IOORE-In Esquesing, on Tuesday, August 19, 1924, William Moore, in Brown, in his 65th year. unt 15, 1924, Elizabeth Brownles, in ber 75th year.

CURRIE-At Campbellville, on Sunday, August 10, 1924, Margaret Anderson, beloved wife of David Curric.

BRANDER-At the residence of her brother, W. F. W. Fisher, "Shady Cottage," Burlington, on Sunday, August 10, 1924, Barah Jane Fisher. widow of the late James Brander. aged $1 years.

The Acton Free Bress

THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1924

Brief Local Items

-Free Passe wants adva. bring re-mills this year. -The home stretch these days is in the pocketbook

Burlington's is 47 mills. -Distance doesn't lend much chantment to prosperity.

-The height of ignorance is thinking you know everything. -Guelph's Flower Show will be held next Wednesday and Thursday. -Fall plowing and seeding are now receiving the attention of the farmers. -Well, there is one consolation, they say that the kmell of tarvia is good for

-It can be proven without insurance statistics that careful drivers -live

-The Council intends to grade Lake Mary Robinson, and her birthplace was -Motoristal Bay it with brakes at the last week.

couraging this week. -These men who always want to start something are never around when you want something started. -Beaverion greatly misses its town band which for so many years served its comfortable accommodation for the community, says the Express. -Noiseless motorcycles have been introduced into England. We haven't Agnew was especially exteemed and got that kind over here yet, evidently. was known as "Mother" to scores of -18,000 harvesters are wanted in the Canadian Northwest. Excursions leave this locality to-morrow and next Tues-

-Mr. William Johnstone has had new cement sidewalk built this week The few fair days during the week Mrs. Agnew was a generous kind From this statue as o enabled the farmers to get in their hearted woman. She was a member

-There is splendid pasturage this summer, and all animals should so into winter quarters in unusually good condition. -Out of doors the bird songs ring. tenderly, peacefully, sweet; and the flowers present their perfumed bloom. and hasten the summer to greet -In Hangver the dog tax will be $ and $6 in future instead of $3 and $4

They have evidently been having they laid her to rest beside her hustrouble with dogs in Hanover, too. -Fergus council has granted $100 to the Centre Wellington Agriculture Society. This was $50 more than usual and was given in view of the shortage of receipts last year.

Canada in a single year, according to J. A. Little last week, a report just published by the Dom-1 inion Bureau of Statistics -"Did you see much poverty in Europe," a member of the Canadian Editors' Party was asked the other day. "Yes," he replied, "and I brought ome of it back with me." -In Orangeville the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches have adopted the plan of having their choirs take turn about in handling the music for the union services in the summer. -Facing some inevitable selling the housewife can earn some real money by "searching the ads"-and the satisfaction of knowing that she has made grates are put into commission during pull on Friday evahlar at the home of Burns monument, said to be an exact Through the enterprise of its city coun- Social Bervice of which his uncle, liev. the midsummer days of August, but Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Surges, tenth line, copy of a Grecian temple. It is a cil the health of the city was greatly T. Albert Moore, D. D. is superintendthe cool evenings of the past week The music was yery tably supplied by beautiful structure, is situated in a enhanced by this ample supply of pure ent. Mr. Moore spoke with spirit and her purchase to the best possible ad-

-Church Street has been given a coating of gravel for a couple of blocks and some of the depressions at the waterworks mains and crossings been filled. Some attention to the street throughout would be desirable." -Newspaper advertising helps to Terra Cotta friends meet outside competition more effectively than any other known method of securing business. If used persistently by all business concerns it brings more trade that rightfully belongs to the home town, and more of the Credit Works School. profity to the local advertisers. -Following are the winners in the Halton Agricultural Society's barley competition, the fields being judged by J. A. Kernaham, of Maxwell Ontario: first, D. B. Ford; second, William last Thursday. Bix charges were Roy Ellenton; fifth, W. D. Shields. of the Queen's Hotel, Streetaville, was when he composed the world-famous very summit. At Inversnald we had ward recovery. sixth, J. H. Wilson; seventh, W. R. charged with having liquor. The evid song!

