FAMILY IN THIS COUNTRY ONLY SIX WEEKS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Olbbons, Cameron Street, was sadly smitten on Saturday morning when their little son, Frederick George, toppled into Pairy Lake and was drowned. Little Frederick was three years and eight months old, and was playing with another small boy around a punt that was tied up at the water's edge, near the site of the old clubhouse. Mrs. Hullivan, a neighbor, noticed the two lads, and later missed the one. have She called to the playmate and unked with where the other boy was. He replied that he was in the water. Upon investigation the lad was found near the water's edge, in about a foot or two of water. Dr. Nelson was summoned at once, and rushed to the scone.
