THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1934 THE TREE LOVER

Who loves a tred he loves the life the springs in star and clod; He loves the love that gilds the clouds and greens the April and;

ioul takes hold on God. A tree is one of nature's words, a wor poace to mun, word that talls of central strength from whence all things began, toward the deeps be whirled, d feel the clash of alten waves along the conflux of the eddies of the mighty-flowing world. his winding way may be. Bill keeps a heart that holds ohlm serenity. and an inviolate virgit soul that

BARRIERS

We smile sometimes when we hear the quaint phrase of Homer about not when it came to settling with the easylotting our thought and feelings got going physician. beyond "the bulwark of the tooth." often out of our power to express our matter was, however, that the over- fore feet still resting on the ground." feelings. What is it? What is it? modest doctor, undervalued his own Nothing that the doctor could do or full off beauty and thought and en- "But, James," Mrs. Bronson would rise. Aladdin would turn his head Again and again we have fed our souls worth; thusiam and hope. We burn to con- remonstrate, "It's all very well to take and look pleadingly at his master, as ing elequence. We know just what we Bronson's satisfaction, wish to say, are at no real loss for "I really need a new horse," said the Cloverly, he found it expedient, after words, feel sure that, if we say what doctor one morning as he stopped into his first, experiences with Aladdin's we have in-our hearts, conviction and his shabby buggy to make his usual waitsing hoofs, to inquire by telephone conclusion must follow. The hour and round of visits. The colt. is pretty if there was any likelihood that the the opportunity come and pass. We sure to give out before the summer is band might appear in the streets that may; and we remain as misunderstood The "colt," which was a colt only If, by chance, it happened to be a pointed in our hope of agreeable society looked as if he might give out at any the innocent colt; for a summer of barriers. We counted on giving ideas blind in one eye, and something was named animal. and getting them. Instead, we yawn wrong with his breathing apparatus. County fair week was approaching. shd go away empty. Lady Holland His owner drove him with the utmost and as usual the Bronsons were short to my imagination an agreeable con- without delay. wersation with a person where past ex-

Why? Because; of the barriers. The place at the table, so that you can laughtingly said; the front fence: lesson..df it is that what is true of road it while you are eating the beans "No," she said, "I'm, atraid this famare tongue-tied and find it impossible ting Johnny's leg."

Itake down the sedate and respectable still spirit enough to laugh?

But the little lady had forgotten she volumes that turn their dignified backs was thred. She had forgotten the antique of them. Because lips are duli is very fortunate. I've tried all spring nothing but the colt to drive all next upon the hurry of the present-day. and trite and trivial, it does not almost to wish that Sam Peters would week?"

The ways follow that souls are a Rehind the fall ill bub'it's been a great temptation.

The ways follow that souls are a Rehind the fall ill bub'it's been a great temptation.

The week?"

The week?"

The cont to drive an next to wish that Sam Peters would week?"

The week?" light and fire and secrets unutterable, think of who would likely pay his county are coming to the fair. Aladdin closely and conningty to find it out. deare, that Sam was not my only de- pretty hard on the buggy." Yet, after many long, value efforts to pendence, after all. This note is from burst the barriers or pierce them, how a man who seems absurdly grateful. er's hand an enthusiastic squeeze, "if often we are driven to the sweet words. He says that he has no cash to pay you don't mind we'll exhibit him at the of the preity courtier, Le Beau, in As what he owes, so that he is sending me fair as a carriage horse. They offer

Hereafter, in a better world than he says."