-The roadway between the town who was assisting about the hotel who limits on Martin Street, and the base had the liquor. No evidence was ad- How can ye chant, ye little birds. present and should be attended, to liquor was on the premises. The immediately. It's about the worst charge against Robbine was dismissed. Thou'll break my heart, thou bound ploop of road between here and Acton, but a penulty of $200,00 and quets was and there's a very had piece just entering that town from bere.-Milton Re- of Georgetown, was charged with as-

SPECIAL TRAIN TORONTO TO

ning, his mired man with a boa. Another charge against Wilson for nonneymont of wages, was bettled out of On August 25, 30, Heptember 1, 3, a. 4 and f. special will seave Parkdale | court. John Hawking, Sr. Streetsville 10.00 p. m. (standard time) for Acton; was charged by Constable Hisbry with Owing to tack of time we were unstopping at principal intermediate unjug professe language on the street, able to visit all the points in Ayrahire charm in the perusal of Scottish literdress and presented strong facts H. N. FARMER: Vendor's Solicitor

OBITUARY .

MRR ROBERT AGNEW

in Fairview Cemetery.

ROCKWOOD

family at Acton, has reformed home.

Police Court News

Police Magistrate Moore got down to business in earnest in Teel County imposed on Dault. Norman Fleming.

easiting Frank Smith at Bramnton, a ses of Caledon East, was fined $5,00 and costs for assaulting William Duh-

BURNS COUNTRY AND ROBERT G. BROWN For several months Mr. Hobert C. Brown, Mill Bireet, was in poor health.

though he said little about it. He was a train from Glasgow, the tourist, poetry to the world. Here, in short, their courage, for their championship in Guelph Hospital in June for a few after a journey of only fifty minutes, he passed the years that count for of truth and fiberty. All around the and a successful future, apply at weeks, but for the past month was reaches the charming seaside resorts most in a life. It was most interesting globe, where there are tongues to speak feeling fairly well. Last Thursday he of Gourock or Wemyss Bay, from to us that we had visited his place of our language, there are not wanting HOWN-At his home in Acton, on was down town and when friends en- whence delightful trips may be made birth, walked where he walked in his hearts to feel the charm of nature, quired for his health he remarked that by steamer up Loch Long. Loch l'yne boyhood and manhood, trod the bridge love and beauty in Scottish song. And he was first rate, but was taking good to invergray, the family sent of the and sat on its parapet, where some of this applies especially to every song care of himself. Early Friday morn- Duke of Argyle, or through the fairy- his best poetle thoughts were inspired, that Burns wrote, for it bears the line. Erin Township, on Friday, Aug- line line Clara, heard a land of the Kyles of Bute, the scenery and as well were within walking dis- stamp of genius upon it. The child noise in his room, and hastening to of which combines the protty with the tance of such well-known places in his of poverty, the child of nature, Burns his bedaide, found him semi-conscious sublime. and unable to help himself. His physician was called and found that he had suffered a stroke. Gradually ha sank into a comotose condition and or Monday afternoon his spirit took its flight. Robert G. Brown was born on the The Importance of Glasgow as a great we retraced our way to Ayr and thence Brown homestead, lot 31, con. 1, E4-party was entertained at a splendid myle. quesing, west of Acton, in January ecclesiastically, educationally and com- day's experiences in the home sur-1860, and was therefore in his sixty-mercially, was impressed by able roundings of Robbie Burns.

fifth year. He was a son of the late speakers of local renown, . . . . . . During our solourn at Gi Robert Brown. Until he was fifty he spent his life on the farm where he train out to Ayr, the county town of Rob Roy country. A special train took was born. In 1897 he married Henri- Ayrabire, the objective point from us to Callander, the centre of one of etta McKeown, of Erin Township. She which the Burns country was visited, the most beautiful areas in the High-

THE TROSSACHS

(Continued from page One.)

pre-deceased him in August of last If seems that Ayr and Burns cannot lands of Scotland, in a couple of hours. year. It is a coldedence that her be considered apart. They form a conteath occurred on the 19th of August, nected idea, like Stratford-on-Avon 1922, and her husband's on the 1st of and Shakespeare, in England, where locality:

| There are metrical and musical quali| partment. Mr. J. P. Jaffray, formerly
| the considered apart. They form a conties in the names of the places of the the latter. Mr. David Williams, of the August, 1924. Miss Clare survives her we had spent such an interesting visit parents. She is a member of the staff a fortnight before. Whatevers beauty of New Hamburg Public School. Last a place may possess by itself, it takes year in June she left her school duties on a deeper interest when we find that macher; to wait upon her mother during her a character like Burns lived in it. Ben Ledi, Ben An, Ben Venue. -Creemore's tax rate is down to 35 last weeks of illness. This year with visited it, or merely tode through it similar loving devotion and selicitude Burns drew us after him by the magic

