst. I understand the correct use of 'who' and 'whom,' and of 'shall' and 'will.' I prefer 'officer' to 'official, 'dwelling' to 'residence.' I avoid 'as to next the hay mow, only to swing back so they grow and strangle, the noble "Yep," agreed "Cap'n Joe," "But cells by their pressure. The latter are there ain't any change in the town

"What kind is that?"

To Sell Summer Residents

City people in the country for the Summer can be sold groceries and meats by Long Distance. Some grocers (and butchers) call up out-of-town customers once a week and get their orders. Deliveries are made by truck or express.

Some process urrange their customers before they leave town, to give this service. They say they can well afford to pay for Long Distance calls on weekly orders.

Let us work out with you a plan for the sarrounding district.

A TEST IN EDUCATION

A professor in the University of Has your education given sympathy with all good causes and made you as pouse them? Has it made you public-spirited? Has it made you a brother to the

Have you learned how to make friends and keep them Do you know what it is friend to yourself? Do you see anything to love in little child?

Will a lonely dog follow you in the

Can you be high-minded and happy in the meaner drudgeries of life? Do you think washing dishes and hosing corn just as compatible with high thinking as plano-playing o

Are you good for anything to your solf? Can you be happy alone? Do you look on the world and wee anything except dollags and cents? Can you look into a mud puddle by the waxelde and see anything in the puddle of mud7 Can you look into the sky at night and see beyond the stars?

"SUCCESS LEADS TO SATISFACTION"

W. Kennedy & Son

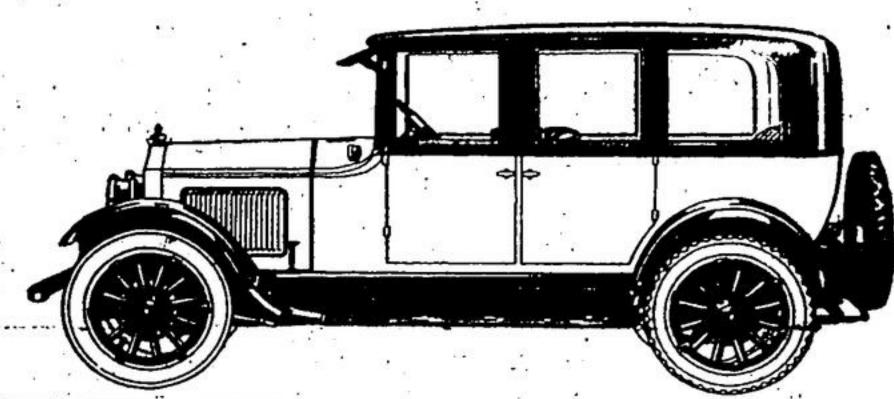

PLUMBING-HEATING-TINSMITHING

The success of work in scores of Homes and Business Places in Acton is a guarantee that we are in a position to assure you satis-

WE WILL APPRECIATE YOUR ORDER AND WILL

EXECUTE IT WITH PROMPTITUDE

RELIEVE THE RESTLESS CONDITION BROUGHT OR BY THE PRESENCE OF WORKS AND RESTORE THE CHILD TO MORMAL HEALTH ." NO NARCOTICS-PLEASANT AS SUGAR

MCLAUGHLIN-BUICK MASTER FOUR 24-37

Style and Comfort without Extravagance

DEAUTIFUL in its well proportioned lines and finish, luxurious in its appointments, this Master Four Sedan, because of its style, is to be found in the most select circles.

As for Comfort-examine for yourself the riding ease of this car even on the roughest roads. Feel the restfullness which its Chesterfield-like upholstery affords. Notice also the solidity and rigidness of the Fisher built body.

And this car offers you mechanical excellences that are quite in keeping with its more evident beauties, including the rugged, powerful McLaughlin-Buick valve-inhead motor, disc clutch, Four wheel brakes, etc.

The first cost is lower than you'd expect to pay for a car so fine-and the saving effected by its remarkable economy, its longer life and high resale value make it the logical car for the person desiring a fine car at a price which is far from being extravagant. Ask Us About the GMAC Plan of Deferred Payments

FISHER & KING

Georgetown, Ont.

ZEAUGHLIN-BUICK

The More You Tell--The More You Sell

The people of an active district like the one which this is the centre of, are always on the move---buying, selling, trading. There is one sure way to let your wants be known to the entire district, whether it is to buy, sell or exchange.

USE AN

Acton Free Press

WANT ADV.

THE FREE PRESS is read in 1,500 homes, and reaches over 6,000 people. Picture in your mind this big market and consider the small cost of reaching it. Your Want Adv. in THE FREE PRESS talks to 6,000 people every issue.

Want Adv. users are reminded that it is not economy to abbreviate want advs. Often a want adv. fails for lack of sufficient information. The following advs. are illustrative of this:

> HORRE FOR BALE-General l'un THE RIGHT WAY GENERAL PURPOR HORRE for sale. Buitable for sielly-ary or farm; quiet, sound; may be seen at Caff and look it over and make offer. This animal may suit