MILLING INDUSTRY IN CANADA him Dominion's Position Among

Royal (now Annapolis Royal, Nova horse? Really it was so long ago that "I'm glad," said Mrs. Bronson, "to Scotts) in 1805, four and grist milling I have forgotted, but'Il seems to me hear that we have one financier in the tin Canada has grown to be one of the that the man was in some sort of family." Absording to an early census there when his employer failed—or the con- even Mrs Bronson was willing to ad-Abcording to an early census there when his employer failed—or the contwere nine, milis in operation in New
There is 145 while the lafest figures paid in horses. His wife, a pretty those for 1815) compiled by the Delittle woman, was ill for months, eight filling Burchu of Sististics show 1,565 will sup 'the Carp road, at a farmthouse near Cloverly,—and those people their own exhibit. Even with his capacity of 18,115 barrels. The smooth that the woman owes seem to think that the family contained two. The mit that the family contained two. The three Bronsons spent Friday afternoon the family contained two. The mit that the family contained tw these mills showed a considerable in- "I guess they think right, too," said swelled with pride.

"Is this year saw $1.- Cicely, who approved of her father "Is this your horse?" asked a man, figur, as compared with 70,005,273 "Isn't she the person that you sat up pectfully."

Dushels in 1931 and $1,1116,330 bushels with for six consecutive nights when "Yes," said Cicely, who was for the in 1930; The production of flour dure she had pneumonia? You deserve a moment alone. "At least it's my ing the 1922 calendar year reached down horses a week for all the beauti- father's."

13.787.925 barrels, an increase of 2.- ful unselfish things you do."

"I believ 466-176 hearels over the previous year The doctor smiled gratefully at this the man, with a humorous twinkle in thing: and 4,480,409 barrels greater than 1910, tribute. For all the years of his mar- his eyes. "Used to know him real thing: the Maritime Provinces. In the early sensitive over his repeated failures its leaves.

tion; the daily output of the mills in ness man as he was a physician . . self on the ground and looked exits vimility totalling nearly 20,000 bare . The opportunity, however, seemed pectantly at the man. Again the Dominion's position as one of the great Before the doctor had finished his Aladdin lowered his head to mee: story about red tape. The quarter-

WESTERN DANADA'S CROP Travel by the Pastest Route

The special Harvesters' trains of the Canadian National Railways from all Optario points as advertised will make the fastest time to Winnipes, operating visty the new Lingtage gut off, the priest route between Bastern and Western Canada. Harvesters travelquence be first in the field. The first

Through solid trains will be operated to Winnings without obenge, consisting of convertible (berth) Colonist care of latest design. Lanch counter ours rood and refreshments at resonable priges. Purchase your tloket to Winnipes vis Canadian National Railways that disbanded in Cloverly last full?" rejuverated colt, "I don't know but to walk home if it rained, but to take no mailer whether your final deatintion is a point odithe Canadian Nations) or not, . For fares, train service. ston apply to mearest Canadian Na-

NO CHANGE

The Acton Free Press Commence The Bree Press' Short Story

The Doctor's Largest Fee

CARROLL WATHON RANKIN.

"Tis well the current of his life should too good for liancroft, it was but her bear and his wife might be in other ways, he was no have been? I think weve had a forfinancier. He kept ,no books, and in tunate escape." payment for his services was willing . The horse, except for a few poculiarto accept, in lieu of cash foes, anything ities, proved un excellent animal. He > arrangement; more often, however, it The townspeople soon became accustwas not, for the village people soon omed to the gorgeousness of his exlearned that it was only too easy to terior, and the Bronsons would have old doctor. They leved him, of course, circus horse, had it, not been for a has a particular flavor that it never -they could not help doing that,-but certain peculiar trick which he freapparently the village conscience slept quently played.

But whether teeth or lips or whatever reason he submitted so tamely to be donly stop short wherever he happenyou please, there is a real bulwark underpoid was because he feared the ed to be, and regardless of both harthere-a barrier that, however strange risk making his patients ill again by ness and consequences, would seat and subtle and inexplicable, makes it demanding his fees. The truth of the himself on his haunches, with his