Mr. Brown was a life-long member of the old bridge; for his sake no doubt valued shawls are woven; Bannockthe Methodist Church. When on the it will be maintained so long as its burn where the famous battle between pagty and gave us an expression of farm he attended the church at Crew- stones hold together. The spirit of Robert Bruce and the English forces sons Corners, and like his father, was Burns seems to watch over Ayr town. under Edward II was fought in June type. Parewells were said and we for some time superintendent of the Of course it contains to-day many 1314, when the Scots won a decisive across the North Channel to Belfast choir. His brother John still comples many he knew well, and whose disapthe scene of the battle of Sterling, for our visit to Ireland. choir. His brother John still comples many he knew well, and whose disapthe the scene of the homestead. The funeral pearance he would sorely isment. But where Wallace also defeated the Engyesterday afternoon was conducted by the quaint and narrow Ayr of the lish. Through wild and picturesque Neighborhood Newsplace in the family plot at Fairview the thoroughfares about the bridges | Callender and the Tressachs have x" on either side of High Street, especial- had cast over them a remantic glamor ly the lane which leads to the Auld by the great Scottish literary genius, Kirk. Everything in that section is Sir Walter Scott. Canada has hun-Acton's oldest citizen peacefully of Scot's history. Old also is the harparsed away on Wednesday morning. bor quarter; but as we looked through lith inst., when Mrs. Robert Agnew that part we could not help but recoated with gravel. A needed improve- Agnew, Park Avenue. Mrs. Agnew had member that Robbie Burns never saw put behind similar Scottish scenery. reached ber ninety-third year, and her a steamboat nor a railway. From all His "The Lady of the Lake" has sent health and strength gradually declined parts of this old Burns town the tower tens of thousands of tourists to the during the past year. She suffered and steeple of the Town Hall make very district which we visited. He little and was conscious almost to the last. Mrs. Agnew's maiden name was 1820, when Burns had been in his grave profitted from similar writers' effu-

their marriage the young couple sailed en away from the poet's description: from Armagh, Ireland. The day after others have made these show places he railway crossings, and save the for Canada. They had a comple sailed "Auld Ayr, whom no'er a toon surpasses familiar to every reader.

-Destroy the caterpillars on your their Canadian home, They settled in In the High Street still stands the Peaks to the clouds that see the caterpillars and their Canadian home, They settled in In the High Street still stands the Peaks to the clouds that see fruit trees. Cut off the limbs and Acton, and then for several years con- Tam O'Shanter Inn, new named of Corrie and felt where eagles dwell ducted a boarding house at Smith's course since Burns' day, but otherwise -Main street has been given a good Mills. Fifty-six years ago Mr. Agnew pretty much as he knew it. The poem, Lovest thou green glassy glades, coating of gravel from Mill street up bought, the California Hotel, which of which nearly every line has become stood on Main Street nearly opposite a familiar quotation, has made Tam Murmuring waves and echoing caves -The news from the west respecting the present school lane. This property O'Shanter more real than most persons the harvest crops are much more en- was destroyed by fire about the year of flesh and blood, and the visitor who 1875. About the year 1873 Mr. Agnew enters the inn learns without a shade the tutilitarian char-a-bancs, with Swackhammer and Mr. and Mrs.

