

THE CHURCH OF THE AGED

When has there been an Age like this? When has there been an Age that called...

THE CHURCH OF THE LIGHTED LAMPS

On Sunday evening, while listening to a sermon by the Rev. A. W. Barker on "The Church of the Lighted Lamps," we were deeply interested...

LEADERS

"Ladies," a woman declared the other day, "is neither a fact nor a fiction, it is a word that is in the dictionary...

WHAT SHE TOLD HIM

"The pastor of a church in Washington, on leaving his study, which is in the rear of the church, saw a little girl, a friend of his, talking to a stranger...

The Free Press Short Story

Bread and Butter

DAVID A. WARREN

"Guzzled" Capt. Thomas Crawley, familiarly known as "Tommy," was a man who was regarded by his friends as a water front as a sort of mascot...

LARRY'S PROMOTION

"What are you doing with the little boy out to (Inglisway Island)?" The little boy, who was named Larry, was a very bright and cheerful child...

UNEXPECTED ALARM

The church at C— and a new Communion service, also of hand-drawn design, the gift of a wealthy benefactor, were the first things to be seen in the church...

HER LITTLE MISTAKE

A lady who has a great respect for the convention, and also an abiding fear of the mental angle of the "heavenly Chinese," recently went down to the grave yard...

LOOKING AN UMBRELLA

An umbrella that is useless in any one except its rightful owner may well be considered valuable. The New Orleans Times-Picayune has a story of a lawyer in that city...

NO TIME FOR APATHY

If ever the solemn and good music of the organ, and the sweet voices of the choir, were to be heard in the church, it would be at the time of the annual conference...

HOW HE BROKE IT

From the London Telegraph comes an account of the late John Chamberlain, the English parliamentarian leader. Some visitors had passed by the house of Chamberlain, one morning, and a very valuable plan was discovered...

HOW IT WAS DONE LAST CENTURY

Before Pasteur revolutionized medicine, many practitioners were like old Dr. Pillsbury. Dr. Pillsbury had a very peculiar way of curing his patients...

MODESTY DOESN'T PAY

Business men who know how to hustle believe in all the modern improvements in the art of advertising. They are not content with the old-fashioned methods...

Invited for the week-end

It was Thursday afternoon in the country. Ensignable Mrs. Main opened a letter. The letter was from the editor of the local newspaper...

The simple, sure way to keep that schoolgirl complexion

Youthful complexion are becoming the rule—even in middle life and later years. For millions now follow a simple rule—a method you, too, may easily employ...

Advertisement for J. W. Kennedy & Son, Plumbers, Heating, and Tinsmithing. Includes text about success leading to satisfaction and a list of services.

A Reliable Barometer

Advertisement for Roger W. Babson's business psychology. Includes text about his study of newspaper advertising and a testimonial from Long Disappointment.

Advertisement for Red Currant Jelly, featuring an illustration of the product and text describing its benefits.

Advertisement for Perfect Seal Crown Gum, featuring an illustration of the product and text describing its quality.