vey those things to others. It seems it out in potatoes, but you know just if imploring him for permission to to us that we can convey them, that as well as I do that Timothy Pack stand on all Yours; but the bewildered we must convey them. We so into always sells his best pointoes, and doctor was powerless to help him. the presence of others and are dumb. brings us only the undersized ones that . At last, when the horse could no The dim and, insuperable barrier is nobody would think of buying. Those longer endure his cramped and unthere. We cannot throw it down or last ones weren't bigger than marbley comfortable attitude, he would cast overleap it. That is true even with You must stand up for your rights." a final reproachful glunce at his purour nearest and dearest; sometimes But the doctor, apparently unmoved sled master, and, as if abandoning all it seems perversely truer with them by these protests, continued to accept hope from that quarter, he would than with the rest. There is some- his patents' excuses along with their scramble to his feet and proceed on thing inside of us, that cannot be got offerings of wormy apples, wood that his way like any ordinary horse. The into words. Instead, we jest and triffe was full of knots, eggs that were doctor was finally obliged to use a and talk about the fashions and the more than doubtful, and milk that patent harness without any breechwas guilliess of cream. The Bronkons ing. There are crises when we feel that were never short of ready money, but Aladdin's only other reprehensible it is described to speak. We have a all their other wants were, in a meas- trait was his custom of dancing to the full plan made, of golden and compell, ure, supplied, if not always to Mrs. music of the Cloverly band. Whenever Again, how often are we disap- of age and old for his years, certainly addin out to grass, and would drive because of those same mysterious moment. He limped slightly, he was idleness had much improved that misone of the great social leaders of the tenderness, but it was plain that the of ready money. Cicely, with her elworld, complains, "Bo sure L' propose doctor needed a new horse, and that bows on the table, spent several even-

I shall desire more love and know- Bronson, with mild sarcasm. "He pro- there's no danger of his being overbably means that the horse is dead. looked." You had better see what you are ket- Aladdin did indeed attract much ting before you make any bargain with attention at the fair. To be sure, the way to New York, and the horse is he possessed certain fine points; no

"I guess they think right, too," said swelled with pride.

in deciding the location of flour was a better financier than she con- it." grist mile in Canada. Of the eldered him. No one suspected it,- . A stunted tree grew opposite Alad-1.366 mills in operation in 1922, 1,211 Mrs. Bronson lease of all, but the un- din's stall. The man stepped up to it. was situated in Ontario, Quebec and appreciated doctor was exceedingly broke off a switch and stripped it of days; of the lindustry Montreal became in the matter of fees, and he longed lie' touched the ex-circus; horsthe pentre of four and grist milling after a very human fashion to show his lightly on the nose with the stender and it has held its predominant posts family that he was a capable a bust- switch. Aladdin instantly seated himrais in 1917. However, with the devel- slow in coming. While every one ad- switch touched the intelligent animal, opment of the Pacific trade the growth mitted his medical skill, there seemed this time on the knee. Up came the of western points as milling centres is to be grave doubts concerning his ex- hoof, and the man shook hands with being accelerated, and there is every ecutive ability. All through the spring the horse. indication, that the industry will con- each bargain had proved worse than "Throw a kiss to the ladies," said wheat-producing countries of the meat, the horse arrived, and was his hook and flung an equine kiss to master's office at the army school, he purpole. tethered to the hitching-post outside the delighted by-standers, the gate. Impetuous Cloely rushed out at once to make his acquaintance. At light touch of the switch. sight of him, however, the girl stared Aladdin, with an expression of post- pect for its poutine into those who was quiet, but he certainly doesn't waiting for that horse to got tired of on fire... As she lived near the hospital. look it! Why positively, he is the sitting in the road. I'd have saved her first thought was to borrow one of le. "int-looking horse I ever saw." the horse might prove in disposition, all these months us if I were a terrible he was enything but quist in sppear- disappointment to him, but I couldn't ance; Hu cream-colored surface was make out what he wanted me to do." K-'s quarters!" irregularly marked with large red . "Well, said the man, laughing, "two dish-brown biotehes, his left side re- years ago, when I and this horse were sembled a map of the eastern hemis- in the circus business together, he phere, and a brown,'h patch on his was considered one of the brightest pital." mild countenance, shaped not junite horsel in the country. If you will sell the arms of Russia, gave his face a him, I'll give you sight hundred dollars curlously distorted expression. . He for him-mind you, I'm not saying mile beyond. Returning the fare is a was certainly not a possessing horse, that he lan't worth more. I'm not in Half & cent per mile into Winnipeg and and it was not surprising that Mrs. the sircus business any longer, but I Bronson regarded him with constern- happen to know where I can sell this extinguishers on memorandum receipt." ation when she, too joined the little animal und get my own price for him. group at the mate. "James," said she, in an accusing place next week. Maybe he lan't volce.-It was some moments before hundsome, but he's got brains, this -"was that man's late employer by said the doctor mildly, "I recall that all those undersised potatoes." that is exactly who he was. The man said in his note that his wife was ansaid in his note that his wife was ansious to get home to her own people, sing that he signif see his way clear to sell the home. No one in Clover to sell the home.