> which he and his wife conducted suc- trusty douthy cronis; cotsfully until their retirement from Tam lo'ed him like a vary brither: business twenty-two years ago. For travellers the Agnew hotel was noted throughout this part of Canada. Mrs. travellers, because of her motherly cave and a stretch of pleasant country to temporary Roman camphighly her membership. During her declining years her Bible and hymn the wayside cottage at Alloway, where book were her constant companions on the 25th January, 1759, the post She loved her home and her home was born. The cottage—"the auld clay town and always was interested in biggin' "-of two rooms, the usual but Acton's progress. The funeral was and ben of Scotland, was built in 1767 held on Saturday afternoon, the serby the poet's father with his own vice being conducted by Ray, Josephus hands. The old house has not always Cuip. The pall bearers were Massrs. been so revered as it is now. Indeed. John B. Kennedy, H. P. Moore, W. A. Storey, E. Ryder, Thomas Rumley and But its authencity is undoubted, and W. R. Kenney, and with tender hands but little imbrination was needed when band and children in the family plot humble roadside cottar's home of a century and a half ago. In this home the Burns family lived for balf a score of years, the lather engaged in a stern uphill effort to carn the family's livelihood. This, however, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Johns and family, -Blessed are they who being mable of Clinton, visited with relatives in did not prevent him from devoting the canto: to take a vacation can comfort themthis vicinity during the week.

hours of evening, after a hard day's selves with the thought that vacations.

Miss Helen Barry, who has been work in the fields, to teaching the poet were present. After partaking of a warrish shrubs of birch and oak. of learning. Lake all true Scots lie. With shingles bare and cliffs between.

After visiting the Burns Cottage and Mr. and Mrs. G. Bain, of Toronto. and Mr. C. W. Crawshaw, of Man- the museum near by containing manu-chester, England, who was in Quelph scripts of his writings and Burns' on a business trip, were the guests of relics of one kind and another, we vertroshachs House, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. Edmonson last week, went along the road to Alloway, There Queen Victoria when, she visited the The new highway from Rockwood to we went to the Auld Kirk, the scene Trossachs in 1869. We passed Lan-Quelph is closed in some sections in of the midnight dance of the witches. order to allow the contractor to finish with Satan for fiddler, which Tam ick Dhu's clanamen, at the western Grand Valley, are spending a week or with the topdressing. The rather vex- O'Shapter gazed upon and interrupted extremity of Loch Vennacher. A fittle two with her cousin, Miss Marlon Reid. almost to his undoing-if we are atlous detours will soon be unnecessbelieve the local legendary tales. In the poet's time the church was siready Achray. The Tressachs Hotel was ly, of Toronto, spent Sunday, with Mr. roofiese but burials were still permitted in the churchyard. Here is buried Burns' father, and at the head Loch Katrine. Glasgow 'draws.. its spent Bunday with the home folks on

A number of our youar people were ory.

A number of our youar people were ory.

A little further down the road is the It was a great day for Glasgow, of the Department of Evangelism and have been rendered comfortable with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Niekle, of Lime- commanding location, and is surround-water. the flower beds-and worthly commemor- boarded the steamer "Rob Roy" and beth Brownlee was held here last Sunates the national poet of Scotland, the sailed beneath huge Ben Venue, and day afternoon. Rev. Mr. Howard, of be singer of love and patriotism, and in the length of the lake to Stronachiac- Acton, conducted an inpressive per-

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKeown and . Across the road, on the east bank family, of Acton, spent Sunday with of the River Doon, there are situated on an ornamental greensward, tes gar. The Gaelic name, Stronachiacher, depa, concert rooms, bowers and settees was a pussier to the most of our party. ing historical places. We enjoyed a very homely but appotising meal in the tes room. gardens one of the most striking above us, and thousands of Highland operation for appendigitis hat week. 40x27 and a fowl house 25x18. Eighty points of the river. Here Burns sat sheep pastured on the sides up to the He is making satisfactory progress tor scree of the sleep pastured on the sides up to the Harris: third, Geo. Agnew; fourth, heard and disposed of J. J. Robbins points of the river. Here Burns sat ence showed that it was Andrew Danit! Ye flowery banks o' bonnie Dogn How can ye bloom sae fair?

Thou minds me o' the happy days When my fause love was true.

boy hired to direct motoriste to a de- Oft has I rov'd by bonnie Doon tour on the Centre Road. He was To see the woodbing twine, fined $2.00 and costs. Samuel P. Wil- And ilks bird sang o' its love.

Free off its thorny tree, And My fanse lover staw my rose,

THE VISIT AT GLASGOW, THE line for a coults which all interested turesque and attractive country which in Burns' history would enjoy. Hero has served as a background and in-he grow from youth to man, launched spiration for their literature and herointo life on his own account, fell in ism. Succeeding generations have dulove and out of love, discovered his lighted to do them honor for their culown powers, married and gave his first ture and ability, for their valor and life as Lochles, Tarbolten, Mossgiel, is loved and honored by more than At St. Enoch's Station Hotel our Fulford, Montgomerie and Balloch's Scotsmen, at home and abroad.

ectors of the Clasgow Herald, at which of the most enthusiastic Scottish ada most pordial welcome was extended. mirers of Burns in Ayr and Classow. centre of human interest, historically, to Glasgow, feeling well repaid for the During our solourn at Glasgow wa From Clasgow we had, a special spent a day in the Trossachs and the

> Loch Lubnair, Loch Voll, Loch

she asked to be relieved in order to of his name. And did not Burns ning romantic and literary associations. give her father necessary care and at of the twa brigs of Ayr—the suid twig The places we passed through en route were but of the city at the time. -Georgetown's tax rate is 42.8 miles have the sympathy of the community. The fame of the poet has preserved interesting to us. Palsidy, where the and harmonious design. It dates from Veritable fairyland. And Scotland has Avenue and perhaps give it a coating at Carluke, Scotland. In 1856 she marspeaking the town, clean and well-ad. M. Barrie, Keats, Robert Louis Stepof gravel. ministered, may claim not to have fall- henson, Annie S. Swan and many

> Peaks to the clouds that soar, By the sunshine sweetly kissed, bought the old Anderson Hotel pru- of suspicion that here Tam foregather- which we had as a party such inti- Austin Swackhammer were at Orangeperty and built the Dominion Hotel, ed with Souter Johnie, his ancient, mate acquaintance from and after the ville on Tuesday attending the funeral days in June when we first experienc- of Mrs. Thomas Denny. ed their possibilities in Brussels, Bel-They had been fou for weeks togither" gium. The drive was a delightful one. It was pleasing to us to note that Beautiful glimpses of Highland scenery the statue of Burns which stands in were revealed at every turn. The hill-Ayr town represents him in his man- sides were clothed with an abundant Magistrate Barr fined two Nelson liness, for manliness was really a char- growth of heather, then in full bloom, young men, Clifford Emmons and acteristic of the poet. In this figure, Leaving Callendar we passed Leny Fenz Cameron Warner each $10 and costs with his face turned towards Alloway, and then Ben Ledt towered before us, for recklossly driving their car on the and kind attention. 'Mr. Agnew pre- his birthplace, and the Doon, the scene To the left the rivers Leith and Leny town line between Nelson and Nassadeceased his wife by some sixteen of his boyhood's romances, is to be trailed their silver loups through the gaweys, and $1.00 for disorderly condaughters there survive; Mrs. George one who as was said of his country-marks the site of an ancient chapel The funeral of Mrs. David Currie at one who as was said of his country-marks the site of an ancient chapel The funeral of Mrs. David Currie at one who as was said of his country-marks the site of an ancient chapel Campbellville last week was largely to send by post prepaid or deliver to George and Joseph, Acton. Mrs. Thos. of man. In his brief song, "Bonnie Buchanan. To the right we caught a attended. H. Harding, James, Thomas and two Doon." Burns made it the oftenest sung glimpse of Leny House, the Buchanan wheat and the residue of their hay of Knox Church and appreciated wery a-banc, through the suburbs of Ayr Bo-chastle, near which was once n School examinations.

> Of yore, her eagle wings unfuried." Proceeding on our delightful trip we passed "Samson's Putting Stone" and then Dunmore, an ancient Highland fort. But the chief interest of this when he was composing this great the Canadian Pacific coast.... Burns he "rhymed as he rode."

The lake wiept deep and still.

esquely situated on a headland, is In- evening, rick Mead, the muster place of Roder-Bris o' Turk and then reached Loch passed at the entrance to the Tros- and Mrs. James McKechnle.

At the head of Loch Katring well around again asturual after his recent intellect one of the world's greatest her pier. One of the islands at the vice. extremity of the lake served as a hidand during the life-time of Rob Roy.