that his patients might be inclined to was gentle and tracable, a good traveller, and he seemed to be posses-Bometimes this proyed a convenient od of more than ordinary intelligence.

If his driver happened to twiched the reins in a certain way, the horse. There were those who said that the whose name was Aladdin, would sudand unappreciated as we were before. by courtesy, being twenty-two years gala day, the doctor would turn Al-

"Here's a letter for you, father!" onomy, for her autumn wardrobe was perience warrante-the hope, so sure am called Clocky, the Bronsons' only in need of replenishing. She had little daughter, as the doctor turned in at time for embroidery, and the only thing Emerson says, "We descend to meet." the gate at noon. "Til put it at your she even had painted was, as shu

"Then," said Cicely, giving her fatha driving horse a nice, quiet horse, beautiful prises in the horse depart. "A quiet horse! Hump!" said Mrs. noticeable horse in the country, so judges were rather inclined to scott "I'm straid," said the doctor, ap- at him because of his gaudy exterior: Rapid Expansion in Keeping With closetically, "that it is too late for but partly because there was very that, for the man is already on his little competition, and partly because being delivered to-day. Now what did appreciated by the caveless observer, From its humble beginning at Port that man's wife tell me about that he was finally awarded a second prize.

412 (49, bimbels of grain converted into with all her sixteen-year-old soul. stepping up and tquehing his cap res-"I believe I know that horse," said the man touching Aladdin's unkle.

"Well, I declare!" said the doctor, hours if I'd just been able to guess Clarly proved right. However mild what he expected me to do. I've felt any chance the proprietor of the circus as the family rode home behind the under instructions from his father not "Now that you mention it, my dear," what Aluddin more than makes up for At this admission the doctor fairly succeeded in selling one of his horses, beamed over his spectacles. Indeed to propose to his, becare t eye stantes sin. his record and fine and the doctor, the thick may the loved Browning and him."

Stipling and shalley. They what objet always believed in the first the lady answered. Similar town with a set what objet always believed in the first two with the set what makes make in the lady answered in the lady answered. The lady answered in the lady answered in the lady answered in the lady answered in the lady answered.

BY-PRODUCTS

It was Hers that first discovered that sister was making cake-cake with the afternoon in the cold and windy city of Mellelous Icing that was almost as nice Chicago. Thousands of weary, Christas ice/cream itself. And Bess, being man shoppers were cheaking the apthe most loyal little soul in the world, proaches to the car lines in the eager flow straightout to summen Bennie, dowire to get away from the crowded Three manues, later the two word streets and shops and get home. standing anxiously at sister's cibow.

of the treasure that adhered to spoon curucy, at her nose, and bowl. Miss Jessup, the Boarder, coming up from the garden with her hands full of sweet pens, stopped to want no tebable here." "A kitchen by-product!" sister called forming instinct asserting herself even laugh at the two happy, sticky faces.

ren believe the icing on the egg beater car fare left." into the kitchen. "That's precisely it," she declared. For days I've been trying to get it nto words. It's your by-products that are so wonderful."