Lyons have passed their final examin- with refreshments within call. The story is told that an English a runaway accident, was removed to ations at the Toronto Normal School, commercializing of the visits of those tourist once remarked when he reach a Toronto heapital last week. ations at the Toronte Normal School, commercializing of the poet is really what makes, post and get my daughter to play it on the byterian church, itiliaburg, has resumplane when I reach home." From Stronachlacher we drove over the mountain, six miles, in four-horse coaches to inversnald, at the head of mare, "Yankee Todd," to Mr. E./Rowe, a nine-roomed one and a half story The Auld Brig o' Doon crosses a Loch Lomond. This was a novel and Cookstown, for a handsome figure. . frame house with woodshed attached, > loch was delightful, . The bonnie, bon- broken. Highlanders of this part of Bootland | months at Vancouver. came into splendid view. The little turned to Glaugow by rail.

that within the company of a summer tors in her character, and innuences be no service in that within the company of first, her talented authors, poets and day, owing to the peator's places, with the little town of Mauch- warriors; and second, the rugged, pic luncheon at the invitation of the dir- In the evening, accompanied by some "From scenes like these old Scotia's grandeur flows, That makes her loved at home, rovered abroad; rinces and lords are but the breath of kings. An' honout man's the noblest work

> Two fine buildings on Bowman Street, in Glasgow, presented quite w familiar appearance, especially, when the signs are noticed-Canadian Pacific Railway and Ontario Emigration Department. Mr. J. P. Jaffray, formerly Collingwood Hulletin, and I made a very pleasant call at both offices during our stay in the city. Since returning home I have learned that Miss Bertha Brown, teacher, of Acton, arrived in Glasgow en route to

These and other place names have London, during our visit, and called at our hotel to see us. Unfortunately we When we boarded the Montlaurier to the wharf to serenade the Canadian Scotland's national music of a high

Town and Country

mother, Mrs. Martin, and other friends Col. Stephen Marshall, of New York, and Mrs Marshall were guests during many friends, here were slad to see some twenty-four years. Generally slops by the score, Milton, Sir James them in the old home again. They returned to New York on Monday.

day afternoon. Rev. and Mrs. Macdonald, of Owen Sound, have been guests during the week of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Smith, Mrs. John Denny, Mr. and Mrs A

Jean Sayers, of S. seat, among the trees at the mouth of saways, pupil of Miss N. I. Mahon, was or before the sixth day of September, From this statue as our starting Leny Glen. After passing the voltage successful in passing in Botany, Geo- 1924, their Christian and surmames, adplace it was but a short way by char- of Kilmahog we came to the site of graphy and History of her Lower dresses and descriptions, and full par-Campbellville's Civic Holiday last Saty "Where Rome, the empress of the world urday the results were: Acton -11, Mansawood. 9; Campbellville 4, Rockwood 2; Campbellville 10, Acton 5. CREWSONS CORNERS

There are $163 barrels of flour Dr. and Mrs. Gillies; and family, of was sealous for the proper grounding And patches bright of bracken green company, numbering twenty-eight rensed in making los cream comes in Suskateon, visited with Mr. and Mrs. of his family in all hecessary know- And heather black that waved so high; paired to the pariors where the evening social intercourse. At midnight - the Beyond is Colli-a-Chroin, "the wood party motored to their homes, all feel> suchs; then we reached the shores of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McLean, of Acton. Who has beeniepending week or so of his grave stands a stone erected by water supply from this remarkle short the old home forks on the Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKeewn and Robbie, upon which are carved the of water, sixty miles or more from the Mr. E. J. Moore, of Torontol occupied lines in which he enshrined his mem- city. The waterworks were opened by the pulpit of the Methodist Church on a splendid luncheon, the menu being Miss Martha Smith was the viotan real homelike and unusually appetist of a mainful accident one day last week, while playing softball, when tho a fine apring greek in the rear of the nie banks of Loch Lomond were indeed Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mundell, left last rugged beauty. From Balloch we re- Aylmer. The services here and at Con-Scotland will long be remembered and Service Department of the Methodist Further particulary and conditions will for all time give a reglity and a church. Mr. Moore gave a stirring ad- of sale may be obtained from He was fined $1.00 and coute 'A charge made famous by the life and writings ature and poetry. Scotland will ever proving why the Ontario Temperance particulars of reduced farest egainet. Office Train for any lignor of Robbis Burns, but we learned there be renowned for two remarkable fact. Act should be maintained. There will

For limited number of men, while

A Dance

THURSDAY, AUGUST 21 Excellent music will be supplied by McMillan's Novelty Four, of Galt. DANCING FROM 8.3 UNTIL

to send. GET YOUR THOROUGH TRAINING AT Guelph Business College FALL TERM FROM AUGUST 25 INDIVIDUAL INSTRUCTION

LIMEHOUSE

CHURCHILL

. Owing to the funeral of the late Miss Elizabeth Brownlee, which was conpointments. ducted by Rov. Mr. Howard, there was no service at the church here on Sun-

NARBAGAWEYA

lovely valley was its romance. Scott's Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wansbrough, Acton. "Lady of the Lake" took place in it. have arrived safely home after their Bir Walter Scott took this same drive month's trip to the Western States and we made our visit there, to discern the poem. We could imagine him driving Last Thursday evening was the ocdown the gien from Callendar and casion of a very pleasant family composing his famous lines. Like gathering at Mount Pleasant farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Moore. Possing by the side of Loch Ven- His sisters, with their husbands and nacher, we were reminded of Scott's his brother, John and his wife accompdescription of the scenery in the 5th anied by their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Abo Young and Mr. Fred Cleur, of

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirk and fami-cently suffered quite severe injury in od his duties after a two months' va-

The sail down Loch Lomond to Bat- little finger of her left hand was farm and there is also a small grebard bennie and the sail on the toch on a week on a trip through western Canada the purchase money is to be paid to bright, sunny, afternoon; impressive on which they will visit their some sale, sufficient to make up one-ther; because of its scenery and its associa- Bert, at Lemberg, Sask., Fred, at Wil- thereof in 10 days thereafter, and the Gone When nearing Balloch Ben kie, Bask, and Jim, at Vancouver, B.C. balance may remain on mortgage on Demond, the mountain so dear to the They intend spending the winter the premises at $ per cent, or be paid Rev. J. A. Evans, left last week for These terms may be varied to sell's rivulats cascading down its sides were a two weeks' vacation which he will satisfactory purchaser and full posseslike silver threads and intensified its spend with friends at Tillsonburg and sion (subject to the right of removal Aylmer. The services here and at Con- thereoff will be given to the purchaser ingsby on Bunday, were conducted by on completion of the sale. The Dro-These data spent amid the scenes of Mr. E. J. Moore, of Toronto, represent - perty will be sold subject to a ress historic and liferary prominence of ative of the Evangelism and Boolal bid.

50 CENTS PER HOUR learning to operate and repair autos and tractors, battery work, oxyacetylene welding, tire vulcanizing. taxl and truck driving. Special terms now on. If you want big pay

HEMPHILL'S EMPLOYMENT BERVICE 163 King Street, West . Toronto

Acton Town Hall

Assembly Room

Every Graduate Located Two calls last week that we could not fill-had no one ready

> Register Now . A. L. BOUCK, Principal and Proprietor

Marcelling, Curling and Shingle Bob.

I will be in Acton each Thurs-day and will be prepared to do the above work.

Hours 9 a, m. to 9 p. m.

THURSDAY Miss L. V. Mason, at W. P. Mooney's will arrange for ab-

G. HODGINS Next Door to J. C. Hill-Mill St.

Executor's Notice

IN THE ESTATE OF ROBERT AGNEW, DECEASED

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the statutes in that behalf, that all persons having claims against or entitled to share in the estate of Robert Agnew, late of the Village of Acton; accounts or interests, and the nature of the security if any, held by them. Immediately after the sixth day of estate will be distributed to the parties. entitled thereto, having regard only to the cisims or interests of which the executor shall then have notice, and all others shall be excluded from said GEO. R. AGNEW. For the Executor Dated at Acton this 19th day August, 1924. .

Voters' Lists, 1924 MUNICIPALITY OF THE

TOWNSHIP OF NASSAGAWEYA

Notice is hereby given that I have transmitted or delivered to the persons of lamentation." On the left, pictur- ing that they had spent a very happy | mentioned in Sec. 12 of the Ontario delivered of the list made pursuant to said Act, of all persons appearing by for members of the Legislative Assembly and at Municipal Elections; and that the said list was first posted uptin my office in Nassagaways on the 9th day of August, 1924, and remains

> And I hereby call upon all voters to take immediate proceedings to have any errors or omissions corrected according to law. Dated this 9th day of August, 1924. JOHN MARSHALL

Clerk of said Municipality.