"Remember I'm a country girl and resolutely into the crowd, boarded an can't understand the learned dislects." express and sank into a seat merci-Do you really want to understand?" fully vacant. "I should say I do! If you knew hov: out of sister's voice and a longing she had been saving for ever and ever slipped in that the girl never meant to so long! Why had she not bought that betray. The boarder smiled to her- gorgeous French doll for Slater, and one off the good times no money can saved the money to hand it over calmby for them. When they grow up ft ly to the hulking highwayman, who will be one of the things they will al- had no right to it, and did not need it ways remember. Nothing, I'll wager, half as badly as she did herself? Rot lan't the loing glone-it's because . "Anyway," she reflected, "it was my mornings on the doorstep and winter Just how much had she lost? From people all the time. Boarding isn't gin of the evening paper she began to supposed to include the freedom of the figure her accounts. She had thirty garden and sweet peas with the dew dollars with her when she started. on them; nor the dearest abaring of Horrid thought! Had she lost that vast home ways and things. It's all the sum? But she had put in a long day lovely by-products of yours that make and-thank goodness!-made many successful women I ever knew, Rachel and how much of a Christmas gift had that no one reads. To a certain extent Her neighbors in the car looked at her the definition is accurate. In the in surprise. Could it be possible that flood of modern books, who has time to anyone at the close of this day had all have read the standard authors, if harder until even the gloom-faced man. the memory of the reading, so that across the nisie threatened to relax his If so, it is our business to search bill with a horse. But it seems, my dances pretty well for a horse but it's only at school; and behind all the rush though it had been long forgotten. Here lies a great part of the value off standard authors. It is an exquisite saying of a profound French A TRAVELLER WITH A SUIT CASE writer that only in common-places and in well-known scenes is there Among the returning Americans who inexhaustible beauty. The great landed, one day in September, from an authors off the past of course have a Atlantic liner, was a woman who had value of their own; otherwise they spent eleven weeks in Europe. Hers would never have been prized and had been a memorable journey, for it handed down to us. Each of them had shown her how much-or rather, interpreted human life, as he saw-it how little-baguage, a woman need in his day, with wisdom and sympathy carry when going abroad. and suggestive beauty and truth. But Chance promoted the discovery their worth to us consists not only in Starting somewhat unexpectedly from their actual merits but much more in her Southern home, she was delayed on the vast spiritual association that the way. She had no time in New

READING STANDARD AUTHORS

Gray and Goldsmith. They would be lars, three pair of gloves, an umbrella Representatives for this District

Emerson and your grandfather and rather than to be seen, yet according The thought of those other and earlier landed, she was pleasant to look upon readers, make our own reading a vital even after her outfit had had more the heretofore been a determining fac- bition-te show Mrs. Brouson that he wouldn't be surprised if I could prove to the brance, Germany, and down into Italy thoughts in tedious hours; but Lycidas their trunks, I was enjoying myself lage are not only soporine but im- and had to buy another, but that is

"Up," said the man, with another its property, even to the most minute screw, that it has inspired great resyours ago one of the officers' wives the fire extinguishers. She rushed to ping the seeds and carefully raking away a fire extinguisher to Lieut.

the excited lady. "What shall I do?"

but, it is a most luxurious one, thought young Alfred, who went to a party

. It did rain, and great was the father's "But when I ride with you, you always make me ride inside. This time I went on top with the driver. Buy dad. I

MARYS LITTLE SHORE

AN UNPROFITABLE HOLD-UP

It was murly dusk on a December A freil little mother, her brain whirlwatching with critical eyes the teing ing with the confusion, slowly climbed the Elevated stairs. She was so small "It's all covered now, sister. I can't and so thred that she could not strugson the least hole." That was Beth, gle against the current; she simply "Scotns as if it's awful thick on that stood still and let herself be sucked inside. Don't you think you could to the great human wortex and pushed scrap off a little mitter. That was by the crowd step by step up the