MORTGAGE SALE

Under the powers of sale contained in a certain mortgage made by Samuel and Albert Bharpe to the mortgagee, which will be produced at the sule, there will be sold by public auction by Robert J. Kerr: auctioneer. On the Premises in Nassagawaya on TUESDAY, AUGUST 26 at I o'clock p, m. the following de The north-east half of lot No. 21 In the fourth concession of the Township of Nassagaweys, containing by ad-On the above farm there are erected state of guittyation and the remaining

There is a good wall in the front and of apple and pear trees.
TERMS OF SALE-Ten per cent in cash at the purchaser's option.

Remnant Sale

Friday & Saturday, Aug. 22 & 23

Are Remnant Days at this store. Ends of Cotton, Prints, Ginghams, Flannelettes; Shirtings, Table Damask, Towelings. Voiles, Embroideries, Lace; etc. Every remnant in the store will be marked in plain figures and at a very low price. Call and look them over.

On Sale--25 Pairs of Marquisette Curtains Extra good value at $4.00 pair. Remnant Sale-Price, pair $2.95

White Flannelette

Now is the time to buy your White Flannelette. 250 yards of White Flannelette, wide width, mill ends, as good as we are. selling regular at 35c. In ends of 3, 5 and 10 yards. Remnant Sale Price 25% less.

On Sale-Large Size White Bedspreads

Regular $3.25 for -Regular $3.50 for ..... Regular $4.50 for ...... $3.75 Regular $7.50 for ...... $6.50

MILL STREET

McLean & Co.

"Saturday Treat"

Ask for a box of "Martha Jane" real tasty fresh homemade candies. We have them in 1/2 tb, 1 tb, and 2 tb packages. Take one with you, you will like them.

COCOANUT KISSES, 29e fb

This is one of our famous leaders, a rich cream fondant, strawberry and vanilla flavor with just enough ribbon cocoanut in it to make it tasty. Regular 35c and 40c tb. Saturday Treat

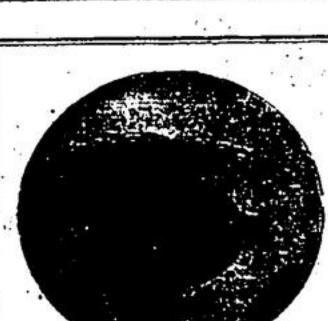

· WEEK-END CHOCOLATES, 32c. 1b

Ordinarily chocolates that are no better in quality than our week-end chocolates sell for 50c and 60c .tb. We offer you our chocolates direct from the factory in a large assortment of hard and soft centres and assorted flavors at 32c. Ib.

CHOCOLATE BARS 6 FOR 25c. A limited supply of these assorted 5c fruit and nut bars to go at 6 for 25c. Don't fail to get your quarter's worth.

ICE CREAM "Neilson's" Ice Cream in brick and bulk always in stock. For dessert insist on "Neilson's Cherry Custard," a treat for

V. RUMLEY

Dr. J. Cadesky OF TORONTO EYESIGHT SPECIALIST

ACTON, ONTARIO

Owing to a vacation, Dr. Cadsky will not be at A. T. Brown's Brug Store next Monday, August

If there is one particular time of year that meats, require extra good attention it is the summer-time. We have the facilities in our shop for caring for all meats properly, and every piece of meat we serve you is right. Our large refrigerator at the abbattoir, and our excellent cold storage plant at the shop are a guarantee of meats served right all summer.

During the summer months many people do not want to cook meats and have hot dinners. We always carry an excellent stock of the finest of cold, cooked meats, ready to serve. COOKED HAM , JELLIED MEATS COLD ROAST PORK BOLOGNA

JELLIED TONGUE

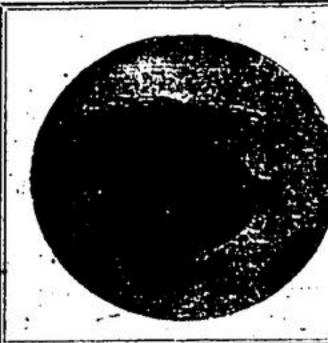

Cold Meats

Watch Our Windows Friday and Saturday for Specials

W. J. PATTERSON-

Free Press Job Printing is always Neatly Done

PHONE 65

all the family.

25, as advertised last week.

Summer Meats