At the top she slipped around the you two are here," sister said, laugh- corner into the less crowded passage. ing. "There, take them!" and she way to get her nickel ready for the surrendered bowl, spoon and egg beat- fare. As she opened her purse she namerted that, however able he tors. Where wouldern poor Bronsons, or, The children flew to the door-stop, became suddenly conscious of a pair taking turns in scraping off mouthfuls of steel directed with cominous ac-"Your purse, please, madam." said t voice, and no noise, pleasel We > gaily from the pantry. "Hadn't you over her fear, "I-I have to get home! happened upon it before? I think child. I'm miles away, and I aban't have even "Here!" grunted the man, and with a quick jerk he relieved her of her The boarder stepped across the sill bag and thrust a quarter into her empty hand. Her first impulse was to faint, but there was no one near to catch her; moreover, there was no one to care whether she tainted or not. Faint-Sister's pleasant eyes looked at her the therefore, would be wholly pointless at this stage of the game; so brac-"What do you mean?" she 'cried, ing her trembling kness, she walked

"Robbed!" The word throbbed long to understand-oh, everything! through her brain with the noise of This time the laughter had slipped the car wheels. The money gone that mornings in the kitchen. And that's the bottom of her coat pocket sho the kind of be-products you are giving took a stubby pencil, and on the mar-"Why-" Bachel gasped. And then little lady was frall and tired, but she were answer enough for the boarder, membered and set down frem after item. Then she added up her column no, that could not be correct, Again and again she verified the figures At the end she smiled softly. Then her as one that everyone talks about and smile deepened into an audible laugh.

showed that she had spent twentynine dollars and eighty-five cents; she had left in her purse just fifteen cents, and her little transaction with the bighwayman had profited her one

York to provide herself as she planned,

Now that it has been demonstrated

Europe with all her belongings in a suit caso, it is likely that husbands will muster up courage enough to suggost that wives muy spend a two

A HELPPUL CHILD

THE UNVARNISHED TRUTH

"Look, John, I found every been)

mission, for the hespital holds the fire army one night slipped out into some ed to see the accident pulled him out. The officer was very profuse in his thanks, says Harper's Mugazine, and

> ! The very best way you can reward autonished superior, "do you really moun that you wish me to say nothing

Launder dainty things twice as often, this way It's not necessary to keep your prettiest things folded and laid away. Wear them-often. Launder them just as often as necessary. But do it this way:

Use Palmolive PRINCESS SOAP FLAKESand see fragile crepes, silks, laces, come from laundering absolutely unharmed. 'Colors brightened and freshened, if anything.

The great foam of auds contains nothing to hurt the daintiest fabric, the most delicate coloring. It dissolves the dirt, however, most thoroughly-and washes it away.

These snowy, crinkly flakes contain nothing but pure soap. So they go farther, cleanse more efficiently. That makes it economical to use them in the washing-machine, for all laundering, and for every general household purpose. If only to try, get some today of your dealer.

He has them-in handy one-pound packages.

THE PALMOLIVE COMPANY OF CANADA, Limite

Valve-in-head engine-of course

Four-wheel-brakes -of course -and Low pressure tires

Gou must see jit~yourself]
FISHER & KING

MELAUGHLIN-BUICK

That Fellow Feeling

You are all wrapped up in the merchandise that fills your store. You enthuse over the quality of this article and that line. You probably display the goods attractively, too.

All you need now is to transmit your enthusiasm to the buying public of your community--- and your goods will move out and profits roll in.

ADVERTISE. / For 'advertising makes the customer feel as you do about the goods you have to sell. -Every time you talk to prospective buyers through an Advertisement in THE FREE PRESS, you are increasing the fellow feeling that, brings business to your store.

'An Advertisement is an Invitation'

"Librard by Canadian Newspapers Association

Heed Omos: Toronto Ognada